Mrs. R. R. Hewitt Hostess for Two Affairs

Mrs. R. R. Hewitt entertained with two affairs Thursday complementing her husband Dean R. R. Hewitt, who will leave soon for the Orient, where he will tour this summer in company with his son Ronald.

Thursday morning Mrs. Hewitt was hostess for a 7 o'clock breakfast. Serving was done at small tables centered with rose buds in bud vases.

Guests for this breakfast are members of the Y's Mens club of which Dean Hewitt is a member. The guest list included the honor guest, Dean Hewitt, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Rickli, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Hillman, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Panek, Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Sackett, Dr. and Mrs. Edward Russell, Dr. and Mrs. Carl Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Miles, Mr. and Mrs. Tinkham Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Duncan, Arthur Smithers, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Suing and Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Sherrill.

At the close of breakfast Mrs. Sheldon Sackett sang a group of songs accompanied by Mrs. Fred Duncan. Mrs. Hewitt played several piano selections and Dean Hewitt spoke briefly.

The second affair for Thursday was a charmingly appointed dinner for which members of the Willamette university law school and a few additional folk were guests. Roses and columbine centered the table where places were marked for honor guest, Dean R. R. Hewitt, and Attorney General and Mrs. I. H. Van Kinkle, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Inman, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Mrs. E. R. Hill, and Mrs. Hewitt.

W. C. T. U. Enjoys Membership Meeting

The membership meeting of the W. C. T. U. last Tuesday was a decided success with about 16 in attendance. The devotions were led by Mrs. L. W. Biddle, who talked on the subject "Promises." Mrs. Charles Maxwell and Mrs. Charles Fessenden gave two vocal numbers with Mrs. Fessenden at the piano.

The speaker of the afternoon, Miss Mattie Beatty, was introduced by Mrs. Mary V. Charlton, director of christian citizenship. Miss Beatty spoke concerning some recently made laws, both state and national and gave a very comprehensive and instructive address. The Misses Phelps favored with a solo entitled "Mother," with piano and violin ensemble and graciously responded to encore with "Friend of Mine." A much appreciated reading entitled, "Am I My Brothers Keeper," was given by Miss Caroline Fisher.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with spring flowers. The decoration committee was Mrs. O. A. Condit, Rachel Reeder, and Mrs. Sara Oliver. The tea committee was Mrs. Lena Waters, Gertrude Remington, and Margaret Fessenden, assisted by Rachel Reeder, Emma Prescott, Laura Clutter, and Mrs. M. K. Gear.

Art's League Will Honor Vincent Tonight

Mrs. C. P. Bishop will open her home to the Salem Art's league tonight for its farewell gathering for the season which will be in the nature of a reception given by the out-going officers for Andrew Vincent and the in-coming officers of the Art's league for this next year.

Andrew Vincent, Salem's own artist, has been associated with the University of Oregon for the past few months in the school of art. Tonight he will display several of his own canvases and will speak briefly on some of them.

Mrs. Clifton Mudd will greet the guests at the door and the officers of last year will assist about the rooms. Those assisting will be F. G. Franklin, Miss Misspah Blair, Mrs. Ethel Lau, and Mrs. J. H. Hathaway.

The honor guests will include Andrew Vincent, Mrs. Richard Cartwright, president of the Art's league, Otto Paulus, first vice-president; Mrs. Clifton Mudd, second vice-president; Mrs. C. I. Lewis, secretary; S. H. Van Trump, treasurer; Mrs. Blanche Jones, financial secretary, and Miss Ruth Braut, art director. Governor and Mrs. I. L. Patterson and Mayor and Mrs. T. A. Liversley are among the invited guests.

Younger Set Has Last School Party

Miss Katherine Goulet entertained at her home Wednesday evening for 100 folk of the high school set and out-of-town college guests from Oregon State college, University of Oregon. This was the last of the school parties for the year, and proved to be quite one of the gayest. Dancing on the big porches screened for the occasion, and card playing in guest rooms made festive with honeysuckle, pink roses and columbine occupied the evening hours.

At midnight Mrs. Romeo Goulet assisted by Mrs. George Ramp, Mrs. Howard Ramp, and Mrs. E. Terwilliger served a buffet supper.

Mrs. Homer Goulet Visiting in South

Mrs. Homer Goulet, who has been attending the D. A. R. convention in Washington and visiting in the east is on her way home by the southern route.

She has been the guest of Mr. and Ms. Charles Robertson, Jr., in San Diego; and from there she visited in Los Angeles where she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Hamburger, and Mrs. Mark Lewis. Mrs. Goulet is now in San Francisco where she is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Kierski. She is expected to arrive in Salem this weekend.

Lake Oswego Has Marriage of Interest

A wedding of interest to many Salem people was solemnized Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. K. E. MacLinnan at Lake Oswego, when Miss Pansy Fay Willard, a former Salem girl, daughter of Mrs. S. C. Willard, 496 S. Cottage street, was united in marriage to John Henry Erlenbaugh of Portland.

After a short trip to Canadian points, Mr. and Mrs. Erlenbaugh will be at home to their many friends at their country home at Lake Oswego.

Residence Studio Recital Tonight

Miss Elma Weller will present a group of her younger students in Dunning demonstration and piano at her residence studio tonight at 8 o'clock. Parents and friends are invited to attend. Will Ellis, reader, will assist.

On account of weather conditions the West Side circle Ladies Aid of the Jason Lee Methodist will meet with Mrs. A. J. Vick instead of at the Fairgrounds for a picnic as had been planned. There will be a pot luck dinner at noon. An election of officers and a business meeting will be held at 2 o'clock.
