CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, July 9.—(AP)—General selling on a big scale broke out in the wheat market today just before the close and carried prices down with a rush. The selling which followed reports of beneficial rains in Argentina, revealed that for at least the time being the wheat market was devoid of any aggressive support.

This appeared to be largely owing to the fact that United States and Canadian government crop reports are due tomorrow, and that recent buyers preferred trying to realize immediate profits, rather than in current risks of awaiting further upturns in prices.

Wheat closed nervous, 2¼ to 2 7-8 cents under yesterday's finish.

Corn closed 1 1-8 to 21-8 cents down and oats ⅝c to 1¼c off.

ALABAMA BANKING FAILURES PROBED

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., July 9.—(AP)—A Jefferson county grand jury will delve into the affairs of five banks which have closed in the Birmingham district within the last two weeks, with a report of their findings expected the later part of this week. The jury was charged today by Judge J. Russell McElroy.

Following upon a conference with Governor Bibb Graves at Montgomery, Attorney General Charlie C. McCall announced he would arrive here tomorrow to take charge of the state's investigation.

The fifth bank to close was added today when the Leeds state bank failed to open and its affairs were placed in the hands of the state banking department. Judge C. B. Thomas, state superintendent of banks, said the closing order was issued because of heavy withdrawals of deposits, and that in his opinion the bank is solvent.

Search continued for the body of Dr. A. W. Bell, president of the Woodlawn Savings bank, who was reported to have drowned in the Cooea river at Vincent a few hours after his bank closed last Saturday.

The south side bank closed Saturday after the close of the Woodlawn bank. The City bank and Trust company and the Avondale bank and Savings company, closed their doors two weeks ago. J. B. Lassiter, president of the two institutions, is under the care of a physician in a New York City hospital. He is said to be suffering from a nervous breakdown.
