GUARDSMEN TO START TOWARD TRAINING CAMP

Troops to Begin Movements by Train Early This Week, Announced

Company B of Salem Leaves Wednesday Morning; All Names Are Listed

Oregon National Guard troops throughout the state are packed and ready to entrain the coming week for annual field instruction and maneuver at Camp Clatsop, the Oregon military camp lying midway between Astoria and Seaside on the Pacific.

National Guard headquarters here reports the first departure tomorrow when advance detachments from infantry and field artillery will go to Camp Clatsop to prepare camp. The movement of troops will begin Tuesday when the contingents from Eastern and Southern Oregon will start for Portland. All infantry and field artillery troops will converge on Portland Wednesday morning and proceed in eight special trains to Camp Clatsop.

3000 Men Take Part in Maneuvers

Three thousand National Guardsmen will take part in field instruction this month and next, according to Brigadier General George A. White, commander of the Guard. Of these 2700 will go to Camp Clatsop. Three hundred, comprising the Coast Artillery, will take part in joint maneuvers with the navy at the Puget Sound forts next month.

The troops to go to Camp Clatsop are the 162nd and 186th infantry regiments comprising the 82nd brigade, the first battalion 215th motorized field artillery and Hospital Company 167. Two companies of infantry from Vancouver will also join with the Guardsmen at Camp Clatsop.

Guardsmen Converge From Many Sections

Oregon cities from which Guard companies will move the coming week are: Baker, Union, La Grande, Pendleton, The Dalles, Portland, Gresham, St. Helens, Astoria, Tillamook, Forest Grove, Hillsboro, McMinnville, Salem, Oregon City, Woodburn, Dallas, Lebanon, Medford, Grants, Pais, Roseburg, Corvallis and Silverton. JUDGE'S SON SAID TO HAVE SHOT SELF

Police Investigate Death of Bramwell Linn, Senior at Haverford College

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—(AP)—Haverford township police, who have investigated the death yesterday of Bramwell Linn, son of Judge William B. Linn, of the Pennsylvania superior court, said today that the young man had killed himself.

Young Linn, who was 21, and was to have graduated from Haverford college today, was found dead in his room at the institution with a bullet wound in the head. Nearby stood a .22 calibre rifle, which the police said he had placed so as to send the bullet into the back of his head.

When the name of Bramwell Linn was reached in the list of graduates read at today's commencement at Haverford, the entire class stood up and remained silent for a minute. Later his name was called as the winner of a $4 prize for improvement in scholarship.

Although police authorities say young Linn committed suicide, his father does not subscribe to it. He feels that a thorough investigation should be made.

Police authorities said Linn's death followed a "farewell" party at his home late Thursday night in which a few close college friends participated.

Three Honorary Degrees Authorized by Trustees of Willamette University

Three honorary degrees were approved by the board of trustees of Willamette university at its annual meeting here Saturday, these to be conferred upon C. B. Moores of Portland, M. A. Marcy of Eugene and John B. Horner of Corvallis.

The degree to be conferred upon Mr. Moores will be that of doctor of laws; Mr. Marcy, a Methodist minister, will receive the degree of doctor of divinity, and Professor Horner, authority on Oregon history, was awarded the degree of doctor of literature.

Petitions To Buy Water Plant Are Being Circulated

After months of talk on the subject of water, a movement has at last been launched to bring about a popular vote on the subject of municipal ownership of water service in Salem. Petitions to ask the city council to put this issue to a popular vote were in circulation late last week, and according to authoritative reports they were being signed readily.

There appears to be no definite organization behind the petitions, the movement arising spontaneously out of dissatisfaction with private ownership and particularly with the quality of the water provided here.

HALL-MILLS MURDER IN LIMELIGHT AGAIN

Federal Prisoner Tells Of Overhearing Quarrel Leading to Shots

DETROIT, June 8.—(AP)—The Detroit free press tomorrow will say that the mystery of the murder of the Rev. Edward W. Hall and Mrs. Eleanor Mills in 1922 near New Brunswick, N. J., was reopened here Saturday as a result of the declaration of a federal prisoner here that he overheard the quarrel which led to the shooting of the minister and the choir singer.

The prisoner, Kenneth Gladeau, is in the county jail here, being held for federal authorities. He told the sheriff of Wayne county and a Free Press reporter, that he witnessed the murder from a thicket. Gladeau's story is in the hands of Francis L. Bergen, prosecutor of Somerset county, New Jersey, who is expected to come here soon to question Gladeau.

Gladeau said he received $3000 from one of the murderers to keep silent about the affair. Gladeau was arrested May 2 at Plymouth, Mich., for federal authorities. Remarks he made there to Chief of Police Springer at Plymouth and to Robert E. Moore, identification superintendent at the Wayne county jail, caused them to question him closely. He said that a knife which was found in his room had figured in the Hall-Mills killing.

According to Gladeau's statement which will appear in the Free Press, he was hiking near New Brunswick and had stopped to sleep in a thicket in the woods. He said that a knife which was the property of a man and a woman, who called each other "Edward" and "Eleanor." He said that after the man and the woman had talked for a time, apparently of elopement plans and had discussed the future of some one the woman called "Edith," another woman and two men came on the scene.

WEATHER MAY MAR PORTLAND ROSARIA

PORTLAND, Ore., June 8.—(AP)—Whether or not the fair Lenore, queen-elect of the kingdom of Rosaria, will "wade through waters to the throne" was the chief topic of conversation in Portland today as the annual Rose festival officially opened.

But despite a drizzling rain today's events went off as scheduled with hundreds more visitors arriving in the city to witness next week's program which includes the Merryhans, or parade of nations, floral parade, crowning of Queen Lenore and many other attractions.

Returning Shriners from imperial sessions at Los Angeles will arrive in the city tomorrow and will add color to Portland already decked in riotous burnings and thousands of roses. One thousand voices will be heard at vesper services tomorrow night which will be preceded by numerous band concerts in the civic stadium.

Walker Inquest Put Off Due To Speight Delay

The inquest over the death of two year old Lawrence Walker, killed in an automobile accident near Gervais Thursday, was postponed from Saturday until Monday because of the inability of "Scotty" Speight and Miss Helen Adams, survivors of the crash, to appear for the hearing at the time first set.

A coroner's jury has been drawn, and the members viewed the child's body Friday night. Funeral services were held at Mt. Angel Saturday morning.

COUNTY PUPILS GET DIPLOMAS AT EXERCISES

R. W. Tavenner Gives Address to School Graduates Saturday

Importance of Hard Work Is Stressed to Youngsters; Education Lauded

The best fun in the world is bound up very closely with hard work, and as adults so accomplish in their world, so do pupils in school, R. W. Tavenner told the nearly 250 Marion county eighth grade boys and girls who were presented diplomas at the eighth annual county grade school commencement exercises held Saturday in the high school auditorium. Pupils present represented less than half of the 600 county students who passed their eighth grade work this year. Nine hundred persons attended the exercises.

Mr. Tavenner addressed the students briefly, but to the point and in words and manner that they could readily understand. Calling his talk "The Best Place," he told them they could not work at the mighty tasks of the grown-up world because they were "not old enough, not big enough, and not know enough," and because there was no other place for them, a place had been built for them—high school, of course.

Pointing also to the sociability and benefits to be derived from a high school education, he urged them all to go to that place built for them.

Few Failures Take Place During Year

Mrs. Mary L. Fulkerson, county superintendent, declared before presenting the diplomas that fewer failures had been made this year than ever before.

Eighth grade graduates who were present at the finishing exercises here included: Brush Creek—Karl Blumenschein and Robert Hillman; Fairview—Dorothy DuRette; Stayton—Dair Calavan, Ada Christensen, Ronald Hewitt and Trevor Stowell; Riverside—Louis Powell; Eldridge—Ersie Timm; Hubbard—Jack H. Moomaw, Anna Knight, Evelyn Scott, Besie Rector, Gerald Taylor, Alice Menzies, Helen Paulsen, Henry Lefler and Elvris Rich; Hayesville—Leta Bailey Zella Townner, Rumina Warren, Margaret Sammons, Vivian Fread and LeRoy Fread; Marion—Frank Sherwood, Cecil McLand and Zola Higbee; Geelan—Mary Elizabeth Gearin, Siegfried Harle, John F. Gearin, Hertha Harle and Armin Harle; Silver Falls—Elliene Branche and Beryl Strom; Salem Heights—Hazel Jones, Ethel Jones, Della Nixon, Della Nixon, Dorothy Douglas, Edith Nixon, Ruby Skelton, Donald Webb, Walter Bodyfelt and Rosalie Clemans; Rosedale—Lenore Campbell; Evergreen—Della Kellereals; Riverview—Louis D. Cummings; Bethany—Elsie Jorgenson, Lauran Heujam and Vera Jane Dow; Rock Point—J. T. Hunt, Jr., Mary Shamburger, Samuel Hill and George Willard; Gervais—Frances McDougall and Alexander Essen; Lookey Butte—Henry Hockspeler; Buena Crest—Eva Lander, Wallace Watson, Richard Punzel and Verda Schaffer.

Aurora—William Jeswey, Roberta Crissel, Donald Garrett and Fredette Colvin; Woodburn—Mary Jackson and William Uppendahl; North Santiam—Beryl Palmer.

CHIROPRACTIC PHYSICIANS TO MEET IN CITY

22nd Annual Convention to Be Held in Salem Beginning Wednesday

Gathering Will Continue 4 Days; Sessions Held in C. of C. Rooms

The Oregon Chiropractic association will hold its 22nd annual convention in Salem for four days beginning Wednesday, June 12. It is expected that more than 200 chiropractic physicians will attend. Business sessions will be held in the Salem chamber of commerce auditorium.

Officers of the association are Dr. George A. Simon of Portland president; Dr. F. T. Nots of Portland, vice president; Dr. J. E. Long of Salem, secretary-treasurer; Dr. Hans Peterson of Hubbard, chaplain. Dr. Long is also representative of the local district, No. 3, of the executive board.

Meeting Convened Wednesday Morning

Wednesday at 9:30 a. m. the convention will be called to order and after registration and other routine matters, Mayor T. A. Lively will deliver an address of welcome to which President Simon will respond. The remainder of the morning session will be occupied by reports of officers and delegates.

Wednesday afternoon the resolutions committee will report and addresses will be given as follows: Proctology, Dr. R. A. Phillips; Obstetrics and Chiropractic, Dr. George Kenagy; Legislative Jurisprudence, Hon. B. F. Mulkey.

The first event on Thursday morning's program will be the viewing of a professional motion picture, "Obstetrics and Gynecology," at the Capitol theater. In the afternoon the addresses will be: Outlook for the Future of Chiropractic, Dr. A. Budden; "Chiropractic and Corrective Eye Work," Dr. H. A. Hagen; "Secretary of the State Board," Dr. Miles D. Warren; "Philosophy and Science of Chiropractic," Dr. W. O. Powell.

Addresses Friday morning will be "Legislative Review," Dr. F. G. Leary; "Chiropractic Statemanship," Dr. R. L. Dunn. A clinical forum will be held. A luncheon will be served at the Elks club at noon. The president's address will be the first number of the afternoon program, followed by "Sacro-Iliac Adjustments," Dr. Martha E. Leary; "Plathemia and High Frequency," Dr. J. L. Fisher; "Grape Diet," Dr. P. G. Stepan. The reports of the nominating committees will be read.

Saturday forenoon an address on "Physiotherapy" will be delivered by Dr. McGlennan. Officers will be elected and the place of the 1930 convention will be selected.

PORTLAND OFFICERS SEARCH FOR SLAYER

PORTLAND, Ore., June 8.—(AP)—Before passengers aboard the steamer Admiral Benson, due here tomorrow morning are allowed ashore, 13 Portland detectives will board the vessel to assist Inspector Condafer, Los Angeles detective, search the craft for a possible clue to William Tallman, radio operator, wanted in connection with the murder of Mrs. Virginia Patty in Los Angeles.

Following the vessel as it enters the Willamette river will be the harbor patrol boat with five men aboard. The strict guard over the Admiral Benson was ordered by Captain J. T. Moore, acting police chief, on request of Chief of Detectives Kline, Los Angeles.

The steamer will arrive in Portland between 6 and 7 o'clock tomorrow morning.

When the Admiral Benson entered the Columbia river tonight and docked at Astoria, Ore., a short search was made, but nothing of importance was found.

Tallman is believed to have escaped from the vessel to assist in the San Francisco case. The steamer docked there from Los Angeles. A missing life belt, later found in the Oakland mole, led authorities to believe he leaped overboard. Inspector Condafer remained with the vessel on a slim chance that Tallman was yet aboard.

Mrs. Patty, wife of a Portland, Ore., broker, was found brutally murdered in a Los Angeles apartment house.

JUSTICE TAFT NOW RECOVERING FAST

Former President to Leave Hospital Tomorrow, Is Announcement

WASHINGTON, June 8.—(AP)—Chief Justice Taft, who entered a hospital yesterday, expects to leave on Monday for his summer home at Murray Bay, Canada.

Returning from a short visit at Cincinnati, the chief justice consented, upon the suggestion of his physician, to undergo treatment for a slight ailment so that he might better enjoy a restful summer. It was explained today that he went to the hospital merely because the treatment could be better administered there than at his home.

Mr. Taft's general physical condition was declared to be better than in recent years, owing to his conscientious observance of diet and other treatments prescribed by his physician. The temporary sojourn of the chief justice in the hospital was not permitted today to change plans previously arranged for disposition of business requiring his attention prior to his departure for Canada.

The commission in charge of the erection of a building for the supreme court, of which he is chairman, met at the hospital today and found the chief justice ready to discuss features of its work.

BLISS CARMEN DIES SUDDENLY AT HOME

NEW CANAAN, Conn., June 8.—(AP)—Bliss Carman, 66, internationally known poet who was awarded the gold medal of letters by the Canadian parliament, died suddenly today at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Tunney here, with whom he had lived at intervals during the past five years.

Born in Fredericton, N. B., April 1, 1861, he attended the collegiate institute there from 1873 to 1878 and was graduated from the University of New Brunswick in 1881. He studied a year at home and then went abroad to continue his studies. In 1884 he returned to teach school. He remarked on one occasion that teaching "is the most odious of human occupations."

He was the author of "Songs of Vagabondia" from which he later wrote the Book "Songs of the Vagabond," and "Trees." In recent years he traveled in Canada and in the west, giving readings from his poems before college students.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday morning.

McKillop Faces Trial Again For Ram Possession

In again, out again—McKillop! Just eight days after his home was raided, and five days after he paid a $800 fine for possession of liquor, Archie McKillop was arrested on an identical charge Saturday night.

The police learned that McKillop had 12 pints of alleged moonshine cached in the alley back of the D'Arcy building and they waited for him to come and get it. Then Officers Fisher and Scott nabbed him. He was released on $150 bail.

Indian Lass Shows Best Class Spirit

Myrtle Belle Rinehart, 15-year old 9A student whose home is in Wrangell, Alaska, won the Leslie junior high school spirit contest, it was announced Saturday. The award is a six week's tuition to the summer session at Skyline Trail camp, near Bend and was donated by Miss Carin Degermark, of the school faculty.

Miss Rinehart was chosen to be the individual girl who best exemplifies good school spirit after a ten-week contest and was ranked highest by students in their vote for the candidate. Final decision rested with the teachers, who selected from the 18 highest names on the student choices. Teachers also placed Miss Rinehart at the top of the list. Myrtle is working her way through school and plans to enter the high school here next fall. She is living with Mrs. O. B. Miles at 827 South Commercial. The camp will be held from July 9 to August 20.

REAL PARTY HELD ON G. O. P. BIRTHDAY

RIPON, Wis., June 8.—(AP)—Ripon's feat three quarters of a century ago in giving a name to the republican party was hailed by secretary of War James W. Good today as "a product of inspiration."

No other name, he declared in his address at the Diamond Jubilee celebration, could have summoned so many who stood ready to give support or prejudiced so few who were yet inclined to misgiving.

Secretary Good's address was the main event of a day of ceremonies and meetings, attended by thousands of persons from all sections of the nation.

LEON TROTZKY ASKS TO ENTER ENGLAND

New Labor Government Gets First Real Problem of Administration

LONDON, June 8.—(AP)—The new labor government has been handed its first problem in foreign policy by the request of Leon Trotzky for permission to visit England. It appeared as though the former soviet leader who is now in exile near Constantinople had awaited only the fall of the conservative government of Great Britain and the accession of a government known to favor recognition of Russia.

The former red army chief appealed direct to Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald for authorization to visit England for urgent medical treatment and scientific work. It appeared from a letter handed the British consul at Pera at the same time that the "scientific work" would be oversight of the publication of the auto-biography of Trotzky in English.

No indication was given tonight by the foreign office as to its probable action, if indeed it has already received the communications. If the labor government intends to restore diplomatic and economic relations with the soviet union the ministers may pass over the request of Trotzky until the attitude of Moscow has been learned.

FIGHT FOR LOWER RATES CONTINUES

CHAS. A. BASS, Ore., June 8.—(AP)—The Western Oregon Traffic association will continue its fight to obtain lower freight rates for interior cities of this section of the state. This was the decision reached at a meeting here last night, and the financing of plans to carry the demands of the association to Washington, D. C., was worked out. Representatives of western Oregon cities from Eugene to Klamath Falls attended the meeting.

The association began its fight at Medford several months ago, and will now raise funds to prepare a brief to be presented at Washington. Relief is sought under section four of the interstate commerce commission ruling on port-to-port rates.

The association will raise approximately $3,500 to continue its work. Quotas were assigned cities as follows: Grants Pass, $450; Ashland, $460; Roseburg, $460; Klamath Falls, $700; Medford $750, and Eugene, $770. These quotas include sums already subscribed.

the southern university, and also Kansas City university and McPherson college, Kansas.

His training was obtained at the David Croser music school at Kansas City, the Kansas City Conservatory, and in private study at New York under Phillips and Valeri.

He is an exceptional baritone singer, and has had outstanding success as a chorus director. He is especially a master of the history of music. Reports received from the school where he has been employed describe him as of pleasing personality, excellent character and wide experience. He is 34 years old. His wife is also a vocalist of ability.
