CALVARY BAPTISTS PICNIC THURSDAY

Almost 200 members of the Calvary Baptist church attended the church picnic at the fairgrounds Thursday afternoon and evening. Late in the afternoon the children and young people were entertained with a variety of sport and game features under the direction of Leslie White, William Welborn directed the baseball games later. At 6:30 o'clock a bountiful basket lunch was served. Mrs. Hazel Piekens was chairman of the lunch committee. Due to the bounty of the lunch and the hour at which it was served, darkness descended upon the teams of married and single men opposed in a game of baseball and cut off the game at its fourth inning, thus causing the married men to leave the field victorious. However, the women of the church, classified under the same distinction, had already engaged in a game of baseball in which the single women came off victorious, thus balancing the scores for and against marriage as a hindrance or an asset to baseball playing, according to the Rev. W. Earl Cochran, pastor of the church.

MILLERS WILL HOLD BIG SUMMER PICNIC

Plans for the annual store picnic of the Miller stores throughout the valley have not been made as yet but there will undoubtedly be a picnic in July or August according to Stanley Keith, advertising manager of the Miller store here. The picnic has been an enjoyable affair for years. Wednesday night at Hager's Grove here the employees of the Salem store and their families had a fine time, playing baseball, horseshoes and other sports before and after the picnic lunch which was, of course, a feature of the gathering. About 75 people attended the picnic.

KANTNER RITES HELD THURSDAY

Rev. Ward and Rev. Stover Officiate at Ceremony for Salem Woman

Funeral services for the late Mrs. W. C. Kantner were held at the First Congregational church on Thursday morning, conducted by Rev. C. E. Ward, pastor and Rev. H. C. Stover, pastor of Knight Memorial church.

Anna White Kantner, daughter of J. H. and Franzina White, was born in St. Katherine, Missouri, August 3, 1856. At the age of nine years she crossed the plains by ox team with her parents and settled on a donation land claim in Polk county.

In 1877 she married Dr. W. C. Kantner and to this union six children were born. Dr. W. C. Kantner Jr., died overseas in 1918 and the youngest son, Penrhyn Kantner, passed away in 1920.

Surviving Mrs. Kantner are her husband, Dr. W. C. Kantner, one son, Clifford White Kantner of Seattle and three daughters, Mrs. A. A. Thomas of Seattle and La Verne and Constance Kantner of Salem; a brother, M. P. White of Polk county and one sister, Mrs. F. E. Starbuck of Portland.

At the time of her death Mrs. Kantner was a worthy matron of Chadwick chapter, Order of the Eastern Star and a member of Willamette Shrine, White Shrine of Jerusalem.

A devoted wife and mother, Mrs. Kantner yet found time for active work in church and charitable circles. She was a faithful helper of her husband during his years as a Congregational minister and often filled the pulpit during his enforced absences. In all branches of church work her Christian spirit and zeal were a help and inspiration to others. Her life was one of devoted service and the high esteem in which she was held was evidenced by the hundreds who paid personal and floral tribute to her memory. Interment was in City View cemetery, arrangements being in charge of Rigdon.

Frances Ellis Is Awarded Prize in Costume Contest

Frances Ellis won the prize for the prettiest costume, a bottle of perfume offered by the Opera House Pharmacy, and Mildred Mayne won the prize for the most original costume, a jar of candy from the Metropolitan stores, in the costume parade held at the Lincoln school playground Thursday. It was announced by Mrs. Ruby Anderson, director.

Numerous attractive and novel costumes appeared, varying in period from the Colonial to eccentric present day types.

Next Wednesday a horseshoe pitching tournament will be staged, and on Thursday a doll dressing contest, the girls participating being required to make the dresses they enter in the competition.

F. A. GARNJOBST IS CALLED THURSDAY

Frederick Adolf Garnjobst, 74, died early Thursday morning at his farm home two and one-half miles south of Salem after an illness which began in March but which has been critical for the last month. Funeral services will be held at the home at 10:30 o'clock Saturday morning.

Mr. Garnjobst was born in Pivitchede near Detmold Lippe, Germany, on January 7, 1855. He was married to Augusta Charlotte Peterson, April 6, 1879. At the age of 29 Mr. Garnjobst left Germany for America, bringing with him his wife and small daughter. He came to Knox county, Nebraska, where his brother, W. F. Garnjobst had immigrated one year previously. Within six years from the time of his arrival in the United States Mr. Garnjobst had his citizenship papers.

In 1902 he removed to Oregon with his family and made his home on a small fruit farm near Salem. For years Mr. Garnjobst had been a member of the Methodist church. This year, April 8, he and his wife celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. Besides his widow, Mr. Garnjobst is survived by William F. Garnjobst, a brother residing in Salem, and six children. They are Mrs. G. Bingenheimer, Mrs. E. A. Kurz, and Mrs. A. J. Engebart, all of Salem; Dr. H. Garnjobst of Corvallis; Martha E. Garnjobst of Hillsboro; and Laura Garnjobst of Palo Alto, Calif.

PAULUS ENDS TERM AS AD CLUB CHIEF

William H. Paulus, outgoing Advertising club president, brought the meeting of the group to a close for the summer period Thursday when he installed the new officers for the coming year. Mr. Paulus expressed his appreciation to the club for the cooperation given him during the past year. A report of the secretary, Edwin Thomas, showed a small balance in the treasury from the work receipts of the former year.

New officers to take over the work of the club for the ensuing year are Sheldon F. Sackett, president; J. G. Knapp, vice-president; E. E. Thomas, secretary; Oscar D. Olson and W. H. Paulus, directors. The club will hold no more meetings until September when regular noon luncheons on Thursday will be resumed.

Informal discussion was made at the meeting here of the problem of misleading and false statements in newspaper advertising. Several instances have been called to the attention of local advertising men recently, the members stated. An affiliation with the Better Business bureau in Portland has been suggested as a possible means of curbing bad practice in advertising.

CITIZENSHIP LAW MODIFIED

New Regulations to Go Into Effect Here, County Clerk States

A certificate of arrival to be filed in addition to the application for a declaration of intent, is to be filed by all applicants for citizenship under the new federal naturalization laws which will affect all applicants for citizenship in the future although it has not bearing on cases now in process.

This new certificate, according to information received by County Clerk Boyer, is to be secured from the commissioner of naturalization in Washington, D. C. and in making application the applicant must send $5 in a money order. In this application information about the conditions of the immigrant's arrival in America must be filed including the name of the boat on which he landed and similar information. Accompanying this application it will be necessary to send two photographs taken within 30 days of the application and the identification card issued to the alien upon his arrival in this country must be sent along on the application.

In the final form required of the applicant, additional questions are asked. Included in these are inquiry if the applicant claimed exemption from the draft in the World War, inquiry if he is willing to take up arms in defense of his country; as well as inquiry as to whether he has ever been dependent on public charity or been arrested for violation of the laws of the United States.

ALBANY MAN MAY GET BEAN'S PLACE

A large number of letters and telegrams have arrived at the executive department here endorsing various candidates for the office of public service commissioner to succeed the late L. E. Bean, who died suddenly at his home in Salem last Saturday night. It was said that the appointment would not be made until the return of Governor Patterson, who is now enroute home from eastern Oregon.

expressed the opinion that Frank Miller of Albany would be selected for the office. Mr. Miller served as a member of the public service commission a number of years ago, and assisted in compiling the original valuations of properties of the Portland Electric Power company. He also took part in other major investigations conducted by the commission.

During the past few years Mr. Miller has served as a regent of state normal schools. This board was abolished at the recent legislative session. Reports received in Salem from Albany indicated that Mr. Miller would accept the office. It was made plain, however, that he has not made application for the office and has advised his friends not to intercede in his behalf.

PERCY JENKS DIES IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Mrs. E. W. Emmett of West Salem has received word that her cousin Percy Jenks of Ludington, Mich., was killed in an auto accident at Chicago on July 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Jenks and their daughter were just completing a tour of the United States and had visited Mrs. Emmett at West Salem. With Mrs. Emmett, her mother and her son they visited relatives in Seattle and then started home.

Mr. Jenks, who had never before been out of his native state was very enthusiastic about his trip. Mrs. Jenks and the daughter are in a Chicago hospital as a result of the collision but are expected to recover.
