

13th Anniversary

255 NORTH LIBERTY STREET—SALEM

13 YEARS IN SALEM

In June 1915, a small store was started on Liberty Street by Kafoury Bros. The little store was occupied about six months when it became necessary to move to larger quarters, so the business moved to 416 State Street. After four years in this location they had to look for a still larger store to accommodate the fast growing business and in 1919 Kafoury Bros. moved to 466 State Street. Here they remained until March 15th, 1929, when they moved to a completely modern store at 255 N. Liberty Street. In 1922 a Silk Store was opened in Portland and in 1927 Kafoury's entered the Department Store field in Springfield; on May 1st, 1929, this store was moved to Eugene, Oregon. Kafoury's now have three thoroughly modern home stores for women, located in Salem, Portland and Eugene. Through service and the handling of high quality merchandise at reasonable prices, Kafoury's hope to continue to grow that they may serve their communities better.
