Tilt Halted By Boytana For P. E. P.

Mike Boytana's big bat broke up a tight ball game in the fifth inning at Olinger field Tuesday night. The P. E. P. company's veteran infielder hoisted a three runger over the Western Paper Converter company's outfielders with the bases loaded, and the game stopped right there.

'A's' Relief Hurler Classy

It's a long, tough grind for most pitchers in the big leagues and Shores' experience with the Athletics is no exception. Here's a big six-foot Connie Mack pitcher who has been serving them up so well in the relief role that it won't be long before he's starting and finishing his own games. With a flock of clever lefties on the staff, Connie Mack started to look for a good right-hander among his rookies. Shores got his chance at Boston when he relieved Earshaw and fanned the next two of three Sox batters to stem the tide. A few days later he repeated the stunt when Grove and Orwell faltered.

His best work was at Cleveland, when the game was resumed after the pop bottles riot. Grove's arm had chilled with the rest and two singles resulted. Shores was called. Sewell singles with a high fly. The bases were full. Shores struck out Falk. Porter singled, scoring a run. Bases still full. With Charlie Jamieson at bat, leading hitter of the league, Shores went to work on him and the best Jamie could do was popfly and retire the side. Shores had saved the A's again.

He's got plenty of speed and control, with a nicely rated change of pace. With Rommel and Ehmke, both wise pitchers, coaching, Cochran and Perkins working out with him, he's coming along at a great rate. "Shores, P." is being seen more often in the lineup.

Villans Will Get Chance To Come Back Thursday Against Salem Senators

The Villans from Montavilla will get their chance for revenge on the Salem Senators in a hurry this time. Beaten by "Frisco" Edwards' crew Sunday in a game which was anybody's up to the eighth inning, the Villans are scheduled to play here again Thursday the game being set for 2:15 o'clock so that fans who witness or take part in the Memorial day parade, will not have to miss the early part of the game. It will be played at Olinger field.

Despite a change in the business arrangements of the club which leaves the players' remuneration entirely a matter of gate receipts, the entire squad will be on hand Thursday, Edwards reports. The manager has, however, released Gribble, third baseman who hasn't been able to get his throwing arm in shape.

Folk. Willamette university star, will be on hand and may play third base, a position he held down acceptably in the latter part of the 1927 season; or Edwards may decide to move Pillette in from right field and station Luke Gill there.

Russell or Cole will pitch Thursday against Montavilla, giving Barham an opportunity to rest up for the trip to Longview.

Portland Ducks Drop Tilt to Seals Without Much Difficulty

PORTLAND, Ore., May 28.—(AP)—The San Francisco Seals had an easy time winning the opener from Portland today, 8 to 4. Jacobs was in trouble in only one inning, the sixth, when four runs were scored off him. It was a center for the Seals curvist the rest of the distance. He struck out nine men.

Seattle, May 28.—(AP)—Two runs in the eleventh inning gave Los Angeles a 5 to 3 victory over Seattle in the opening game of the series today. The Angels took an early lead of three runs but the Indians tied this with two scores in the sixth and one in the eighth. Their trio of runs only served to extend the game two innings. Seattle outlit Los Angeles 10 to 7, but two Indian errors helped give the Angels the game.

LOS ANGELES, May 28.—(AP)—While Nick Dumovich puzzled the Stars with his south paw slants, Oakland batsmen hammered three Hollywood pitchers for a 10 to 3 victory in the series opener here today.

Dumovich had the Stars at his mercy in every inning with the exception of the fourth, when he grew wild and Hollywood tallied two runs without the aid of a hit. However, he held the Stars to five scattered hits, and struck out 11 of the locals.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 28.—(AP)—Although Sacramento batsmen were able to rally for two runs in the ninth inning, San Francisco Missions won here today by a score of 12 to 9, in a coast league game.

Three Sacramento twirlers took turns in attempting to deceive the Mission stickmen, but the inning score reveals their efforts met with mediocre success.

Slade, Camilli, Baldwin and Seversid fattened their batting averages today by home runs.

Delegation From Willamette Will Attend Meeting
The spring meeting of Northwest collegiate conference officials will be held at Walla Walla tonight, on the eve of the conference track meet. Coach "Spec" Keene and Executive Agent Leslie Sparks, will represent Willamette university, in the absence of Dean F. M. Erickson, who was unable to attend on account of the press of university business at this season.

James Preble, in charge of publicity work at Willamette, will attend in connection with a program for increasing the publicity given the conference. A committee was appointed to work out this program, at the winter meeting.

BEARCAT TRACK STARS ON TRIP

Locals Will Participate in Northwest Conference Meet Thursday

Willamette university's track team departed Tuesday night for Walla Walla, where it will compete in the Northwest conference meet Thursday. All of the conference colleges will be represented.

Defeated by Pacific university in a dual meet last week, the Bearcats are not conceding an exceptional chance to win the conference meet, but there are several of the athletes coached by Leslie Sparks who are good enough to win places against the best the conference is likely to produce.

Lloyd, freshman sprinter and broad jumper, has negotiated the 100 yard dash in 10.1, which ought to be good enough for a place if he has any kind of break in this uncertain event. His mark of 22 feet 4 inches in the broad jump is also outstanding.

Hathaway has been a contender in the two mile run for three past seasons, and he is at top form this year. He negotiated the distance in 19 minutes 33 seconds in the Pacific meet, and could have lowered that mark if there had been any competitor within 100 yards of him at the finish.

Carpenter has been Willamette's outstanding weight man, and may place in any of the weight events. In the Pacific meet he took first place in the shot put with a distance of 34 feet 8 inches, and won the javelin throw with a heave of 154 feet 8 inches. He was beaten in the discus, but previously had thrown it 115 feet, six feet farther than the Pacific man who took first place here.

Others who made the trip include Faber, who will run the hurdles; Wells, entry in the 880; Pratt, who will be one member of

Joplin Star

Vindicating his selection as one of the best golfers in this country, Horton Smith, young Joplin, Mo., star blasted his way to victory over the St. Cloud course in the French international tourney. His first two rounds were sensational, both being 66, which gave him a lead over the field, which was too great to be overcome in spite of marvelous scoring.

the relay team, and Dumas, Hathaway's running mate in the two mile race.

M'HUGH READY FOR TOURNEY

California Champion Makes Course in One Above Par Yesterday

By RUSSELL J. NEWLAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
DEL MONTE, Cal., May 28.—(AP)—With a dazzling 73, one above par for the newly rebuilt Pebble Beach course, Johnny McHugh, lanky San Francisco youngster, sounded a warning today to the rest of the field qualifying for the California amateur golf championship that he is prepared to defend his title.

McHugh's fine score not only establishes a record on the course on which the national amateur championship will be played next September, but also landed him in a tie for medal honors with Fay Coleman, Los Angeles lad, who also turned in 153 for the 36 hole qualifying trials. Coleman had 76 today and 77 yesterday. The tie between the pair probably will be played off after the championship finals.

In his round today, McHugh showed a firm all round game. His irons were especially accurate and on the third and fourth holes he laid approaches dead to the pin. On the fourteenth he dropped a seven foot putt. He missed a 20-foot putt on the eighteenth by two inches for a par 72.
