

Cochet And Borotra To Comprise French Doubles Team

YANKES LOSE SINGLES PLAY

French Making Every Effort to Clinch Net Tourney at Paris Today

PARIS, July 26.—(AP)—Henri Cochet and Jean Borotra will represent France against Wilmer Allison and John Van Ryn in the Davis Cup challenge round doubles tomorrow, it was announced by French tennis authorities tonight.

Selection of Cochet and Borotra to play the doubles indicated that France was determined to clinch the series tomorrow if possible.

Victorious in both singles matches today the French need only one more victory to turn back the United States challenge threat for the second year in a row. Cochet and Borotra generally are regarded as the strongest doubles pair in France. The French had Jacques Brugnon and Christian Boussus available for doubles duty but apparently decided to make every effort to clinch the series tomorrow.

Allison and Van Ryn captured the doubles championship at Wimbledon and promise to provide formidable opposition for the two French masters. As a matter of fact, expert opinion gives the young Americans at least an even chance to win.

PARIS, July 26.—(AP)—America's bid to regain the Davis Cup, symbol of world tennis supremacy, broke down today before the perfect defenses of France.

Superb in his execution of every stroke, the French master, Henri Cochet, whipped Big Bill Tilden, fading American ace, in straight sets. Jean Borotra, veteran from the Basque beat the young Chicagoan, George Lott, with the loss of but one set in the opening singles matches of the challenge round.

With the doubles scheduled for tomorrow and another pair of singles Sunday, France needs but one more victory to retain the famous cup for another year.

That one victory should be anything but hard to get on the basis of today's play. Opening America's challenge this afternoon, the beat the 22 year old Lott could do was to keep Borotra from bounding and bounding as he is wont to do. He could not keep him from winning with scores of 6-1, 2-6, 6-4, 7-5, in the Frenchman's favor.

AGED TRAINER PUTS HIS STRING IN SHAPE

LEXINGTON, Ky.—(AP)—David Cahill, 84-year-old master of Westbrock stock farm near here, still revels in the thrill of harness racing and participates in the sport because it helps to keep him young.

He had a string of pacers and trotters ready for the recent Grand Circuit campaign and when they entered the races, he knew their condition because he personally trained them.

The veteran sportsman is active in the management of his extensive breeding farm and for years has been a familiar figure on the Grand Circuit and other harness racing tracks. Today he lays claim to being the oldest man still active in the training and campaigning of race horses.

This year he had 10 trotters and pacers at the Lexington trotting track and while he does not drive them in the races, he is in a sulky each day exercising some of

Pitchers' Pet Jinxes

YOU often hear about jinxes in the great national pastime. Certain pitchers are poison to some of our well-known hitters. George Uhl, for instance, seems to have the Indian sign on so great a percentage as Babe Ruth. The Detroit flinger isn't even afraid of the great Sam Rice.

Hard Fighting Mexican Boxers Fail to Get by And Make Championships

By RUSSELL J. NEWLAND Associated Press Sports Writer SAN FRANCISCO.—(AP)—Mexican standard bearers have tramped through the corridors of pugilistic hall of fame for the past 35 years but not sun-bronzed brother from the republic below the Rio Grande has yet donned the coveted robes of a champion.

In addition to his stables of race horses, Mr. Cahill is widely known as a breeder of fine dairy stock.

LEO DIEGEL SHOOT THREE BELOW PAR

KANAWAKI GOLF CLUB, Montreal, Que., July 26.—(AP)—Leo Diegel, rushing home in characteristic Diegel fashion shortly after sundown took the lead in the Canadian open golf championship by shooting a brilliant 67, three under par, in the second round today.

Diegel's 67, following a par 70 yesterday, was the best performance of the second round by two strokes. Par was more elusive today than yesterday and until the pro from Mexico did his bit, 69 was low for the day. One of the 69's fell to Tommy Armour, 1977 champ, in the first round, giving him a total of 138.

Two Frisco Men Enter Net Final
SEATTLE, July 26.—(AP)—San Francisco will meet San Francisco and Seattle will play Seattle in the semi-finals tomorrow of the Washington state tennis tournament for the men's singles championship.

Laursen Driscoll and Ed. Levy, both of the California city, will tangle in one main event. Leon Driscoll and Mel Dranga, Seattle's best will clash in the second battle. The final title match is set for Sunday.

With mystifying placement shots, Dranga upset the dope today to conquer Kurt Berndt of San Francisco, seeded No. 1, player, in the quarter finals the Seattle star swept Berndt off his feet in the first set to win six games to one.

In the second set the California ace grabbed a three game lead over Dranga but failed to garner another. The local racket wielder returned everything Berndt had to offer and kept his opponent running at top speed. The San Francisco man, who won the Oregon state championship helped to bring about his own downfall in the second set when he netted several easy shots.

A torrid battle was waged by Driscoll and Ray Casey of San Francisco for semi-final honors, with Driscoll capturing the long fought contest 8-6, 6-3.

Kid Chocolate, featherweight fighter, gives his age as 22. His true age, it is said, is 19.

Customers Pay More Than Hundred Thousand to See Fields Get Title on Foul

DETROIT, July 26.—(AP)—The welterweight championship bout in which Joe Dundee lost his title to Jackie Fields on a foul in the second round last night, attracted 16,172 cash customers, who paid $102,012.33 into the coffers of promoter Floyd Fitzsimmons' new fight arena in the Michigan state fair grounds here.

Of this, Dundee received $50,000 before he entered the ring. Fields share was not announced. He received a percentage after taxes and other deductions were made from the gross take.

Fields today appeared to have fully recovered from the effects of the foul blow that sent him in agony to the canvas last night. He said his legs still were a bit stiff, but that otherwise he felt fine. Until he was able to get on his feet after the foul Fields thought he had been knocked out, he said today. "When they told me I had won I thought they were kidding me," he said.

Fields said he intended to be a fighting champion and that he would meet any logical contender for the title. He is under a 90 day contract to promoter Fitzsimmons, who is understood to be planning a bout between Fields and Jimmy McLarnin here in September.

FINALS REACHED IN WOMEN'S NET PLAY

MANCHESTER, Mass., July 26.—(AP)—Edith Cross of San Francisco, America's third ranking woman tennis player, and Mary Greaf of Kansas City, today gained the final bracket of the fifth annual Essex Country club singles tourney by defeating two New York veterans of many Wightman cup battles. Miss Cross defeated Mrs. Mollie Bjurstedt Mallory, 6-3, 6-4, and the Kansas City girl, who was unseeded, eliminated Eleanor Goss 6-4, 6-0.

The women's doubles play was reduced to the finals with Miss Cross and Mrs. L. I. Harper, also of San Francisco, and Mrs. George W. Wightman and Sarah Palfrey, both of Brookline, as survivors. Miss Cross and Mrs. Harper were seeded first at the start and the Brookline team was second.

SILVERTON TO PLAY EUGENE

Junior Legion Ball Teams to Battle for Honors as Convention Nears

SILVERTON, July 26.—(Special)—Silverton is all set for the big baseball game at Eugene Saturday when the local American Legion Junior team will meet the Eugene team in its second battle of the series of three games. The boys leave Silverton at nine o'clock and will be accompanied by a fair delegation of Silverton fans and supporters. Should the locals win this game they will have only one more team to defeat for the state championship. If the Silverton boys lose they will have to play off the tie with Eugene on a neutral field, probably that at Salem.

EUGENE, July 26.—(Special)—If practicing against left handed pitching will win for the Eugene American Legion Juniors against Silverton Saturday afternoon here at the fair grounds at 4 o'clock, then Eugene will have a good chance of meeting Portland in the state finals at Salem during the Legion convention in August, Frank Fassett, manager of the team said Thursday.

Eugene submitted to a drubbing, 6 to 2, at Silverton and if the locals do not win the game Saturday they are out of the running. If they do win it a third game will be played with Silverton on a neutral field.

Eugene's team has been practicing hard this week, making a specialty of slugging balls served up by a southpaw. Silverton has a port-side pitcher who baffled the local batters at their last meeting.

Portland, July 26.—(Special)—Semi-final games in the American Legion Junior baseball league scheduled for Saturday and Sunday of this week will determine which two clubs will engage in the state finals announced for Friday, August 9, at Salem during the American Legion state convention.

Portland's Gyro Cards will leave for Pendleton, Saturday, to play the Ontario Juniors, Sunday. Coach Bill Garbarino has been working diligently with his Cards since their overwhelming victory over Hood River and has the club in tip-top shape.

Johnny Niemiec, 1923 star at Notre Dame, is passing summer Saturdays and Sundays away by playing baseball in Chicago.

Lloyd Waner is showing the way in batting to his big brother Paul, this year.
