SPEED CLASSIC SLATED TODAY

500 Mile Record Breaking Automobile Race Will Be Started

INDIANAPOLIS, May 29—(AP)—Phil Pardee, of Los Angeles, who qualified the car originally prepared for Ralph De Palma 23rd position, for Thursday's 500 mile race, was definitely put out of the race tonight when he hit the wall on the northwest turn of the track while practicing.

Pardee, slightly injured, was taken to the city hospital. As a result of the accident, all drivers from 24th position on will move up one place, and Bill Lindau, Pittsburgh, driving a Miller special, will take the 33rd position. Lindau qualified his car in 18th position just out of the original starting line.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 29—(AP)—A record smashing 500 mile automobile race at the Indianapolis motor speedway tomorrow will be the prediction of drivers and officials here tonight when the weather bureau said clear skies would prevail through the 17th running of the classic.

Thirty-three daring drivers, satisfied that they had tuned their motors to their greatest speed and endurance, went to bed early tonight to rest their bodies for the morning. They were ready to be rolled to the starting line. The race, following precedent, will begin at 10 o'clock central standard time.

The field is the fastest ever to win places in the contest. Not an entry averaged less than 103 miles an hour for the ten miles qualifying trials with Cliff Woodbury, Chicago, hitting the peak at 129 1/2 miles per hour. There were far more entries than are permitted to participate and it was a case of the survival of the speediest in the qualifying runs.

International Aspect Adds Much Interest
Several things united to make the 17th running of the race more interesting than in other years. The injection of a truly international aspect, for the first time in several years, has added to its importance. France has sent Louis Chiron, European racing champion in 1923, to show America how speed is handled over there. With him will be Jules Merleau, another Frenchman, who will pilot an English car.

One hundred thousand dollars is the purse which dangles just beyond the finish line for the winner and the nine men who follow him through the 500 mile grind. For those who start but fail to finish $10,000 awaits division. In addition the winner of any one of the 200 laps comprising the race will receive $100, regardless of where he finishes.

Big Crowd Expected to be On Hand for Today's Game Against Montavilla Team

Probable Lineups

Salem: Lamb, 2b; Fleischman, 1b; Goleman, c; Clontinger, lf; Pilette, 3b; Ridings, ss; Gill, rf; Edwards, c; Russell, p.
Montavilla: Rogoway, 2b; Zimmerman, 3b; Misener, 1b; F. Harkins, lf; Korhonen, rf; Ezele, ss; Jacobberger, c; Traynor, p.

Kermit Russell, big boy with the deceptive cross fire delivery, is the choice of Manager "Friscio" Edwards to pitch today's game against Montavilla. Edwards announced Wednesday that he had released "King" Cole, who pitched the first two games of the season.

The Senator boss hadn't decided definitely whom he would place on third base in place of Phillette, who was released after last Sunday's game. It may be Houk, who played there for two years ago, or Pilette. If the latter, Luke Gill will play in right field. One factor that may militate in Pilette's favor is that Edwards has been planning to shift him to third when Billy Sullivan returns to take up his accustomed place at first. Fleischman moving to right field.

Edwards isn't sure of playing himself, the attack of lumbago that forced him out of Sunday's game not having subsided perceptibly. If "Friscio" decides to sit on the bench, Ed Cardinal will work behind the bat. Cardinal caught a nice game Sunday considering that it was his first experience in baseball of the class played in the Oregon-Washington league. He made a good showing at bat as well as in the field.

The only problem about this arrangement is that Cardinal doesn't know the Villains likes and dislikes as "Friscio" does. With Barham pitching, that didn't make so much difference, as the veteran tosser had the visitors ticketed just as well as Edwards. Russell has pitched against Montavilla before, but doesn't know the players quite so thoroughly.

In view of the tight game played last Sunday between the same teams, the attendance at the holiday game today is expected to be the heaviest of the season. It has been scheduled for 3:15 p. m., so as not to conflict with the Memorial day program.

Salem's American Legion drum corps, winner of second place in the national contest last year, will be on hand to help "drum up" support for the Senators, and the Salem band also will turn out and add harmony to the occasion.

HELEN WILLS IS TENNIS WINNER

Yankee Girl Advances Into Fourth Bracket in French Net Tournament

PARIS, May 29—(AP)—While the last of her feminine comrades fell by the wayside, Miss Helen Wills today advanced to the fourth round of the French tennis championship in which she is defending her woman's singles title.

Queen Helen had little difficulty in defeating Miss Ruth Tapscott, second ranking player of South Africa, 6-1, 6-3, but another Californian, Mrs. May Sutton Bundy, was eliminated in the second round by Frau Friedleben of Germany, 7-5, 6-1, despite a gallant effort.

For two brief games in the middle of the second set the speedy little player from South Africa appeared to have found a weak spot in the champion's armor. Suddenly shifting to a volleying game after being ragged by Helen's deep and well placed drives, the girl the gallery calls "Billie" won her own service and then broke through her opponent's to draw level in games at 3-3.

But whether the strenuous footwork and overhead smashing sapped too much strength or whether Miss Wills, with her well placed drives, found an antidote for this form of attack, the American began to draw away in the next game which she took on Miss Tapscott's service. The South African's excursions to the net were definitely ended in the short eighth game which the Californian won at love on her service after passing the South African three times for the cleanest of placements.
