The business of granting marriage licenses picked up Thursday when County Clerk Boyer issued permits to wed to three couples. They were: Wm. E. Snyder of Turner and Helen Rohde of Aumsville; Stewart Thomas and Elsie Edgans, both of Salem and Leslie D. Keuscher of Salem and Alta Gilham of Macleay.

BEATINGS BY HUBBY RESENTED BY WIFE

Anthony Skonetzni repeatedly assaulted and beat her is the charge of Cecelia Skonetzni who asks for a divorce from her husband and the custody of the four minor children. She also asks for $25 per month for the support of the children.

Jean K. Stacy charges that his wife Violet M. Stacy deserted him July 9, 1928, and asks that he be granted a divorce from her.

Leslie L. Henry alleges that his wife, Hattie W. Henry belongs to a peculiar religious cult which does not permit the use of meat, tea or coffee and that after working hard during the day he desired these foods which were denied him. Also his wife insisted upon sending their four children to a school maintained by followers of her religion and that even though he objected and could not afford the tuition charged, the children were sent to the private rather than public schools.

He further alleges that his wife has now deserted him and taken the children with her. He asks that a divorce be granted to him.

Farm Board Devotes its Attention to Fruit Fly Emergency in Florida

WASHINGTON, July 19—(AP)—The fruit fly emergency in Florida gained attention of President Hoover and the newly organized federal farm board.

The board for the first time turned aside from its task of organization to hear an appeal for relief from the Floridians. Chairman Legge indicated at the close of the day that serious consideration was being given the case.

Mr. Hoover announced he would recommend to congress an appropriation to meet the cost to the fruit growers of crops which were destroyed by federal and state agencies in the drive for extermination of the fruit fly. This appropriation will be in the millions but just how much it will amount to has not been determined.

It was explained at the White House that the government had established the precedent of meeting these costs after the question arose during the fight against the hoof and mouth disease.

however, whereby the fruit will be permitted to be shipped from infested areas under certain conditions is expressed by Mr. Hoover to cut down the losses from damage tremendously.

Failure of a number of Florida banks appears to have added to the woes of the Florida citrus industry, and because of the situation the farm board heard the plea of Floridians for a share in the $150,000,000 fund available for loans to cooperative marketing agencies.

Senator Connolly, democrat, Texas, also appeared before the board today, and suggested consideration of the cotton situation. The Texan urged the board to set up a statistical arrangement whereby a close check would be had on cotton conditions at all times.

Chairman Legge said the board would accede to a request made that it receive a committee from the Texas legislature respecting cotton. Otherwise, he said the cotton situation had not been taken up by the board.

Legge and Vice Chairman Stone called at the White House to inform President Hoover of the board's operations during the week.

It was announced that Chairman Legge, Carl Williams, representing cotton, C. C. Teague, representative of fruit, Chris L. Christensen, secretary, and Secretary of Agriculture Hyde, would attend the meeting of the American Institute of Cooperation to be held at Baton Rouge, La., July 29.

Mr. Christensen announced that all appointments in the board's organization would be under civil service.
