

Communitie News

Silverton

SILVERTON, July 2.—Bruce Campbell and Clark Thompson, both Silverton lads, won honors for the 162nd Infantry, in the week of National Guard encampment at Camp Clatsop.

Campbell, son of Hal Campbell of Silverton, came in first in two races entered, while Thompson took second place in the fancy diving event. Thompson is the son of Mr. N. R. Thompson, of the Thomson Drug Co.

Prof. Warren E. Crabtree returned Friday from O. S. C. where he has been attending a two-weeks course given to instructors of the various branches of the Smith-Hughes work in the agricultural section, in which Prof. Crabtree took intensive study, 21 teachers from various parts of the state attended classes.

R. C. Foad, state supervisor of agricultural education of New Mexico, directed the course.

In compliment to Miss Lois Livingstone, daughter of the pastor of the Christian church, the collection gave a miscellaneous amount on Monday evening which was followed by a two course luncheon. Miss Livingstone has announced her engagement to Mr. Ivan Talbot of Hoped River.

Company "I," 162nd Infantry of the Oregon National Guard returned to Silverton on Wednesday from the very successful ten day annual encampment at Camp Clatsop.

Captain Henry Hutton stated on his return, that with the exception of weather conditions, the 1923 encampment was decidedly the most successful in every way, in the history of the company.

Monmouth

MONMOUTH, July 2.—Mr. and Mrs. William Jinks of Portland and daughter are guests this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Bang. Mr. Jinks is a member of the Portland fire department. Mrs. Jinks will be remembered here as Edna Leavenwood, a former resident.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Roth, Mrs. Velma Smith and sons, Mrs. Madeline White, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Ebbert and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Cole and families picnicked on Teal creek Sunday.

At the Tuesday luncheon newly elected officers of the Lions club were installed. Homer Dodds of the Oregon normal school faculty talked on bee culture, and Mr. Holmes, a demonstrator at Miller's store, was a guest.

Frederic Calef, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Calef, who has been attending the University of Oregon, is in Tacoma, for the summer where he is affiliated with the Y. M. C. A. His sister, Miss Olive Calef, who taught last year in the Highland school of Salem, is doing office work in Portland for the Avery Commercial service.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Craven and children were guests at the Powell family reunion held Sunday at the Turner convention grounds of the Christian church.

Robert Peterson is the newly Polk county student's name which appears on the honor roll of the Oregon normal school for the spring term.

J. D. Short is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Mary Redden, at Kilkenny, Wash., for the summer.

Mrs. N. S. Steward, who formerly resided on Broadway, is recovering from a paralytic stroke. She is at the home of her son in Chehalis, Wash., and is now able to walk but has not recovered the use of her affected arm.

Mr. and Mrs. David Riddell and Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Cumisky attended charter night at the Newport Lions club Saturday.

Mrs. Helen Cornelius Bowne of Portland is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Mabel Cornelius.

Dr. and Mrs. H. T. Gentile of Portland are guests of the James Gentile and Thomas Gentile families this week. Mrs. Gentile will teach in the normal training department of St. Mary's academy at Beaverton this summer; and Dr. Gentile will serve as an interne at St. Vincent's hospital, Portland.

The Homelike society of the Evangelical church is sponsoring a flower show in the church basement Saturday. All sorts of flowers will be displayed, and everyone is welcome to enter flowers. There will be no prizes.

Miss Cassie Stump is home from an extended visit in Fork Grove, her nephew, David Campbell and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Clay Taylor and T. J. Pettit of Vancouver, Wash., were guests of Mrs. Blanch Sloan and other friends Tuesday.

Miss Frances Snyder, who has taught the past year at the Days Creek high school, is home for the summer. She was accompanied here by Miss Dollie Knight, one of her students, who will visit in Corvallis before returning home.

P. O. Powell, master of the Polk county grange, and Mrs. Powell attended the 56th session of the Oregon State grange at Myrtle Point, where Mr. Powell officiated as chairman of the education committee. They were accompanied by Mrs. Pearl Bartlett of Oak Grove, Polk Pomona lecturer; and by Mrs. E. G. Harris, master of the Suver grange. They went via Roseburg, and returned via the Reedport-Scottsburg highway.

The Coos and Curry cheese factories presented every member with a one-pound individual package of cheese as a souvenir of the meeting, and much remained that was distributed, according to membership, among the Pomona masters. Mr. Powell received 13 pounds as his quota, which he has placed in cold storage at the Monmouth creamery, and it will be served at the Polk Pomona picnic in July.

Little Jack Graham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Graham of Salem, celebrated his first birthday anniversary at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Graham of Monmouth, Wednesday.

The registration at Oregon normal school has reached 853, which is only 20 less than the number registered for the spring term.

Tuesday night was the final seasonal meeting of Model Engineering club of the Odd Fellows with an attendance of 150, including guests from Dallas, Independence and Vancouver, Wash. Strawberries, ice cream and cake and coffee were served, and a social hour of dancing and cards concluded the pleasant affair.

Falls City

FALLS CITY, July 2.—Mrs. Hale, who has been visiting Thompson's, went to Neskonong Saturday. Hal Thompson with Alvin McBain and Roberta Miles drove over and returned Saturday.

Mrs. Madeline Callin of the Salem Statesman staff was a business visitor in Falls City Thursday.

The Falls City Woman's club their husbands and families with a picnic in the Epworth league park last Saturday evening. Guests of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Vick of Seaside, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Starr of Corvallis, and Mr. and Mrs. Smith of Portland.

Mrs. Hoppe of Fir Grove spent the first of the week with Mrs. Cobb.

Interesting services were held in the Methodist church last Sunday. William McChirist of Leslie Methodist church, Salem, talked on the growth of protestantism in Scotland. He sang Psalms as they were sung in Scotland and accompanied them with a concertina. Mr. Rock, also of Salem, sang a solo.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hunter and Marguerite Miles accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Rock of Salem to Falls City, Sunday evening.

Loring Hatch made a trip to Valseztz, Saturday.

Clinton-MacDonald came out from Valseztz, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Orvin Post are the parents of a baby boy, born on June 15.

Francis Guthridge, who has been working in Marshfield, spent Monday and Tuesday in Falls City. She has gone to Bend where she will stay two weeks before returning to Marshfield.

Pratum

PRATUM, July 2.—Work on the new school house started Friday. Part of the concrete walk and the steps were removed to make room for digging the basement. Albert Lichty and Paul Farris are using a team and Fresno scraper to remove the dirt.

The new building will be near to the road making more room back of the school house for play grounds.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Groves and young son and Miss Sarah Bridgeman all from West Salem attended the ball game here Tuesday when their Sunday school team lost 5 to 6 in favor of the Pratum team.

A third game will be played Tuesday evening to break the tie existing between the two teams.

The last rows of (this) summer were planted to potatoes last Friday afternoon when Fred de Vries and three sons finished planting a 12 acre field.

G. H. Thompson and family and William de Vries and family and Miss Amanda Mitzner looped the Mt. Hood loop Monday.

A number of families from here attended the funeral of Rev. A. Cramer at Salem Friday. Rev. Cramer was pastor here in 1910.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred de Vries attended the Santiam district Sunday school convention at Pleasant Point last Sunday. They will attend the Hayesville district convention Sunday, June 30.

Almost everyone is putting up hay. Clover hay is of excellent quality and makes a fair yield per acre but the acreage is far below normal. Some grain hay will be cut to help out the shortage. Those who have a few tons to spare hesitate to put a price on it.

The best looking field of beans that has ever been grown here is a field of about 5 acres of Kentucky wanderers owned and operated by Carl Vogt.

The field is arranged very much like a hop yard with wire and poles, but not as high as for hops. It has strings leading from the plants to the wire.

Due to the amount of rain we had during the first two weeks in June, pasture is better than usual at this time of the year.

Committees which have charge of the Sunday school picnic and some real good work. The program committee has secured District Supt. Heise of the Eastern district to be the main speaker. The committee on sports is planning for plenty of enjoyment and fun for old and young.

Dallas

DALLAS, July 2.—Several members of Carl B. Fenton post American Legion attended the meeting of Capital post in Salem Tuesday evening, to assure the boys that the Dallas post was ready to assist them with convenient plans.

It was decided that Carl B. Fenton post would do K. P. duty for the barbeque to be held at the time of the dedication of the Aviation field during convention week. Capital post consented to help Dallas with the fourth of July celebration by having their drum corps here on that day.

Those who spent the evening in Salem were Jack Eakin, Penn Crum, John Cerney, Ivan Warner, Harold Rich and Ralph Beck.

Mrs. Robert Kreason and daughters Jane and Mary Lou returned home Monday evening from a two weeks vacation spent at Seaview, Wash. She was there during the big storm which is said to have been the worst in 28 years, and saw the Laurel after it's wreck.

Dallas members of Chemeketa chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution who motored to Salem Tuesday to attend the luncheon given in honor of Mrs. Homer Goulet, the outgoing regent, included Mrs. Blanche Eakin, Mrs. J. E. Allgood, Mrs. C. L. Crider, Mrs. C. L. Barnes, Mrs. R. Y. Morrison, Mrs. J. E. Sibley, Mrs. Oscar Hayter.

The last meeting of the season was held by Naomi chapter, O. E. S. Tuesday evening. Reports of the Grand chapter were given and following the business session a program of music was enjoyed. Refreshments were served in the banquet hall.

Company I of the Oregon National guard returned home from Camp Clatsop Wednesday after a two weeks encampment.

Mrs. Ray Scott and children returned from Seaside Wednesday where they have been visiting with Mr. Scott's parents, during the National guard encampment.

Gervais

Ernest Zeiner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Zeiner was painfully injured last Friday, when he, in some manner, got his left hand caught in the pulley of the stacker where the men were stacking hay, with the result that the rope slipping through his hand burned the flesh off the second and third fingers and part of the palm to such an extent that Dr. Dowd had to remove the flesh to the bone. However the hand is now healing as fast as could be expected but it is feared that one of the fingers will always be stiff.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Manning are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a daughter on June 23. This is their tenth child. Mother and babe are getting along nicely.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Alsop were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pounce of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Verne Jones.

Misses Minnie and Sophia Nibler had as their guest on Tuesday evening Mrs. Joseph Nathan of Woodburn.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brassell and daughter Wilma and Miss Emma DeJardin who have spent several days at the beach have returned home.

Brooks

Recent dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coffindaffer were Mrs. Coffindaffer's mother, Mrs. Mary Molsan and Miss Majel Low.

James Vibbert of Brooks was a recent guest at the home of his niece Mrs. Virgil Loomis and family.

Among those from Brooks who enjoyed a picnic dinner and swimming at Wheatland Thursday evening were Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Ashbaugh and children, Kraid, Vera, and Kreta Fae Ashbaugh, Mrs. Willard Ramp and children Earl, Leo and Cleo Ramp, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Blanton, Jr.

We Welcome You to Portland, 200 comfortable rooms, each with bath. Reasonable rates. Convenient downtown location.

The HOTEL CONGRESS
PORTLAND, OREGON
Louis E. Boon, Resident Manager

From many Models choose your GULBRANSEN

What type is your home? No matter if it be modest or pretentious, there is here a Gulbransen—smart, authentic in style and advanced in tone quality to exactly meet your needs. Nationally priced from $295 to $2400. The Gulbransen is the finest piano value—no matter what you choose to pay.

H. L. Stiff Furniture Co.
COMPLETE HOUSE FURNISHERS

GULBRANSEN PIANOS

A TYPE AND STYLE FOR EVERY HOME

and daughter DeEtta Louise Blanton, Mrs. John Leher and family and Miss Kathryn Blanton.

Cecil V. Ashbaugh went to Lebanon Sunday. He was accompanied by Mrs. Susan McMunn and her daughter, Miss Ella McMunn, while there they visited Mrs. Ashbaugh's sister-in-law, Mrs. Gertrude McCleod and family.

Mrs. B. J. Moritz has returned home after visiting several days at the home of her son, Mr. and Mrs. John Moritz and family in West Salem. Mr. Moritz is a Salem mail carrier on route 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Molsan and two children left Tuesday for their home in Marshfield, after an extended visit with relatives and friends in Brooks, Gervais and Salem.

Zena

ZENA, July 2.—Mrs. Leona Buell of San Rafael, Calif., arrived here two weeks ago for a visit with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Taylor. Mrs. Buell likes the Oregon climate so well that she has decided to spend the winter with the Taylor family.

John Walling, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Walling of Lincoln, was rushed to Salem at midnight Wednesday after having a severe hemorrhage following the removal of his tonsils. The young man is recovering very slowly.

Orchard Heights

ORCHARD HEIGHTS, July 2.—Mrs. Paul Davis and family are enjoying an indefinite visit from Mrs. Davis' mother, whose home is in Kansas. Mr. and Mrs. Davis met her in Portland on Wednesday.

Harry Morgan is staying for the summer with his sister, Mrs. Alice Jefferson of Lake Labish, where he is helping with the onion crop for which that locality is famous.

Mrs. J. W. Eisler was forced to discontinue work in the West Salem cannery because of ill health.

Mrs. James Best and her houseguest, Mrs. Sagendorf of Newberg spent Thursday with Mrs. Char-

First Class Storage

For finest Furniture and Pianos with precaution against moths and mice

Local and Long Distance Hauling

Again with the best of care for fine Furniture

Larmer Transfer & Storage
Phone 930

GO EAST VIA UNION PACIFIC

6 1/4 HOURS
PORTLAND TO CHICAGO

SAVE A BUSINESS DAY

Take the PORTLAND LIMITED ONLY THRU TRAIN TO CHICAGO

Leaves Portland daily 6:10 P. M. Arrives Chicago 9:25 A. M.

OPEN-TOP CAR THRU COLUMBIA GORGE

Your fast, direct, most scenic route to the East. This new schedule is planned for your utmost convenience, Mr. Business Man! De luxe equipment and de luxe service thru to Chicago. Modern sleepers, observation car, men's club, ladies' lounge, buffet, barber shop, bath, Valet, ladies' maid. Unrivalled dining car service. Low round trip fares East effective until Sept. 30. Return limit Oct. 31. Liberal stopover privileges.

UNION PACIFIC
THE OVERLAND ROUTE

les Schwartz of Kingwood Heights. Miss Butler, who has been very ill for the past two weeks, is not improving very much.

Rev. Mrs. Burligh, a former resident of West Salem, with her son, Frank James and family, of Salt Lake City, were Sunday visitors at the John Simmons home. The James family were enroute to British Columbia. They are returning Thursday and will then go on to their home in Utah, taking Mrs. Burligh with them for the summer. She expects to return to Oregon in September and make her home again in West Salem.

Jefferson

JEFFERSON, July 2.—Chester Miller has purchased a new McCormick Deering combine harvester and threshing machine which will be quite a time and labor saver.

Prof. L. N. Bennett left Monday for Oakridge where he will be employed by the forest service as patrolman, during the summer vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hoffman of Salem attended a dinner party Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Looney, in honor of Miss Meador's birthday. Clarence-Thurston was a business visitor in Albany Thursday.

LINDY AT K. C. WICHITA, Kas., July 2.—(AP)—Colonel and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh, flying from Kansas City landed at the Municipal airport at 7:15 o'clock tonight.

Neuritis and Rheumatic Sufferers

—this lady had about given up all hopes after years of suffering from neuritis. Read what she says about Casey's Guaranteed Remedy:

Dear Sir: I am getting better all the time. Oh, so happy I hardly know myself, my daughter said this morning, "how good to hear you say I am in no pain; may God spare your life many years."

MRS. M. KEEL,
1935 Russell St., Berkeley, Cal.
For Sale by Salem's Leading Druggists.

SHIPLEY

Percribes for Hot Days

SWIMMING SUITS

Felton-Brazier — In 4.95 to 6.95

Columbia Knit 3.95 to 7.48

Catalina The new High-Ti mode 4.95 to 5.95

One group All Wool Bathing Suits most all sizes 1.95

A few others at 2:95 All Wool Suits for children—

1.95 to 3.95

BEACH COATS 2.95 to 3.95

SMOCKS 1.95 to 4.95

ENSEMBLES of Cotton Prints 2.95 to 4.48

Rumble-seat Sets Scarfs and Tam to match 1.95

Scarfs 55c 95c 1.95 Bottany flannel skirts and Jackets of flannel or velvet each 3.95

BEACH SUITS

The very latest for beach play—bell bottom trouser with colorful jackets. You'll want one for the beach

1.95

FELT HATS 2.95 3.95 4.85 Special group at 1.00

SPORT DRESSES

One rack of silk dresses for sports wear 5.
Tub Silks for Sports wear are very popular this summer 12.48
Others at 17.50

One and Two Piece Jerseys in the pastel shades at 10.75
others at 17.50 and 24.50

SWEATERS

Sleeveless Sweaters Pastel Shades 1.95 others at 2.48

Slipover Sweaters "V" and Crew Necks 2.95 others 3.48, 4.95, 5.95

HOSIERY

Sport Hose in the imported weaves 98c 1.48 1.95

Full-fashioned silk hosiery in the popular Sun-Tan shades 1.50 1.95 2.00 2.50 3.95

"Propper" Hose the new ultra-fashionable number to arrive at Shipley's—Colors of Duotone, Nantes and primrose, priced at 2.25 and 3.95

SHIPLEY'S

OPEN EVERY SATURDAY 9:30 TILL 8:30

The New Yorker
ILLINOIS

HERE is one of the finest watches in our store. And not only the finest here, but the finest in the whole world of watches. For the first time . . . 21 jewels in a strap watch gives the "New Yorker" its high standing. Strap this beautiful watch on your wrist and you will never take it off again. We make this ownership easy by our credit payment plan . . . 14 karat gold filled case.

$75.00

Tower's Jewelry

Gift Shop

Next to Gray Bells