Jonsmere Wedding Is Beautiful Affair

ONE of the most beautiful weddings of the season was that in which Miss Rosalie Jones became the bride of Jack Porter Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, in the gardens of the Jones country home, Jonsmere.

The altar was a garden setting with the drooping branches of a great fir tree making a natural canopy overhead, and a hedge of roses against which grew tall delicate columbine in pastel shades forming a wall at the back. Ropes of Cecil Brunner roses completed the half circle within which stood the marriage party. Over a hundred guests were arranged under the trees facing this perfect altar and surrounded on every side with garden flowers and flowering shrubs.

Mrs. Gaskon played the wedding march as Miss Jones, in a white crepe chiffon dress with flared skirt of uneven hemline, a long flowing veil with a close fitting cap of lace caught back with pearls, and carrying a shower bouquet, came down the porch steps on the arm of her brother, Creighton Jones. She was followed by Hester Davis in a beige rose lace dress and picture hat, carrying a bouquet of sweet peas. Between the rows of guests she passed to the altar under the trees before which she met Jack Porter, and his best man, William Heath of Medford. Here the Rev. Kantner read the impressive single ring ceremony, and Miss Jones became Mrs. Jack Porter.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony. Tables had been spread under the great trees in the back garden and here the guests were served. The wedding cake, cut by the bride, was made by Miss Mabel Creighton, aunt of the bride, over a recipe which has been in the family for the last 100 years and has been used in the McCully family for all these years on such occasions.

The bride's wedding clothes held several high points of interest. Her hairdo, which was one carried by her grandmother, her mother, Mrs. W. A. Jones, and her aunt, Mrs. W. H. Dancy of Salem. The lace in her cap was real Mexican tenebriff brought by her father the late W. A. Jones, from Mexico. And the only ornament worn, a single strand of pearls had been a present from her grandparents upon their return from Europe.

Mrs. Porter is the daughter of Mrs. W. A. Jones. She is a junior in Oregon State college, and a member of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. Mr. Jones is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Porter of Medford, a junior in Oregon State college, and a member of the Sigma Chi fraternity. He will go into the lumber business with his father in Medford.

The young people left immediately following the ceremony for a trip through California.

Out-of-town guests for this affair were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Deboest, Mr. and Mrs. Roderick Grant, Prof. Richard Gena, Miss Mae Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Carlsson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Sanders, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Porter, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hamilton and Mr. J. G. Sanders, all of Portland.
