

KING GEORGE IS OPERATED UPON

British Ruler Brought Out From Under Ether Successfully

LONDON, July 15.—(AP)—King George today successfully came through an operation which was of a more serious nature than the public had been led to expect. Tonight his majesty was officially stated to have made "entirely satisfactory" progress.

The members of the royal family, who called again at Buckingham palace this evening were delighted to learn that the king's condition was so satisfactory. The Prince of Wales, the Duke of York and the Duke of Connaught, all visited the palace to inquire for him.

The public was pleased that the king was in such good general health that no complications were feared from the operation, and, although naturally anxious, displayed none of the great solicitude which characterized his majesty's previous illness last winter.

Exact Nature of Operation Recounted

This attitude of confidence was largely brought about by the complete frankness of the surgeons in explaining the nature of the operation.

Seven doctors came to the palace for the operation, which was actually performed by Sir Hugh Ribby and Professor Trotter in the king's bedroom.

They issued a bulletin after the operation reading as follows: "An operation has been performed on his majesty, the king. Portions of two ribs were removed in order that the circumference across, one and a half inches across, should be quickly drained and treated. The condition of his majesty is satisfactory."

The abscess was a consequence of the king's serious illness last winter, and was on the right side of his chest.

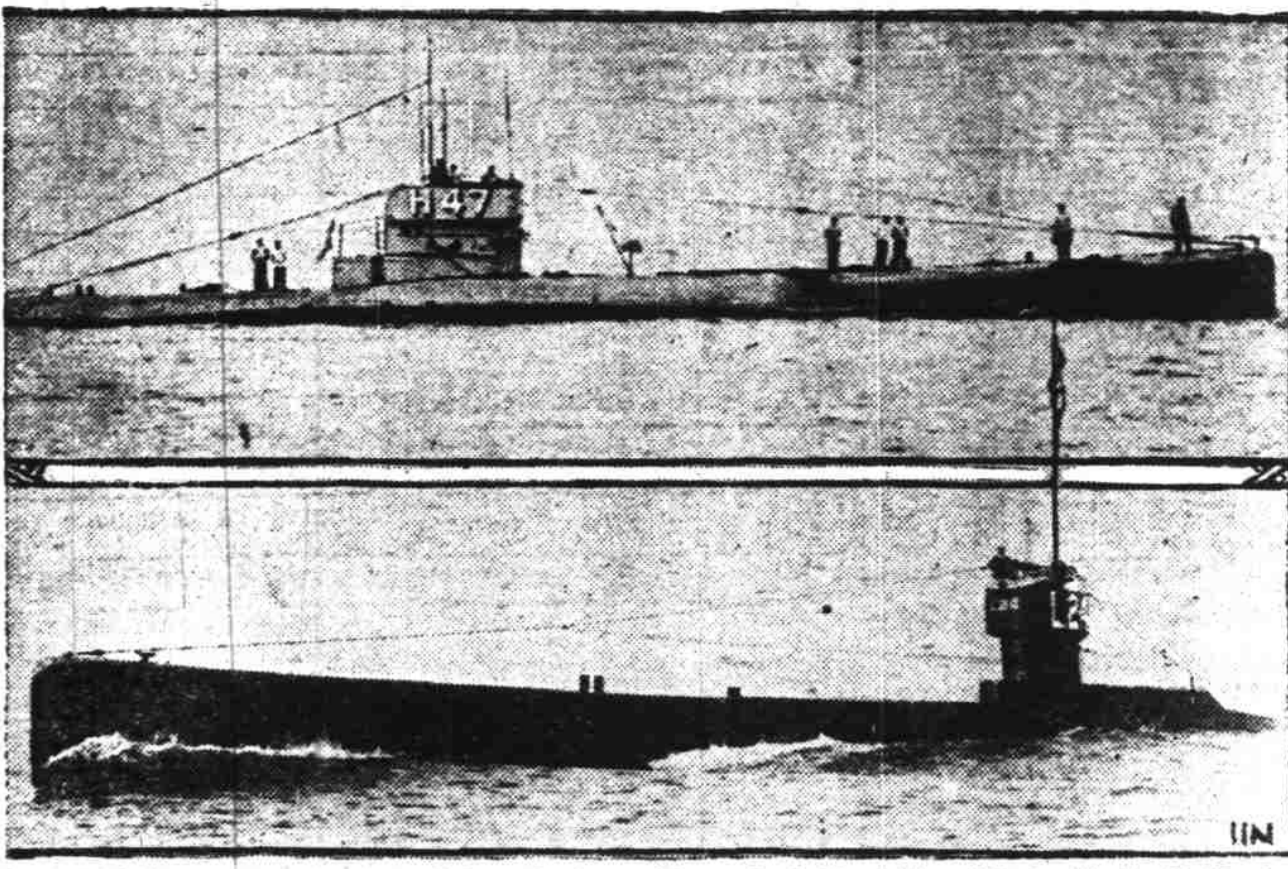

Duke of Gloucester in Doctors' Hands

Another member of the royal family is now in the hands of doctors. The Duke of Gloucester received medical attention this evening in further treatment of a fractured collarbone he suffered in Canada. The trouble was of a minor character.

His Majesty, who spent part of yesterday in the grounds of Buckingham palace was visited that afternoon by the Prince of Wales. The king only recently was obliged to cancel his usual summer visit to Sandringham on account of the state of his health, after a relapse during his convalescence at Windsor castle in June.

The operation will permit removal of the abscess itself, the X-ray photographs taken at the beginning of the week, immediately after the slight set-back in His Majesty's health which followed upon the thanksgiving services for his recovery in Westminster Abbey on Sunday, have been carefully examined by the royal medical staff.

The British Navy submarine L-24, below, is faster ship to the L-12 which collided with the H-47, above, in St. George's Channel off the Pembroke Coast of England, causing the latter to sink immediately in 270 feet of water. Only two members of the crew of 23 were saved. The fatal ship was serving as a training ship and this was her second collision since 1926 when she collided with the L-22 in the English Channel.

Democratic Group Makes Nominations For Oregon's Primary Election in 1930

PORTLAND, Ore., July 15.—(AP)—The Kentucky Klick, a political organization formed in 1903 with a number of men whose ancestors were born south of the Mason-Dixon line, aroused itself tonight, after being dormant for some time, and heard a committee recommend a democratic ticket to be nominated in the primaries, May, 1930.

The committee, appointed April 30, recommended Oswald West for United States senator; Bert E. Haney, for governor and Elton Watkins, for representative of the third congressional district.

The committee of 15 consisted of O. Young, Multnomah county; George Custer, Marion county; former Mayor Williamson, Lane county; E. E. Howell, Jefferson county; O. E. Price, Marion county; Al Price, Clackamas county; B. F. Wilson, Union county; Alex Sweek, Multnomah county; James H. Raley, Umatilla county; William Smith, Baker county; J. F. Wedges, Clackamas county; J. F. Weatherford, Linn county; J. Sweeney, Washington county; Arthur C. Phillips, Yamhill county and M. Lee, Clackamas county.

In its report the committee stated that only three of the 50 democrats submitted to the committee received the indorsement by more than 50 percent.

When the name of Walter M. Pierce, former governor, was mentioned, Lee of Clackamas county, declared the former governor "would not accept a nomination if it was handed to him on a silver platter."

S. C. Armitage, secretary of the Klick, read a communication from one Judge Bryson, of Eugene, asking that the organization support a measure prohibiting Californians from shipping into Oregon citrus fruits, grapes and oranges which the writer claimed were used by Oregon women in making wine.

No action was taken.

PICTURES TAKEN OF NORTHWEST AREAS

DAYTON, Ohio, July 15.—(AP)—Although lacking formal and official confirmation, it was reported at Wright field today that Captain A. W. Stevens, aerial photographer, and Lieutenant John D. Carville, also of Wright field, will leave Dayton for the Pacific northwest on their aerial photographic expedition Thursday.

It will be the purpose of the flight to attempt photographs of mountain peaks in Washington, Montana and Oregon from a distance of 200 miles and also to obtain scientific data in connection with such flights.

The present record for long distance photography was set by Captain Stevens and former Army Lieutenant John A. Macready in 1924, when they took pictures of mountain peaks in the same states from a distance of 175 miles.

hurricane in proportions until he regained French soil.

Coste could not resist the temptation to come to the flying field at Villacoublay "to have a look at the old bus" as he expressed it. He talked with other pilots of the death of Major Ludwik Idzikowski, Polish aviator whose flight began at almost the same hour, ended in a crash in the Azores. Coste again referred to the "magnificent take off" the Polish fliers made at Le Bourget on Saturday morning.

PARLIAMENT TALKS AMERICAN TARIFF

LONDON, July 15.—(AP)—The government again was closely questioned in the house of commons today as to whether it was making representations to the United States concerning its increase in tariffs which several members insisted would work injury to British trade.

The questioners failed to elicit anything from the ministers except that W. R. Smith, parliamentary secretary to the board of trade, assured the mite government had the matter under consideration although "no representations up to the present have been made to the United States by his majesty's government in the United Kingdom."

Foreign Minister Henderson announced that no decision had yet been reached as to where the governmental conference on the Young reparations report would be held.

The question of increase in ministerial salaries also cropped up on suggestions that the premier appoint a committee of inquiry. Several labor members intervened with proposals that the committee should examine the possibility of reducing instead of increasing the salaries. Stanley Baldwin and David Lloyd George, the conservative and liberal leaders, however, both favored an inquiry into the possibility of an increase. No decision was taken although the general opinion seemed to be that the salary of the premier was too small.

HOOVER REVIEWS RAINBOW DIVISION

BALTIMORE, July 15.—(AP)—President Herbert Hoover and General Henri Etienne Gouraud today reviewed the veterans of the Rainbow division who, 11 years ago in the battle of the Champagne crushed the last great German drive. It was a march of triumph. Soft white caps took the place of the steel helmets of 1918. Slender canes, swinging merrily, substituted for the rifle and bright colored clothes replaced the olive drab uniform of the A. E. F.

At the head of the parade rode General Gouraud, leading the veterans, for it was under his command that they broke the German line. When the head of the column reached the reviewing stand, the general joined the president and stood at attention as part of his war time command swung past, his left hand rising and falling in salute, his armless right sleeve swinging in the breeze.

In the parade with the veterans were units of the regular army, members of the Maryland National Guard and citizen soldiers undergoing their annual summer training period. The procession was more than two miles in length.

Lindy Gets Riled When Ruse Tried

SAN FRANCISCO, July 15.—(AP)—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, who rarely speaks for publication on any subject but aviation, delivered a lecture today on honesty and integrity.

The lecture, incidentally was recorded on a sound motion picture reel but will probably never be presented in a motion picture house.

The colonel, whose antipathy for sound reels is well known, was approached at Mills Field here today by a "talkie" cameraman, who had a microphone under his sweater.

"Isn't that a microphone you have hidden there?" asked Lindbergh sharply.

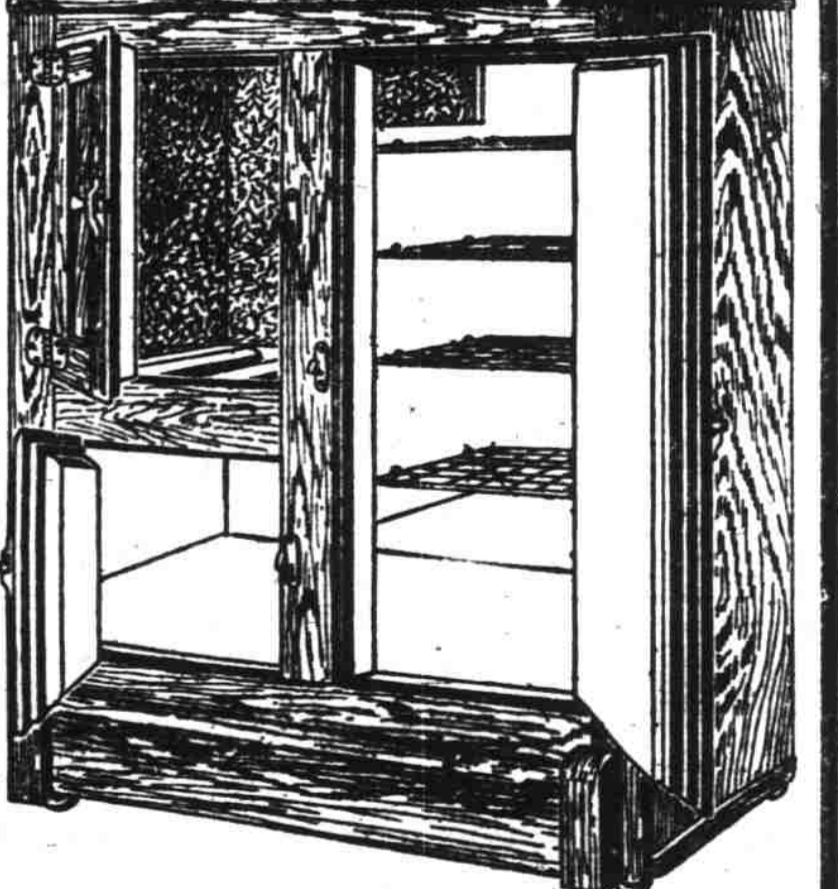

"Yes," admitted the operator.

"That's not honest," said the colonel. "Why didn't you approach me with the microphone in plain sight. That would be the honest thing to do."

"Well," said the operator, who had tried repeatedly to obtain a sound interview, "if I bring the 'make' out will you say a few words?"

"No, I will not," the colonel replied, "because you have not been
