MRS. REED IS INITIAL WINNER

Present Women's Champion Covers Alderwood Course In Less Than Par

PORTLAND, Ore., June 3.—(AP)—Mrs. Kenneth S. Reed, Waverly Country club, started the defense of her Oregon golf championship title on the Alderwood Country club course today by capturing medalist honors in the qualifying round of the 1929 state tournament.

In winning the qualifying round the defending champion gave the Alderwood par a neat trimming. Her par-beating round of 81 led the field of more than 70 players home and also sliced three strokes off the standard score of the course.

She was four strokes better than Mrs. B. E. Eva, Columbia club, who finished with an 85 to take runner-up honors in the medal round. Mrs. Reed rounded off the first nine in even par of 42.

The men's division of the sixth annual Oregon state golf championship will start today on the Alderwood and Columbia country club courses with a 36-hole qualifying round. There are 106 entered in the men's tournament. The field, which is after the title now held by Don Moe, includes every links notable in the state.

ELKS KEEP LEAD IN COMMERCIAL GROUP

The Elks retained their undefeated record in the Commercial twilight league Monday night by defeating the American legion 4 to 1. The Elks scored one run in the second inning, and three in the third off Schnell's delivery. Imer Russell of the Elks held the legionnaires to one hit and one run, both occurring in the fifth inning. Prior to that, only one legion man had reached first on a base on balls.

She's Tennis Queen

Helen Wills, American queen of tennis, and winner of the national French title in the women's tournament last week, is causing a bit of furor in jolly old England by threatening to appear in tournaments there sans stockings, as she did in Nice. Helen Jacobs, another California tennis star, threatens to follow her distinguished teammate's example.

Helen's first move to freedom was on Paris courts when she appeared in nifty little socks. Now she has gone one step further and has eliminated hose altogether from her court wardrobe. Naturally, that is just one of those things that "one doesn't do," but her British critics had to admit that the custom, though ugly, was so comfortable!

Of course no opposition will be officially registered by the Wimbledon club, although the matter will be formally discussed in the near future. So when Helen and her associates advance upon the staid old courts bare-legged, the best people will simply swallow, grin and bear it!

Grimes Wins Ninth

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 3.—(AP)—Burtleigh Grimes, veteran spitball pitcher, won his ninth straight victory of the season today as the Pittsburgh Pirates defeated Philadelphia 14 to 2. Grimes has not lost a game this year.

FOX, TAYLOR GOING STRONG

Both Fighters Working Out With Flashy Boys as Sparring Mates

If flashy sparring partners have anything to do with it, Ted Fox and Allie Taylor ought to be at their best in Wednesday night's main event at the armory. Both have some exceptional help in training for this bout, and the chief sparring partners of both are also likely to appear on the card.

Allie is bringing along a lad named Harry Sheik, who despite his fastidious sounding moniker, is said to be a mixer. Pat Haley, a southpaw from Independence, is Fox's sparring partner; he and Jack O'Brien will engage in a good old Irish free-for-all.

Fox will stage his final workout at the armory this afternoon at 2 o'clock, and Taylor, arriving in the city this afternoon, will work out in the arena at 8 p. m. Both are reported to be ready and anxious.

This fight means a lot to Fox, for if he wins, Matchmaker Harry Plant has promised him another chance at Benny Pels. The fighters are going to run on through the summer this year. Plant announced Monday, and all of them will feature the real class of main events. If Fox gets by Pels, who won a decision from him a few months ago, his next opponent will be Eddie Thomas.

Another rematch on tonight's card is between Harry Savage of Albany, and Floyd Ambrose of Salem. Savage thinks the decision against him in their last fight wasn't warranted, and he has been given a chance to prove it.

Tickets went on sale at Adolph's cigar store Monday, and there was an instant demand for them. Fans are coming from as far away as Vaisets to see this fight card.

Yanks Blank Chicago Nine With Ease

NEW YORK, June 3.—(AP)—Ed Wells, Yankee southpaw, let the White Sox down with two hits today to give New York a 1 to 0 triumph. A pair of hits in the first off Ted Lyons, who gave but six hits, brought the only run of the game.

SALEM'S JINX STILL ON JOB

Senators Nosed Out Twice by Margin of Just One Counter

ORE-WASH. LEAGUE

Longview	6 1 .856
Mt. Scott	3 2 .600
Kelso	3 3 .500
Montavilla	2 3 .400
Salem	2 4 .333
Albany	1 4 .200

The one-run jinx that has beset the Salem Senators throughout the season so far, got in its work with a vengeance Sunday at Longview, when the Forest Rangers nosed out two victories, 5 to 4 and 6 to 5, putting "Frisco" Edwards' boys back firmly into the second division.

Both games were lost in the last inning. In the first one Longview had obtained a two run lead in the first canto, but the Senators came back and evened the count in the second, then forged ahead in the sixth. Barham had shut out the home club for five innings, but the Forest Rangers tied the score in the seventh. In the ninth, Davis doubled and scored on Hoffard's single for the winning run.

Longview Wins When Ridings Misses Sack

The second game was supposed to go only seven innings, but the Senators tied the score in the seventh on singles by Lamb and Cloninger and a double by Goleman. Longview came back and scored in the eighth, partly because Ridings missed the bag in trying to make an unassisted putout at second base. There were two out at the time, and the winning run was scored on that play.

Jim Fraischman, who has been holding down first base for the Senators, was unable to make the trip to Longview, and Buck Grayson performed in his place. Billy Sullivan will be on the job next Sunday when the Senators go to Kelso, and Grayson will also remain with the club. Denny Heenan, who played third base last season, may also sign a Senator contract.

"King" Cole, who was with the Senators early this season, started the second game for Longview, but was relieved by Covert in the sixth inning after the Senators had tied the score.

Fans who attended the games at Longview came back with reports that the breaks favored the Forest Rangers, as well as some particularly "blind" umpiring.

DEMPSEY AGAIN CHANGES MIND

Former World Champ Says He May Fight if He's Paid Enough Money

LOS ANGELES, June 3.—(AP)—Jack Dempsey indicated today that he would fight again if "the money is there," and the Agua Caliente, Mexico, promoters can dig up an opponent worth while taking on as the start of another "comeback" campaign to regain the heavyweight crown.

Dempsey said he was awaiting a call from Gene Normile, his former business manager, who is seeking to obtain for the Agua Caliente organization the former champion's fighting services. "I will confer with Normile this evening over the suggestion for a bout at Agua Caliente," Dempsey told sports writers.

Dempsey added that he was feeling fine and was "prepared to go back to the ring if the proper inducements are made."

Normile, reached shortly after his arrival from San Diego, Cal., said that he expected to confer with Dempsey tonight.

"There is nothing new at the present time," he added, "but several heads of the Agua Caliente organization are here, or will be here tonight, to talk things over with Dempsey."

Normile revealed that James Coffroth, once the leading boxing promoter in California, and now connected with horse racing activities below the border, was on his way here and would get in touch with Dempsey upon his arrival.

CINCINNATI, June 3.—(AP)—A fat first inning in which the Reds scored six runs enabled Cincinnati to defeat Boston, 12 to 3, here today.

Giants Win Again

CHICAGO, June 3.—(AP)—The Giants pounded three pitchers for 12 hits to defeat the Cubs 8 to 1 today. Carl Hubell gave the Cubs only eight scattered hits.

LA COSTE CAPTURES FRENCH NET CROWN

PARIS, June 3.—(AP)—Rene La Coste once more is at the top of the world's tennis heap. Defeating his countryman, Jean Borotra, in a thrilling five set match today by scores of 6-3, 2-6, 6-0, 2-6, 8-6, the impassive and steady Rene captured the French championship for the third time since 1925 when the tournament was opened to entries from all countries.

La Coste now had won in 1925, 1927 and 1929 while in 1926 and 1928 the title went to Henri Cochet, third member of the trio's great triumvirate.

On the way to the finals the three musketeers decisively reasserted their supremacy by beating off the combined attack of a big international field headed by Bill Tilden, the only foreign player to get as far as the semi-finals.
