

News from Mid-Valley District Communities for Statesman Readers

(Continued from Page 6)

Wednesday in Salem consulting a doctor as Mr. Morris has been in poor health for several months. Mrs. Jack Gobeil spent Friday and Saturday in Dallas on business.

After being away for nearly three years Ross Spencer has returned to Valselt and is working as a log scaler on the pond while Mr. Raymond is laid up.

Dorothy Davis leaves Saturday for Oakland, Oregon, to visit her father, Victor Davis. She will be away until school opens in September.

Mrs. Bill Marquis and children are visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Murdock, at Sherwood, Oregon.

Mrs. M. E. Raymond has been in the Good Samaritan hospital, Portland, for several days receiving medical attention. She has left the hospital but will remain in Portland for about a month under a doctor's care, before returning home.

M. E. Raymond returned from Portland, Wednesday evening. After leaving the train and before arriving home he slipped and sprained his left ankle quite badly and will not be able to work for some little time.

Wm. H. Brayton and his surveying crew have made camp down on the south bank of the Siletts where they will be working for a few weeks.

W. Worth, deputy fire warden, camped near Valselt, has been working on a new fire warden trail from Rock Creek to Holt's camp. Mr. Worth reports that it is the roughest country he ever tried breaking trail over. Also that the deer, bear and cougar are very plentiful in that section. The cougars are killing the young fawns very fast in that district.

Hubbard

HUBBARD, July 20.—Mrs. H. C. Mack returned Tuesday from several days' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Wainwright, at Oakland, Ore. Mrs. Mack accompanied her brother, Dr. C. O. Wainwright, and Mrs. Wainwright of Pendleton who had been in attendance at the Medical Association at Portland. On their way to Oakland Mrs. Mack and her brother visited another brother, Dr. E. J. Wainwright at Roseburg. The return trip was made via the McKenzie Pass.

Dr. P. O. Riley spoke at the Rotary club at Salem Wednesday. Dr. Riley was accompanied to Salem by Mrs. Riley.

Henry Lettler and Ralph Dimick of Hubbard, members of the Silverton American Legion junior baseball team, played at Astoria Saturday and at Silverton Sunday. In the games with the Astoria team, Silverton won both games. The boys were accompanied to Astoria by George Lettler, Henry's father, and to Silverton by Hardy Dimick, Ralph's father.

Mrs. Harry Bennett and children, Harry, Jr., and Leo Crittenden, from Monroe, Wash., are visiting at the home of Mrs. Bennett's father, Charles Crittenden.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Ainsworth and son, Boyd, recently left for Cary where they expect to reside for the present.

Mr. and Mrs. John Smolinsky, Miss Verna and Maxwell left Hubbard Sunday for a two weeks' trip to California. Mr. and Mrs. Smolinsky are proprietors of the Hubbard Service stores. During their absence Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Painter and Roy Troyer have charge of the store.

Mrs. Chester Ward, daughter of Mrs. Levi Willey, is spending the summer with her mother while Mr. Ward attends summer school at the Monmouth Normal. Mr. Ward taught at Seattle, Wash., last year.

Mrs. Herman Carl and Mrs. George Garland were Corvallis visitors Tuesday.

Mrs. Frank Grimps went to Portland Saturday to attend Dr. J. H. Coffey's clinic.

Dr. and Mrs. A. F. de Lespinaise, Franklin and Marie, were Portland visitors Tuesday.

Mrs. V. C. Mayhew and sons Garland and Gail of Manlin are spending the week with Mrs. Mayhew's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Mayhew at Hubbard.

Claud Moomaw and family have moved to Sheridan. Mr. Moomaw and H. F. Scholl will operate a saw mill at the place.

Miss Ruth Jugnickel, who lived with her grandmother, Mrs. Ellen Hatcher, and attended the Hubbard school during the past year left Monday for her home at Rainier. Her father, W. F. Jugnickel and family spent the weekend at Mrs. Hatcher's home and Ruth accompanied them on their return.

Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Ott and Frank Riches of the K. C. Painter home, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Ott at Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Cleaver, accompanied by L. A. Beckman, made a business trip to Marshfield. They left Hubbard Monday and returned Thursday. The trip was made in Cleaver's new Dodge sedan.

Arthur Farr of Molalla, secretary of the Molalla Buckaroo association, was a guest at the home of Dr. and Mrs. P. O. Riley Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Alice Weaver and son Guy, and daughter, Frances, of Hubbard accompanied by Ed. Roop of Canby spent Sunday at Pendleton's camp at Molalla.

Mrs. Susie Ott spent the past week visiting at the home of her son, O. Ott at Portland.

Clement Ransick left Monday for Montana. He expects to go on a touring trip going as far east as Virginia. Hugh Wolfer has bought the crop on the Ransick farm. Mr. Ransick's daughter, Elizabeth, is working in Portland.

The Hubbard firemen will stage a water fight on the commons at Hubbard Monday evening, July 22. The same evening the firemen will sponsor a new fashioned out-door ice cream social. This event will be held on the grounds between the Service store and Moore's confectionery.

The beginner's band will give its first out-door concert at this event.

Plans for the firemen picnic to be held at Playmore park August 11 are well under way.

Miss Ruth Calvert and W. F. Giffard of Hubbard and Mr. and Mrs. Ben W. Baker of Santa Ana, Cal., spent the weekend at Belknap Springs with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Thompson and daughter Wanda of Prineville and Mr. and Mrs. J. Ireland of Redmond. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson were former managers of the telephone office at Hubbard.

Mrs. Waldo Brown and Betty and Wallace were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Robert J. Brown of Carus.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Malloy recently left for a two weeks' vacation. After visiting in Tacoma, Wash., they will visit several of the Oregon beaches.

The Pink and Lavender club held its annual picnic at the Hubbard Mineral Springs park Thursday.

A picnic lunch at noon, games and a good time was the program of the day.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Alice Weaver, Present were: Mesdames Ed. Wolfer, Joe Calvert, B. Reector, A. R. Stevens, Henry Adams, George Zeek, Jerome Jackson and two grandchildren, Mary Kidston, Anna Speight, Alice Weaver, B. G. Wells, Lucy Sewell, Christina Stauffer, and the Misses Mary Gaudy, Frances Weaver, Anita Stevens, Rose Jordan, and Ruth Calvert.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Beckman, Robert, Muriel and Joan accompanied by Boyd Brown spent Sunday on the Molalla river.

Roberts

ROBERTS, July 20.—Frank Gritton of Los Angeles spent part of last week with his sister, Mrs. J. P. Blankenship. During his visit Mrs. Blankenship accompanied him on a three days' trip on the loop road and other scenic routes east of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Forest Edwards and family attended the Roberts' family reunion near the Sunnyside school Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Osborn and family started Sunday for the coast where they will spend the week at various resorts.

Mr. James Fidler, who has been at Jefferson with her daughter, Mrs. Maude Blackwell, came Sunday to attend the Pettysburg family reunion held at Riverdale park, Mrs. Fidler is now visiting with Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Fidler.

Howard Henningson spent Sunday in Portland with Mr. and Mrs. Noble Henningsen and family.

Mr. and Mrs. James Fry are delighted over receiving news from Idaho of a new grandson. Mr. and Mrs. John Fry are the parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Henningsen have moved to their farm near Jefferson. Mrs. Henningsen will teach the school near there where she has taught three previous terms.

Carpenter Bros. finished picking cherries Wednesday. Their cherries were all in first class condition. The Lamberts were larger than in former years.

All the prune growers in this section report a heavy crop of prunes.

Mrs. E. Smith of Salem who spent a week with Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Carpenter, started to Marshfield Tuesday where she will visit with her daughter, Mrs. A. O'Neil.

Mrs. Belle Booth of Silverton is staying with Mrs. Alice Coolidge while her daughter Mrs. Jennie Fisher and husband are visiting in California.

Mrs. Will Burns and daughter, Mrs. E. Jasper and Leslie Burns of Astoria will visit with Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Carpenter Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Seaman of Pasadena, Calif., spent Sunday with Mrs. Alice Coolidge.

Mrs. Deaber Betch and sister, Miss May Windsor, of Aberdeen, Wash., are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Clymer.

Aumsville

AUMSVILLE, July 20.—Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Sams and sons and Mrs. J. L. Sams motored to Salem Thursday.

Mrs. J. Sawyer came from Lyons for a visit with Mrs. Millie Martin.

Mrs. D. Drury and son of Chicago are here visiting with her sister, Mrs. F. A. Garbe and expects to visit her mother, Mrs. Eastburn at Heppner for 3 weeks before returning to Chicago.

George Clymer of Amity is working here on the road with his team and is staying with Mr. Shaffer.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Nance and family of Albany are visiting old friends here Sunday.

A. Lucas and Mr. Carson spent the week-end here with their families. They are working near Grand Ronde.

Mrs. E. Spohn left Thursday for her home in Missouri after a few weeks visit here with her son, Robert Spohn and family.

Mrs. C. George of Turner is here to spend the summer with Mrs. Kirkpatrick.

Charlie Porter of Stayton was a caller in town Wednesday.

Mill City

MILL CITY, July 20.—Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Sams and family of Medford, have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Sams' folks, Rev. and Mrs. Lee Gray.

and family have returned from a two weeks trip to British Columbia.

Miss Mary Hara is spending the week with her parents in Seio.

Miss Carolyn Lettenmeier of Portland spent the week-end visiting with her father, Jake Lettenmeier.

Mrs. Clyde Rogers and son, Clyde, Jr., returned from Philomath, Saturday, where she has been for the past month caring for her mother, who had an operation.

R. S. Shaw of Portland was here Tuesday on business.

Miss Mary Holthousen spent last week visiting with Miss Beulah Cramer of Salem.

Rickey

RICKEY, July 20.—Rickey has been growing rapidly the past year and is now a tall and still continues to grow.

Fred Smith recently completed a modern home, two new houses have been started on the Childs tract within the past week and Irwin Caplinger has the cement poured for the foundation and basements for a new house.

R. Evans has had his store remodeled recently and has had tables installed enabling him to serve ice cream and other confection.

Mrs. Evans now carries fresh meat besides a stock of groceries.

Mrs. Marvin Roth of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. E. Glen, Mrs. Cleve Davis and daughter of Mill City were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harris.

Mrs. T. Wallace transacted business in Salem Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Magee and daughters Margaret and Hazel spend Sunday at the home of Dale Magee at Crooked Finger.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Randall and family spent the weekend at the beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Brougher spent the week end with Mrs. Brougher's mother Mrs. Addie Smith at Scotts Mills.

Allen Wallace has purchased a new Ford coupe.

Miss E. Stedman, who has a large dairy, bailed his week.

D. A. Harris sold several truckloads of grain Tuesday.

Mr. Harris is returning on account of ill health. His son Frank Harris recently of Chico, Calif. will take charge of the farm.

Miss Elmore Edwards of London is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Edwards.

Miss Margaret Fitzpatrick has returned from an extended visit with relatives in San Francisco.

Fryslie & Son who raise several acres of potatoes every year have several acres on the George Edwards farm which look exceptionally fine.

Al Butler who has spent several months with his grandmother, Mrs. A. B. Richardson will return to his home in Idaho Saturday.

Hagers Grove has been the scene of a number of picnic parties during the last few hot days.

Orchard Heights

ORCHARD HEIGHTS, July 20.—Dorothy Logan is suffering from serious throat trouble. She is under the care of Dr. A. B. Starbuck of Dallas.

L. D. Gibson drives out daily from his home in Salem, to superintend the harvesting of his loganberry crop.

Miss Marie Yates of Cathlamet, Washington, is spending the summer with her aunt, Mrs. R. W. Clarke.

Mrs. J. W. Edgar received news of the illness of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Duane Edgar, at Portland, Washington. Friends of the family will remember that Duane died recently, from injuries received in an automobile accident.

Mrs. Grace Eby is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Wilson at the Illihee service station on Jefferson way. The Illihee is the property of Dr. John Lynch of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Simmons and Andrew Doran have gone to eastern Oregon to work in the harvest fields. They expect to be gone about six weeks.

Miss Mary Acker and Miss Lilian Skola, both of Sioux Falls, South Dakota, visited the A. A. Withers and the J. W. Simmons families on Saturday.

The last quarterly meeting of the M. E. church will be held at Summit church on Sunday, July 25. At this time, the Summit and West Salem Sunday schools and church membership will meet together. A bountiful basket dinner will be served, and Rev. Dr. P. H. Temple, general superintendent of the denomination will deliver the address. We now have preaching services every Sunday morning at 9:45. Everyone is urged to attend.

Kingwood

KINGWOOD, July 20.—Donald Muellhaupt enjoyed a day's recreation from the cares of loganberry harvesting by a trip around the Mt. Hood loop on Sunday. He went with his brother, MaWm Muellhaupt and wife, Marlin is an employe of the Montgomery Ward store in Salem.

Miss Laura Bernard before her marriage and is a former resident of Kingwood.

Mrs. Mary Beaver has gone with Dr. A. B. Starbuck and family for a few days' outing at Pacific City.

Theo. P. Gerber, who has been spending his vacation here with his brother, M. F. Gerber and family, started Tuesday for Mare Island, California. He is chief quartermaster of a vessel in the U. S. submarine service.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn L. Adams enjoyed a double treat on Sunday. In the morning they heard the Rev. Dr. McAfee of the Chicago seminary at the First Presbyterian church in Salem. Dr. McAfee also spoke from the chautauqua platform on Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Adams drove from Salem to the Rickreall grove where they heard Dan Poling speak.

Mrs. George Dixon, who recently underwent a major operation at a Salem hospital, was brought out on Monday evening to the home of her father-in-law, W. H. Dixon.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Benson visited the metropolis on Sunday.

D. H. Mosher is building a dam across Glenn creek where it flows through his farm, for irrigation purposes. If it proves to be successful, he plans to erect a concrete retaining wall later.

Charley Adams has been one among the number of the adult citizenry afflicted with mumps.

Mrs. Anna Patison of West Salem spent Friday with the Beaver family.

Ed. Finley on Monday.

J. E. Waltman of Gervais was a guest on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Applewhite.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Benson visited the metropolis on Sunday.

D. H. Mosher is building a dam across Glenn creek where it flows through his farm, for irrigation purposes. If it proves to be successful, he plans to erect a concrete retaining wall later.

Charley Adams has been one among the number of the adult citizenry afflicted with mumps.

Mrs. Anna Patison of West Salem spent Friday with the Beaver family.

Ed. Finley on Monday.

J. E. Waltman of Gervais was a guest on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Applewhite.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Benson visited the metropolis on Sunday.

D. H. Mosher is building a dam across Glenn creek where it flows through his farm, for irrigation purposes. If it proves to be successful, he plans to erect a concrete retaining wall later.

Charley Adams has been one among the number of the adult citizenry afflicted with mumps.

Mrs. Anna Patison of West Salem spent Friday with the Beaver family.

Ed. Finley on Monday.

J. E. Waltman of Gervais was a guest on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Applewhite.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Benson visited the metropolis on Sunday.

D. H. Mosher is building a dam across Glenn creek where it flows through his farm, for irrigation purposes. If it proves to be successful, he plans to erect a concrete retaining wall later.

Charley Adams has been one among the number of the adult citizenry afflicted with mumps.

Mrs. Anna Patison of West Salem spent Friday with the Beaver family.

Ed. Finley on Monday.

J. E. Waltman of Gervais was a guest on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Applewhite.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Benson visited the metropolis on Sunday.

D. H. Mosher is building a dam across Glenn creek where it flows through his farm, for irrigation purposes. If it proves to be successful, he plans to erect a concrete retaining wall later.

Charley Adams has been one among the number of the adult citizenry afflicted with mumps.

Mrs. Anna Patison of West Salem spent Friday with the Beaver family.

Ed. Finley on Monday.

Lash and Frank Pholschneider of St. Paul attended the Catholic convention at the fairgrounds Sunday when 10,000 people were present.

Martin Holmes has commenced his annual run with his hay-baler. Mr. Holmes has added a device to his baling outfit, called straw-buckers which enables him to perform the same baling as formerly, using three teams and six men less at a time when everybody is busy. This is of great value, as there is always a shortage of men and teams.

The goldenrod is in bloom, the wheat is ripe and the first of this year's wheat will be cut this week.

Stayton

STAYTON, July 20.—Law Dierflor and Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Nichols had a bad auto wreck east of Stayton on Monday. Mrs. Nichols received some bad cuts about her head, face and back; and the cars were badly damaged when they collided.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fery are the parents of a daughter born Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. James have been here from Los Angeles visiting at the home of Charles Stowell, Mrs. James and Mrs. Stowell are sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Humphrey and children have gone to southern Oregon for a visit.

About a dozen friends of Mr. and Mrs. Glen E. Fox pleasantly surprised them with a pot luck supper Monday evening, the occasion being Mr. Fox' birthday. The evening was spent playing bridge. Birthday cake and pineapple ice were enjoyed at a late hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted McDermott and Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Burmester and children are home from quite an extensive trip through Washington.

Dr. and Mrs. Phtler are home from San Francisco where the doctor attended the dental clinic. While in the California city Mrs. Phtler took a ride in an airship carrying 12 passengers. It was quite an experience and the Stayton lady enjoyed it very much.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Weddle have gone to Olympia, Washington to attend a meeting of morticians.

Willis Seofield's Ford sedan was destroyed by fire Wednesday night, cause of which is unknown.

Mrs. Mable Fryer, her daughter, Janet, and her mother, Mrs. Marilla Gardner, spent the week-end at Albany.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Klecker were here from San Diego, Calif., this week visiting at the W. F. Klecker home and with other relatives. They are mourning the loss of their six year old daughter, who passed away about two months ago after a lingering illness caused by anemia. She was their only child. From here Mr. and Mrs. Klecker will go to Vancouver, B. C., to visit other relatives.

Donald

DONALD, July 20.—A. Werberg and wife of Teko, Calif., are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gearin. Mr. Werberg was here three years ago and reports a big improvement in the highway between here and Teko. The Werbergs have a big rice farm near Teko, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Gearin also had as their guest this week, Miss Margaret Supple of San Francisco. Mrs. Gearin is a great aunt of Miss Supple.

Marion

MARION, July 20.—M. A. Barber is making preparations to move the old creamery building now on First street to a location next to the property of Wayne Barber on Second street and after building an addition to it will move the postoffice and confectionary store to this new location.

Quite a congregation of Marion people picnicked at Wallport last Sunday and reported a splendid time, the weather being ideal. Those making the trip were Mr. and Mrs. U. F. Terhune, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Overhauser and children, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Roland, Claudian Roland, Owen Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Roland.

Mr. and Mrs. Oren Patterson of Canyon City, Kansas, visited at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Robert Smith a few days last week. Mr. Patterson and Rev. Smith

Joe Shedeck and mother of Salem and Mr. and Mrs. Tony Miller and family of Mt. Angel visited Mr. and Mrs. Reuben De Jardin Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Shepherd and sons Paul and Bob, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Shepherd and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ott Shepherd and small daughter, and Miss Dorotha Shepherd, picnicked on the Abiqua Saturday night and Sunday.

H. S. Dixon has been quite sick with poison oak.

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Moberg visited Mr. and Mrs. Walter Scott Sunday.

Miss Jane Hartman has returned home after visiting relatives in Montana and Missouri for two months. She was accompanied by her sister Mrs. John Scott of Oregon City. They report a splendid time but are glad to get back to Oregon.

Miss Norma McConnell and mother Mrs. Chas. McConnell motored to Dayton, Wash., where they will visit relatives, and also visit in Portland before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Waibel and family of Willamina, Ore., visited Mr. Waibel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Matt Waibel at Crooked Finger Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben De Jardin attended a birthday party Sunday at Shade-Acres honoring Mrs. Julian De Jardin.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Bellinger and family were visitors in Salem Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Mear and son came over from Silverton and spent Sunday here.

Miss Bobby Jones of Salem was the guest of friends here early this week.

Joseph Pholschneider of Lake were old school chums in Kansas. Mrs. Warren Gray and Mrs. Elsie Pickard drove to Salem Wednesday where Mrs. Pickard is having her eyes treated.

Mrs. Celia Olson was taken to the State Tuberculosis hospital at Salem, Monday, where she will undergo treatment. Mrs. Olson has been in poor health for some time, but it is hoped that the treatment offered at the state hospital will be of benefit to her.

Miss Laura Haack who has been visiting with her father, Fred Haack, the past two weeks left Thursday evening for Galtzberg for a two weeks visit with Mr. and Mrs. Roland Dimmick before returning to Portland.

Miss Laura Thomas, who has been visiting Miss Claudian Roland returned to her home at Lebanon, Wednesday.

Mrs. Warren Gray and son, Kenneth, accompanied by Mrs. Bertha Wiesner, and Miss Powalle of North Howell, made a Sunday excursion trip to Mt. Hood. They report a most enjoyable trip with wonderful scenery.

Dr. Harry Scofield of Salem visited at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Scofield, Wednesday.

Aurora

AURORA, July 20.—Mrs. Henry Mills had her tonsils removed last week by Dr. Ebelin of Hubbard. Mrs. Mills is getting along fine.

Florence Preston has returned from a trip to Myrtle Point where she has been visiting friends and relatives.

Mrs. Maud Mochel of Woodburn was an Aurora visitor Wednesday. She was here on business.

Fred Shaw of Tillamook was a week-end visitor at the home of his sister, Mrs. F. M. Ferguson of Aurora.

Mrs. Ruth Frow of Tacoma is spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gantenbine.

Mrs. D. E. Green has returned from a trip to Seattle, where she was accompanied by Miss Berneta Thompson of Woodburn.

Sunday the Maplewood grange of Barlow met at Charles Eller's. After the meeting the crowd assembled on the bank of the Willamette river where a picnic lunch was served. The afternoon was spent in games and swimming. There were about 50 people present, and all reported a good time.

Donald

DONALD, July 20.—A. Werberg and wife of Teko, Calif., are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gearin. Mr. Werberg was here three years ago and reports a big improvement in the highway between here and Teko. The Werbergs have a big rice farm near Teko, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Gearin also had as their guest this week, Miss Margaret Supple of San Francisco. Mrs. Gearin is a great aunt of Miss Supple.

Donald

DONALD, July 20.—A. Werberg and wife of Teko, Calif., are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gearin. Mr. Werberg was here three years ago and reports a big improvement in the highway between here and Teko. The Werbergs have a big rice farm near Teko, Calif.