G. K. P. Guest Of Mrs. W. Nelson

Mrs. Walter Nelson was hostess Monday for the G. K. P. club at her home on Shipping street. The guest rooms were lovely in a flower scheme of pink and lavender. A two course luncheon was served at two long tables each centered with a basket of columbine and sweet peas and lavender and pink, and gay with place cards and favors in the same colors. Mrs. Simmons, of Klamath Falls was a special guest. Club members present were Mrs. O. Pickens, Mrs. Harry Harms, Mrs. Dale Taylor, Mrs. W. C. Pickens, Mrs. W. S. Foster, Mrs. Katherine Middleton, Mrs. K. H. Pickens,

Cool Summertime Frocks

Pattern 1257 Statesman 15c Practical Pattern There are so many different colors and materials from which a good looking house dress can be made—printed gingham, percale, rayon, pique, lawn, etc. The neat collar, vestee, cuffs and pocket flaps, are made of white pique or lawn and edged with embroidery or ruffling. The lines of Design 1257 are long and slimming, and the model will look charming on larger figures as well as slender ones. Red, yellow, green and vivid blue are outstanding colors for summer wear. May be obtained only in sizes 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32 and 34. Size 36 requires 2 1/2 yards of 36 inch material, 1/2 yard trimming, and 3 yards lace or embroidery. This model is easy to make. No dressmaking experience is necessary. Each pattern comes to you with simple and exact instructions, including yardage for every size. A perfect fit is guaranteed. Patterns will be delivered upon receipt of 15 cents in coins, carefully wrapped or stamped. Be sure to write plainly your name and address, style number and size wanted. Out latest fashion book will be sent upon receipt of 10 cents in coin. Address all mail and orders to Statesman Pattern Department, 243 West 17th street, New York City.

Bridge Dance Honors Miss McGilchrist

Complimenting Miss Josephine McGilchrist who has recently returned from a trip to Texas and California, Miss Jeryme Upston entertained with a delightful bridge dance Tuesday evening in the Upston home on E street.

The guest rooms were beautifully decorated with baskets and bowls of garden flowers. The dining table was particularly attractive with its centerpiece of lavender and pink Canterbury bells and tall tapers in pastel shades. High score prizes for bridge were awarded to Miss Helen Worth and Richard Cooley, with second awards to Miss Kathryn Ellis and Irwin Edwards. Miss McGilchrist also received a guest prize.

After bridge, dancing was enjoyed with a favor dance concluding the evening. Mrs. William McGilchrist Jr. and Miss Helen Litchfield assisted Mrs. Upston during the evening.

The guest group included the honor guest, Miss Josephine McGilchrist and Miss Marie Patton, Miss Jeanne Patton, Miss Ann Reed Burns, Miss Esther Gibbard, Miss Josephine Cornoyer, Miss Helen Worth, Miss Kathryn Ellis, Miss Margaret Savage, Miss Edna Savage and the hostess, Miss Jeryme Upston; Richard Cooley, Jimmie Nicholson, Donald Stockwell, Billy Dyer, Richard, Pierce, Irwin Edwards, Jack Price, Harrison, Elgin, Winfield Needham, and Waldo Mills.

Miss Linsey Given Miscellaneous Shower

A delightful affair was held at the home of Mrs. W. B. Lindsay, 2009 Center street, Thursday evening, when Mrs. S. O. Burkhardt, Mrs. Martha Kittredge and Miss Ivy Bowden honored Miss Eulalia Linsey, bride-elect, with a miscellaneous shower.

The affair was attended by 60 young ladies, fellow employees of Miss Linsey from the office of the secretary of state. A ladies orchestra played for the occasion and Miss Esther Ericson entertained with a reading, while Miss Ruth Moore gave a pianologue. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses.

A great number of suitable gifts were presented to the guest of honor as a token of the high esteem in which Miss Linsey is held by her co-workers.

ZENA—An attractive affair of the week was the afternoon given by Mrs. J. D. Walling at her Lincoln home Wednesday.

Lovely flowers from the Walling gardens were used about the guest rooms.

A pleasant social afternoon was followed by tea. The guest list included Mrs. A. Putnam, Salem; Mrs. Mies Bradford, Keiser; Miss Gertrude Walling, Portland; Mrs. Alice Simpson and Mrs. Frank McLench, Lincoln; Mrs. Mary B. Crawford and Mrs. J. Fred Purvine, Zena; Mrs. Seymour Wilson and Mrs. Mary Jennings, North Spring Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Barkus, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bowman, and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Moorehead motored to De Poe bay Wednesday, where they spent Thursday and Friday enjoying the coast and the thrill of deep sea fishing. They inhaled the depths of the sea through a glass bottom boat, and with many thrills and much excitement, they caught sea bass and salmon. They returned to Salem Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Moses Adams of Skyline Orchards are vacationing in California for a short time. While they are away Mr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Noble, owners of the orchard, are in charge. Mr. and Mrs. Noble are summer visitors in Salem from Youngstown, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lauterman are spending several weeks at the beaches along the Roosevelt highway in Oregon and California. Word last received from them was from Crescent City, California.

Mrs. George Dorcas and her mother, Mrs. J. J. Lightner will leave this morning for California where they will visit with friends and relatives for several weeks.

Yomarco Club Enjoys Picnic

Members of the Yomarco club had a delightful time at the picnic for which Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Millard were hosts Friday night. This was the annual June picnic for the club. There were over 70 members and guests present.

Prior to the picnic dinner a short business session was held in which Mrs. W. M. Pennington was elected president for the coming year to succeed Mrs. B. B. Herrick and Mrs. Paul Johnson was re-elected secretary treasurer.

The committee in charge of arrangements for this picnic were Mrs. E. B. Millard, Mrs. B. B. Herrick, Mrs. Harry Swafford, Mr. Grant Day, Mrs. Fred Zimmerman, and Mrs. Ronald Glover.

Mrs. Clyde Hardy Has Keiser Guests

Mrs. Clyde Hardy was hostess for a surprise birthday party for her husband Saturday evening at their home on South High street.

The guests were from Keiser and included those who with Mrs. Hardy had taken part in the play, "The Adventures of Grandpa," given some time ago at the M. W. A. hall in East Keiser.

An enjoyable evening was spent in games, conversation, and music, with refreshments served, which included a beautiful birthday cake.

The guests were Jewell Gardner, Lucille Cummins, Irma Keefer, Mildred Gardner, Nick Brinkley, Glen Savage, Lester Evans, and Mr. and Mrs. Francisco.

Mrs. Alice Dodd will leave for a week's visit with Mrs. J. A. Richardson of Portland. Mrs. Richardson was formerly a Salem resident at which time Dr. J. A. Richardson was a practicing physician here.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Fulton and small son, Frank, accompanied by Mr. Fulton's sister, Miss Pauline Fulton, left today by motor for Oakland, California, where they will visit two weeks.

Senator and Mrs. Charles L. McNary will arrive in Oregon the first of this week for a six weeks sojourn at their country home out of Salem on the River Road.

Mrs. Fred A. Wiggins, of Toppenish, Washington, will be the house guests of her sister, Mrs. George Rodgers for several weeks.

Mrs. E. J. Swafford is a guest of friends in Newport for a week.

Rosedale

ROSEDALE, June 29.—Mr. and Mrs. Mott, of Portland, visited their daughter, Mrs. A. J. Haldy last Tuesday.

Forrest, Laura and Helen Cammack motored to Portland Wednesday to attend the wedding of a friend.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Thomas of Lyons, Oregon, called at the Cammack home Monday evening. C. A. Cole is driving a new car. He is doing carpenter work in Salem as usual this summer.

Messrs. Campbell, Whelan and Morse are each marketing quite a good strawberry crop of the Marshall variety. The cherries are ripening, but the crop is very short in this vicinity. A good many loganberry pickers are signing up for the picking season, which begins in 10 days, more or less.

Prune men are encouraged over the prospect of a fair crop and are hoping to harvest some good sizes this fall.

Jefferson

JEFFERSON, June 29.—Al Burke of Sabatha, Kansas, arrived in Jefferson Thursday morning for a visit with his brother-in-law, T. A. McKee, and other relatives.

He came by way of Salt Lake and Los Angeles, and from here he will go on to Seattle. Mr. Burke is a retired railroad man, being employed by the railroad company for 55 years, which entitles him to a pension.

Mrs. S. E. Henson was a business visitor in Albany Monday. Mrs. Guy Roland who has been ill for several days, is much improved.

Jene McKee went to Albany Thursday to call on Dick Hitt, who underwent an operation at the Albany General hospital, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Denson motored from Carleton Thursday for a visit with relatives in town. T. A. McKee and his brother-in-law, Mr. Burke accompanied them home.

J. A. Aupperle was called to Newport by the illness of his son Earl.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Farrington and children left for Notaris Friday, hoping the ocean breezes will relieve the hay-fever, from which Mr. Farrington is suffering. Mrs. Farrington's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mason, of Portland, will join them there.
