

METHODIST DAY TO BE JULY 11

Annual Outing of Denomination at Champoeg Park to See Program

Methodist Day will be observed at Champoeg park Thursday, July 11, when members and friends of that denomination will meet for an annual picnic and outing. This is the fourth annual Champoeg day for Methodists, an event which was ordered by the Oregon Conference.

The day's program will begin at 10:30 o'clock that morning, with Rev. Fred C. Taylor of the Salem First church conducting devotional exercises. Following this Fred Lockley, well known historical writer of Portland, and W. J. Hendricks of the editorial staff of the Statesman, Salem, will give addresses, and Rev. W. S. Gordon, D. D., pastor Mt. Tabor church, Portland, will read his poem, "Jason Lee."

Local Men Participate
This pioneer program will be in charge of the Champoeg commission, appointed by the Oregon Conference, the chairman, W. W. Youngson, D. D., LL. D., presiding, and music will be directed by William M. Boyer, director of music, Portland school. Dr. J. H. Temple will give the benediction, following which a picnic and basket lunch will be in order until 2 o'clock.

In the afternoon, Willamette university and Kimball School of Theology, will have charge of the program. E. S. Hammond, D. D., presiding. The program follows:

Afternoon Program
Vocal duet—Revs. H. G. Crouse and George F. Gordon.

Address—Rev. William Wallace Youngson, D. D., LL. D., "My Personal Memories of Dr. Henry D. Kimball and Dr. Henry J. Talbot."

Reading—Mrs. H. G. Crouse.
Address—Ronald C. Glover, "The Christian Leadership in the Future."

Music—Dr. Carl Gregg Don-ey, D. D., LL. D.

Rev. D. Lester Fields will give an illustrated address, "Oregon—the Pioneer's Paradise" in the evening. Preceding the address, will be a brief program.

Lake Labish

LAKE LABISH, June 27.—J. C. McFarlan, is recovering from a recent attack of rheumatism and is able to go about on crutches. Mrs. McFarlane was a teacher for many years and is an expert canoe maker—many of his boats are to be seen on the rivers and lakes of the northwest.

Elia McMunn and her mother, Mrs. Susan McMunn, spent Sunday in Lacombe visiting relatives.

LABISH CENTER, June 29.—Large heads of Lake Labish lettuce are being sold at the gardens on the lake for three heads for 10 cents, it is reported. Some early celery has been cut for the local markets on the Lake Labish section and some has been shipped in a mixed car. The early summer celery will move out about the first of July. Gardens on the lake section look particularly good this year.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Degross and son Bobby Degross left the first of this week for Wisconsin where they will visit with relatives. They will drive through and expect to be gone about two months.

Miss Grace Klampe recently entertained the Junior Christian Endeavorers with a party at her home. Different games were played and at the close of the afternoon lunch was served by the hostess. In the group were: Bernadene Daugherty, Leroy Isbam, Merle Trachsel, Bobby Degross, Miles Doyle, Kathryn Blanton, Wayne Trachsel, Raymond Bibby, Elmer McClaughery, Leslie Klampe, Clyde Boehm, Francis Klampe and the hostess Miss Grace Klampe.

Kingwood
KINGWOOD, June 29.—Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Griffin and daughters, Dorothy, Catherine, and Winifred, of Davis, the Applewhite family, have returned south. Mrs. Griffin is a sister of Mrs. Applewhite.

Mrs. J. C. Cannon is the proud possessor of several varieties of quite unusual cactus plants, which were sent her by her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis White on their recent honeymoon in California. The plants were mostly secured on the desert near the Mexican line.

Mrs. Ed Finley, who has been sick for some time, had a pleasant surprise on Wednesday, when John Charge, dressed in his kilites, came up and serenaded her with the bagpipes. Mr. Charge is the leader of the Scotch band, and was on his way to the Scotch picnic at the fair grounds. He was accompanied by his aunt, Mrs. Eliza Calder.

J. P. Smart was home over the week-end from Lebanon, where he superintends the reception of and shipping of berries to the Reid Murdoch cannery in West Salem. Mrs. Smart, Margaret and Jimmy took him back to Lebanon on Sunday and they all went on up to Cascadia.

Theodore Benard was shocked to learn of the "recent sudden death of his brother-in-law, Eric Larsen in a McMinnville hospital. Mrs. E. A. Rawlings of Veneta, who has been visiting her sons, Mr. and Mrs. Yantis, has returned to her home. Margaret Smart was one of 14 pupils presented in recital by Ruth Bedford, teacher of piano, on Monday night, at Nelson hall in Salem.

Keizer
KEIZER, June 29.—Mrs. E. Scott and granddaughter, Mildred Card, who have been visiting a fortnight at the W. C.

Scott home, left Thursday for their home in Calgary, Alberta, Canada, expecting to remain over one day in Portland. Miss Card has been for three years employed in the office of the Calgary Herald.

Mrs. G. N. Thompson of Keiser, Rev. and Mrs. A. F. Layton and Mrs. F. E. Fisher of Salem, attended the funeral of Mrs. C. L. Heckart's mother, Mrs. Miner, in Corvallis, Friday afternoon. Mrs. Heckart, Mrs. Fisher and Mrs. Thompson are associated in the Branch work of the missionary society of the Evangelical church. Rev. Layton is a former pastor of the deceased.

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Blake, Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Watson and Catherine, Betty and John Watson of Pasadena, Calif., are house guests at Willow Lake Farm, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Blake. They had with them a white Scotch terrier dog, a pet of the family, which became frightened and ran away. The loss is very great to them. The company is touring Oregon and they with the Blakes will motor to the coast Monday.

Mountain View
Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Chapman were pleasantly surprised on Sunday by the arrival of a nephew of Mrs. Chapman's, Clyde Aitken, whose home is in Earlville, Ill. He came by way of California where he owns lemon acreage, and thus combined business with pleasure on his western trip. He is returning to Illinois, by way of Spokane, where he will visit other relatives.

Mrs. Phillip Bouffler, with three friends from Salem, motored to McMinnville Thursday, where they were guests at a dinner party, at the home of Mrs. John Graves. Joan and Margaret Farr and Frances and Elaine Lynch were visitors at the Giece home on Sunday.
