City Beautiful Contest Under Way

The Salem Garden club has for some time been promoting a "City Beautiful" contest and will continue with the contest on through the summer. With the fall time the contest will close and it is hoped that it will have accomplished the many things so ably set out in a recent discussion by Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Sr., in which she said, "I regard the City Beautiful contest as one of the most commendable campaigns ever undertaken in this city."

"The City Beautiful contest will encourage people throughout this city to improve and beautify their home grounds and once they have done this, men, women and children will begin to enjoy the out of doors, to spend more of their time there, to live more of the day in the open air and sunshine.

"We know the value of the out of doors but this mere knowledge is not enough. We must be attracted by its beauty rather than be repelled by its barrenness. Nature itself is always attractive but in cities nature must have our assistance and co-operation or she can not manifest her beauties.

"It is to supply this more natural environment, as I see it, that we should beautify the yards about our homes by planting trees, shrubs and flowers. And for growing children such an environment is a necessity."
