

News from Mid-Valley District Communities for Statesman Readers

Kingwood

KINGWOOD, August 3.—Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Smart, Margaret and Jimmie, drove to Portland Sunday where they heard Rev. Dr. J. Whitcomb Broucher, at the White Temple Baptist church. Dr. Broucher, who is a former pastor of the White Temple congregation, now has a pastorate at Oakland, California, and is in Portland on a visit. He and Mr. Smart were friends some years ago in California. Following church services, the Smarts were guests for the remainder of the day of Mrs. Smart's aunt, Mrs. J. S. Stunz.

Donald Muellerhaupt, with his brother Marlin and wife of Salem, made the round trip by motor, from Salem to Arlington and return on Sunday, leaving early and breakfasting at Hood River. They found the weather very much hotter in eastern Oregon than in the valley.

Gus Livingston is doing interior carpenter work in the home of Dr. A. J. Franz of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Boatright of Route 7 were calling on friends here Sunday.

Miss Mary St. Pierre went to Astoria on Wednesday, where she will spend a week at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Arba Martin.

Mrs. Theodore Bernard, Mrs. A. L. Applewhite and daughter Catherine, and Mrs. A. L. McCarty and two children, Patricia and Amasa, visited Mrs. William Fisher at Auburn on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Fisher was Miss Beulah McMill of Kingwood, and Thursday's guests were old friends of other days.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Rice from Eagle Rock, a suburb of Los Angeles, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Smart on Wednesday and Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Adams and sons Bobbie and Danny started Thursday morning on a motor trip. They will proceed in a southerly direction down the coast, stopping at various points of interest, and expect to come home by way of Marshfield, where they will visit Mr. Adams' sister, Mrs. Lena Sumpter and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. R. Neat of Lodi, California, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. S. A. LaRaut, who are the parents of Mrs. Neat.

Mrs. Eugene Krebs gave a party on Wednesday afternoon in honor of the birthday of her little daughter, Betty.

A family reunion was held on the lawn of the R. R. Blevins home, on Wednesday evening, specially honoring Mrs. Blevins' brother, A. W. Prescott of Theodore, Alabama.

Mr. and Mrs. George Steward have arrived from Coos Bay, and moved onto the site of a new building to them on Cascade Drive. They are building a garage in which they will live for the present. The Stewards formerly lived in West Salem.

Mrs. Bob Livingston of Portland, visited her uncle, A. A. Livingston on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Thomas drove up from Portland Friday to visit his mother, Mrs. Ed Finley.

Orchard Heights

ORCHARD HEIGHTS, August 3.—On Sunday, July 28, members and friends of the West Salem and Summit Methodist churches and Sunday schools spent a delightful day together under the beautiful old oak trees at Summit church. The Sunday school session and church services were held out doors as was also the regular business meeting of the fourth quarterly conference of the church, with Rev. Dr. Temple, district superintendent, presiding. Dr. Temple delivered a very able address, after which a wonderful dinner was served.

Mrs. William Layton of Independence is spending a few days with Mrs. Eva Simmons. The two ladies are friends of long standing. When Mrs. Simmons was a teacher long ago in Orchard Heights, Mrs. Layton, then a girl, was one of her pupils. They had not met for more than thirty years.

Helen Bliss and Mildred Simmons go to Falls City, Monday, where they will spend the week at the annual Epworth league institute.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Beltz, former residents of this neighborhood, were over Sunday from their home at North Howell, greeting old friends and acquaintances at the quarterly meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Yates of Cathlamet, Washington, were weekend visitors at the R. W. Clarke home. Mrs. J. W. Yates is a sister. Another sister, Mrs. D. M. Eby of Grand Junction, Colorado, who is spending the summer in Oregon, returned home with Mr. and Mrs. Yates, as did also their daughter, Marie Yates, who has been staying for some time with the Clarks.

Mountain View

MOUNTAIN VIEW, August 3.—Mrs. Lena Sumpter with her son Roy have been visiting relatives here. They have returned to their home in Marshfield, taking with them for a long visit, Mrs. Sumpter's mother, Mrs. Gilbert Adams.

Sam Chapman, with Ernest Bush of Salem, sought the finny tribe in Vasez waters on Thursday. Sam came home with 25 trout.

Ralph White, who has been visiting relatives here and in Washington, and touring in Canada, has returned to his home in Pasadena, California.

Dudley Gibson is harvesting his early peaches. He has a beautiful crop of fine quality. Frances, little daughter of Victor Lynch, had her tonsils removed on Wednesday. She is doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Bouffler and daughters, Loraine and Theodora drove to Portland Sunday where with three families of old friends of that city they picnicked on Mt. Tabor.

Miss Nellie Taylor, who has been in poor health for a long time, is still staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Looe at Brush College. She is very ill.

Miss Florence St. Pierre of Kingwood Heights is staying with her aunt Mrs. Robert Adams, while Robert is in eastern Oregon working in the harvest fields.

Louis Myltenbeck who works at the J. R. Chapman farm, is taking a brief vacation at Astoria, since the cherry harvest is ended. He will be away a week or ten days.

Paul Davis came home Friday from the Veterans' hospital in Portland. He did not undergo an operation as was expected. After X-rays and consultation, it was decided that his case does not call for an operation at this time. His health is not improved.

Francis Fly, who has been staying with his grandmother, Mrs. Gilbert Adams, and visiting other relatives here, has returned to his home in Morrow county.

Ed Maher of Portland was a guest on Sunday of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lynch. Mr. Maher is an attorney and is connected with the veterans' bureau, where he investigates the claims of ex-soldiers.

Woodburn

WOODBURN, Aug. 3.—Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Plank are attending the Minnesota picnic in Hager's grove near Salem today.

Mrs. Henry Beaman and son, Clair, accompanied Mrs. Beaman's daughter-in-law, Mrs. Charles Beaman to her home in San Rafael, California, recently for a visit of two weeks.

Miss Vivien Nelson and Miss Margaret Mochel went to Portland Tuesday to swim at Jantzen beach.

Rev. Katherine Powell and her daughter, Mrs. W. B. Willard of South Dakota, are spending a week with Mrs. Keith Powell at her cottage in Neskevin. Bingham Powell is spending the summer on the Willard ranch.

Mrs. Clyde Whitman has returned from a Portland hospital where she underwent a serious operation.

Miss Elfa Lytle of the Moore and Beers drug store is enjoying her vacation. One week of it has been spent in Portland, visiting Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Haller and other friends.

Vera and Maurice Bogard are studying stenography and typewriting in a Salem business college.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Allen attended the three-day Sunset Trail, a-rades and pageant in Eugene. Their daughter, Miss Helen Allen, a student in drama at the University of Oregon, took part in the spectacle.

Dr. and Mrs. Donnelly and children have returned from a motor trip to Republic, Washington, and other northern points.

Miss Ann Baillie, a student nurse from St. Vincent's hospital at Portland has been spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gervais Baillie.

The members of the Woodburn Garden club are invited to attend a special meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Noyes in Hall addition, Tuesday evening, August 6, at 7:00 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller and Mr. and Mrs. William Scollard attended the Sunset Trail pageant Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hartley Bonney and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Simon motored over the Mt. Hood loop last week. They enjoyed the beautiful scenery and had a wonderful trip.

Mrs. W. A. Chapman and son Billy are here from their home in Santa Monica, California, for a vacation and visit with old friends. They expect to stay on Monday.

Dr. and Mrs. F. I. Hutchinson and family were guests, last Sunday, of Mr. and Mrs. Olin W. Love of Portland. They enjoyed a fishing trip down the Columbia in the Love's launch.

A prominent visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Butterfield last weekend was Mrs. Butterfield's brother-in-law, Dr. Frank A. Waugh, dean of the Massachusetts Agricultural col-

EXECUTIVE AND SALES POSITION OPEN

A nationally known Eastern Life Insurance Company has opening for District Manager for Salem and vicinity. This calls for a man of good reputation, energy and ability who is able to meet the best business men with a fine business investment proposition.

Full commission contract with contract for sub-agents, a good opportunity for the right man to build an increasing income. State age, occupation past five years, married or single, and references.

Correspondence strictly confidential.

Address Insurance care Statesman

lege. Mr. Waugh is out here with a commission chosen by Secretary of Agriculture Arthur M. Hyde, to investigate and report on a proposed building of a tramway to the summit of Mt. Hood from Mt. Hood lodge. Considerable depends upon the commission's findings as to the advisability of constructing this tramway.

Harley Adams, a student at Oregon State college and who is in the reserve officers' training corps, returned recently from six weeks in the field artillery at Fort Lewis. He will spend the remainder of his vacation at home.

Rev. and Mrs. D. E. Crabb and two sons, who have been visiting Rev. and Mrs. Henry G. Hanson, returned recently from six weeks in the field artillery at Fort Lewis. He will spend the remainder of his vacation at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Handy left Tuesday for a motor trip to Mr. Handy's home town, Spring Valley, Minnesota. They will go by the Lincoln highway and will return via Yellowstone park. They expect to be gone a month and will probably go on into Wisconsin to visit some of Mrs. Handy's relatives.

Mrs. Harold Miller returned last Sunday from visiting her grandfather, S. P. Hopper at Kansas City, Missouri. She had been gone about six weeks, stopping on her way home at Los Angeles and San Francisco to visit friends.

Mrs. Kate Trimble of Honolulu was a guest from Saturday to Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dickenson on South Front street. The ladies were chums before Mrs. Dickenson's marriage. Mrs. Trimble is returning from a two months' trip to Alaska.

Miss Margaret Poorman has returned from a visit of one week with her friend, Miss Erma Williams of Astoria.

North Santiam

NORTH SANTIAM, Aug. 3.—Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Shattuck of Dallas were Sunday visitors at the J. S. McLaughlin home.

Mrs. Elma McAllister and daughter Ruth and Janet, Mrs. Cora Reid of Salem called on friends Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Cobb of Wilamina visited relatives here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. James and family of Los Angeles, California, who have been visiting friends and relatives here, have located in Albany for the present time.

Mrs. Ludwig of Turner is visiting her daughter Mrs. G. H. McNeal.

Ball brothers pulled flax for H. Loretz this week.

D. Henry of Salem called at the W. Hettler home Sunday. Will Allen of Oregon City is visiting his cousins, the Howards.

George B. Howard and Will Allen motored to Thomas creek Thursday fishing.

Bean picking commences at harsh cleansing will coarsen your skin

THE daily cleansing of your skin must be thorough but gentle if you would keep your complexion youthfully lovely. Knowing this, Dorothy Gray has perfected an exquisitely light Cleansing Cream. It melts as it touches your skin, and thus gently removes every particle of cosmetics and clogging dust. Always use Dorothy Gray's Cleansing Cream after exposure and before retiring.

On sale at our Toilet Goods Department

$1.00 $1.75 $2.75 $5.25

Capital Drug Store 405 State

Fairview

FAIRVIEW, August 3.—Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Neeson, Mrs. Norris and Russel Norris of Marshfield visited friends in this vicinity Saturday and Sunday.

Russel Norris worked on day jobs during loganberry season at the Roll and Jory fruit dryer last year.

The extremely hot weather the last few days has done considerable damage to the loganberries around this vicinity.

Mr. Cunningham of the Liberty district has finished cutting his grain on the John Jory place, where he has quite an extensive acreage.

A singing evening, July 28th, a singing bee was held at the Fairview school house. It was sponsored by the Fairview community club.

About 20 persons attended. Mrs. Sehon and Mr. Turner led the singing. Irene Turner played the piano.

Sunday the 28th Mrs. R. C. Day and family motored to the Alsea mountains to visit Mr. Day who is staying there attending the bees during fall pasturing.

They took a picnic lunch and had a very enjoyable day.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Isling and about 35 of their loganberry pickers spent Sunday the 28th at Woodland park. They went swimming and boating; afterwards a picnic lunch was served.

They returned home about seven o'clock in the evening.

Newport

NEWPORT, Aug. 3.—Ninety trout in three days was the record of a modest Salem lady who made the catch in Rock Creek. This creek is in reality about 45 miles from Salem but motorists no longer brave the Falls City, Valsez road but instead have to make the trip by way of Corvallis, Toledo and then over the fine rock road which Lincoln county has built to the corner of Polk to reach this sportsman's paradise. A long distance but worth it according to this lady. Should Polk county ever see fit to build this short stretch of road Salem residents could motor to Newport within two hours.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Balfour and family of Salem spent the week end at the beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Williams were recent Salem visitors at Newport.

Mr. Henry Friesen of Salem was in Newport the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Wiles and family returned to Salem after spending their vacation at Glenwood camp.

Mr. and Mrs. John Olsen and family of Salem are vacationing in Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Clark and daughter, Dorothy Ann, who are sojourning in a Sunset cottage have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Clark of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Isling and about 35 of their loganberry pickers spent Sunday the 28th at Woodland park. They went swimming and boating; afterwards a picnic lunch was served.

They returned home about seven o'clock in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Rider of Salem are recent visitors at the Glenwood camp.

Dr. Altman and Mrs. Altman of Salem are guests at the Damon. Mr. and Mrs. Hartwell of Salem are sojourning at Glenwood camp.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hunt returned to Salem after enjoying a vacation in Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Starr are sojourning at the Old Playground. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. St. Clair are Salem visitors at Sunnyside Lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Welch and daughters, Elizabeth and Anna, returned to Salem after spending a vacation at Cherry City.

Felix LaBranch of Salem is occupying his cottage at Nye Beach.

J. M. Dutton is registered at the Glenwood.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Rhodes and family of Salem are occupying a Glenwood cottage for a week.

A. E. Hedine and daughter, Laura Hedine of Salem spent several days at Sunnyside Lodge.

Miss Lucile Jasoske of Salem is spending a vacation at the beach. K. Anderson was a recent Newport visitor.

Mr. and Mrs. Brundidge and family of Salem are enjoying camp life at Tent City.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Odenborg and family of Salem are beach vacationists.

Dallas

DALLAS, August 3.—Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Imbler and daughter Ione are leaving Sunday on a motor trip to Yellowstone park.

They will be joined en route by a University of Oregon friend of Miss Imbler's, Mr. Imbler is manager of the J. C. Penney company in Dallas and plans to be away two weeks.

Edward Fully, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Fully is home on leave from the U. S. S. Colorado now at Seattle. This is his third year in service and first visit to Dallas. He was accompanied by a friend, John Dell. H. T. Fully came to Dallas about two months ago and is planer foreman for the Willamette Valley Lumber company.

Dr. and Mrs. A. B. Starbuck and children, Mary, Myra and Thomas are leaving on Wednesday for a short vacation trip. They will go to Crater lake, the Oregon Caves and Crescent City, returning by way of Marshfield to visit a sister of Mrs. Starbuck. They will be away five or six days.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Patterson arrived Thursday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hayter, the parents of Mrs. Patterson. Mr. Patterson is an instructor in the school of forestry at Corvallis state college and with Mrs. Patterson has spent the winter at Palo Alto taking a post graduate course at the University of California. They witnessed the formal notification of the nomination of Herbert Hoover as president.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hayter and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Soehren are spending the weekend at Newport with Mrs. V. C. Staats.

Rev. O. D. Peterson, pastor of the Christian church will leave on Wednesday for a two weeks vacation. Part of it will be spent in attendance of the national convention of Christian churches being held in Seattle. Later he will visit in Spokane with his parents. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Peterson and small son.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Uglow and children Abel and Rachel accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Dan Uglow of Los Angeles are touring the beaches. This is their second trip to the east within a few weeks. On the first one Dan Uglow landed a 35 pound salmon and was so enthused that he wanted to try his luck again. This is their first visit to Oregon beaches and they are greatly pleased.

William W. Ball, of Mapleton, Kan., is visiting his sister Mrs. J. E. Clayton. Mr. Ball who is a banker is making his first visit to Oregon and says that he is very much pleased with conditions out here and has enjoyed a trip to coast points.

Mehama

MEHAMA, August 3.—Theodore Bohannon is in the Stayton hospital, seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hughes and Mr. and Mrs. Walt Bevier motored to Portland last Sunday. There are large crowds at the "Ye Ole" swimming hole these hot days.

August 2 was the last loganberry picking for pickers at Geschers.

The banks of the Santiam were an attraction for many people Sunday.

Barnett Bros. Jewelers "Pay As You Are Paid" Fourteen Stores on the Pacific Coast — Not the largest but (we hope) the best!

Get your New Victor Radio NOW Play while you pay!

A small payment down, and we'll make delivery today.

Micro-synchronous sensitive, balanced, 3 separate units, all accessible... interchangeable. Marvelous new dynamic speaker—loud or soft at the turn of a knob. Handsomest radio cabinets ever built.

Also the superb new Victor Radio-Electrola.

The nation is turning to Victor-Radio!

Don't wait, come in today!

Only $178 Victor-Radio Console-R-32

The Greatest Sensation in Radio History

Geo. C. Will

432 State Street

The Birthday Party presents tomorrow A Dinner Set of Imported China! At a Price that is Sure to Make Friends

This sketch gives but a poor idea of this fine dinner set—It is far more beautiful than any description we can write of it—The Ivory border is decked with wreaths of tiny flowers and the edges are all finished in gold. It will commend itself to all women of refinement and good taste—and it can take an honored place on the table of the "First Families."

AS LITTLE AS 50¢ A WEEK

There are forty-two pieces in each set—a complete service for six persons—Six Dinner Plates—Six Salad Plates—Six Fruit or Oatmeal Dishes—Six Cups and Six Saucers—Half a dozen Soup Cups—a gravy Boat—a large Platter—vegetable dish and a sugar bowl and cream pitcher

Most good stores get twenty-seven fifty to thirty dollars for this same "Nor-tike" China—but to make the store's Birthday Party a memorable occasion—the entire set is offered for Nineteen-Fifty and on the Burnett Budget Plan at that—take a set for half a dollar—pay the balance—fifty cents or a dollar a week. We really prefer not to sell them for cash.

The selling starts off at nine o'clock in the mornin'!

Burnett Bros.

457 STATE ST.