

RICKREALL GROUP HAS FINE PICNIC

Five Carloads of People Go to Lafayette to Enjoy Event of Sunday

RICKREALL, July 23.—The second annual picnic of the Rickreall inhabitants was held at the Locks at Lafayette Sunday, July 23.

There were five car loads including Mr. and Mrs. F. Pence and daughter Betty, Mrs. Carl Burns and son Bobbie, Mr. and Mrs. A. Kellberg and LaVerne Jane Harland, Mr. and Mrs. Beaver, Harvey Beaver, Claude and Gertrude Larkin, Mr. and Mrs. William Rowell, and Bill and Elizabeth, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Harland and small son, William Howard.

The crowd went to Owens first before going to the Locks. They live between McMinnville and Lafayette.

At noon the men made the coffee and the women spread the lunch. Four freezers of ice cream were left to top the lunch off.

In the afternoon almost all the picknickers went in swimming. Water and sand fights were the sports of the afternoon.

When there was nothing more to eat they left for home. Several of the cars stopped at Ewens as they were going back.

Misses Dorothy and Alice Ewen entertained the folks by playing several pieces on the piano and "uke."

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Adams and two sons, Harold, Jr., and Ruben, and Mrs. J. Christensen and daughter Margie were the Sunday guests of Mrs. Charles Larkin. Mr. Adams is the principal of the Corvallis high school where they make their home for the present. He intends to teach in California next year.

St. Paul Enjoys Visitors And Vacation Trips

ST. PAUL, July 23.—Monday afternoon a few of the young married women of St. Paul entertained Mrs. Gerold Connor with a surprise birthday party at her home. Mrs. Connor received many nice gifts.

Joe Gooding of Portland, a former resident of St. Paul is now salesman for Maytag washing machines and also for Falcon radios. He has been demonstrating at many of the homes here.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Becker and children, Irene, Tootie and Melvin of Monroeville, Mrs. Susie Bunting and children, Wallace and Dorothy, of Portland; and Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Becker of Silverton, were guests at a dinner given by Mrs. Ed Faber at her home.

In the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Bunting and children, Crescencia, Everett, Monica, Luella, Prosper, Henry and John Paul of Gervais, Mr. and Mrs. Warner and children, Dorothy and Herman of Newberg, also visited with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Faber.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter McDonald and Mrs. S. Merien, the mother of Mrs. McDonald, toured central Oregon and visited with Mrs. Merien's daughter, Mrs. Ray Jones of Redmond. They reported a most enjoyable time.

Mr. and Mrs. John Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Davidson and children, Margaret, Kenneth and Helen, John Gooding, Bill Gooding, Homer Russell, T. M. Kirk, Mrs. Caroline Faber and daughter, Louise, and Rose Marie Faber returned from Netarts where they were spending their vacation.

Norman Ernst, Edwin Woodruff, and Lester Ernst spent their week-end at Newport, visiting with Lester's sister, Theresa.

Mrs. Mary Faber and Cecil Faber are leaving Wednesday for San Francisco, where they are going to visit with Mrs. Faber's sons, Leo and Albert.

Charles Kennedy and sister of Multnomah are visiting with their sister, Mrs. Carl Smith.

Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Faber and son, Keith of Newberg, Mrs. Steve Merien and children, Elsie Marguerite and Jimmie, Mrs. Olive Raymond and daughter, Luella, and Mrs. E. C. Davidson spent the evening visiting at the home of Mrs. Agnes Faber.

Sunday a number of people from St. Paul motored to St. Louis to attend the picnic and many stayed for the dance in the evening.

St. Paul defeated the Woodburn boys in a fast baseball game at Playmore park Sunday.

Mr. Bartell of San Francisco is a guest at the home of Mrs. Caroline Faber.

Harry Faber, of Newberg, made a flying trip to St. Paul Monday evening on business.

Turners Have 50th Wedding Celebration

DONALD, July 23.—Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Turner celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary Saturday at their home in Wisconsin.

Mr. and Mrs. Turner were married in Billings, Missouri July 20, 1879 and came to Wisconsin in 1890.

They are the parents of ten children nine of which are still living.

Six of the children were present to help celebrate. They were Mrs. Homer Wright of Berkeley, Calif., Mrs. J. C. Wright of Newberg, Ore., Arthur Turner of Ione, Ore., Roy Turner of McHenry, Wash., Mrs. James H. Greenfield of Seattle, Wash., Mrs. Walter Parsons of Vancouver, Wash., and thirteen grand children. Mrs. Frank Enbanks of Port Hill, Idaho, Mrs. J. D. McNeill of Wilmington, Calif., Buford Turner of Los Angeles, Calif., and nine grand children were unable to attend.

Sunday they all gathered at the home of Mrs. J. C. Wright of Newberg, coming from there to the grove in Newberg for a picnic dinner.

Turners Have 50th Wedding Celebration

INDEPENDENCE, July 23.—The union Sunday evening service at the Methodist church was well attended last Sunday. An excellent spirit was manifest throughout and a refreshing message brought on "The New Birth" by Rev. Robert Genter of Wilmington, California. Next Sunday evening the service will be held in the Baptist church at which time Rev. J. Clarence Orr will give his farewell sermon to the community.

Mrs. W. A. Barnum, principal of the Independence Training school, and her daughter, Marion, went to Stayton Tuesday evening to conduct a Camp Fire ceremonial. Mrs. Crosby Davis and Mrs. Ellen Davis accompanied them. Thursday Mr. and Mrs. Barnum, and daughter Marion, will leave here for California, in which state Mrs. Barnum will attend summer school for six weeks.

Mrs. J. M. Cook, daughters Helen and Edna, son Alfred, and Miss Ruth Clark of Eugene, all former residents here, were Sunday visitors in Independence.

Mrs. W. H. Craven is visiting a daughter in Salem.

Funeral Services for M. Stoutenberg

UNIONVALE, July 23.—Funeral services for Mildred Stoutenberg, age 16, were held Friday morning at the Unionvale church at ten o'clock, with interment in the Hopewell cemetery.

The deceased was born at Fort Rocks, Lake county, Oregon, January 20, 1913, and died July 15, 1929. She has lived in Unionvale for the past several years. Besides her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stoutenberg, she is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Harold Webster of Los Angeles, Mrs. Raymond Palmer and Muriel Stoutenberg of Dayton.

Silverton Has Ministers From Various Towns

SILVERTON, July 23.—Three Silverton churches had out of town speakers in their pulpits Sunday.

At the Immanuel church the Rev. J. C. Roseland of Chicago occupied the pulpit. Rev. Mr. Roseland is visiting relatives at Silverton.

At the Methodist Episcopal church Dr. John M. Canine, president of Kimball school of Theology, spoke at the morning service in the absence of the regular pastor, the Rev. Thomas Hardie who is having a short vacation.

The Rev. H. Rogen of Monitor spoke at Trinity church in the absence of its pastor, the Rev. H. L. Foss, who is in the east on business connected with Pacific Lutheran College at Parkland, Wash. Whether or not the Rev. Mr. Foss will be back next Sunday is not yet known. He has been gone three weeks.

Chevrolet Runs Wild on Street

INDEPENDENCE, July 23.—On the corner of Monmouth and Fourth streets in Independence Monday afternoon the Chevrolet coupe driven by Miss Mary Roberts, primary critic teacher in Independence Training school, ran wild and bumped into the side of a Pontiac driven by Carl and Chester Dodson of Monmouth, resulting in the overturning of the Pontiac, badly damaging its top, jamming one fender, and ruining one rear wheel.

The Chevrolet stopped on the sidewalk near the W. H. Craven residence without severe injury to itself—front bumper bent, and front end of car twisted a little out of line.

The Pontiac had the right of way on Monmouth avenue when the Chevrolet came in on Fourth; when Miss Roberts attempted to apply her brakes, her foot slipped and apparently struck the accelerator.

Junior Violette, Frances Olson, and Norman Osborn, school children, were in the car with her and while the thrill was about all they wanted, no one was hurt.

Silverton Bests Eugene 10 to 1

SILVERTON, July 23.—The Silverton Junior League baseball team won a victory over Eugene at Silverton Sunday with a score of ten to one. The only home run of the game was made by Vincent Keber of Silverton. Next Saturday the Silverton team goes to Eugene to play the second game of the series which will determine who will play eastern Oregon for the state championship.

Visit Shipley's

SILVERTON, July 22.—Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Nesheim spent Sunday at Monmouth as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Shipley. Mr. Nesheim has fully recovered from his recent injury at the Silver Falls Timber company mill and was able to resume his work again Friday. Mr. Nesheim recently was cut in his left forearm by a saw. The cut necessitated a number of stitches.

Turners Have 50th Wedding Celebration

DONALD, July 23.—Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Turner celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary Saturday at their home in Wisconsin.

Mr. and Mrs. Turner were married in Billings, Missouri July 20, 1879 and came to Wisconsin in 1890.

They are the parents of ten children nine of which are still living.

Six of the children were present to help celebrate. They were Mrs. Homer Wright of Berkeley, Calif., Mrs. J. C. Wright of Newberg, Ore., Arthur Turner of Ione, Ore., Roy Turner of McHenry, Wash., Mrs. James H. Greenfield of Seattle, Wash., Mrs. Walter Parsons of Vancouver, Wash., and thirteen grand children. Mrs. Frank Enbanks of Port Hill, Idaho, Mrs. J. D. McNeill of Wilmington, Calif., Buford Turner of Los Angeles, Calif., and nine grand children were unable to attend.

Sunday they all gathered at the home of Mrs. J. C. Wright of Newberg, coming from there to the grove in Newberg for a picnic dinner.

Calif. Minister at Independence

INDEPENDENCE, July 23.—The union Sunday evening service at the Methodist church was well attended last Sunday. An excellent spirit was manifest throughout and a refreshing message brought on "The New Birth" by Rev. Robert Genter of Wilmington, California. Next Sunday evening the service will be held in the Baptist church at which time Rev. J. Clarence Orr will give his farewell sermon to the community.

Mrs. W. A. Barnum, principal of the Independence Training school, and her daughter, Marion, went to Stayton Tuesday evening to conduct a Camp Fire ceremonial. Mrs. Crosby Davis and Mrs. Ellen Davis accompanied them. Thursday Mr. and Mrs. Barnum, and daughter Marion, will leave here for California, in which state Mrs. Barnum will attend summer school for six weeks.

Mrs. J. M. Cook, daughters Helen and Edna, son Alfred, and Miss Ruth Clark of Eugene, all former residents here, were Sunday visitors in Independence.

Mrs. W. H. Craven is visiting a daughter in Salem.

Funeral Services for M. Stoutenberg

UNIONVALE, July 23.—Funeral services for Mildred Stoutenberg, age 16, were held Friday morning at the Unionvale church at ten o'clock, with interment in the Hopewell cemetery.

The deceased was born at Fort Rocks, Lake county, Oregon, January 20, 1913, and died July 15, 1929. She has lived in Unionvale for the past several years. Besides her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stoutenberg, she is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Harold Webster of Los Angeles, Mrs. Raymond Palmer and Muriel Stoutenberg of Dayton.

Silverton Has Ministers From Various Towns

SILVERTON, July 23.—Three Silverton churches had out of town speakers in their pulpits Sunday.

At the Immanuel church the Rev. J. C. Roseland of Chicago occupied the pulpit. Rev. Mr. Roseland is visiting relatives at Silverton.

At the Methodist Episcopal church Dr. John M. Canine, president of Kimball school of Theology, spoke at the morning service in the absence of the regular pastor, the Rev. Thomas Hardie who is having a short vacation.

The Rev. H. Rogen of Monitor spoke at Trinity church in the absence of its pastor, the Rev. H. L. Foss, who is in the east on business connected with Pacific Lutheran College at Parkland, Wash. Whether or not the Rev. Mr. Foss will be back next Sunday is not yet known. He has been gone three weeks.

Chevrolet Runs Wild on Street

INDEPENDENCE, July 23.—On the corner of Monmouth and Fourth streets in Independence Monday afternoon the Chevrolet coupe driven by Miss Mary Roberts, primary critic teacher in Independence Training school, ran wild and bumped into the side of a Pontiac driven by Carl and Chester Dodson of Monmouth, resulting in the overturning of the Pontiac, badly damaging its top, jamming one fender, and ruining one rear wheel.

The Chevrolet stopped on the sidewalk near the W. H. Craven residence without severe injury to itself—front bumper bent, and front end of car twisted a little out of line.

The Pontiac had the right of way on Monmouth avenue when the Chevrolet came in on Fourth; when Miss Roberts attempted to apply her brakes, her foot slipped and apparently struck the accelerator.

Junior Violette, Frances Olson, and Norman Osborn, school children, were in the car with her and while the thrill was about all they wanted, no one was hurt.

Silverton Bests Eugene 10 to 1

SILVERTON, July 23.—The Silverton Junior League baseball team won a victory over Eugene at Silverton Sunday with a score of ten to one. The only home run of the game was made by Vincent Keber of Silverton. Next Saturday the Silverton team goes to Eugene to play the second game of the series which will determine who will play eastern Oregon for the state championship.

Visit Shipley's

SILVERTON, July 22.—Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Nesheim spent Sunday at Monmouth as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Shipley. Mr. Nesheim has fully recovered from his recent injury at the Silver Falls Timber company mill and was able to resume his work again Friday. Mr. Nesheim recently was cut in his left forearm by a saw. The cut necessitated a number of stitches.

Harvest on at South Silvertown

SOUTH SILVERTON, July 23.—Otto Dickman did the first grain cutting in this section. He cut a field of oats Friday.

Mrs. Wm. Hagenbeck spent last week in McMinnville as the guest of her son, Ernest and wife. Her son brought her home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edson Comstock and children, Roger and Janet were members of a picnic party last Thursday night at the Silverton park. Others in the party were Dr. and Mrs. A. J. McCannell, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Sylvester and daughters, Miss Miriam and Shirley, Marion Hoblitt, all of Silverton and Jack McCannell of Portland. The young people enjoyed swimming in the pool.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Egan had a radio installed last week and on Thursday evening, Mr. and Mrs. William King of Silverton were out to enjoy it. Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jones, of Victor Point, were guests at the Egan home.

Le Roy Rue returned last Monday from Minnesota where he has been the past year. He was a pupil in the Augsburg School of Music in Minneapolis. He will spend the summer months at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. K. O. Rue.

Mrs. Ellis Lindsay, who with her family has been living in the Jeff Starmer house for some months is very seriously ill with diphtheria. She is under the care of a Salem physician.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Kaufman and children, of Salem, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Neuwander. They are enjoying Oregon again after an absence of six years spent in Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Kuenzel and children, Lena and Herman, returned Sunday night from a 10-day motor trip to Colton and Colfax, Washington.

Mrs. E. A. Findley and children, Teddy and Norma, returned Sunday from a few days spent with relatives at Condon, Oregon.

Mrs. Everett Phillips and son Roy and Miss Stella King, of Nehalem, were at Mrs. Phillips' farm Saturday. The Phillips formerly lived here, but are now operating a grocery store at Nehalem.

A group of young men have organized a baseball team in this neighborhood. They dub themselves "The Hill Billies." Last week they defeated the "Nail-kickers" of Pratum and are now looking for new worlds to conquer.

Silverton Party Enjoys Sunday At Breitenbush

SILVERTON, July 23.—A large group of Silvertonians motored to Breitenbush Hot Springs Sunday for an all day outing. The distance to the hot springs is a little over seventy miles from Silverton. All of those making the trip report it very interesting.

From Silverton to Mill City the road is paved. From Mill City to Breitenbush the road is in good condition. The road is not all gravelled from Detroit to the springs but is in a fairly good condition. The dust, which is often so dense as to obstruct the view, is perhaps the greatest menace of this part of the road. Only in a few places is it too narrow to permit cars to pass one another. The trip is, the party reported, exceptionally interesting and, with proper caution, there is not as much danger on this road as some have indicated.

Among those making the trip Sunday were Prof. and Mrs. Edwin Tingelstad, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hatteberg, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gottenberg, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Haugen, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Haugen, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hatteberg, Miss Nettie Hatteberg, Miss Agnes Hatteberg, William Hatteberg, Mrs. M. J. Mason, Miss Lillie Madsen, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Madsen, Mr. and Mrs. John Moe, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Sater, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Torvond, Henry Hjorth.

Marie White to Teach School in Triumph, Minn

SILVERTON, July 22.—Friends and relatives have received word that Miss Marie White will teach English and Latin at the high school at Triumph, Minn. Miss White, who was graduated from St. Olaf's college at Northfield, Minnesota, in June, is a daughter of the Rev. A. O. White, who was for 12 years pastor of Trinity church at Silverton. Miss White was born while her father was serving at Silverton. The Whites now live at Mantowau, Wisconsin, where Rev. Mr. White has charge of two country churches.

Sunset Trail Pageant

SILVERTON, July 22.—Binders have begun to click in the outlying districts announcing that the grain harvest is at hand. Wheat is reported very good around Silverton this year, although, in some of the heavier fields it was laid down by the heavy wind and rain of early June.

Junk! Junk! Junk!

We buy junk of all kinds, any amount of anything. We will call and pay top price.

Salem Junk Co.
320 N. Com'l Phone 492

Minor Accident On Town Streets

JEFFERSON, July 23.—A minor accident took place last Friday afternoon without any serious damage, which occurred at the Main street crossing and the state highway. As Miss Eleanor Libby accompanied by Mrs. Leslie Libby were driving south on Main street, they stopped their car at the crossing and not long enough to avoid a collision with a Packard sedan driven by parties from Olympia, Washington. The Packard received a bent running board, while the steering gear was damaged. Fortunately no one was injured.

Noted Presbyterians Go To Services at Pleasant Grove

TURNER, July 23.—Home Coming Day was observed Sunday at the Pleasant Grove church, two miles northwest of West Stayton.

It is the oldest Presbyterian church west of the rocky mountains, built 71 years ago. The lumber was hauled by ox team from Oregon City. At the present time Rev. J. Y. Stewart of Albany, preaches at 3 p.m. on alternate Sundays.

Rev. D. A. Thompson, synodical executive of Portland, gave the morning sermon followed by a basket lunch served under the mammoth fir trees. The afternoon service opened at two-thirty. Rev. J. Y. Stewart presiding. Congregational singing was led by Rev. G. H. Reddin who does missionary work in lumber camps.

A solo, "It takes the storm clouds to form the rainbow" was given by Mrs. J. N. Callavan of Talbot. Mrs. Callavan was a daughter of one of the pioneer families, that of Calvin Neal. "The Little Church in the Woods" was rendered by a quartet. An original poem, on the building of the church so long ago, written by a young girl, Arland Moe of Mehama was read.

Solo, "The Man of Galilee" was given by G. H. Reddin.

Rev. A. Wilson, of New York, who is head of the Presbyterian missionary board, gave the afternoon address, the theme being, "The Spirit of God is coming on all flesh," making a plea for co-operation in church work, as well as in secular activities. Comparatively few of the congregation of people who made the congregations of a score of years ago were present. Several of the next generation were reminding of their Sunday school days in the old church.

Noted Presbyterians Go To Services at Pleasant Grove

TURNER, July 23.—Home Coming Day was observed Sunday at the Pleasant Grove church, two miles northwest of West Stayton.

It is the oldest Presbyterian church west of the rocky mountains, built 71 years ago. The lumber was hauled by ox team from Oregon City. At the present time Rev. J. Y. Stewart of Albany, preaches at 3 p.m. on alternate Sundays.

Rev. D. A. Thompson, synodical executive of Portland, gave the morning sermon followed by a basket lunch served under the mammoth fir trees. The afternoon service opened at two-thirty. Rev. J. Y. Stewart presiding. Congregational singing was led by Rev. G. H. Reddin who does missionary work in lumber camps.

A solo, "It takes the storm clouds to form the rainbow" was given by Mrs. J. N. Callavan of Talbot. Mrs. Callavan was a daughter of one of the pioneer families, that of Calvin Neal. "The Little Church in the Woods" was rendered by a quartet. An original poem, on the building of the church so long ago, written by a young girl, Arland Moe of Mehama was read.

Solo, "The Man of Galilee" was given by G. H. Reddin.

Rev. A. Wilson, of New York, who is head of the Presbyterian missionary board, gave the afternoon address, the theme being, "The Spirit of God is coming on all flesh," making a plea for co-operation in church work, as well as in secular activities. Comparatively few of the congregation of people who made the congregations of a score of years ago were present. Several of the next generation were reminding of their Sunday school days in the old church.

Cherry Picking Ends for Year

HOPEWELL, July 23.—Cherry picking ended Friday in this community.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Moe and Harold Breese were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stephens.

Mrs. G. R. Dissmore has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dissmore of Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Creed Loop and Mrs. Charley Wood visited Mrs. M. Loop at Amity, who is very sick, Sunday.

Mrs. Rebecca Wood of McMinnville was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charley Wood last Friday.

No One Hurt in Accident

Mr. and Mrs. E. Cobb and Mrs. D. Cobb of Portland turned over in their car in front of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Bantari Sunday afternoon on their road home. Nobody was hurt badly. It was caused by loose gravel on the side of the road and the driver turned the car back on the road too suddenly.

Charley Stephens and son, Chester, went fishing at Black Rock Thursday and Friday.

Silverton Couple On Return to Home

SILVERTON, July 23.—Mrs. Edwin Reede (Kline, Nesheim) writes Silverton relatives that she and her husband are on their return trip, having gone as far as Faith, South Dakota, on their wedding journey. At the time of writing they were enjoying Yellowstone National park. From there they planned to go to Boise, Idaho, before returning to Oregon to make their home. With the exception of one severe electric storm which broke a window in the house in which they were staying, they report that they have had very nice weather and an enjoyable trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Reede's wedding was a social event of early spring at Silverton.

Excursion to Lakes Draw Silvertonites

SILVERTON, July 23.—The Crescent and Odell Lakes' excursion held Sunday drew a large group of Silvertonians. Eighty from Silverton made arrangements to take the trip. Among those on the train were Mr. and Mrs. Al Coates, Deibert Davern, Miss Clara Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Nelson, Mrs. Levi Goplerud, Miss Lulu Goplerud, Miss Cora Goplerud, Miss Inga Goplerud, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hillman, Robert Hillman, Marjory Hillman, Miss Jordis Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Storrustetter, Mr. and Mrs. Olsen, Mr. and Mrs. S. Gay, Lois Gay, Gertrude Gay, Glenn Himmel, William Moores, Jr., Evelyn Lais, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Allen, Reuben Jensen, Alice Jensen, L. A. Toft, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morley, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reynolds, Carl Schmedicke, Esther Koelen, Otto Lala, Annabelle Bowen, Glenn Huttleston, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Garver.

Minor Accident On Town Streets

JEFFERSON, July 23.—A minor accident took place last Friday afternoon without any serious damage, which occurred at the Main street crossing and the state highway. As Miss Eleanor Libby accompanied by Mrs. Leslie Libby were driving south on Main street, they stopped their car at the crossing and not long enough to avoid a collision with a Packard sedan driven by parties from Olympia, Washington. The Packard received a bent running board, while the steering gear was damaged. Fortunately no one was injured.

Minor Accident On Town Streets

JEFFERSON, July 23.—A minor accident took place last Friday afternoon without any serious damage, which occurred at the Main street crossing and the state highway. As Miss Eleanor Libby accompanied by Mrs. Leslie Libby were driving south on Main street, they stopped their car at the crossing and not long enough to avoid a collision with a Packard sedan driven by parties from Olympia, Washington. The Packard received a bent running board, while the steering gear was damaged. Fortunately no one was injured.

Minor Accident On Town Streets

JEFFERSON, July 23.—A minor accident took place last Friday afternoon without any serious damage, which occurred at the Main street crossing and the state highway. As Miss Eleanor Libby accompanied by Mrs. Leslie Libby were driving south on Main street, they stopped their car at the crossing and not long enough to avoid a collision with a Packard sedan driven by parties from Olympia, Washington. The Packard received a bent running board, while the steering gear was damaged. Fortunately no one was injured.

Gervais Society Has Good Meeting

JEFFERSON, July 23.—The Ladies Missionary society of the Presbyterian church held its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Scott Jones on Wednesday afternoon, with Mrs. George Wynn as assistant hostess.

Mrs. R. S. Marshall led the devotional service, and the president, Mrs. Scott Jones the lesson, LaVon Jones sang "Bring Them In." The occasion was also the eighth birthday of LaVon Jones and her grandmother Mrs. George Wynn, presented her with a birthday cake bearing eight candles. Mrs. Pamerton of Pierre, South Dakota, who is here visiting her sister, Mrs. John Harper, was presented with one of the society's study books on account of her service rendered the society in the past. Refreshments were served by the hostesses assisted by Mrs. A. M. Jones and Mrs. Donald Toombs.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Seigmund went to Stayton last Sunday where they spent the day with Mr. Seigmund's father, who is past 90 years old.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kappes of Ukiah, California, are guests of their daughters, Mrs. Clarence Grassman and Mrs. John Stevens. The Kappes were former residents here having owned the Lawrence Grassman farm.

Albert Stolk who has been doing relief work for the past ten days at Wicopee, returned to his home in Gervais Tuesday.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Stevens were Mr. and Mrs. Chester Vincent of Pullman, Washington.

L. A. Esson and family, and Mrs. Sam Brown and son Samuel E. Brown attended the funeral of their cousin Dr. Hugh Mount at Oregon City, last Friday.

Professor and Mrs. J. D. Brehaut and family have returned home from their vacation spent at Roseburg.

The young people's club of Gervais parish and the young people of the St. Louis parish entertained jointly the young people's club from Mt. Angel at the Gervais city hall recently. Dancing was the pastime for the evening. A large crowd was present and all had a very enjoyable time. Refreshments were served.

Gervais Society Has Good Meeting

JEFFERSON, July 23.—The Ladies Missionary society of the Presbyterian church held its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Scott Jones on Wednesday afternoon, with Mrs. George Wynn as assistant hostess.

Mrs. R. S. Marshall led the devotional service, and the president, Mrs. Scott Jones the lesson, LaVon Jones sang "Bring Them In." The occasion was also the eighth birthday of LaVon Jones and her grandmother Mrs. George Wynn, presented her with a birthday cake bearing eight candles. Mrs. Pamerton of Pierre, South Dakota, who is here visiting her sister, Mrs. John Harper, was presented with one of the society's study books on account of her service rendered the society in the past. Refreshments were served by the hostesses assisted by Mrs. A. M. Jones and Mrs. Donald Toombs.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Seigmund went to Stayton last Sunday where they spent the day with Mr. Seigmund's father, who is past 90 years old.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kappes of Ukiah, California, are guests of their daughters, Mrs. Clarence Grassman and Mrs. John Stevens. The Kappes were former residents here having owned the Lawrence Grassman farm.

Albert Stolk who has been doing relief work for the past ten days at Wicopee, returned to his home in Gervais Tuesday.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Stevens were Mr. and Mrs. Chester Vincent of Pullman, Washington.

L. A. Esson and family, and Mrs. Sam Brown and son Samuel E. Brown attended the funeral of their cousin Dr. Hugh Mount at Oregon City, last Friday.

Professor and Mrs. J. D. Brehaut and family have returned home from their vacation spent at Roseburg.

The young people's club of Gervais parish and the young people of the St. Louis parish entertained jointly the young people's club from Mt. Angel at the Gervais city hall recently. Dancing was the pastime for the evening. A large crowd was present and all had a very enjoyable time. Refreshments were served.

Gervais Society Has Good Meeting

JEFFERSON, July 23.—The Ladies Missionary society of the Presbyterian church held its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Scott Jones on Wednesday afternoon, with Mrs. George Wynn as assistant hostess.

Mrs. R. S. Marshall led the devotional service, and the president, Mrs. Scott Jones the lesson, LaVon Jones sang "Bring Them In." The occasion was also the eighth birthday of LaVon Jones and her grandmother Mrs. George Wynn, presented her with a birthday cake bearing eight candles. Mrs. Pamerton of Pierre, South Dakota, who is here visiting her sister, Mrs. John Harper, was presented with one of the society's study books on account of her service rendered the society in the past. Refreshments were served by the hostesses assisted by Mrs. A. M. Jones and Mrs. Donald Toombs.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Seigmund went to Stayton last Sunday where they spent the day with Mr. Seigmund's father, who is past 90 years old.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kappes of Ukiah, California, are guests of their daughters, Mrs. Clarence Grassman and Mrs. John Stevens. The Kappes were former residents here having owned the Lawrence Grassman farm.

Albert Stolk who has been doing relief work for the past ten days at Wicopee, returned to his home in Gervais Tuesday.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Stevens were Mr. and Mrs. Chester Vincent of Pullman, Washington.

L. A. Esson and family, and Mrs. Sam Brown and son Samuel E. Brown attended the funeral of their cousin Dr. Hugh Mount at Oregon City, last Friday.

Professor and Mrs. J. D. Brehaut and family have returned home from their vacation spent at Roseburg.

The young people's club of Gervais parish and the young people of the St. Louis parish entertained jointly the young people's club from Mt. Angel at the Gervais city hall recently. Dancing was the pastime for the evening. A large crowd was present and all had a very enjoyable time. Refreshments were served.

Gervais Society Has Good Meeting

JEFFERSON, July 23.—The Ladies Missionary society of the Presbyterian church held its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Scott Jones on Wednesday afternoon, with Mrs. George Wynn as assistant hostess.

Mrs. R. S. Marshall led the devotional service, and the president, Mrs. Scott Jones the lesson, LaVon Jones sang "Bring Them In." The occasion was also the eighth birthday of LaVon Jones and her grandmother Mrs. George Wynn, presented her with a birthday cake bearing eight candles. Mrs. Pamerton of Pierre, South Dakota, who is here visiting her sister, Mrs. John Harper, was presented with one of the society's study books on account of her service rendered the society in the past. Refreshments were served by the hostesses assisted by Mrs. A. M. Jones and Mrs. Donald Toombs.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Seigmund went to Stayton last Sunday where they spent the day with Mr. Seigmund's father, who is past 90 years old.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kappes of Ukiah, California, are guests of their daughters, Mrs. Clarence Grassman and Mrs. John Stevens. The Kappes were former residents here having owned the Lawrence Grassman farm.

Albert Stolk who has been doing relief work for the past ten days at Wicopee, returned to his home in Gervais Tuesday.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Stevens were Mr. and Mrs. Chester Vincent of Pullman, Washington.

L. A. Esson and family, and Mrs. Sam Brown and son Samuel E. Brown attended the funeral of their cousin Dr. Hugh Mount at Oregon City, last Friday.

Professor and Mrs. J. D. Brehaut and family have returned home from their vacation spent at Roseburg.

The young people's club of Gervais parish and the young people of the St. Louis parish entertained jointly the young people's club from Mt. Angel at the Gervais city hall recently. Dancing was the pastime for the evening. A large crowd was present and all had a very enjoyable time. Refreshments were served.

Gervais Society Has Good Meeting

JEFFERSON, July 23.—The Ladies Missionary society of the Presbyterian church held its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Scott Jones on Wednesday afternoon, with Mrs. George Wynn as assistant hostess.

Mrs. R. S. Marshall led the devotional service, and the president, Mrs. Scott Jones the lesson, LaVon Jones sang "Bring Them In." The occasion was also the eighth birthday of LaVon Jones and her grandmother Mrs. George Wynn, presented her with a birthday cake bearing eight candles. Mrs. Pamerton of Pierre, South Dakota, who is here visiting her sister, Mrs. John Harper, was presented with one of the society's study books on account of her service rendered the society in the past. Refreshments were served by the hostesses assisted by Mrs. A. M. Jones and Mrs. Donald Toombs.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Seigmund went to Stayton last Sunday where they spent the day with Mr. Seigmund's father, who is past 90 years old.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kappes of Ukiah, California, are guests of their daughters, Mrs. Clarence Grassman and Mrs. John Stevens. The Kappes were former residents here having owned the Lawrence Grassman farm.

Albert Stolk who has been doing relief work for the past ten days at Wicopee, returned to his home in Gervais Tuesday.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Stevens were Mr. and Mrs. Chester Vincent of Pullman, Washington.

L. A. Esson and family, and Mrs. Sam Brown and son Samuel E. Brown attended the funeral of their cousin Dr. Hugh Mount at Oregon City, last Friday.

Professor and Mrs. J. D. Brehaut and family have returned home from their vacation spent at Roseburg.

The young people's club of Gervais parish and the young people of the St. Louis parish entertained jointly the young people's club from Mt. Angel at the Gervais city hall recently. Dancing was the pastime for the evening. A large crowd was present and all had a very enjoyable time. Refreshments were served.

Gervais Society Has Good Meeting

JEFFERSON, July 23.—The Ladies Missionary society of the Presbyterian church held its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Scott Jones on Wednesday afternoon, with Mrs. George Wynn as assistant hostess.

Mrs. R. S. Marshall led the devotional service, and the president, Mrs. Scott Jones the lesson, LaVon Jones sang "Bring Them In." The occasion was also the eighth birthday of LaVon Jones and her grandmother Mrs. George Wynn, presented her with a birthday cake bearing eight candles. Mrs. Pamerton of Pierre, South Dakota, who is here visiting her sister, Mrs. John Harper, was presented with one of the society's study books on account of her service rendered the society in the past. Refreshments were served by the hostesses assisted by Mrs. A. M. Jones and Mrs. Donald Toombs.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Seigmund went to Stayton last Sunday where they spent the day with Mr. Seigmund's father, who is past 90 years old.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kappes of Ukiah, California, are guests of their daughters, Mrs. Clarence Grassman and Mrs. John Stevens. The Kappes were former residents here having owned the Lawrence Grassman farm.

Albert Stolk who has been doing relief work for the past ten days at Wicopee, returned to his home in Gervais Tuesday.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Stevens were Mr. and Mrs. Chester Vincent of Pull