Reunion Brings Distinguished Guests

Mrs. Ethel Poling Phelps will leave today for Portland where she will attend the house party honoring the Rev. and Mrs. Dan Poling before they leave Saturday for their home in New York where Dr. Poling is the pastor of the Marble Collegiate church, Fifth avenue, the oldest Protestant church in North America. Other guests at the house party which will be given at a summer cottage just out of Portland on the Sandy, will include Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Good, Mrs. Walter Wood of Portland, Dr. and Mrs. D. V. Poling of Corvallis and Harold P. Poling of Albany.

Dr. and Mrs. Dan Poling made the trip west for the interesting reunion of students and faculty members of the old LaFayette seminary, LaCreole academy and the Dallas college held at Dallas last Sunday. These three institutions were consolidated about 1900 to form the oldest Evangelical school in the northwest and, although the Dallas college was discontinued in 1911, many alumnae hope that the college may eventually be rebuilt. The reunion was such an interesting occasion that those present voted to make the event an annual affair.

A basket dinner was served at noon. Dr. C. C. Poling, pastor of the East Side Evangelical church of Portland, presided. The program included speeches by Ralph E. Williams of Portland, Chester F. Gates, district superintendent of the Evangelical church, and Clifford W. Kantner of Seattle, who was head of the music department in the Dallas college. Dr. D. V. Poling of Corvallis led the singing, accompanied by Ethel Poling Phelps of Salem. Miss Katherine Kantner of Seattle played a number of violin solos.

Legion Auxiliary Initiates New Members

The Auxiliary to the American Legion met for an interesting meeting at McCormack hall Monday evening. The meeting opened with the initiation of four new members into the Auxiliary. The newly initiated included: Carl Abrams, Mrs. Mabel Bette, Mrs. A. Hofstetter and Miss Helen Catherine White.

The Auxiliary quartet gave a group of musical numbers as the program of the evening. The members of the quartet are Mrs. Walter Zosel, Mrs. B. J. Bewe, Mrs. Marie Robertson, and Mrs. Robert Wyatt.

At the business session which followed, Mrs. Ruth White, president of the Auxiliary, directed the discussion of the evening to plans for the American Legion convention which is to be held in Salem early in August. Mrs. King Bartlett, the auxiliary chairman for the convention, outlined her extensive plans.

Mr. and Mrs. Farmer Entertain at Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Farmer entertained to honor a number of out of town visitors with a 16-cover dinner in their home on North Summer street Saturday evening.

Dinner was served at tables arranged in the gardens along the creek. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. James Burke Knappe of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harkness of Sister, Oregon, Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Brackett of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Farmer, Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Mechan, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Holman and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Farmer.
