

News from Mid-Valley District Communities for Statesman Readers

Mill City

MILL CITY, August 3.—The first annual picnic of the Macabees of Mill City tent No. 90, was enjoyed at Moore's Grove, Sunday, by about 250 members and guests from Gates, Mill City, Salem and other nearby towns. The day was spent in swimming, horseshoe pitching, and other games and with a big basket dinner at noon.

Mrs. Hubenbecker, daughter Edna and son, Charles of Portland, were visitors at the R. A. Mason home this week.

Miss Frances Olin accompanied by her brother, Dan, will sail September 12, on the Empress of Russia, for Manila where Miss Olin will be married to Rev. Vincent H. Gowen in the cathedral of Saints Mary and John.

Mrs. William Beck of Portland was here last week to visit friends and also to look after her property which was made vacant by Mr. and Mrs. George Adams moving to Salem.

Bub Haseman, who is working in Portland spent the weekend at his home here.

Frank Thomas, Tom Winters and Mrs. Kitty Smith attended the Sunset Trail celebration at Eugene Saturday.

Mrs. F. R. Olin went to Medford Tuesday to visit her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Pearl Olin. Upon her return she will bring her grandson, Jack, back with her to make a visit at the Olin home.

Miss Ida Walters underwent an operation for appendicitis at the local hospital Wednesday.

Mrs. Dick Turpin left Wednesday for Seattle where she will visit her sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Allen of Doty, Washington, were visitors at the T. W. Allen home Monday.

Miss Graef Herick, who has been visiting at the home of Miss Frances Olin for the past few weeks left Tuesday for her home at Stevens Point, Wisconsin.

W. H. Pancost made a trip around the Mt. Hood loop Sunday.

Jefferson

JEFFERSON, August 3.—Mrs. Florence Cornell of Grants Pass accompanied by Jack Thomas of Oakland, California, arrived Tuesday for a visit with the R. C. Thomas family and other relatives.

Mrs. A. J. Shumaker and Mrs. George Lynes of Salem and Mrs. Ray Alberts of Boise, Idaho, spent Wednesday in Jefferson at the old home.

George Schultz and family, accompanied by Miss Welch of Portland motored to Cascadia, Sunday, and on their way home called on the R. W. Carl family. Mr. Schultz is a brother of Mrs. Carl.

Mrs. A. L. Shute, who has been spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. Elmer Lamb at Tillamook, arrived the first of the week in Jefferson for a visit with her mother, Mrs. S. E. Hensen.

The Misses Verna and Virginia Mice went to Portland Thursday. Miss Verna will go on to Kelso, Washington, to spend the weekend with her friend, Miss Gray.

H. W. Johnston, who operates a sawmill north of Jefferson, near the Pacific highway, shipped a carload of lumber to Muscatine, Iowa, Wednesday.

Chester Miller, who operates a combine, reports that the grain is yielding exceptionally well, the largest yield being on the Sam Inggen place north of Jefferson, which averaged 60 bushel to the acre.

A number of members of the Epworth league of the Methodist church will go to Falls City Sunday to attend the Epworth league institute which begins Sunday.

Those who plan to stay during the entire session are Mrs. J. G. Fontaine, and daughters, Marjorie and Mary Louise, Alice Harris, Ruth Barnes, and Rev. W. R. Warner.

Mrs. Maud Aldrich, secretary of the Federal Motion Picture council, will give a talk on "Better Motion Pictures" Sunday evening at the Methodist church.

Rickreall

RICKREAL, August 3.—Finley Edgar is carrying the mail for Mr. Price, who is on his vacation. Price and his family are visiting relatives and friends in southern Oregon and will be gone a week.

Ralph Dempsey is working on the Pence brothers' combine. He is running the header.

Hard luck seems to have hit Otis Wait last Tuesday night. Thieves broke into his barn and took two of his best milk cows.

They tried to take two other cows but there probably wasn't enough room in the truck so they had to leave them behind. Some of the men in Rickreall found tracks of the truck leading south, but no further knowledge was obtained.

June Fox is staying in Salem with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Fox. She will stay with them and take music lessons until school starts this fall.

Buzz Larkin from Newberg is working for the Larkin brothers during harvest season. He is running the tractor for the combine.

Sam Lowery was employed as school janitor for the coming year. He will have charge of both the high school and grades.

Monitor

MONITOR, Aug. 3.—Mr. and Mrs. Herman Lenhardt and daughter, Mrs. Rova Mark and two children of Indianapolis, were calling on the former's sister, Mrs. W. G. Wolfe and family Thursday evening.

Mrs. V. G. Calvin and little daughter Edythe visited in Portland from Monday to Wednesday with their cousin, Mrs. H. E. Nelms.

Mr. and Mrs. Ingvald Edland accompanied Dr. Wrightman of Silverton to Aberdeen, Wash., last Saturday. They returned home Sunday and were accompanied by the doctor's nurse, Miss Helga Brosten, who is a cousin of Mr. Edlands.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Taylor and family of Ellensburg, Wash., called at the J. A. Van Cleave home Wednesday afternoon on their way home from Grants Pass. Mr. Van Cleave is an uncle of Mr. Taylor's.

Mrs. Wm. Erskine and Miss Marguerite Martin who were on their way home from Seattle to Los Angeles, stopped off Thursday for lunch with Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Lemon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Jensen and children Barbara and Jimmy and Miss Juanita Nixon celebrated last Wednesday evening birthday with a picnic at Jantzen beach on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Roach of Portland spent last week end with Mrs. Roach's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Beck.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymon Pryor and son, Glen of Colbran, Colorado, who have been visiting relatives in the vicinity of Woodburn for the past several weeks were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Lemon last Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Pryor were neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Cook and Mrs. Lemon in Colorado. Mr. and Mrs. Pryor left this week for San Jose, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lienhart entertained about twenty-five guests last Saturday evening in honor of their daughter, Viola's eighteenth birthday. After an evening of games, refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Calmar Amundson returned the first of the week from Eugene where they had been attending the Sunset Trail. They were accompanied by Miss Borgen Christofferson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Van Cleave and sons, Howard and Gordon, attended the meeting of the Van Cleave clan at Champeog last Sunday. Next year's meeting will be held at Monitor in Koster's park.

Several carloads of Monitor people spent last week end at the beach. Those from here enjoying the sea breeze at Bay Ocean were: Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Coyne, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Jensen, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Carmichael, Misses Eunice Carmichael, Barbara Jensen, Juanita Nixon, Donni and Mary Alice Coyne and Kip Coyne, Jimmy Jensen and Dick Carmichael. While there Mr. Jensen and Mr. Carmichael participated in the shoot of the Tillamook club, held Sunday at Bay Ocean.

Miss Bertha Van Cleave of Salem was a guest Thursday night of Mr. and Mrs. V. G. Calvin.

Mrs. G. L. Jensen and Mrs. T. O. Thornton are camping at Forest Grove and attending the camp meeting of the Seventh Day Adventist church. Mr. Jensen took them over Monday in his car. Mrs. Jensen goes as a delegate from the Monitor church.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Morris and son Norman Mashberger of Portland, were among those attending the I. O. O. F. picnic in Koster's park last Sunday.

Miss Doris Richards and Mrs. P. A. Brennan were Portland visitors Wednesday.

The Ladies Aid society of the Congregational church met Thursday with Mrs. D. J. Gillanders.

Geo. Gibson of Portland representative of Libby McNeill and Libby was in Monitor Friday looking after their contracts.

Stayton

STAYTON, Aug. 3.—Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Alexander left Friday for an outing at the Tillamook beaches. They were accompanied by their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Hagen of Portland.

The Witonohl and Aoyiki group of camp fire girls were given "first aid" instruction at their last meeting by Mrs. Marion Fresh, a trained nurse. At the close of the evening the girls were quite proud of their ability to bandage and correctly make a sling for leg or arm. They hope to have another such meeting before long.

The Lions club and members of their households are to have a picnic Wednesday evening. It is to be held at the Legion park. Following the supper, various sports will be indulged in, which, no doubt, accounts for the interest the past few days in the game of horse shoe pitching. Harry Rowe is president of the local club.

Mrs. H. E. Wirth and two daughters of Medford and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Striplen and daughter of Oakland, Calif., have been visiting at the J. T. Caldwell home. Mrs. Wirth and Mrs. Caldwell are sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Felix Wright and Miss Ruth Wright left Friday for a trip to California. They expect to be away about three weeks and will visit relatives at Placerville, Oakland and San Francisco.

J. T. Hunt and wife of Salem have gone to Taylor's Grove for an outing. Their niece and her husband from California and their daughter, Mrs. Henry Tate, are with them.

Valsetz

VALSETZ, Aug. 3.—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Teem sold their household goods to Oscar Hadlin and left for Brix, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry McCale have returned from a two weeks vacation trip.

Mrs. George March, Louise and Pat, spent several days in Corvallis with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Levi Green motored to Salem Wednesday evening.

Saturday afternoon, on the Clay road below the Rhododendron hill, Roy Johnson and Fred Bolin, while driving their cars, had a head on collision. The only damage was a twisted front axle to the Bolin car.

A wrecker towed the car to Falls City for repairs. The persons who had been riding in Mr. Bolin's car were brought back to Valsetz by Oscar Sprague in his car as Johnson's car could carry no more.

Tex Fulgham and Sam Gesso killed a black bear weighing about 250 pounds Wednesday. They got the bear out near Cold Spring. Several friends enjoyed bear steaks and roasts.

Sunday, August 4, Valsetz goes to Toledo to play ball. Several different parties are driving over to boost for their home team.

Last Sunday the American Can Co. ball team played on the Valsetz field, winning the game 8 to 5. Valsetz scored 6 runs in the 3 innings. In the eighth inning the Can Co. team made 6 runs and two more in the ninth. Wonder if the Valsetz boys have forgotten how to win or are they settling careless.

Doris Massie has been confined to her bed for nearly a week on account of a badly infected knee. The doctor has lanced the abscess, which is on the left knee, three times. The wound looks very good at present and the little patient is doing nicely, hoping to be able to go out and play again in a short time. It is thought the infection was caused by a wild blackberry briar.

Miss Marjorie Clark of Longview, Wash., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Williams (Elizabeth Raymond) and infant son are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Raymond.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Groat, son Curtis and Guy Bagley have returned from a three weeks vacation trip through Washington and Canada. They visited Mr. Groat's sister, Mrs. W. Rankin at Kelowna, Canada. Also relatives in Seattle, Tacoma and Olympia, Wash. Visited the Rainier National park and had a most wonderful trip. Roger Groat of Seattle returned with them and is enjoying a visit here.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Emry, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. F. Phillips and families have returned from Eugene where they had gone to attend the Frontier pageant which they enjoyed very much.

Mr. Yeager and her three boys have moved into the house just vacated by Pete Paul and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Carver have returned from a two weeks' vacation. Several days were spent in Goldendale, Wash., visiting relatives.

Mrs. M. E. Raymond has returned from Portland where she has been receiving medical aid.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Paul have moved into the house vacated by Jack Goebel and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester McSherry of Pelee have been visiting relatives here. Their daughter, Mrs. Bill Carver, returned home with them and will spend a week there.

Walter Raymond has returned from a trip east.

Mrs. W. C. Bullis of Independence visited from Monday to Thursday at the home of her sons, Harold and Winard Bullis.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Cobb, son Jay and Mr. and Mrs. Baxter of Portland are spending a few days at the company house enjoying the mountainous air.

Mrs. Bill Stelzer spent the weekend in Falls City at the home of Mrs. Pheba Ward.

Mrs. Caspar Frank has returned after spending a month's vacation with relatives and friends in Portland.

Hubbard

Mrs. Albert Smith entertained at bridge at her country home Thursday night. First prize was awarded to Mrs. Ella Stauffer and second prize to Mrs. Anna Stauffer. Following a delightful evening of play, refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by her daughter, Miss Mildred.

Guests included: Mrs. Ella Stauffer, Mrs. Blanche Brown, Mrs. Frances Erickson, Mrs. Margaret McManis, Mrs. Anna Stauffer, Mrs. Louise Grims, Mrs. Neva McKenzie and Mrs. Ella Watson.

Dr. and Mrs. H. Petersen entertained their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Curtis of Salem, at dinner, Sunday, at the Hubbard Mineral Springs. Mr. Curtis is a member of the Statesman staff.

Miss Francis Harris, teacher in the Portland schools was a Sunday guest of Mrs. Dortha Nelson at the Hubbard Mineral Springs.

Mrs. M. M. Keatz, proprietor of the Palace Hotel of Portland is spending a week at the Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stephenson of the Wadhams Wholesale grocery of Portland stopped at the Springs on their way to Mr. Stephenson's ranch at Albany.

Rudolph Paulsen of Seattle, son of Bahne Paulsen of Hubbard visited friends at his home town this week. Mr. Paulsen is book-keeper for Swift and company meat dealers.

Mrs. Garfield Voget, her daughters Helen, Frieda and Ruth and her son Garfield Jr., accompanied by Mrs. Paul Knapp left Thursday for a few days outing at Neskon.

Dr. and Mrs. Riley were guests at the home of Marshall Dana and family at Oak Grove Wednesday evening.

Miss Ruth Calvert was numbered among the guests at a party Wednesday night given by Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Stafford at Aurora. Mr. Stafford is proprietor of the pickle factory at Aurora.

L. M. Scholl received a letter July 16 from B. Paulsen who with Mrs. Paulsen and children were at Washington D. C. They expected to spend several days "sight-seeing" at the capital and from there to go to Philadelphia, New York and return home via a north-rail route visiting parks and points of interest enroute. The Paulsens are making a coast to coast auto trip leaving Hubbard about the middle of June.

Janice Millsaugh of Portland is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Neva McKenzie. Miss Millsaugh's brother, Austin, accompanied her to Hubbard, Thursday and returned home the same day.

Miss Velma Scholl and Mrs. E. U. Will of Portland were week end guests at the home of Mrs. Scholl's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Scholl.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Mack and small daughter, Betty, are house guests at the home of Mr. Mack's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Mack.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Beckman were hosts at a swimming party Sunday at Shade-B-Acres, resort on Pudding river. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kehrl, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Moulton and sons, Clifford and Jimmie, and the Misses Beatrice and Bernice Pupp, all of Portland and the Beckman's house guests, Miss Florence Addison and Miss Mildred Beckman of Polk, Nebraska. Bill Gifford returned Saturday from a week's visit at Seattle. Mr. Gifford was accompanied by J. D. Hays of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Stuewe of Needy are the parents of an 8 1/2 pound baby girl born Wednesday at the Anne hospital at Hubbard. Mrs. J. Poppinger of Beaver Creek is spending a few days with her sister, Miss Anne Voget.

Follow the Sports in the Statesman full sport news reports fresh each morning.

2 for 1
SALE

Shop
Early Please
For Better
Service

Buster Brown Shoe Store

2 for 1
SALE

2 for 1
SALE

Shop as Early in the Day
as Convenient

Sale Starts Today

A Greater Sale - - Bigger and Better

Every pair of Women's Pumps, Oxfords and Slippers on sale at exactly 2 PAIRS FOR THE PRICE OF 1 PAIR. Come get your favorite style 2 PAIRS FOR THE ONE PAIR COST. If you can't use 2 pairs bring a friend and each be fitted and split the cost. Every line, every style on sale.

Womens Sport Oxfords—white—tan—brown and color combinations. Regular $5.50. Now 2 pairs $5.50

Arch Support tie Oxfords, Blonde and Black Kid, welt soles. Built for comfort, fit, and good looks. Reg. $7.85. Now 2 pairs for..... $7.85

Naturalizers, the famous combination arch comfort lasts. These come in Blonde Kid, Black Kid, Novelty Tie styles, also Strap styles. Regular $8.85. A style and fit for every foot. 2 for $8.85

Patent One-Strap Pumps, Cuban heels, tailored in style at only $6.85. Now 2 pairs..... $6.85

French heel Dress Pumps, Patent, Satin and Blonde Kid—a splendid assortment of real dressy styles to choose from. Regular $8.85. Now $8.85

Cuban heel, one-strap Slippers—patent, kid leathers, real dressy smart numbers. Regular $7.85. Now $7.85

Every line Women's Pumps and Oxfords On Sale

Girls' military heel Oxfords, welt soles, rubber heels, ideal for serviceable school wear. Regular price $6.85. Now 2 pairs $6.85

Colonial Pumps, combination lasts, Arch Support. Very dressy, yet comfortable and good looking. Medium heel. See these good looking styles. Special $7.85. Now 2 pairs..... $7.85

300 Pairs Women's Pumps and Oxfords short lines values to $7.85

NOW 2 pairs $4.95

Attend a Buster Brown Shoe Store 2 for 1 Sale

Originators of the famous 2 for 1 shoe sales

Shop as Early in the Day
for Better Service
Please

See Displays
for Additional Bargain
Prices