

LEFFLER CLAN HAS REUNION

Fifty-four Members of Family Gather at Hubbard Mineral Springs

HUBBARD, July 15.—The Leffler clan held its second reunion Sunday in the big grove at the Hubbard Mineral Springs. The ancestors of this clan, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Leffler, early pioneers, settled at Seio where they lived on the original homestead till their death which occurred eight years ago. The old homestead is still in the Leffler family.

Among the 54 members present at this meeting was Mrs. E. H. Jeter, 75, of Portland, who is a sister of Mrs. Henry Leffler and who is the only one of that family living. Mrs. Jeter is the secretary of the clan and Mr. Jeter is the president.

A feature of the meeting was the basket dinner which was spread on the long tables around which the members gathered. Reminiscences and a general good time were enjoyed.

Members of the clan present were as follows:

From Seio: Mr. and Mrs. John Leffler, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Leffler and daughter, Bernice, Ivan Leffler, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Leffler and daughter, Virginia, Mrs. Laura Leffler, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Leffler and sons, Cecil and Ernest, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Eccleson, Mrs. Maysel Lyon, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Montgomery and sons, Leroy and Glen, Miss Opal Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Phillip.

From Stayton: Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Leffler and daughter, Virginia, Mrs. Evie Titus and Miss Elvie Montgomery.

From Portland: Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Jeter, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Durham, Mr. and Mrs. George Hoffman and daughter, Betty Lou, Mr. and Mrs. Amil Claudic and son, Ray.

From Albany: Miss Wilma Montgomery.

From Corvallis: Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Howard and son, Donald.

From Jefferson: Edward Jeter. From Hubbard: Mr. and Mrs. George Leffler and daughter and son, Frances and Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Thompson.

Others present were Miss Marie de Lespinaise and Hardy Dimick, Jr., of Hubbard.

COLORADO FOLK VISIT JEFFERSON

JEFFERSON, July 15.—Mr. and Mrs. William Steele of Colorado Springs, Colorado, were visiting old time friends in Jefferson the latter part of the week.

Mr. Steele is a teacher in the high school at that place, having taught there for eight years. William and his parents were former residents of Jefferson. His mother having taught the primary grades in the Jefferson school for eighteen years.

From here they went to Portland where they will spend some time visiting relatives before returning to their home in Colorado.

Mrs. K. S. Thurston spent the first of last week in Portland looking after property interests.

She was accompanied home by Mrs. D. D. Conway who spent several days visiting the K. S. Thurston family.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Reeves of Albany and Miss Edna Wintermantle were guests of Mrs. E. E. Reeves Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Denson of Carlton were visiting the J. R. and Paul McKee families Friday. They were accompanied home by Jean McKee who will spend several days with the Densons.

SILVERTON HAS BUSY WEEK-END

SILVERTON, July 15.—(Special.)—Week-end outings are quite the order of the day this month. Among those going out this last week-end are L. H. Meyer of the Chevrolet garage and Lawrence Larson of the City Meat market to the coast; Alfred Jensen, Edgar Tweed and William Hattberg to the Deschutes country; and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dickman to the Abiqua country. Harold A. Larson is spending a few days of this week at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Larson. Mr. Larson is with the J. C. Penney store at Payallup, Wash. Formerly he was one of the owners of the L. & M. grocery at Silvertown.

The Immanuel Guild will meet at the home of Mrs. C. E. Jorgenson Tuesday evening of this week for its regular monthly meeting.

Charles Wampole who had his left leg badly crushed in the Silver Falls timber company mill last week is getting along as well as can be expected. He will be unable to work for quite a long time, however, as the bones above the ankle were badly crushed. He was standing at a sorting table when a heavy jitney backed up and threw a board against his leg.

Clarence Porter is at Silvertown for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Josie Mires. Mr. Porter is on a furlough from the Navy. He is now stationed on the U. S. S. Colorado, Los Angeles. He has been in the navy for a period of seven years.

Among the Salem visitors who called at Silvertown Sunday and all of whom were former Silvertown residents, were Mr. and Mrs. Martin Tinglestad and family, Mr. and Mrs. Alvia Legard and Arthur Madsen. Ruby Peterson, Muriel Bentson and Margaret Humberg, three Silvertown girls who are attending summer school at San Jose, California, have written Silvertown relatives that they made a trip to Palo Alto where they visited the Stanford university and the home of President Hoover.

PARTY ANNOUNCES SALEM ENGAGEMENT

SCOTTS MILLS, July 15.—At an attractive party Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hogg, Miss Loraine Hogg announced her engagement to Ross R. Hill of Salem.

The evening was spent with music after which a delicious lunch was served. The secret was enclosed in dainty little place cards at each plate. The table was beautifully decorated with a large basket of fern and mixed flowers. Miss Hogg is stenographer in the office of superintendent of public instruction, and Mr. Hill is employed by the Chas. K. Spaulding Co. in Salem.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Groshong and daughter Nell, Mr. and Mrs. Almond Rich and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Haynes, Mrs. W. P. Shutt, Miss Dorothy Shepherd, Miss Garnett Rundel of Salem, Miss Doris Hogg, Miss Loraine Hogg, Mr. Ross Hill and Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hogg.

HUBBARD BAND GIVES CONCERT

HUBBARD, July 15.—Saturday night's band concert by the Hubbard Community band attracted a large crowd from Hubbard and nearby towns.

The following program was given: Friendship, march; Indiana State, march; Magic Garden, overture; Lustspiel, overture; Western World Symphony; Land of Dreams serenade; 140th Infantry, march; Old Time Favorites, selections; The Troubadour, waltz; Prince Charming, opera; Morning Tears, serenade; Homestretch, gallop; Star Spangled Banner.

AUBURN ENJOYS CANADIAN GUESTS

AUBURN, July 15.—Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Harnack and small son, from Crossfield, Alberta, Canada, are visiting Mrs. Harnack's parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Grimm and other relatives here.

Later they will return to Canada, when they will be accompanied by Mrs. Grimm and her youngest daughter, Elsie for a short vacation. Harnack owns one section of land, mostly in wheat, which yields about 10 bushel to the acre. Hay yields an average of three and four tons to the acre. Taxes are $120 per section and up according to road and other improvements.

W.C.T.U. Group Will Can Fruit For Farm Home

WOODBURN, July 15.—The W. C. T. U. held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. E. N. Soule, Friday.

The regular business routine was as usual and it was decided to send to the Children's Farm Home at Corvallis for a barrel of jars to fill with fruit for the home. Mrs. Henry Hanson lead the devotionals and there was no music, the program consisting mainly of reading of excerpts from magazines and papers on the cigarette and liquor question which were given by Mrs. Hanson, Mrs. Beers, Miss Jenny and Mrs. Dean.

Auburn Reports Good Hay Crop Has Been Cut

AUBURN, July 15.—About seven acres of oats and vetch on the Charles Cady ranch, was cut last week. Two and one-half acres only were required to fill a 40 ton silo. In this portion of the field there was some Canadian thistle. This makes very satisfactory ensilage, as it loses its thorns in the heating process. It is estimated there are about 60 tons of hay left in this field.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Brown have moved to Lebanon. Mrs. Katherine Grannis of Turlock was here on business, Saturday. She was accompanied by her step-son, F. L. Grannis of Cottage Grove, where she is visiting.

Crimes Lacking For Two Days

Friday and Saturday were "crimeless days" so far as the Salem police could discover. No entries were made on the police blotter in the 36 hours from 7 o'clock Friday morning to 7 p. m. Saturday.

All Statesman carriers pay for all the papers delivered by them. If you are leaving or changing address be sure to notify the office.
