Formal Dance Is Castillian Hall Event

GENERAL and Mrs. George A. White entertained at one of the most charming formal dance affairs of the season Saturday night when they honored their daughter, Dorothy, with a 9 o'clock dance at Castillian hall. The affair was in compliment to Miss White on her graduation from high school.

Receiving with General and Mrs. White were Governor and Mrs. Isaac L. Patterson. Miss Edith Bragg and Miss Henrietta White assisted during the evening.

Among the host of young people numbering to about 250, who were guests at the affair were several out-of-town groups of the younger set from Portland, Corvallis, Eugene, and Albany.

A profusion of spring flowers in great baskets made of the hall a veritable garden. An attractive arrangement of the loveliest blossoms centered the serving table which was beautifully appointed with colored crystal.

A six-piece orchestra furnished the music for dancing. After the intermission in which was featured some more special acts, everyone was provided with balloons, paper hats and confetti and the dance went on even merrier than before.

Graduate in music from Sacred Heart Academy

Miss Norma Maier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Maier, who played her graduation recital at St. Joseph's academy during music week. In June Miss Maier receives her diploma from the Sacred Heart Academy from which she has taken the greater part of her musical education. Her recital work showed an excellent understanding of the long program which she played without hesitation. The masterful rapidity with which she managed the difficult "Polonaise," Chopin, was splendid, and she went directly from that to the soft "Romance," Sibelius, with equally an adept interpretation.

The program in full is as follows:
Polonaise Chopin
Puck Grieg
Romance Sibelius
Sonata Tragic MacDowell
Prelude C Sharp Minor Rachmaninoff
Etude Arensky
Country Gardens Percy Grainger
Hungarian Rhapsody No. 12 Liszt
Miss Maier although an accomplished musician has her aim set in the art of composition rather than concert work. She plans to continue with post graduate work next year at the Sacred Heart academy.

"and don't let them give you anything but Butter Nut"

SHE has been busy today—a tea or bridge or something—and so he is to bring home a thing or two which she remembers now she forgot to order. Bread is one of them—and naturally she wants the best.

Just because bread is an everyday food—an every meal food, we might say—does not mean that it should not be bought with discrimination. On the contrary, because we eat so much bread it might well be argued that the selection of bread is a matter of proportionately greater importance.

Everywhere among discriminating women you will observe how they are particular to get our Butter-Nut bread, or its companion loaf—the long loaf—Snowflake.

And they are right. It is not just a matter of using the best ingredients, Butter-Nut and Snowflake are made in a fine plant where sanitation and science insure perfect cleanliness, perfect mixing and baking to a nicety.

There is no better bread than Butter-Nut
