CULVER CITY, Cal., July 12 .-(AP)-Inspection of the Wright whirlwind motor, which carried the bi-plane Angelino the astounding total of 246 hours 43 minutes of continued flight, late today showed that it was in excellent condition when taken apart. It was pronounced by W. E. Thomas, Wright aeronautical corporation expert as "ready to fly again" as soon as reassembled. The motor clearances, Thomas stated were from three-thousandths of an inch. under, to ten-thousandihs of an inch over, normal clearances. This showed excellent oiling conditions and but normal wear, the expert said. The spark plugs, of which there
