Annual Mid-Year CLEARANCE

BEGINNING SATURDAY JUNE 22nd

Mid-Year Clearance is here again! It's house cleaning time at Miller's... It's that time of the year when all odds, leftovers, hurts, and broken lines must go! And to accomplish this in the short time of one week, we resort to the price cutting knife as the quickest way out... Unlike some stores who use the knife silently and style themselves "One price store," Miller's frankly admit their losses on this class of merchandise and advertise to the public the advantages to be had in attending Mid-Year Clearances.

Read the story of the department heads and what they have to say regarding their merchandise to be placed on sale.

Department No. 1

"Indeed, I am ready for Mid-Year Clearance. Silks! silks! of every description. Why, there's Mallinsons prints worth $3.50 yard. Beau Monde silks from $2.25 up and many other odds thrown in for good luck. I really believe it's the best collection I've ever shown at this price, $1.59 yard." And you may add that I also have a table of Mallinsons' Pussy Willow (the real, not imitation) that sells regularly at $4.50 yard for only $2.95 yard. Now isn't that a bargain?"

Department No. 5

"Don't want these advertised! Haven't enough to go around and besides every woman and girl in Salem knows what Knickerbocker bargains are! They're lucky to get anything off on these." "When I bought those in green print Sadie was wild about 'em, said she'd sell 'em in three days and here we've had 'em nearly two months." "Make 'em a dollar, guess they'll sell at that."

Department No. 9

"Funny thing, I just was thinking of coats when you came in." "Wondered how that group of summer coats would go at ten dollars." Make it ten dollars anyway. "You know, the wise and thrifty woman will buy her coat at this clearance if she really has a knack for saving money... look at those bargains there at $14.95-$19.75-$24.75. Sure we'll hold them for the sale."

Department No. 6

"Just got back from Portland, what's it all about? Clearance Sale?" "Oh yes, sure I've some good bargains. "Boss's girl" let me sell table mats an' covers at 69c." Oh sure, there are lotsa other bargains."

Department No. 10

"There they are, right there on that rack, new wash silk crepe dresses this season." We've decided to give them their choice for five dollars, hope it's hot the first day of the sale, don't you? Come back here and I'll give you some more dress bargains. Got your pencil? Just make a note... dress values to $29.50 at $17.00. Yes it's a special group of good values."

Department No. 2

"What! Woollens this time of the year?" "Yes, Mr. Advertising Department, I am afraid you don't understand." Summer woollens of course, and these are the season's very smartest challis and furthermore they will be marked at 85c yard instead of their usual $1.25. It's a hot bargain, but how will it look in cold type? "Oh, yes, I almost forgot to tell you that we'll sell corduroy for their beach and summer robes for 50c yard." Just choose the color that becomes."

Department No. 7

"Come over here and take a look at these gloves and bags and see what you think of our Mid-Year Clearance." "Yes sir these bags at a dollar and Ferrin gloves at $2.95. Guess that'll hold you for a while." "Wish I had more table room."

Department No. 8

"We want to get rid of these now before they go bad. You know laces haven't been selling lately." Shame to put these out at a quarter, cost a dollar'n half. Oh well, just tell 'em big bunch laces choice 25c yard."

Department No. 3

"Just tell 'em we have a little bit of everything in the cotton goods department and let it go at that." "Wait a minute, here's some bedspreads and ruffled curtains the boss said sell at any price. What you say we give 'em away with our best compliments and tell 'em they're guaranteed for life!" "Yes, I think the sale will be a success too. Anyway we'll have everything out on tables soon as Byron gets the cards written."

Department No. 4

"See those girdles over there? I have a good notion to put them out at a dollar, wait'll I see what the boss says." It's all right with him provided I don't cut other things accordingly. "Alright advertise 'em at a dollar." "Wonder of Byron'll give me a window."

MID-YEAR CLEARANCE
Curtain Marquisette

Main floor yards goods sections will stage a complete clearance of 96 inch curtain marquisettes in the blue and pink checks. Regularly they sell for more than double this price. That's why we call it a complete clearance. You'll have to call early for this bargain as the quantity is limited.

Department No. 13

"Say Stan, when's Mid-Year Clearance? June 22nd? Lotsa time yet, got a knockout of a shirt for men." "Traveling man told me a big store sold a thousand dozen in one day." "Let me see is that twelve hundred or twelve thousand... whoopee! Twelve thousand men in shirts... boy we can sell 'em just as cheap. Didja ever wear rayon Stan? It's the slickest thing goin' for summer. Come back after lunch, gotta whole lotta things I want to advertise." Oh, yes, I'll have Byron make a card for these shirts 59c.

Department No. 16

"What'll I do? cut the price on Enna Jetticks? No, sure, lose 'em if we do. Nobody cuts the price on Enna Jetticks... can't get enough as it is." "Tell yuh what I'll do on odds and ends. Put 'em out on tables at a low price and let 'em choose to their hearts content."

Department No. 18

"Can't possibly get you the advertising till tomorrow. Think I'll put those coats out and get rid of 'em at a price." "No use carrying them over. Might as well make some little girl happy with a new coat." "Heats at half price and a big group of children's print dresses at a dollar." "Come back tomorrow and I'll give you the ad."

Department No. 19

"Let's get rid of these before the bareleg season comes." "Don't mention anything about Holeproof, Theme or Kayser. Just tell 'em we're going to take all the odds and ends of well known brands and make a whole of a clearance." "Do you think they'll buy $1.95 hose at a dollar?" "Be sure and not mention the brands, might get us in bad with manufacturer."

Department No. 20

"Give 'em a thrill? "What, sell those rayon steps and panties at 89c? "Say, do you know any more funny jokes. Why they can't be bought from the mills at that price." "Well, there's only a handful of 'em left, go head and advertise 'em."

Department No. 21

"Did the boss say that was alright? "Didn't think he'd let it go through." Oh well, we only have a few of them anyway and besides it better to get rid of 'em now than wait till Christmas." "Just say silk and velvet pillows to close out at $2.95, they'll know what we mean." "No use putting regular price on 'em they might think there's something wrong with 'em."

Department No. 23

"Stan, the basement is goin' to show the main floor how to put on a real clearance. "Come over here I'll show you." "See these tables? "We're goin' to stack 'em this high with odds and ends and broken lines." "I am taking one big table and having a sign made: "Your choice 10c" and what we'll put on that table is simply nobody's business." "Come down tomorrow and I'll give you the big story."

Department No. 27

"What's the good of waiting till holidays? Folks are buying gift things and decorative pieces every day." That's why I think we should take all odds and ends. So, not book ends, odds and ends and put them on a table at a ridiculously low price. "Say, twenty-five cents, anything to get them out of the house before the new stocks arrive."
