'THE MAN I LOVE' NOW ON AT ELSINORE

Complicated Love Tangle Is Worked Out in Newest Paramount Film

The new current cinema attraction at the Elsinore, in the much talked about Paramount 100 per cent talkie, "The Man I Love."

This production is full of romance, with sparkling bit of comedy, as well as exciting action. It is a story of the complicated love question, in which a young couple go through many of the world's hardships, and finally conquer these set-backs and triumph.

Case is Able One
In this picture is a very able cast, including such well-known screen favorites as Richard Arlen, Mary Brian, Baclanova, Jack Oakie and Harry Green. The latter two performers will be remembered by many theatre-goers for their excellent work in "Close Harmony."

Eddie Cantor, famous musical star, will be seen and heard in his latest all-talkie comedy, "Ziegfeld's Midnight Frolic."

Fanchon and Marco's "Varieties" in which some excellent talent appears will be shown with today's performance only.

L. Carlos Meier, organist, has prepared another one of his unique organ programs.

'DESERT SONG' WILL BE HERE THURSDAY

The announcement that "The Desert Song" will be presented in this city at the Elsinore on June 24, carries with it the interesting information that this sensational operetta played more than a year in California. Lillian Albertson is the producer.

It is said that in "The Desert Song" Siegmund Romberg, whose delightful "Student Prince" and "Blossom Time" scores are cherished by music lovers everywhere, has contributed several numbers which are really the best work of his entire career. From the very first scene in the rocky fastness of the "Red Shadow," with the Riff warriors singing their stirring riddle song, "Ho!" until the final number, the music is enthralling.

There is not space to list all the songs which have become famous as the popularity of "The Desert Song" spread around the world. The unforgettable baritone solo "One Alone" seems to be a prime favorite with all play-goers.

Other numbers which are favorites are the beautiful numbers, "Romance," and "The Sabre Song," which fall to the lot of the talented 18-year old Italian prima donna, Tani. "The Desert Song" is another haunting melody. Then "One Flower in Your Garden," is also another favorite.

There is a well defined plot in this romantic operetta, which has to do with the exploits of the mysterious "Red Shadow," who is the leader of a band of Riffan warriors.

MARY PICKFORD IN 'TALKIE' PICTURE

"Coquette" Is Medium For Famed Actress To Make Debut

Three big photoplay events rolled into one are scheduled for next week's most important film entertainment in this city, and anticipation is at fever heat.

Mary Pickford, so long a silent heroine on the screen, has her premier in the all-dialogue "Coquette" at Elgin's Capitol theatre beginning next Sunday.

In this production "America's Sweetheart" offers a triply radical advance in her art. She speaks her lines. She plays a wretched contemporary flapper role with alluring bobbed hair. She plays an up-to-date Broadway drama in which a great social ordeal vies with the traditional Pickford number, the music is enthralling.

There is not space to list all the songs which have become famous as the popularity of "The Desert Song" spread around the world. The unforgettable baritone solo "One Alone" seems to be a prime favorite with all play-goers.

Other numbers which are favorites are the beautiful numbers, "Romance," and "The Sabre Song," which fall to the lot of the talented 18-year old Italian prima donna, Tani. "The Desert Song" is another haunting melody. Then "One Flower in Your Garden," is also another favorite.
