Buren To Practice Here—Dr. Wolcott Buren is soon to practice in Salem, being affiliated with Drs. Morse, Robertson and Power in the Salem bank of commerce building. Dr. Buren is a Salem young man, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Max O. Buren. He is a graduate of the University of Oregon at Eugene and of the medical school in Portland. Dr. and Mrs. Buren will remove here in the near future from Portland where they are now residing.

McCormick Home—Kenneth McCormick, son of Dr. J. D. McCormick of the Kimball School of Theology, arrived in Salem this week after spending the winter in New York City where he had a round of interesting duties. Among his activities were those of playing for a church choir, writing for a musical magazine, clerking in a book store and other activities which brought him into close contact with many phases of New York city life.

Likes Salem—If George C. Goodall has his choice of cities in Oregon they would be Eugene and Salem. Goodall prefers the former because there has been his home for the past 18 years, but from 1906 to 1911 he was in Salem and knows the charm of the capital. Mr. Goodall was a visitor in Salem Thursday on his way to Portland. For a number of years he has been in the insurance business in the Lane county city.

Teachers Take Exams—Teachers and their vexing examination questions held the scene of action in the court room Thursday and took the place where a week ago trials were the order of the day. Examinations were conducted under direction of the county school superintendent, Mrs. Mary Fulkerson and were taken for certificates to teach in Oregon schools.

Answer Filed—An answer was filed Thursday in circuit court in the case of G. H. Prime vs. F. D. Hoag for the sum of $2,000. Considerable litigation is pending in the case over a contract of purchase which Prime maintains entitles him to a refund since the machine did not come up to his expectations.

Lumber Company Suit—Suit to collect $195 and $161, sums alleged to be due for services rendered by the Jones Lumber Co., was filed in circuit court Thursday by Edward Ruet who claims he worked at 50 cents an hour for a time equal to the total amount for which he sues, but for which he has not yet received payment.

Taylor Operated On—Wayne Taylor, son of Dr. and Mrs. Fred C. Taylor, submitted to an operation at the Salem General hospital Thursday morning. He was reported as making good progress last night.

Visits Bakers—Laurence Baker of Kansas City, Missouri, is visiting at the home of his brother, W. G. Baker of this city. The vacation trip is the first opportunity the brothers have had of seeing each other for several years.

MEETING HELD BY SILVERTON

Girls Frolic on Abiqua River; Summer Meetings to be Less Regular

SILVERTON, June 13.—The Happy Hour Girl Reserve troop, accompanied by their leader, Mrs. Lee Alfred, held their June meeting in the form of a picnic on the Abiqua river Wednesday. Swimming and games took their time between the two meals eaten out in the open. Thirteen of the 15 members attended. They were: Mrs. Lee Alfred, Marguerite Shaw, Hilda Pounder, Orna Day, Beadie Hatch, Olive Hatch, Jean Oeder, Valda Davis, Gladys Burch, Audrey Porter, Erma Himmet, Pauline Henjum. It was decided that the troop would hold only monthly meetings during the summer months, in place of the weekly meetings which are held during the school year.

Mrs. Martin Waarwick and sister, Mrs. Cora Potter, of Portland, are leaving the latter part of the month for a five weeks' motor trip through to Montana. During their trip they expect to visit both Yellowstone and Glacier National parks. Mrs. Waarwick is taking her son, Marvin, with her.

Miss Lila Hanson, daughter of Mrs. Martin Waarwick, arrived in Silverton on Saturday to spend a two weeks' vacation with home people here.

Miss Hanson is secretary to the county agent of extension work at Cut Bank, Montana. She is also a sister of Mrs. Lee Haskins of Silverton, who spent the greater part of the week in Portland visiting friends and attending the Rose festival.

The Missionary society of the Christian church met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. L. Stewart on Mill street. Mrs. Young's church had charge of the entertainment, while the group led by Mrs. Wolford furnished and served dainty refreshments.

Torrends Are Hosts—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Torrend were hosts on Wednesday to a 6:30 o'clock dinner party. Guests were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Victor Madsen, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Sater, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Iverson, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gottenburg, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Torrend. Following the dinner, a social evening was enjoyed.

According to a letter received in Silverton this week, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Reede, who were married here early in June, have reached Bowdle, South Dakota, where they will spend some time visiting Mrs. Reede's father, brothers and sisters. Mrs. Reede before her marriage was Miss Elma Nesheim, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Nesheim, of this city.

HIT-RUN DRIVER IS BEING SOUGHT HERE

Salem police and state traffic officers were on the lookout on Thursday night for a big gray roadster, reported to be heading this way with a "hit and run" driver at the wheel. He had kept going after smashing a trailer which was being drawn behind a truck at Canby, according to a report telephoned to the local police.

An Essex sedan with license number 48-805 was stolen in Salem Thursday night. It is owned by A. F. Hartman, route 6.

Welder in Portland—Lynn Welder, proprietor of the Salem Laundry, is spending several days in Portland.

Here From Astoria—Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Roberts of Astoria are here visiting their son, Donald Roberts.

Vernonia Doctor Locates Here—R. I. Hall, M. D., from Vernonia spent Thursday in Salem. Dr. Hall plans to locate in Salem.

Powers To Portland—Dr. and Mrs. F. Kenneth Powers were in Portland Thursday on a business trip.

30 PUPILS ADVANCE 2 GRADES AT TIME—Thirty pupils at the Leslie junior high school earned double promotions the past year, Principal LeMone R. C. LeMone stated to the city superintendent in her annual report. Seventy-nine pupils were dropped during the year, in which the total enrollment was 467. A number of the "drops" were without cause, apparently, and were mostly in instances where pupils became discouraged with school progress.

A half-time librarian is an imperative need for next year, the principal reports. Among her department reports, she says the English classes are doing fair work, which could be bettered outside the classroom if correlated with other subjects.

Boy on Bicycle Hurt When Machine Strikes Him And Continues Without Stop

WEST SALEM, June 13.—An accident occurred about 5:30 o'clock Wednesday evening on Edgewater street at the corner of McNary avenue when a car with an unidentified driver ran into Justin Comstock, an 8 year old boy of Salem, who was delivering papers while riding his bicycle. The Comstock boy was thrown from his bicycle and it was at first thought he had received a broken ankle but later examination proved it to be only badly wrenched. He received other injuries, such as a skinned knee and head bruises but was so fortunate as to escape more serious injury.

Miss Alice Cressy entertained on Wednesday evening at her home on Third street with a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Mamie Hillmon, a bride elect of June. The rooms were prettily decorated in pink roses, white carnations and baskets of ferns. The shower gifts were presented in the form of an old fashioned well which was decorated with a lattice of climbing roses and with rocks and growing plants at its base. The well was filled with lovely gifts for the bride-to-be.

After a short program light refreshments were served by the
