WHAT A JOY FLAVOR BRINGS

A Little Sugar Can Put Pleaoure Into Eating Many Foods

Foods can be bland, tasteless and

Foods can be bland, tasteless and nappetizing, or they can be so bod that everyone at the table, oth children and adults, will be impred to cat enough of them.

The preparation of foods so varied and so appetizing that they will romote the health of the country, is squarely up to women. It takes intelligence and thought to prepare or supervise varied, delightful diets.

Realizing this, a group of nationally known women cooking experts recently conducted a series of now notable experiments high up in a New York skyscraper kitchen. Their results are being announced to women throughout the country in behalf of more tasteful vegetable foods. Cook vegetables in little water. Do not overcook. Add a little sugar to the vegetables while they are cocking.

Try these Glazed Onions recommended by one of the experts. Peel enough medium-size silver-skin onions to make a quart. Prick onions through centers to prevent breaking while cooking. Place in boiling solted water to which a tablespoon of sugar per quart has been added. Simmer until tender and brown. Melt two tablespoons of butter in a pr.n. Add a dash of granulated sugar. Cook to the bubbling stage. Add the onions and stir until well ard cercals, sugar-flavored for en-joyment. Remember the value of kandy for dessert. A bit of sweet makes the meal complete. The
