

GREAT THROG SEES SENIORS

1400 Persons Fill Elsinore Theatre For Colorful Graduation Event

(Continued from Page 1.) machine shop student. Two $50 scholarships given by the Oregon denominational colleges went to Edith May Jenkins and Dorothy Payne. Wesley Heise was awarded a $100 scholarship to Oregon State college, the largest fund ever given here for this purpose and an award which came as a complete surprise. Claudia Buntin was named alternate for the state college award, made on the basis of service, scholarship and character.

Class Members Take Part in Program

Three members of the class participated in the program each winning marked applause. They were Louigne Brietzke, who made first honors in scholarship; Vern Wilson, choice of the faculty; and Marvin Byers, selected by his classmates. Miss Brietzke spoke of the advance made in the school and particularly of the strides made under Mr. Nelson's regime.

Wilson contributed a violin solo, for which he was encored; and Byers addressed himself largely to the parents, pleading for them to understand that life is a game, with the high school period but the sandlot in the great ball game of life, where is developed the ability to play the game.

Principal J. C. Nelson, introduced by Superintendent George W. Hug who also presented the diplomas, addressed himself chiefly to the members of his last class, looking backward and forward in his "Retrospect and Prospect" but mainly implanting kindly wisdom of the human administrator to his subjects.

Salem's Youth Held Key to Future Pointing briefly the growth the school has made during his 15 years as principal, Mr. Nelson, who recently resigned that post, reminded his listeners that there is no future for Salem except in the young people who are added yearly to its citizenry.

"I have always looked on the high school students as human beings, good or bad, like the rest of us and not as problems to be handled as such," the principal said, adding that one of the great difficulties of administration lies in the mass handling of students. The school is the young people themselves, not the machinery of education.

The war brought about a change in pupil-professor relationship, going away to a large extent with the ideas that the school existed mainly to transmit wisdom of the past. Now, a school is a laboratory, where it is not wise to assume superior wisdom for adults but where to the pupils may contribute something to the future. The school has been autocratic, and autocracy is no preparation for democracy, he said. Carrying out the same idea, he asserted there is no true growth or self-maturity where there is no sympathy.

Students upon graduation are concerned with how the world will receive them. In school two experiences should have contributed to give the girl or boy confidence in the big world, these being, first, self-activity, and second mutual assistance. Students who have learned the lessons of each of these in school need have no fear of society, Mr. Nelson observed. He cautioned his class to be not afraid of life, and asked the parents to accept the class before him into the new life.

OREGON DAIRYMEN FORM GROUP HERE

(Continued from Page 1.) afternoon session was Governor Baldrige of Idaho, who told how that state, under the urge of necessity, developed a dairy industry.

MIKADO Have Your Scribbles Analyzed

Louise Rice, world famous graphologist, can positively read your talents, virtues and faults in the drawings, words and what notes that you scribble when "not in thought". Send your "scribbles" or signature for analysis. Backlog the picture of the Mikado pen, each for 25 cents. Address Louise Rice, care of Eagle Pencil Co., New York City.

DON'T Waste Your JUNK

We will be glad to go to your place and pay the full value. We want SACKS Bags, Paper, Metal, Etc. Salem Junk Co. 220 N. Commercial St. Phone 4228 Saffron & Elise

West Salem News

Mrs. W. B. Baker of the Edgewater apartments entertained at a bridge party on Thursday afternoon. Two tables were at play with Mrs. C. R. Ellis receiving high score prize and Mrs. Elmore Hill consolation. Light refreshments were served by the hostess. Those present were Mrs. A. F. Homer, Mrs. Elmore Hill, Mrs. Walter Taft, Mrs. Wm. Hill, Mrs. E. Thompson, Mrs. C. R. Ellis, Mrs. L. D. Howell, and Miss Vada Hill.

The epidemic of mumps which has been raging in town for the past month, is on the wane with Mr. Homer Barber being the last case reported. Keith and Nola Lee who have been ill for over two weeks at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Douglas of Edgewater street, are so far recovered as to be able to return home by Sunday.

Mrs. C. C. Allor of McMinnville, came on Thursday for a visit with her sister, Mrs. I. W. Thomas of Edgewater street.

The Frisbee box factory of this city are starting on a big order of boxes for Hunt's cannery which financial crisis through the carnage to recover from the financial crisis through dairying was started. He attributed its success to five things:

1. A survey was made by men from Wisconsin who knew the dairy business thoroughly.

2. A program of raising dairy cattle was furthered through the organization of "bull associations."

3. Cow testing associations enabled the owners to learn what their cows were doing.

4. A successful marketing program was adopted, through establishment of cooperative creameries.

5. Educational work is still being carried on steadily.

Production in Idaho Increases Rapidly This year Idaho will produce 22 million pounds of butterfat, as compared to four million in 1920, Governor Baldrige said. He was introduced by Governor Patterson of Oregon.

Earlier in the day, J. L. Kraft, head of a large cheese manufacturing firm with headquarters at Chicago, addressed the meeting. Marshall Dana of the Oregon Journal was another speaker.

J. D. Mickle, state dairy and food commissioner, was temporary chairman, and Paul V. Maris temporary secretary. At the close of the meeting, committee appointments were announced, with the following chairmen:

Economic status, M. M. Boney of Eugene; financing, Will T. Wright of Oregon City; production and management, Claude Buchanan of Corvallis; disease control, C. C. Dickson of Sheff; marketing, A. E. Engbreten of Astoria.

Residents of the Salem district were named on committees as follows: Eugene Courtney of Woodburn, Don MacKenzie of Salem and L. H. McBees of Dallas, dairy financing; Sidney Miller of Woodburn, production and management; W. O. Morrow of Rickreall, disease control.

8TH GRADE TO HOLD EXERCISES IN CITY

(Continued from Page 1.) school here will give the graduation address. Following is the complete program: Graduates March—Selected.....Lois Plummer America.....Audience Led by Lena Belle Tartar Invocation, Rev. W. Earl Cochran Pastor, Calvary Baptist church Salem

Vocal solo—Poor Man's Garden.....Russell Lucile Cummings Violin solo—Song Without Words.....Tschalkowski Cleo Seely

Vocal solo—At Dawning.....Cadman Lena Belle Tartar Address to the Class.....R. W. Tavener

Let-- Kennell-Ellis Make Your Cuts, Engravings or Half Tones

SEE US ABOUT REDUCED PRICES We Can Save You Money KENNEL-ELLIS Artist Photographers 129 Oregon Building Telephone 951

OREGON TO ASK FOR REHEARING

Attorney General to Go East for Conference With Other Officials

Oregon will intervene in the application for rehearing of the case of McCallum vs. the state of Massachusetts, involving the constitutionality of the excise tax law of that state. This was announced at the offices of the attorney general here Friday.

A conference of state officials interested in the proposed rehearing will be held in Boston late next week. Attorney General Van Winkle of Oregon will be among those in attendance. It was said that the states of California and Washington also would be represented.

The Massachusetts supreme court, in a recent opinion, held that federal tax exempt securities were not assessable under the excise tax law. Oregon officials said the opinion of the court if not reversed, would reduce the revenue of this state approximately $100,000 annually.

Bankers of Oregon now hold federal tax exempt securities with a value of more than $50,000,000. These securities would not be taxable under the Massachusetts supreme court opinion.

Oregon officials especially are interested in obtaining a rehearing of the case because the excise tax law enacted at the 1929 legislative session is similar to that of the state of Massachusetts. The Oregon excise tax law fixes a five per cent tax on the net earnings of banks and other corporations, with provisions for certain deductions.

ANNUAL EXHIBITION BROUGHT TO CLOSE

(Continued from Page 1.) able mention was given by the judges. Iufer stood first in this and W. C. Dibble second.

Another special exhibit that attracted much attention was the iris from the gardens of Miss Sally Bush. Two special blooms, the William Mohr and Freida Mohr were especially beautiful, and are rare in Salem gardens.

One table held a group of blooms, non-competitive, which was outstanding, for a bowl of sweet peas from the outside garden of J. D. Furlough.

Awards were as follows: Basket or bowl of roses, first, Mrs. H. J. Clements, Hoosier Beauty climber; second, Mrs. J. F. Blair, Imperial Potentate.

Single roses: Mrs. Myron Van Eaton, Madam Erbe Rambler; second, Mrs. H. J. Clements, Shot Silk.

Iris: Mrs. E. M. Hoffnell first prize, Mrs. Hoffnell has 120 named varieties in her iris garden. Columbine: (six or more var.

Free Balloon for kids today At BLIGHT'S CAPITOL

Big Auction Today

Remember that big furniture Auction of Furniture from three Salem homes at Woody's Auction Market on North Summer Street TODAY, 1 P.M.

Auction Sale

A Very Large Household Goods Sale At 670 N. Summer St. TODAY—1 o'clock

As we are leaving for an all summer trip in the northern and eastern states, have decided to dispose of all of our furniture and household goods. Everything will be disposed of, and every article put up will be sold regardless of price to the highest bidder for Cash. 2 inch post-gilt bed, 2 inch post walnut bed, 2 inch post ivory bed, 2 inch post brace bed, 2-4 inch post white bed, 4 all steel springs full size, all steel, all leather day venport, 2 cotton mattresses full size, cherry front room set consisting of settee, chair and rocker, leather settee, upholstered settee, all leather rocker, leather set rocker, 2 imitation leather rockers, 2 sewing rockers, 12 real nice dining chairs, 10 fairly good dining chairs, 4 good round back kitchen chairs, high chair, six ft. round table, kitchen table, drop leaf table (new), 2 library tables, 3 square center tables, real nice oak china case, almost as good as new. Brunswick phonograph with 24 records, No. 11 Remington typewriter in good condition, Singer drop head sewing machine, White rotary drop head buffet style sewing machine, the above are both in as good a condition as new, 2 wash stands, about 250 quarts fruit of all kinds and consisting of pinto, quarts and half gallons, about 200 quarts of empty fruit cans. Lot of other stuff which we know we have forgotten to take down. 2 wash tubs, 2 hose sprinklers, 50 ft. garden hose, ivory dresser, 2 oak dressers, 4 fr. dressers, princess dresser, No. 1000 rug 7 1/2 x 12, 3 congoletum rugs 9 x 12, two of these are as good as new just used a short time the other two are in very good shape. New piece congoletum 6 x 22 ft., new piece congoletum 6 x 10 ft., good Axminster rug 9 x 12, good Axminster rug 7 1/2 x 9, good Axminster rug 27 x 60, fairly good Tapestry-brunsel rug 9 x 12, 2 new rug, electric iron, as good as new, electric washing machine, runs as smooth as new, a good one; new all steel coaster wagon, 2 bikes in fairly good shape, almost new tires; eight day clock, cherry color, this is a real nice one; 2 new Big-Ben alarm clocks, 2 new watches, 2 flower stands, magazine rack, book rack, 2 foot stills, fern stand, bench 4 1/2 ft., two burner perfection oil stove, heating stove, a big lot of fancy and plain glasses and also a lot of A1 granite wear, 2 sets of fancy tea sets, folding kodak with lens case as good as new, been tried out and makes good pictures, 1 copper wash boiler, 2 new copper boilers. As above stated that every article that is put up will be sold, and every article that is not sold will be returned to the seller either during or right after the sale. If you need anything in the furniture or household goods line be sure and do not miss this great sale. Remember the date. Saturday the 8th at 1 o'clock. At 670 N. Summer St. Just 10 blocks south from the Woody's Auction Market. Isaac and Amanda L. Fast, Col. Ben T. Suddell Auctioneers.

2800 MEMBERS OF GUARD GO TO CAMP

About 2800 troopers of the Oregon National Guard will be in training at Camp Clatsop July 12 to 26 inclusive. The movement of troop trains that will carry the guardsmen from various parts of the state to the training camp is shown in detail in general orders issued from the office of Brigadier General George A. White, commander of the Oregon troops.

The seven troop trains will converge at Portland, leaving there July 12 and arriving at Camp Clatsop the same day. Train commanders will be Colonel Hiram J. Welch, Colonel Eugene Moshberger, Lieutenant-Colonel Fred M. West, Major Ralph R. Huron, Major Ralph F. Cowgill, Major Edward B. Hamilton and Major James C. Shirley.

The 24th Coast Artillery will attend encampment at Fort Warden, Wash., July 10 to 24, when spectacular army and navy maneuvers will be held on the Sound.

The headquarters and headquarters detachment of the 41st division will be at Fort Lewis, Wash., July 6 to 20.

CROWDS ATTRACTED BY W. U. GRADUATION

(Continued from Page 1.) A change in the class day program was announced Friday. The "Figureheads," as was previously announced, so far as could be learned, the only item on the program for this afternoon will be the presentation of university awards for participation in spring sports, forensics and for work on the board of trustees.

The alumni will hold their annual business meeting in the university chapel at 4:30, in charge of President Averill. The annual banquet will be held in the university gymnasium, and alumni who have not yet received their diplomas will be invited to attend and communicate with L. J. Sparks, secretary of the alumni association. Members of the class of 1929 should phone Irene Brethaupt for reservations for the class reunion to be held at 2 o'clock at the 5th today. At the meeting in the spring, the matter of publication of the Alumnus magazine is slated for appearance. President Doney has been in charge of the publication for some time, but at a recent meeting of a committee of the board of trustees it was decided to request the alumni to direct the publication.

The final event today will be the president's reception for alumni, senior and guests, trustees, faculty, students and others interested in the university. The reception will be held in the first floor living-rooms of Lausanne hall at 8 o'clock.

EUGENE, Ore., June 7—(AP)—Clarence D. Brown, 72, said to have been the first white child born at Fresno, Cal., died at his home in Cottage Grove, Ore., today where he had resided 31 years.

Wanted!

100,000 lbs. Cas-cara Bark and Oregon Grape Root

We also buy all kinds of junk Metal, Iron, Sacks, Rags, Paper, Etc.

CAPITOL JUNK CO. H. STEINBOCK, Prop. Telephone 398 145 Center St. by the bridge

TALKING FILM WILL EXPOSE CRIMINALS

An expose of the dishonesty rampant beneath the tinsel trappings of a traveling carnival is made in "The Spielet," a picture with a tent show locale, a talking picture produced for Pathe by Ralph Block, which is now playing at Bligh's Capitol theatre.

Renee Adoree, Alan Hale, Clyde Cook and Fred Kohler have featured roles in "The Spielet," which was directed by Ray Garnett. Miss Adoree plays the youthful manager of a tent show, who wages war against grafters among her employees. Hale has the title role. Cook plays a tight wire walker and Kohler the manager of the carnival concessions, who is a crook of the first water.

"The Spielet" is an original story by Hal Conklin, adapted for the screen by the author and Garnett, the director. The dialogue and music are said to be unusually effective.

A movement to aid children's hospitals in Ireland, which are in great need of funds, has been started in Dublin.

Minstrel Show Real Attraction

An old-time minstrel show, as played by a traveling company on the road some years ago, has a prominent part in the Eddie Dowling starring all talkie, "The Rainbow Man," which is now current at the Elsinore theatre.

"Doc" Hardy's Minstrels and later "Ryan and Hardy's Minstrels" in the story of "The Rainbow Man" presents the characters Rainbow Ryan, played by Eddie Dowling and Doc Hardy, played by Sam Hardy. Dowling is the star and Hardy is the old-time manager and introductor of the troupe.

A picturesque setting is used for the presentation of the minstrel show as it plays a small southern town in the story. Opening with a parade, the price of minstrel men in their gay top hats and linen dusters, the minstrel show is put on just as it would have been offered in a town opera house. In the minstrel show sequences of the picture Eddie Dowling accompanied by the orchestra and banging of tambourines, sings several of the catchy songs which are part of the entertainment.

English tea drinkers are rejoicing that the removal of the duty has reduced the price of tea to consumers by about eight cents a pound.

Fairbanks' Voice Heard First Time

When D'Artagnan steps from a huge tapestry and speaks the prologue to "The Iron Mask," the sequel to "The Three Musketeers," at the Bligh's Capitol theatre, next Sunday, the voice of Douglas Fairbanks will be heard, theatrically, for the first time in 14 years.

But when that voice was silenced in 1914, by Fairbanks' entrance into the, then, silent screen drama, it was one of the most expensive as well as effective, speaking voices on the American stage. Managers sharpened their pencils and carefully figured intake against outgo before approaching the popular young actor with a starring contract.

When Doug deserted the foot-lights for the kleigs he was at the height of his stage career with several seasons of Broadway stardom to his credit. His last Broadway appearance was in "The Show Shop" George M. Cohan's comedy of theatrical life.

DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS THE IRON MASK

Starts Tomorrow

Sound Effects From the FOUR MUSKETEERS! "Doug" speaks to you from the screen in a prologue. Vitaphone Acts and News

Minstrel Show Real Attraction

An old-time minstrel show, as played by a traveling company on the road some years ago, has a prominent part in the Eddie Dowling starring all talkie, "The Rainbow Man," which is now current at the Elsinore theatre.

"Doc" Hardy's Minstrels and later "Ryan and Hardy's Minstrels" in the story of "The Rainbow Man" presents the characters Rainbow Ryan, played by Eddie Dowling and Doc Hardy, played by Sam Hardy. Dowling is the star and Hardy is the old-time manager and introductor of the troupe.

A picturesque setting is used for the presentation of the minstrel show as it plays a small southern town in the story. Opening with a parade, the price of minstrel men in their gay top hats and linen dusters, the minstrel show is put on just as it would have been offered in a town opera house. In the minstrel show sequences of the picture Eddie Dowling accompanied by the orchestra and banging of tambourines, sings several of the catchy songs which are part of the entertainment.

English tea drinkers are rejoicing that the removal of the duty has reduced the price of tea to consumers by about eight cents a pound.

Fairbanks' Voice Heard First Time

When D'Artagnan steps from a huge tapestry and speaks the prologue to "The Iron Mask," the sequel to "The Three Musketeers," at the Bligh's Capitol theatre, next Sunday, the voice of Douglas Fairbanks will be heard, theatrically, for the first time in 14 years.

But when that voice was silenced in 1914, by Fairbanks' entrance into the, then, silent screen drama, it was one of the most expensive as well as effective, speaking voices on the American stage. Managers sharpened their pencils and carefully figured intake against outgo before approaching the popular young actor with a starring contract.

When Doug deserted the foot-lights for the kleigs he was at the height of his stage career with several seasons of Broadway stardom to his credit. His last Broadway appearance was in "The Show Shop" George M. Cohan's comedy of theatrical life.

DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS THE IRON MASK

Starts Tomorrow

Sound Effects From the FOUR MUSKETEERS! "Doug" speaks to you from the screen in a prologue. Vitaphone Acts and News

TALKING FILM WILL EXPOSE CRIMINALS

An expose of the dishonesty rampant beneath the tinsel trappings of a traveling carnival is made in "The Spielet," a picture with a tent show locale, a talking picture produced for Pathe by Ralph Block, which is now playing at Bligh's Capitol theatre.

Renee Adoree, Alan Hale, Clyde Cook and Fred Kohler have featured roles in "The Spielet," which was directed by Ray Garnett. Miss Adoree plays the youthful manager of a tent show, who wages war against grafters among her employees. Hale has the title role. Cook plays a tight wire walker and Kohler the manager of the carnival concessions, who is a crook of the first water.

"The Spielet" is an original story by Hal Conklin, adapted for the screen by the author and Garnett, the director. The dialogue and music are said to be unusually effective.

A movement to aid children's hospitals in Ireland, which are in great need of funds, has been started in Dublin.

Minstrel Show Real Attraction

An old-time minstrel show, as played by a traveling company on the road some years ago, has a prominent part in the Eddie Dowling starring all talkie, "The Rainbow Man," which is now current at the Elsinore theatre.

"Doc" Hardy's Minstrels and later "Ryan and Hardy's Minstrels" in the story of "The Rainbow Man" presents the characters Rainbow Ryan, played by Eddie Dowling and Doc Hardy, played by Sam Hardy. Dowling is the star and Hardy is the old-time manager and introductor of the troupe.

A picturesque setting is used for the presentation of the minstrel show as it plays a small southern town in the story. Opening with a parade, the price of minstrel men in their gay top hats and linen dusters, the minstrel show is put on just as it would have been offered in a town opera house. In the minstrel show sequences of the picture Eddie Dowling accompanied by the orchestra and banging of tambourines, sings several of the catchy songs which are part of the entertainment.

English tea drinkers are rejoicing that the removal of the duty has reduced the price of tea to consumers by about eight cents a pound.

Fairbanks' Voice Heard First Time

When D'Artagnan steps from a huge tapestry and speaks the prologue to "The Iron Mask," the sequel to "The Three Musketeers," at the Bligh's Capitol theatre, next Sunday, the voice of Douglas Fairbanks will be heard, theatrically, for the first time in 14 years.

But when that voice was silenced in 1914, by Fairbanks' entrance into the, then, silent screen drama, it was one of the most expensive as well as effective, speaking voices on the American stage. Managers sharpened their pencils and carefully figured intake against outgo before approaching the popular young actor with a starring contract.

When Doug deserted the foot-lights for the kleigs he was at the height of his stage career with several seasons of Broadway stardom to his credit. His last Broadway appearance was in "The Show Shop" George M. Cohan's comedy of theatrical life.

DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS THE IRON MASK

Starts Tomorrow

Sound Effects From the FOUR MUSKETEERS! "Doug" speaks to you from the screen in a prologue. Vitaphone Acts and News

Nothing But the Truth

A Paramount Picture FOLKS! I will be at the EL SINORE SOON

In my first 100% all Talking Comedy Production IT'S GREAT—WATCH FOR IT!

EL SINORE NOW!

A 100 per cent all talking singing and dancing picture.

EDDIE DOWLING THE RAINBOW MAN

SEE AND HEAR Eddie Dowling offer his latest song hits, "Rainbow Man," "Sloopy Valley," "Smile Little Fat" and others! You will see and hear one of the beloved minstrel shows unfold from the screen. The sweetest and tenderest love story ever filmed!

OTHER BIG ATTRACTIONS INCLUDE—FANCHON AND MARCO'S GREATER "VARIETIES" (Sat. and Sun.) A happy and jazzy big stage show PATHE SOUND TALKING NEWS L. Carlos Melor, at the organ. Mystery Rider Serial

MARIAN NIXON FRANKIE DARRO SAM HARDY LLOYD INGRAHAM A SONO-ART PRODUCTION