

Events in the Social World and News of Varied Club Activities

Phone 500 OLIVE DOAK Society Editor

The Tea Afternoon Tea Attractive Affair

MISS HELEN CAMPBELL and Miss Hester Davis entertained at a charming garden party for Beta Epsilon of Kappa Alpha Theta in the gardens of the L. P. Campbell home Saturday afternoon, honoring girls who will enter college in the fall. Bridge was the diversion of the afternoon and tables were set in the lower terrace along the creek where the flowers and trees are most attractive. The natural setting was further enhanced with hanging baskets in the trees and great baskets of larkspur and Shasta daisies.

Mrs. Roy S. Keene and Mrs. Bernice Slater poured at the tea table which was placed under the umbrella tree. The table was centered with a large crystal bowl in which were arranged delphinium, larkspur, pink sweet peas and Dorothy Perkins roses. Pink tapers in tall crystal candlesticks were at either side. Assisting with the serving were Miss Helen Wells, Virginia Clay, Amelia Sanson and Jean Campbell.

Guests of Kappa Alpha Theta included Katherine Laughrade, Yvonne Smith, Gretchen Thielson, Lois Wilkes, Jean Campbell and Estelle Wood, all of Salem, Bertha Richmond of Corvallis, and Carolyn Thorsen, Peggy Matland, and Julia Tyler, all of Portland.

Other guests included the alumnae members, Miss Bertha Orford, Miss Prudence Patterson, Mrs. Sterling Smith, Mrs. Bernice Slater and Mrs. Roy S. Keene; special guests, Mrs. Rex Davis, Mrs. Hunt and Mrs. W. H. Barrett of Albany, Mrs. L. P. Campbell and Mrs. L. D. Campbell; active chapter members, Miss Helen Wells, Miss Virginia Clay, Miss Amelia Sanson, and Miss Catherine Scagnan, all of Portland, and Miss Peggy Wood of Corvallis.

Miss Bosshard Hostess To Delta Phi Girls

Miss Dorothy Bosshard entertained a number of her Delta Phi sorority sisters at an attractive evening in the Bosshard home one evening last week.

Late in the evening Miss Bosshard, assisted by her mother, Mrs. H. F. Bosshard, served dainty refreshments to the group which included Miss Jean Middleton, Miss Jennie Delzell, Miss Gertrude Oehler, Miss Bertha Baebeck, and Misses Pauline and Edith Findley.

A group of Delta Phi girls met for luncheon at the Argola restaurant Wednesday afternoon. In the group were Miss Bosshard, Miss Oehler, Miss Marian Bretz, Miss Florence Emmons, Miss Middleton, Miss Delzell and the Misses Pauline and Edith Findley.

Salem Hunt Club Rides by Moonlight

The members of the Salem Hunt club enjoyed a moonlight ride event Friday evening. The group took the high trail from their West Salem stables to the J. A. Propp home. There a great bonfire was already prepared for roasting the weiners which Miss Charlotte Zeiber had ordered for them. Later in the evening strawberries, the contribution of R. E. Kittridge, were served.

In the group who rode Friday night were Mrs. Eva Hansen, Mrs. H. F. Hughes, Mrs. Amer Stalp, Mrs. F. M. Moore, Miss Catherine Hartley, Miss Charlotte Zeiber, Miss Marie Edwards, Elsa Egan, Stewart Thomas, Walter Fuhrer, Rich Reiman, Luke Shields, Douglas McKay and Sargeant Mac Manus, who was in charge of the ride.

To compliment a number of girls who plan to enter the university this fall, Salem Beta Chi members are planning a line party at the Capitol theatre Wednesday evening. After the theatre the guests will be entertained in the W. G. Morehouse gardens which overlook the river. Several guests from out of town have been invited.

Miss Ellen Jean Moody and Miss Myrtle Rinehart of Salem are attending the Skyline Trill camp which Miss Carin H. Degermark, physical director at the Leslie junior high school last year, and Miss Jennie M. Hall have opened at Elk lake for the eighth season. The camp will be open until August 19.

Mrs. Paul Fugate and her small daughter Ruth Pauline left Saturday for their home in Aberdeen, Idaho, after a visit of several weeks here with Mrs. F. D. Voigt and Mrs. A. P. Woodport. Mrs. Fugate was entertained with several days last week at the beach before her departure.

Mrs. George Oliver (Genevieve Findley) and her small daughter Muriel of Pomeroy, Washington, are spending the summer with Mrs. Oliver's parents, Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Findley. Mr. Oliver is here for the weekend.

Miss Benedita Edwards has a guest for the weekend Miss Helen Stiles of Portland. Miss Stiles and Miss Edwards are Alpha Phi Alpha sorority sisters on the Willamette campus.

Mrs. Ercel Kay, young Salem Matron who is prominent in golf circles.

Miss Helen Campbell, hostess at attractive garden party Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Paul Doney, who has been the inspiration for a number of social affairs during her visit here.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Monday
Salem Civic male chorus evening practice at Prof. Hobson's studios in Nelson bldg.
Tuesday
Mizpah class, First Baptist church, at 8 o'clock with Mrs. McAdams 595 Court.
Sons of Union Veterans and their auxiliary picnic at 6:30 o'clock at fairgrounds.
Beta Chi evening meeting with Miss Aiken.
American Legion and Auxiliary joint meeting of committees for convention at 8 o'clock at Elks' club.
Wednesday
Delta Phi luncheon, 12 o'clock at Gray Belle.

Thursday Club Of Dallas Picnics

DALLAS, July 20.—Following its usual custom, members of the Thursday afternoon club, the oldest social club in Dallas, held its annual picnic supper for their families in the city park on Thursday evening. When it became dark, W. V. Fuller, who is with the educational division of the state forestry service showed several reels of motion pictures, one of them depicting the winning of the west, one Indian scenes in the Mt. Adams country, another of Oregon scenery, a special one for the boys and girls of the "Smiling Pool" and its little friends the dragon fly, the frog, the turtle and a red tail hawk. One reel of fire prevention pictures was also shown by Mr. Fuller. Members present for the supper were: Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Woods; Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Viers, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Simonton, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Crowther, Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Loughary, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Craven, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Uglow, Rachel and Abel Uglow, Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Staats, Mary and Margaret Staats, Dr. and Mrs. V. C. Staats and Bernice, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Allgood, sons Robert and Jimmie, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Hawkins and Kathryn, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Soehren and Irene, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hayter and son Phillip, Mrs. I. F. Youkam and Mrs. C. L. Barnes. A gift was presented to Mrs. Barnes who is leaving to make her home in Portland.

Mrs. Barbeau Hostess To New Three F Club

The organization of a new social afternoon club was effected Friday afternoon with Mrs. Chester Barbeau as the first hostess in her home at the Virginia apartments. The new club group has chosen to call itself the Three F club.

Following an afternoon of conversation and sewing, the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Elmo Bennet and Mrs. Elmer Lewis, served dainty refreshments to the special guest of the afternoon, Mrs. Alice Newell, and other members, Mrs. Glen Holman, Mrs. Chester Tyndal, Mrs. Gladys Neusch and Mrs. Dorothy Hyer.

Mrs. Elmo Bennet will be hostess to the club at its next meeting, July 25.

Young Missionaries On Way to Africa Here

Interesting visitors during the week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Fairley who spent Friday in Salem with Mrs. Fairley's aunts, Mrs. Stafford and Mrs. Arnold, of North Capitol street. Mr. and Mrs. Fairley are on their way from the missionary training school at Nyack-on-the-hudson to a mission post in Africa which has never before received a Christian missionary.

They will sail soon, first for Paris, France for some further study of the language, and from there they will go direct to their new post in the French Congo.

Little Miss Ruth Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy J. Anderson, entertained a number of her friends to celebrate her tenth birthday Saturday afternoon.

Minnesota Club Will Hear P. O. Riley

The Minnesota club will hold its annual picnic August 4 at Hager's grove this year. In the absence of the club president, Dr. J. O. Hall, M. D. Stegner will preside and P. S. McKenzie will be present to lead the singing. P. O. Riley, editor of the Hubbard Enterprise, will make the address of the day. Other features of the program will be announced later.

Mrs. E. Winans announced her engagement to Scott E. Smith at a dinner at which Dr. and Mrs. E. McDaniel of Portland were hosts at the Benson hotel in Portland last Thursday evening. The wedding will be an event of early September. Mrs. Winans is the owner of the Hollywood Auto company. Mr. Smith is also associated with the automobile business in Salem.

Legion Auxiliary Schedule Is Extensive

The American Legion auxiliary quartet will appear at a number of occasions soon. Three engagements have been scheduled for the quartet this week. Tuesday morning the group will sing over station KGW at 8 o'clock.

Tuesday evening they will appear before the joint meeting of the American Legion and the Auxiliary committee for the Legion and Auxiliary conventions which will be held here August 8, 9, and 10. The joint committee meeting will be held at 8 o'clock in the Elk's club.

Friday evening the quartet will sing at the Realtor's convention banquet at the armory.

The quartet includes Mrs. Robert Wyatt, first soprano; Mrs. B. C. Bowe, second soprano; Mrs. Marie Robertson, first alto and Mrs. Walter Zosel, second soprano. Auxiliary plans for the convention include an extensive program for entertaining, the largest even of which will be the garden party at the Clifford Brown home on Mission street during the afternoon of August 8 between the hours of 2 and 4 o'clock. Mrs. Jesse George and Mrs. Clifford Brown are effecting plans for this event that will make it the outstanding affair of the week. All the delegates to the convention from the 70 units that comprise the state organization will be invited.

About 100 guests are being arranged for at both the secretaries' breakfast at the Gray Belle, Friday morning and the presidents' dinner at the Elks' club Friday evening.

For transportation to the airport dedication and the barbecue there Thursday, buses will be chartered.

Old-time Residents Visit Here Friday

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wilson of San Francisco spent a few hours with friends in Salem Friday as they were passing through on their way to the Yellowstone national park where they plan to spend a part of their vacation. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will be remembered well by long-time Salem folk as they were prominent residents here in the '80's.

Mr. and Mrs. Mary Jane and Billie and Chester Gigger of Portland, and Mrs. H. T. Gentry and family of Kalispell, Mont., were former Hoppers residents, but now live at Woodburn, are the parents of a new baby boy, named Harry Richard Graves. This is their second child.

John Tonkin and O. Johnson have gone to Wendling where they will work in the timber.

Mrs. Mary Osburn, went to Independence where she will be a guest of her son, Dick Osburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Landers motored to Independence recently and were guests of relatives.

Mrs. Ralph Mases was a Sunnyside visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kellogg.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Pearson (Mildred Conroy) are visiting with relatives in Indiana, enroute to their new home in New York City where Mr. Pearson will take up his duties with the Bell company.

Loganberry picking is at the peak in this vicinity with fruit of better quality than last year.

Many of the cherry growers are sustaining heavy loss through the ravages of the magot fly.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moore of The Dalles spent Friday in Salem as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. Wicklander.

Mrs. Fred A. Gerber of Portland is spending the week-end here as the guest of her mother, Mrs. A. K. DeWitt.

Curtis-Donough Ceremony Saturday

Miss Marjorie Donough, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Donough of North 14th street, became the bride of Arthur J. Curtis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl W. Curtis of route 9, Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in the home of the bride, The Rev. B. F. Shoemaker, pastor of the Court street Christian church, officiated at the quiet service at which only relatives and a few close friends were present. The rooms were pretty with summer flowers and ferns.

Miss Donough was attended by Miss Esther Hunsaker and Allen Wallace attended Mr. Curtis. Little Jennette Salestrom carried the ring in a large rosebud.

The bride was lovely in a gown of white satin enhanced with tulle and silver lace. She carried a shower bouquet of sweet peas in shades of delicate pink. Miss Hunsaker, the bridesmaid, was dressed in apple green crepe de chine and carried an arm bouquet of roses in the deeper shades of rose. Little Miss Salestrom was dainty in pale pink.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis left for a short wedding trip immediately after the reception which followed the wedding ceremony. They will make their home in Salem after August 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis left for a short wedding trip immediately after the reception which followed the wedding ceremony. They will make their home in Salem after August 1.

Beta Chi Entertains At Tea in Portland

The Beta Chi sorority members of Willamette university who are in Portland this summer entertained at an attractive formal tea affair in honor of girls who will enter the university this fall at the C. H. White home on East Davis street Saturday afternoon.

In the receiving line were Miss Katherine Everett, Miss Elma White, Mrs. C. H. White and Mrs. C. D. Bodine. Presiding at the urns were Mrs. Winifred St. Clair Rodgers and Miss Elaine O'Berg. Assisting with the serving were Miss Faye Cornutt, Miss Lucile Schultz, and Miss Lois Jean Rasch. Miss Eleanor Henderson introduced to the receiving line.

Friends of Mrs. C. P. Bishop will be glad to learn that she is recovering from the recent extended illness that has kept her from engaging in the activities of the numerous organizations in which she takes a keen interest.

The Mizpah Sunday school class of the First Baptist church will be the guests of Mrs. E. A. McAdams at 595 Court street Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

Miss Logan Will be Bride Today

Miss Nina Logan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Logan of Salem, and Carl Strutz, son of Mrs. Mathilda Strutz, also of Salem, will be married at 2 o'clock this afternoon at a quiet ceremony in the home of the bride before a few close friends and relatives. The Rev. P. W. Erikson, pastor of the American Lutheran church will officiate.

The bride will be gowned in orchid crepe and will carry a bride's bouquet of Cecil Brunner roses and sweet peas. The couple will be unattended.

Mr. Strutz is associated with the McMarr chain stores at Portland where the young people will be at home at the Rose Garden apartments.

Mrs. Belle Goodwin of Albany was the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bishop for a few days during last week.

Numerous Affairs Planned For Visitors

To compliment the wives of Salem's guests at the Realtor's convention, which begins Wednesday this week, a gay whirl of social activity will renew the calendar with many interesting affairs.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr. will open the lovely gardens of her home on North Winter street to the housewives of Salem for a large garden party to welcome the convention guests. Cars will be provided to take the guests from their hotels to the McGilchrist home. In the evening there will be an old-time dance at the armory.

Three events are planned to entertain the visitors Thursday, beginning with a theater party at the Capitol in the morning. In the afternoon a drive through the city and an inspection tour of the linen mills are being planned. Thursday evening will be left free that convention guests may attend the speaking contest at the Grand theater. This will be preceded by an organ recital by Melvin Ogden who was formerly organist at the Broadway theater in Portland.

A no-host luncheon at 1:30 o'clock has been arranged for Friday afternoon at the Elk's club. The luncheon will be followed by an afternoon of bridge, also at the club.

Friday evening the women will be guests at the convention banquet at the armory. Dancing will follow the banquet.

Plans for the entertainment of the visiting women are in charge of the entertainment committee which includes Mrs. Lelace Ellis, chairman, William McGilchrist, Jr., and Lee McAllister.

Gray Belle 50c SPECIAL DINNER

440 State St. Salem, Ore.

75c REGULAR DINNER

$1.00 DINNER DE LUXE

Served from 11 a.m. to 8 p.m. Gray Belle now under management of John Blakely

"Graceful Frock of Crepe"

Pattern 1739
It is the simplicity and grace of Design 1739 that make it so very smart. The full pleated skirt, the blouse jacket and the snug hip girdle are features of deciding interest. The lines are most slenderizing. This model is exquisite fashioned of silk crepe in one of the pastel shades. The neckline and jabot may be bound in a contrasting color or may be plicated. An attractive buckle finishes the belt in front. May be obtained only in sizes 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44. Size 16 requires 3 1/2 yards of 40 inch material. This model is easy to make. No dressmaking experience is necessary. Each pattern comes to you with simple and exact instructions, including yardage for every size. A perfect fit is guaranteed. Patterns will be delivered upon receipt of Fifteen Cents (15c) in coins carefully wrapped or stamps. Be sure to write plainly your Name, Address, Style Number and Size wanted. Our Latest Fashion Book will be sent upon receipt of Ten Cents in coin. Address all mail and orders to Statesman Pattern Department, 243 West 17th Street, New York City.

Sunnyside

SUNNYSIDE, July 20.—Nathan Thomas of Jonesburg, Indiana, is visiting at the home of his cousin, Mrs. D. S. Pearson. The visitor was taken to Silver Creek Falls and other local places of interest.

Alyceam Murray and Ruth Pemberton are spending the fortnight visiting Mrs. Ray Frazier, former Sunnyside teacher, at Amboy, Wn.

Mrs. Ralph Mases was a Sunnyside visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kellogg.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Pearson (Mildred Conroy) are visiting with relatives in Indiana, enroute to their new home in New York City where Mr. Pearson will take up his duties with the Bell company.

Loganberry picking is at the peak in this vicinity with fruit of better quality than last year.

Many of the cherry growers are sustaining heavy loss through the ravages of the magot fly.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moore of The Dalles spent Friday in Salem as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. Wicklander.

Mrs. Fred A. Gerber of Portland is spending the week-end here as the guest of her mother, Mrs. A. K. DeWitt.

Mehama

MEHAMA, July 20.—Roy Reeves' daughter, Lois, is reported having a light case of small pox.

Loganberry pickers from Mehama picking at Gescher's are Billie Wilson, Wava Wilson, Ernie and Russell Wilson, Millie Monroe, Harry Monroe, Betty Gough, Blanche Wagner, Mae Beaver and Genevieve Wagner.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Monroe, son, Harry and Keith Phillips have all motored to the coast for a few days fishing.

The Mehama Improvement club met on the bank of the Santiam last Saturday night for a picnic. A large crowd attended and all had a good time. Wieners were roasted and cake, coffee and buns were served. After supper games were played. The club meetings are now adjourned until this fall.

Hopemere

HOPMERE, July 20.—An extra gang of fifteen Philippine workmen are employed by the Oregon Electric Railroad company between Hopemere and Waconda, laying new ties on the track. They are in command of a Japanese foreman.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Giggers had as recent guests, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Gigger and family and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hains and chil-

COME TO CHURCH TODAY

WORSHIP WITH US THIS SUNDAY

HEAR

Evangelist Frank Mathis

Colorado Springs, Colo.

—in—

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH SUNDAY

11:00 a.m. "True Worship"
8:00 p.m. "Pilate's Question"
Special Music. Strong Sermons

COME TO CHURCH TODAY

WORSHIP WITH US THIS SUNDAY