HUBBARD BAND ENTERTAINS DONALD

HUBBARD, August 5.—The band stand at Hubbard was not brilliantly lighted up Saturday night, neither was there a row of cars parked along each side of the park where the band stand is located and no happy children frolicked in the park, all because the band had gone to participate in the get acquainted meeting which was held at Donald and which was sponsored by the Hubbard Commercial club. All the surrounding towns were invited and a big night was enjoyed.

Tranquil Soul is Mr. Jory; Father Pioneer of Oregon

Mrs. Callin

Occasionally, as we hurry through life, we find a tranquil soul who seems to have gone serenely through each day with a vision that has escaped most of us. To these chosen few life offers a finer and deeper meaning and its beauties are not overlooked.

Such a person it seems to me, is John W. Jory of the Fairview district. As I talked to Mr. Jory we were in sight of the spot where he was born, on the donation land claim of his father.

The Jory family history is a saga of the west and the sort of thing of which Oregon history is made.

Mr. Jory's parents were pioneers on 1848 and their first home was a log cabin on which is now Commercial street in Salem and was situated two blocks from the present site of the Ladd and Bush bank.

In 1849 his father went to the gold fields of California but stayed less than a year. In 1850 he bought his brother's right to the donation land claim in the Fairview district and there built the log cabin in which Mr. Jory was born.

FOREST FIRES HELD SOBRIOUS

Two Autoists Arrested for Tossing Lighted Cigarettes by Highway

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 5.—(AP)—Forest rangers arrested two motorists for tossing lighted cigarettes from automobiles today and started a campaign to eliminate forest fire hazards which are believed to have started serious fires in Oregon and Washington forests.

So serious is the situation in the Chelan national forest in northern Washington that seven men, headed by F. H. Brundage, chief of fire control, were dispatched to the forest by airplane today. Ten fires of various sizes are burning in this forest, they reported, with one of them racing over 10,000 acres of yellow pine near Chelan lake.

Although fire fighters have controlled the Deschutes forest fire near Bend, Ore., a strict watch is being maintained over campers and motorists. A telegram received at forest headquarters here today stated that lightning between August 1 and 2 had started 35 fires.

Charles L. McCubbin, Portland, was arrested for throwing a lighted cigarette from his automobile while driving from Portland to Hood River. B. Peters, Milwaukie, Ore., faced a similar charge when he was arrested while driving on the Eagle creek trail.

SPOKANE, Wash., Aug. 5.—(AP)—The forest air patrol over north Idaho was doubled today, as lightning storms threatened to add to the flames now eating slowly through the timber.

Twenty-five additional men were sent from Spokane to a new fire in the Selway forest, and foresters here reported that the fires were serious, but by comparison not yet as dangerous as they have been.

One bed form one side of the car and is furnished with a good Simmons' spring and Sana Tuft mattress, as comfortable as any bed in the home. This is adjusted so that when open it rests just outside the car and is covered by a rain proof canopy. Another bed, for the children, fits right under this one, making an upper and lower berth.

On this side is also a cupboard. The other side of the car is fitted with a kitchen sink, draining board, built-in, clothes closet with mirror on the door and a large drawer for linens. Under the top over the seat is a suit case locker large enough to hold six large suitcases.
