Federal Farm Board Keeping Cool in Hot Weather

There's nothing like being comfortable while you work. The members of President Hoover's Farm Board have plunged right into the business of settling the country's agricultural problem, but don't think it necessary to roast while they're doing it, so they've taken off their coats. Left to right they are: James C. Stigum, C. B. Dennan, Charles S. Wilson, William T. Schilling, Alexander Legge, chairman; Secretary of Agriculture Arthur Hyde, Carl Williams, Chris. L. Christensen, and C. C. Teague.

day afternoon. Is getting along nicely. The wound is healing and giving Mr. Hatch no more trouble than could be expected. Mr. Hatch has a blacksmith shop at Silverton and is also well known in the entire Silverton community for his share in the community auctions.
