

GAME ALL BUT SPOILS PICTURE

Actor Rallies in Face of Disappointment in Play Now at Elsinore

The height of something or other occurred at the Pathe lot on the afternoon of the Army and Stanford football game during the filming of scenes for "Square Shoulders," a Pathe picture attraction featuring Junior Coughlan and Louis Wolheim, now playing at the Elsinore theatre.

Junior and Wolheim were rehearsing a scene of a military-school sequence which called for Wolheim to portray considerable gaiety.

After rehearsing Wolheim in his part several times, Director E. Mason Hopper decided that Louis had reached the desired pinnacle of joy. The cameras were ready, the lights were "flashed" and just as the director prepared to call "camera," and unknown voice loudly informed the set in general that the army had just lost the game.

Wolheim's expression of cheer suddenly underwent a change to the other extreme. The director, however, failed to notice this transformation, or he might have called for another rehearsal. As it was, the cameras started grinding, and Wolheim, the real actor again, portrayed joy to the degree Fanchon & Marco varieties, a clever snappy stage show concludes the program.

The Housewives' Council of Portland has sent a petition to the public service commission urging lower telephone rates in Portland.

The petition was prepared by W. E. Richardson, attorney, and was signed by Mary A. Dean, Mrs. Kate Bonham and Laura Lees, members of the council.

The petition sets out that the existing rates are excessive, and that a reduction is necessary for the best interests of the city and its citizens.

Members of the public service commission said that they would consider the petition within the next few days, when some action will be taken.

THRILLS, LOTS OF THEM, IN PICTURE

Real Breath-Taking Element in Show Which Soon is to be on Boards

Thrills—the real, breath-taking sort that keep you on the edge of your theatre seat—interspersed with hilarious comedy that makes you sink back against the cushion while you wipe tears of laughter from your eyes—suspense that holds the interest taut and induces you to really care what is going to happen next to the characters in the photoplay.

These are the elements, it is universally admitted, that make for success in a screen presentation and it is these that have been cleverly woven together by the masterly direction of Marshall Neilan into the FBO comedy drama, "Taxi 13," attraction coming to the Elsinore theatre for three days, beginning next Tuesday.

With Chester Conklin, leading film comedian of the day, in the featured role of Angus Mactavish, a brow-beaten taxi driver with 11 children and a yearning for a new world path of danger, the high lights of the comedy situations are in capable hands.

557 Diplomas Sent To Eighth Grade Students

Eighth grade diplomas to the number of 557 have already been prepared at the county superintendent's office, Mrs. Mary L. Fulkerson, superintendent, reported Saturday following the first check on the number of students who successfully passed the May state examinations.

This number will be raised some when a few additional reports are secured. A large percentage of the county graduates are expected to attend the annual county eighth grade graduation exercises to be held at the high school auditorium here next Saturday.

DOLORES COSTELLO IN INITIAL COMEDY

In her first comedy role on the screen, Dolores Costello, Warner Bros. beautiful star, is reported to have one of her biggest successes.

The picture, "The Glad Rag Doll," which opens at Bligh's Capitol theatre this Sunday for a run of four days.

In this unusual production Miss Costello portrays a musical comedy actress who falls in love with the scion of a distinguished and somewhat snobbish family. He in turn loves her. But love sometimes grows cold, or better said, it is a woman's prerogative to change her mind.

The beautiful Dolores falls in love with another member of the family who previously snubbed her. As one can readily see, the heart affairs in this case becomes quite complicated.

To clarify the situation, it might be well to visit Bligh's Capitol when the picture opens and see and hear the rest.

Four very wonderful Vitaphone acts and the Fox Movietone news will complete the show.

To Attend Meet Rev. W. Earl Cochran, pastor of the Calvary Baptist church will attend the Northern Baptist convention at Denver, Col., from June 14 to 19.

Two other delegates from the Calvary church are planning to attend the convention.

'DESERT SONG' TO COME TO ELSINORE

"The Desert Song," with its tale of love and banditry in north Africa; its Riffs and Arabs and foreign legionnaires, will be unfolded on the stage of the Elsinore Thursday, June 20.

In a gay fantastical story, people with a little French girl, the governor's ward, who bullies the soldiers, teases her fiance and longs for adventure and thrills with the gallant ruffian, the "Red Shadow," leader of the Rif riders; with French colonists, passionate hours of the harem and dozens of others who might have stepped from the pages of a Percival Christopher Wren novel.

The hero of the operetta is a sort of dual personality; while among the French he poses as a lakadistical half-wit. Among the Riffs he is the "Red Shadow," intrepid soldier, avenger of the desert people's wrongs against the French. It is he who attempts to rescue Margot's love by kidnapping her.
