Chamber Music Offers Superior Beauty To Salem

LONG ago chamber music was all that would be considered "real" in music; then "new instruments came and with the new came fads and with the fads the old instruments became less popular until they were forgotten by all save those whose loyalty and appreciation kept them in touch with the real beauty of the stringed instruments.

There is something real to anticipate. As was announced Thursday there will be only a membership of 200 admitted for this society as it is desired to keep the number within the bounds of a small auditorium or a home.

Joint Hosts For Merry Evening

BROOKS—Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Harris and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Harris entertained a group of friends at their country home Tuesday evening with a dinner party. Dinner was served on a long table on the lawn. The table was decorated with white carnations and lavender rhododendron. An interesting miscellaneous program was given by the guests.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Walt DeLong, Mr. and Mrs. Watson and daughter, Sherry Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ingstrom, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Crawford and children, Barbara Jean and Kenneth Crawford, Miss Dora Foutch of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Henderson of Chemawa, Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Lewis of Lake Hitchison trio, and has sponsored the chamber music heard in Portland.

Lawrence Skipron, second violinist of the quartette which will be heard in Salem, is an Oregonian. He helped put himself through Oregon State college by conducting the college orchestra for his tuition. He studied with John Spargur in Seattle and with Lichtenberg in New York. He was a member of the Seattle symphony for several seasons, and is now a member of the first violin section of the Portland symphony orchestra.

Alexander Vjovin, viola, and the third member of the quartette was born in Samara on the Volga, Russia. He began the study of the violin at the age of nine years and when 10 joined a branch of Imperial conservatory and studied with Dober, was the first graduate student of Leopold Auer, and a student under Matias, who prepared him to enter Petrograd conservatory, where although the entrance examinations were very strict he received the highest marks from seven judges, among them Auer. In the conservatory he came in contact with such men as Glazounov, Chiripnin, and Rizetsoff.

He has played in symphony orchestras in many cities of the world, notably Petrograd, Samara, Shanghai, Seattle, Los Angeles, and is now soloist of the Portland symphony orchestra. The fourth member of the group is Ferdinand Konrad, violincello. He was born in Munich, Bavaria, where he received his musical education. After coming to America he traveled as a soloist and played in the Chicago opera orchestra, and with the Chicago symphony orchestra under the direction of Theodore Thomas. Since coming to Portland he has identified himself with the Portland symphony orchestra, the Pipes-Konrad-Hutchinson trio, and with the Portland String quartette.

With this group of people coming to Salem for at least three programs for the coming winter

Albany Marriage Lovely Affair

Miss Evangeline F. Ryan and Haskel N. Huntley were quietly married by Rev. J. G. Stewart of Albany, in a lovely garden wedding with growing flowers and shrubs for an altar Friday at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride's gown was of powder blue flowered georgette and she carried sweet peas in pastel shades combined with maiden hair fern. She was unattended except for her small niece and nephew, Margery Hoereth, flower girl, and Billy Ryan, ring bearer.

The bridal chorus from "Lohengrin" was played by Miss

Miss Ruth Davison Becomes Bride Today

MISS RUTH DAVISON, daughter of Arthur Davison, and Gerald Billeter, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Billeter, will be quietly married in the presence of immediate relatives and a few friends, Sunday morning at eight o'clock by Rev. H. C. Stover of the Knight Memorial church. The marriage will take place in the country home of Miss Davison's father, on the River road.

Pink and white sweet peas, columbine, canterbury bells, delphinium, Madonna lilies, and ocean spray were used to convert the guest rooms into a bower of loveliness. An altar has been arranged before the fireplace. Palms form the background, on either side are tall baskets of Madonna lilies, blue delphinium, and pink and lavender canterbury bells. On the mantel at either end is tall ivory candelabra in which will burn pink and lavender candles.

The bride will be dressed in a gown of rose taffeta, tight bodice, bouffant skirt of uneven hemline, and she will wear a corsage bouquet.

The bridesmaid, Miss Dorothy Davison will be dressed in pale pink and will carry an arm bouquet of sweet peas. The best man will be Ben Chamberlain.

Immediately following the ceremony a wedding breakfast will be served at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Billeter on Hood street.

The Billeter home will be decorated with the same color scheme of lavender and pink. Crystal candle holders on the mantel and buffet will catch the color note in pink candles with lavender tulle bows.

Two long tables will seat the guests. Baskets with lavender tulle bows and filled with lavender and pink sweet peas and maiden hair fern will center the tables. Miss Mabel Savage will assist Mrs. Billeter in serving.

Guests in the wedding party will be the bride and groom, and Arthur Davison, Mrs. Esther Armstrong, great-grandmother of the groom, Mrs. Dana McNamar, great aunt of the groom, Mrs. Janet Davison, Portland, Mrs. Rose Sawyer, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Hulet, Mr. and Mrs. Leon DuBois, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Taylor, Mrs. Aura Williams, Jack Billeter, Miss Dorothy Davison, Ben Chambers, and Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Billeter.

Following the wedding breakfast the young folk will leave for a motor trip through California. They expect to return about the middle of July after which they will be at home at 1430 North 17th street.

A Trouble-Proof Floor for Dining Rooms

It is next to impossible to keep a dining room floor entirely free from stains and spots unless it has a covering that cannot be harmed when food or liquids are spilled. For that reason many women have learned how to avoid all that trouble, and often expense, by covering their dining room floors with

BLABON'S Linoleum

Blabon floors, being spotproof, stainproof and waterproof, can be cleaned in a moment, with a damp cloth or mop, whenever things are spilled and can be kept in splendid condition for years with but little care.

Patterns That Will Add Beauty to Your Dining Room

Not only will a Blabon floor save house work but it will also add to the beauty of your dining room as well as to your other rooms. Come and see them. Prices are moderate.

The Spirit of American Independence

Soon we shall celebrate the anniversary of American independence.

What courage it required for those stout-hearted colonists thus to assert themselves in their struggle for freedom!

That courage transformed the small American colonies into the greatest nation on earth!

The same courage and industry, exercised by individuals in their own affairs, is sure to bring its reward.
