

MRS. TAYLOR IS NICELY FETED

7th Anniversary Observed at Mehama; Surprise Party Given

Mehama, May 20—Three miles east of Mehama on the banks of the Santiam is the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Taylor. Sunday, May 19, 1929, was Mrs. Taylor's 7th birthday and was the occasion for a happy surprise party for "Grandma," as so many affectionately call her.

Mr. Taylor is the owner of the well known Taylor's grove, a beautiful camp ground on the Santiam. Mrs. Taylor's hobby is her flowers which she grows in great profusion from early spring until frost. Her home was beautiful for the day with her lovely tulips, blue bells and other flowers. Dahlias are her special pride and she raises them to perfection. A delicious, bountiful dinner was served.

Those present were her children, Elva Taylor and his wife from Silverton, Edwin Taylor and wife of Lyons, and Mrs. Jack Patton and husband of Macleay. Her grandchildren, Mrs. Remo Moser of Portland and her little daughter, Geraldine, Edwin Taylor and his wife, from Kelso, Washington, Mrs. Vala Gerstel and her husband of Portland, Vern Patton, his wife and sons, Ernest and Jackie of Macleay, Harry Patton, his wife and children, Shirley and Russell of Portland, Mrs. Taylor's brother, Oliver.

PLAY AT GERVAIS GREATLY ENJOYED

GERVAIS, May 20.—The comedy entitled "At the End of the Rainbow" which was given at the Gervais city hall on Friday evening, was well received. The Gervais Christian Endeavor society sponsored the comedy and shared the proceeds on a 50-50 basis after all necessary expenses were paid. The cast of players were from the Jason Lee Methodist church in Salem. Some of whom belong to the National Dramatic Fraternity of Willamette University, Theta Alpha Phi and of the Snikpoh Dramatic society of the Salem high school; all are experienced in play producing.

The coach, Miss Marcia Fuestman, has studied under Miss Mary McKee, who is a graduate of Wesleyan Conservatory in Missouri, and there received her master's degree in dramatics. At present the coach is studying under Mrs. Otto K. Paulus at Willamette university. The cast was as follows: Inup, a freshman, Margaret Eddy; Phyllis Lane, a football enthusiast, Bessie Graham; Emily Elliott, with a conscience, Violet Beecher; Polly Price, sorority girl, Sarah Dark; Ted Whitney, football captain, Joe Pol; Marion Preston, a ward of R. Preston, Evelyn Cummings; Robert Paulson, a lawyer, Raymond Miller; Dick Preston, a groom, Wm. Heesman; Nellie Preston, a bride, Ruth Bauer; Jane, a maid with a taste for literature, Marjorie Moser; Elsie Ernest, a sorority girl, Gwendolyn Zuehlard; Kathleen Knox, chairman of Rushing committee, Bernice Rickman; Marjorie Arnold, a sorority girl, Barbara Barham; Mola Bruce, pledge to Theta Phi; Ruth Smith; Jack Austin, Preston's secretary, Donald Douris; Stanley Palmer, as "Hawkins the Butler"; Donald Watson, Louise Ross known as Miss Grayson, Leah Fanning; Douglas Brown, a football player, Bill Lewis; and Mrs. Brown, stepmother to D. Brown, Dorothy Whipple.

50th Anniversary Of Couple To Be Celebrated Soon

INDEPENDENCE, May 20.—Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Ranton and family went to Rickreall Friday evening to visit Rev. and Mrs. Harold Fogg and children. Mr. and Mrs. John Dickinson will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary Tuesday, May 28. Mr. and Mrs. M. Ingermanson are visiting their son Willard and family in Oregon City. Whit Kelley spent the weekend in Salem with his daughter, Mrs. E. G. Roberts. Mrs. M. D. Colter, who lives west of Independence, has gone to Tillamook to spend a week with her daughter, Mrs. Bertie Savory.

Solicitors Seek Salem's Money For New Ad Idea

Solicitors for a new advertising scheme are reported to be visiting Salem business men. Their plan is to prepare maps of Salem with advertising on the border. The business men have been warned to ask these solicitors to show evidence that their plan has the approval of the Business Men's league, before buying space on the maps. Local persons are planning to issue similar maps without advertising.

Clever Dope Smuggling

Betty Godfrey shows the innocent looking fountain pen which really is a tear gas gun used by narcotic agents in their war on dope peddlers

Nelson Resigns Pastorate Of Christian Church for Jefferson; Supply Coming

JEFFERSON, May 20.—Rev. Nelson has resigned as pastor of the Christian church in Jefferson and the pulpit will be supplied by Rev. Charles E. Gross of Monmouth next Sunday. Mrs. Jasper Main is assisting with the house work at the Henry Powell home, during the illness of Mrs. Powell. Mrs. Spragg was visiting friends in Corvallis over the week end. Her daughter Jeanie, a trained nurse of Portland, joined her there, and together they attended some of the festivities at O. S. C. Mrs. Farrington Visits Mrs. Grady Farrington left for Portland Saturday to visit her mother Mrs. Mason and also to get her two children, who have been in the care of their grand mother during Mrs. Farrington's illness.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the M. E. church, met at the home of Mrs. Earl Lynes Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Mamie Fontaine, leader. The topic for the afternoon's study was "Three Fold Stewardship." Following the study of the lesson, a social hour was enjoyed and later in the afternoon refreshments were served by the hostesses to the following—Mrs. Earl Phelps, Mrs. George Mason, Mrs. Joe Fontaine, Mrs. Roscoe Thomas, Mrs. L. N. Bennett, Mrs. Guy Roland, Mrs. Blanche Libby, Mrs. Edward Terry, and Miss Adelle Libby.

Leaves For Southern Oregon Cecil Libby left by stage for southern Oregon, Friday evening, where he is employed by the state highway department, in road construction work.

Mrs. Fred Barna, Mr. and Mrs. Grady Farrington, Anna Klampe and Mrs. E. E. Rives were Albany business on Thursday. Plunk day was started Thursday by the seniors of the Jefferson high school. All the members of the class were dressed as juveniles, each having an all day suck-out. Miss Bolderson, the class adviser, chaperoned the party. The class went to school, but did not remain very long, when they motored to Stephens park, near Marion where they enjoyed a picnic and wienie roast. Senior members of the class who enjoyed the gala festivity were:—Virginia McKee, Elizabeth Looney, Jean Smith, Marjorie Fontaine, Lorene Hart, Laura Kihs, Florence Thomas, Gilbert Looney, Gilbert Spragg, Leonard McCaw, Clair Calavan, Charles Hart, Dallas Harris, William Smith, and members of the class adviser, Miss Bolderson.

Only one member of the class being absent. Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Miller motored to Redmond to attend the commencement exercises of the Redmond high school which was an event on May 16. Miss Juanita Weston, grand-daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Miller is the salutatorian of the class of 1929.

North Santiam Party Quite Delighted By Sights Seen on Trip to Detroit Area

NORTH SANTIAM, May 20.—Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Cobb participated in an excursion to Detroit, and as far above that place as a car could be driven, and a picnic dinner, on Mother's Day. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. O. Huddleston, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Huddleston, Leila Huddleston, and Garland Huddleston, of Willamina and Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Cobb and Grand-children Clifton and Maxine of North Santiam. The trip to Detroit has proven that one need not travel far to enjoy the wonders of creation; for the beautiful winding roads built in seemingly impossible places, ranged on either side of towering snow clad mountains, deep gorges and swiftly flowing rivers, giant trees, flowering shrubs, ferns, give a diversity of scenery which can not be surpassed. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Keithley and son, Willis, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Keithley and baby, Mary Louise, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Keithley, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Mills, and Eugene Ewell spent Mother's Day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Angel.

Scotts Mills Man Quite Badly Hurt By Cable in Mill

SCOTT'S MILLS, May 20.—Jesse Kellogg was seriously hurt Friday at the Butte Creek mill. He was pulling logs in from the pond, and was watching the cable. Not realizing the logs were getting so close, he was caught between the logs and both his legs were broken. He was rushed to the Silverton hospital, where he was resting easy at last reports. Ellis Nickelson, who was hurt in a saw mill ten days ago, is getting along nicely, but still confined in a Silverton hospital.

Mrs. Cutsforth Is Back From Trip To Cisco, Calif.

GERVAIS, May 20.—Mrs. Dale Cutsforth and small son, Jackie, returned the first of the week from a month's visit with Mr. Cutsforth who is working for the Southern Pacific company at Cisco, Calif. Mrs. Sophia Borgiet, who has been a guest of her father Franz Nibler, returned to her home in Hillsboro, Thursday. Other recent guests at the Nibler home were Mrs. Marie Schmidt and daughter of Eugene, Mrs. Schmidt is a daughter of Mr. Nibler. Miss Arletha McDougall of Portland, and Rose McDougall of Hermiston, accompanied by Miss Lela Gibson of The Dalles, and Robert Wyman of Portland, spent Mother's day with their parents Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McDougall of Gervais. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Moisan of Patton, Calif., Mrs. Mary Moisan, Mr. Charles Moisan, and daughter Evelyn Moisan of Brooks and Mrs. Terella DeJardin of Salem were recent dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Moisan.

Two great dailies The Oregon Statesman and The Portland Telegram

GERVAIS WOMAN IS HOST TO SOCIETY

GERVAIS, May 20.—Mrs. James Brehaut entertained the missionary society at her home on Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. A. B. Minaker as assisting hostess. Mrs. Rose Strawbridge led the devotional and the president, Mrs. Scott Jones the lesson study, the foreign subject being "Mexico" and the national "The Spaniard in the United States." At the social hour, the hostesses, Mrs. Brehaut and Mrs. Minaker served delicious refreshments.

Guests Are Numerous. Guests of the afternoon were: Mrs. Thomas Cummings and Mrs. Wesley Jones of Newberg, Mrs. Cummings and Mrs. Boyes are daughters of the Rev. and Mrs. T. Bronflette, and their father was pastor of the Gervais church about 35 years ago. Mrs. Charles H. Burleigh of West Salem, an ordained minister, was also a visitor, and gave a very interesting talk. Other guests were: Mrs. T. V. Adon, Mrs. H. Harms, Mrs. U. S. Armstrong, and Mrs. Rose Strawbridge. Members present were: Mrs. A. R. Seigmund, Mrs. G. J. Moisan, Mrs. C. A. Sawyer, Mrs. Jennie Booster, Mrs. Scott Jones, Mrs. S. S. Parker, Mrs. Tom Dittmar, Mrs. G. T. Wade-worth, Mrs. Nick, Mrs. H. L. Graffius, Mrs. E. S. Meschall, Mrs. Ida Schwab, Mrs. William Alsip, Mrs. Herman Jelder, Mrs. Sumner Stevens, Mrs. Dale Cutsforth, Mrs. Charles Moore, Mrs. Charles Vogt, Mrs. John Dowd, Mrs. Sylvester Manning, Mrs. J. S. Harper, and the hostesses, Mrs. A. B. Minaker and Mrs. James Brehaut. The next meeting will be held at the church June 19 and will be an all-day affair.

WOODBURN JUNIORS BANQUET SENIORS

WOODBURN, May 20.—The juniors entertained the seniors of Woodburn high at an annual theatre party and reception May 17 in the Woodburn high school auditorium. The Pacific university players presented the three-act farce "What Anne Brought Home," after which the juniors and their guests adjourned to the upper hall for music and refreshments. The halls were decorated beautifully with lattice work, and fir trees entwined with greenery, and blue and white flowers. A Spanish scheme was carried out in the program and setting. Radio music, Spanish songs, and Spanish dances were included in the program.

Funeral Services For Mrs. Powell Are Held May 16

VALSETZ, May 20.—Funeral services for Mrs. N. E. Powell, age 78 years were held at 2 p. m. May 16 in Lewisville. She leaves two sons, Clarence and Cleve Powell and three daughters, Mrs. Alpha Kritzer of Valseltz, Mrs. Grace Brown of Pelee and Mrs. Baldwin of Tenino, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. Ryan drove to Monmouth and brought their daughter, Vera and Ethel Elliott to spend the week-end. Curley Bullis spent last weekend with his mother in Independence.

Mrs. Ike Weaver of Camp 1 was taken to a Salem hospital where she underwent an operation for appendicitis last Tuesday. A former Valseltz family, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lidstrom now of Bend, Ore., visited with old friends a few days this week. The swimming hole near Camp 1 was so inviting the other day that Mrs. Dinary, her daughter Elaine and Bernice Kellogg, went in and enjoyed a real cold swim. Vernon and Emerson Murphy with their families drove to Dallas and spent Mother's Day with their mother, Mrs. Joe Murphy, returning Monday p. m.

Visit From Independence Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ross of Independence are visiting at the homes of their daughter and son, Mrs. W. Ray—Guy Ross. While at work the other day Mr. Brink was taken ill. He is resting well at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Archie Brown. Pete Stoltenberg has returned from the City where he had gone to take his first degree in the Masonic order.

OAKDALE HAPPY OAKDALE, May 20.—The people of Oakdale school, district No. 90, wish to express their appreciation to Joseph Albert of Salem, for the beautiful flag presented to the school Saturday, May 18, at the picnic. The teacher, Miss Audrey Baier, and the children gave a splendid program. A big dinner with ice cream and a marshmallow roast was very much enjoyed.

Musical was also given by Mrs. Spoor, Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor and Marion Taylor.

NUSBAUM HONORED O. S. C. May 19.—Charles Joseph Nusbaum, son of Joe Nusbaum of Salem, is expected to be a candidate for graduation from the college in June. His major is botany. Nusbaum is a member of the Alpha Delta Sigma honorary fraternity in advertising, a member of the Sigma Gamma society, and a corporal in the R. O. T. C. He has had two years of practical experience in the office of forest pathology.

Two great dailies The Oregon Statesman and The Portland Telegram for only 60 cents per month Phone 500.

12 GIRLS, 17 BOYS TO FINISH SCHOOL

INDEPENDENCE, May 20.—Twelve girls and 17 boys will graduate from the Independence high school at the commencement exercises which are to be held Friday, June 7. The speakers on that occasion will be Professor N. H. Comish of O. S. C. Sunday, June 2, the baccalaureate service will be held in one of the churches of the city.

Wednesday evening will be class night and Friday the commencement exercises.

Laurene Kemp Having the highest average of the senior class has been made valedictorian. Next highest, Helen Byers will give the salutation. Members of the graduating class are: Robert Stiff, Richard Stapleton, Mary Monzingo, Donald Barnum, La Vaughn Bigelow, Blanche Baker, Virginia Burch, Winston Purvine, William Kelley, Sadie Cockle, Eva Bullis, Laurene Kemp, Francis Newton, Harold Sparks, Fred Harp, Helen Byers, Galea Kurte, Lyle Webb, Ethel Hennagin, Richard Pepworth, Claire Prather, William Irvine, Donald Young, Eldon Jory, Dale Wood, Norman Baker, Alice Palmer, Otis Braxling, and Emma Krockner.

WACONDA CITIZENS REMOVE TO DALLAS

WACONDA, May 20.—Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Ruggles, and small son, who have been employed on the Paul Jones ranch, the past four years have moved to Dallas to make their home. W. R. Palmer of Linton spent the past week end with relatives. Claud Palmer of Portland was a recent guest of his parents.

School closed here Friday, and a community picnic was held on the Waconda school grounds Wednesday. A basket dinner was served at noon and in the afternoon games, contests, and other sports were enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Charley Russell and son of Tillamook have been recent guests of relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. Russell plan moving back to this section to make their home.

Miss Marvel Wargner and Miss Agnes Wargner went to Newport last Sunday and spent the day.

Read the Classified Ads.

Strike Grievances to Senate

Binnie Green, 14, (left) and Henry Tetherow, 17, undernourished mill hands, carried their grievances into the senate, telling tales of 60 hours per week in the textile mills at Gastonia, N. C., for which Henry earned a princely salary of $7 a week and Binnie about $4.95. As a result the senate is conducting an inquiry into the conditions complained of.

Bridge Party Is Given In Honor Of Mrs. Virgil

DALLAS, May 20.—Mrs. E. B. Hamilton and Mrs. L. V. Woods entertained with a bridge party Thursday evening in honor of Mrs. Edith Virgil who is spending some time here before she leaves for Glendale, Calif., where she will make her home. High score of the evening was made by Mrs. Paul Skeels. Invited guests were Mrs. Ray Scott, Mrs. Harry Viers, Mrs. Simon Grindheim, Mrs. Harold Rich, Mrs. Jack Eakin, Mrs. Maurice Dalton, Mrs. Clint Foster, Miss Jessie Myers of Salem, Mrs. Robert Kreason, Miss Nina Farley, Mrs. Paul Skeels, the guest of honor and the hostesses.

PRATUM NEWS TOLD FOR MANY READERS

PRATUM, May 20.—O. D. Brunkow and family from Portland were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred De Vries Sunday. They attended church here in the evening.

Seven automobile loads of eighth leaguers went to Silver Creek Falls Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Kleen returned from the coast Saturday where they had spent a week visiting with their son and family.

Miss Sarah Bridgman of West Salem attended church and Sunday school here Sunday morning. She was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Kleen.

Visits Miss Emery Miss Mary Ridell from Salem while visiting her friend Miss Evelyn Emery here attended church both morning and evening.

Rev. P. Kliever of Monroe, Washington will preach here Tuesday evening at the Mennonite church.

Miss Betty Simpson from Portland was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Thompson Sunday. She attended church here in the morning.

Back From Los Angeles Mrs. Lee who was a delegate to the W. F. M. S. convention at Los Angeles last fall gave a very interesting report on that meeting here Sunday evening. Mrs. Gordon Black and Mrs. Melvin Johnson told the audience about the Japanese work at Lake Labish.

Herbert Widmer, a missionary from Palestine, was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Stauffer last week. Nearly the entire neighborhood south of Pratum attended the funeral of Charles Spangfield Friday.

Dorothy Palmer Winner In Meet To Make Posters

DALLAS, May 20.—The Junior high school poppy poster contest which was sponsored by Carl B. Fenton unit American Legion auxiliary came to a close Friday when prizes were awarded for the three best posters. Dorothy Palmer won first, Lena Swatzky second, and Marie Hiebert third. Prizes were $2.00, $1.50 and $1.00. Judges appointed by the auxiliary were Mrs. Penn Crum, Mrs. Ivan Warner, and Mrs. Earle Hibbard. Posters are on display in Staffin's window.

...in the air it's NERVE!

...in a cigarette it's TASTE!

Chesterfield

FINE TURKISH and DOMESTIC tobaccos, not only BLENDED but CROSS-BLENDED

MILD and yet THEY SATISFY

TASTE above everything It is true, literally, that in making Chesterfields we put "taste above everything." Tobaccos must be right, their aging thorough, their blending and CROSS-BLENDING accurate—all for better taste. And evidently smokers are putting taste above everything too—for they certainly do stick to Chesterfields.

© 1929, LIGGETT & MERRILL TOBACCO CO.