

RICKREALL NOW AT END OF YEAR

All Day Picnic Enjoyed by Students; Fine Lunch
Served at Noon

RICKREALL, June 4.—The Rickreall Training school opera "Midsummer Eve" will be given Tuesday night in the high school auditorium. There will be no admission charge and everyone is welcome to come.

The high school students enjoyed an all day picnic at Woodland Park Friday. The day was spent in swimming, canoeing, boating and games and a bountiful lunch was served at noon.

Commencement Thursday.—The high school commencement exercises will be held Thursday night, June 6, in the high school auditorium. Judge George Rossman of the supreme court of Oregon will give the commencement address. The five seniors are: Dorothy Morrow, Lenore Meade, Catherine Pewtherer, Ruby Richter, and Ralph Walt.

Mrs. Mary Burch, who has spent the winter in Portland, has returned to Rickreall and will be occupying her home here in a few days.

Senior Banquet Ready.—The senior banquet was held Wednesday night at the Blackbird Inn. The class colors, orchid and silver, were carried out in the decorations. Maris Capps, president of the junior class acted as toastmaster and talks were given by Ralph Dempsey, freshman, Henry Morrow, sophomore, Carmon Crippen, junior and Catherine Pewtherer, senior. Prof. F. M. Mitchell, who gave a talk on "Reflections" called on each of the graduates present for a few words.

Mark Capps Elected.—Student body elections for next year were held at a recent meeting. Officers elected were: Mark Capps, president; Edna Middleton, vice president; Henry Morrow, treasurer; Katherine Price, librarian; Donald Pence, editor; Robert Hamilton, athletic manager.

PICNICS ENJOYED AS SCHOOLS CLOSE

HUBBARD, Ore., June 4.—(Special)—The Hubbard schools celebrated the closing day, Friday, with several enjoyable picnics.

The first grade pupils with their teacher, Mrs. Lorena Duncan, held their picnic at the school grounds. The second, third and fourth grades with their teachers Mrs. Maud Dick and Miss Berly Blosser, spent the day at Ingalls Woods while Mrs. Lottie Fry, fifth and sixth grade teacher with her pupils went to Moomaw's grove where a happy day was spent.

The seventh and eighth grades spent the day at Spon's Landing. They were accompanied by Prof. Arthur Myers, R. C. Painter, Janitor, and many parents.

The high school students, the faculty and several parents spent the day at Oswego Lake.

Active Part Taken by Salem Students in Campus Affairs; Miss Kimmel Has Busy Year

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, June 4.—One of the most outstanding students on the campus this past year was Phyllis Van Kimmel. This was Miss Van Kimmel's second year at the University of Oregon during which she was very active in student affairs. She was a member of Kwama, sophomore honor organization for women on the sophomore informal dance committee, edited the Junior week-end bulletin, served her class as secretary, and was a member of the Emerald Reporter staff all year. She has already received the appointment of society editor for the Emerald for the coming year. She is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority and a major in the school of journalism.

Dorothy Baker Active.—Dorothy Baker, senior in the school of journalism, has been an active member of two organizations, Theta Sigma Phi, women's national honorary journalism fraternity, and Mortar Board, senior women's national honorary. She has been a member of the former organization for the past two years, holding the office of president this last year. Miss Baker is a member of Alpha Xi Delta sorority.

Dorothy Bell, sophomore in English and registered from Salem, has been chosen one of the captains of the Big Sister campaign for next year. The Big Sister movement is primarily for the purpose of acquainting freshman girls with the campus and with other women-students. Miss Bell was also assistant in the business office of the Emerald, student body publication.

In "Hobby" Group.—Florence Clutter, through her work in Philomela, an organization comprised of ten hobby groups, sponsored by Phi Theta Upsilon, upperclass service honorary, was elected to membership in the latter group.

Edward Fisher of Salem is well-known in musical circles of the campus. He has been a member of the symphony choir all year, is a member of Phi Mu Alpha, and has sung in any number of programs during the year, including the Mother's Day banquet. Fisher is a sophomore in political science and a member of Sigma Nu fraternity.

Maxine Glover, also a sophomore on the campus had one of the leading parts in the Junior Varsity and in this capacity was in several of the Varsity broadcasts over KORE. Miss Glover is an accomplished pianist and made use of her talent as part of her role in the Varsity.

Fred Johnson and Ronello Lewis were recently elected to Phi Kappa Psi, national professional commerce fraternity. Lewis is also interested in student athletics, having made the varsity swimming team. Both are completing their sophomore year on the campus. Lewis is a member of Psi Kappa fraternity.

Boys Active Athletics.—Other Salem men who have been prominent in athletics during 1928 and 1929 are Reynold MacDonald, Harold Olinger, Edward Sigmund, and John Creech. All are second-year men and in their various fields should make a good showing before finishing their college career. MacDonald and Olinger were high point men in baseball, Sigmund recently placed fourth in the low hurdles in the Pacific Northwest Interscholastic meet held in Eugene. Creech, a varsity swimmer and a varsity water polo player is also active in class affairs, his principal field this year being the sophomore informal. MacDonald is a member of Sigma Nu fraternity, Olinger and Sigmund, Beta Theta Pi, and Creech, Sigma Nu.

Lester Oehler, law student, has served during the past year as an officer of Phi Delta Phi, national legal honorary fraternity, being treasurer of the organization.

Avery Thompson, junior in economics, was a member of the varsity debate squad and has also been active in the formation of the International club for the promotion of international relationships.

Constance Weinman, senior in music, is graduating from the University June 10th. She has been active as an advisor of the music hobby group of Philomela, and is one of three students registered from Salem to complete their university course at this time. The others are Lois Vida Hockett, senior in biology and Dorothy Baker, senior in journalism.

Airplanes are being used to guard the Arabian frontiers.

FATHER'S ILLNESS CALLS WOMAN HOME

Fill to Bridge Near Spring Valley Permits Road to be Opened

SPRING VALLEY, June 4.—Mrs. S. Donnel Crawford received a message from Portland Saturday telling of another serious illness being suffered by her father, J. C. Zinser. Mrs. Crawford and her daughter Gladys left by motor for Portland immediately after receiving the word.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Hoyer and their four sons, Lennie, Virgil, Oliver and Glenn of Middle Grove were Sunday afternoon visitors at the Oscar Hoven home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred McKinley entertained Sunday with a family dinner. Those present being Mrs. M. J. Wilkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wilkinson and family of Brush College, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Dikinson of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Wallace and Wayne Wilkinson of West Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn McKinley and Ben McKinley of Silverton, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred McKinley and family.

Work has begun on the new fill to the bridge which was recently built across the creek on the road through the former Oak Knoll farm. This work will be a great improvement to this road which was taken over as a county road last year. Several farmers who are especially interested are donating time and labor. Contracts have been let for the fills and bridge on the new cut off of the Wallace Road through the Aaron Lenstrom farm where it will join the Dayton-Wheatland Road.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Stevenson and daughters Ruth and Shirley of Salem Heights spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Alderman.

Mrs. Mary E. Jennings returned to her home here Sunday evening after having spent the winter months with her daughter Miss Evangeline Jennings at Laramie, Wyoming. Mrs. Jennings also visited with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Jennings in California before returning here.

Memorial Day Is Nicely Observed

AMITY, June 4.—The Memorial day program was given Thursday morning at 10 o'clock in the Amity high school auditorium, under the auspices of the G. A. R. The program was as follows: Song, "America," by audience. Prayer, Rev. H. H. Allen. Readings by Helen Massey, Wenden Lundruff, Lillian Patrick, Gladys Richter, Eleanor Massey and Ella Biggs, and Billie Yarns. Address, "Peace," by Howard Gildes of McMinnville. A talk was given by W. R. Stephens, who is a Civil War veteran.
