

295 Official Delegates Approved for 11th Convention

Substitutes Are Named to be Here For 3-Day Meet

State Districted into Seven Groups and Men Named from Each Post on Basis of Total Membership

If every post attending the 11th annual state convention here this week, is represented by its full quota of delegates, 295 representatives will sit down in the hall of representatives for the first business meeting.

However, some districts are almost sure not to send a full quota of delegates and while alternates have been named for every delegate there is yet a likelihood that a full voting strength of 295 delegates will not be seen on the floor of the convention.

By districts the voting strength of the sections represented at the convention is as follows:

- District 1: Portland-Astoria: 56 votes.
- District 2: Silverton-Tillamook: 58 votes.
- District 3: Albany-Cottage Grove: 34 votes.
- District 4: South of Cottage Grove: 52 votes.
- District 5: Hood River to Bend: 34 votes.
- District 6: Arlington-Pendleton: 21 votes.
- District 7: Far eastern Oregon: 40 votes.

The delegates and alternates from the different posts of the state are as follows:
Portland No. 1—Delegates: Graham Glass, Jr., Thomas A. Sweeney, Joseph K. Carson, Jr., Alex G. Barry, John M. Bates, James Cassell, Loren A. Bowman, Edward L. Boatright, George O. Latimer, Gentry W. Yates, Charles H. Martin, Clyde Spooner, Joseph O. Freck, Harry S. Doman, James F. Alexander, John A. Beckwith, Allan Eymon, Daniel M. McIndoe, Thomas R. Mahoney, William Masters and Dr. Archie C. Van Cleave. Alternates are Wilbur Henderson, Amos Bain, Harry N. Nelson, Stephen B. McDonald, John Green, Phillip Jackson, A. Fred Stemm, Thomas A. Collins, Eugene Oppenheimer, Earl R. Wozward, Leland Cowan, Victor Brown, Daniel Kenney, Barge Leonard, Walter Gleason, Stuart M. Hullin and Earl Goodwin.
Forest Grove, No. 2—Elnor Hamilton, Jack Anderson and Guy McNutt with Bob Enschede, Joe Parson and Ernest Schmid, alternates.
Eugene, No. 3—Ben Dorris, George Herbert, W. L. May, Sam Wilderman, S. S. George and Charles A. Warnock with alternates C. S. Dillon, H. E. Frestland, William Polders, W. H. Williams, C. E. Burrell and Loran Smith.
Bend, No. 4—Dr. B. W. Hemingway, W. C. Eirrell, Oliver Currie and Leon

Devereaux with alternates R. J. McKinney, John Runge, Phil Brogan and Frank Prince.
Oregon City, No. 5—Delegates William Ellensburg, M. M. Martindale and Phillip Hammond.
Silverton, No. 7—Cliff Rue, Charles Johnson, Charles Reynolds and Dr. A. C. Simmons with Ernest Starr, Dr. McCollister, Walter Arbuthnot and Lester Cooper, alternates.
Klamath Falls, No. 8—Alfred D. Collier, Leon Crawford, O. D. Mathews, Perry O. Delap and A. H. Bussman with alternates D. J. Puckett, F. D. McMillan, Coleman F. O'Loughlin, Joe Devine and George Barth.
Salem, No. 9—Douglas McKay, Carl B. Gabrielson, Vic MacKenzie, H. G. Matson, Brazier C. Small, Dr. W. Carlton Smith, Frank Moore, R. H. Bassett, Newell Williams, H. A. Brown, Lewis Campbell, Oliver Huston, Don Wiggins and Roy Keene with alternates Bert Victor, W. H. Paulus, Max Page, Chris Ahrens, Lloyd Rigdon, Carl Nelson, J. W. Lewis, H. R. White, John Brady, Karl Steiner, Leo Page, Leo McAllister, J. J. Elliott and Carl Hines.
Albany, No. 10—R. A. Talbott, F. C. Stellmacher and Edwin Fortmiller with Charles Olson, Bennett L. Brotherton and P. A. Matheny alternates.
Astoria, No. 12—R. H. Howelina, F. C. Wheeler, C. P. Hall, G. B. Noe and M. J. Coovich and alternates, P. A. Olson, L. C. Ness, J. A. Hower, F. M. Franciscovich and E. A. Finney.
Ashland, No. 14—Charles M. Delaman, W. G. Drummond and Earl Bostwick with Glenn Simpson, Guy Applewhite and Gordon MacCracken, alternates.
Medford, No. 15—E. C. Ferguson, N. C. Chaney, S. V. Hall, John Holmes, L. L. Bromley, Harry Moore and L. M. Brown with alternates P. B. McDonald, L. C. Garlock, C. T. Baker, F. C. Bunch, Ed F. Webber, George Cudding and Ed Leach.
Roseburg, No. 16—J. A. Denn, J. A. Soules, Glenna McAllister, E. A. Post, Frank Hill, Vincent O'Brien, George Caskey and John E. Flurry with Guy Cordon, R. D. Bridges, C. G. Ferry, A. M. Throne, A. B. Cacy, Richard

When James D. McKay isn't too busy tending to legion affairs, he devotes his time to horses and a well-known make of light-six car. But for the last few months, he's been a legion organizer for the majority of his waking hours.

Busch, Rudolph Ritzmann and Woodley Stephenson alternates.
Marshfield, No. 17—J. W. McInturff, Mair A. Dano, Claude H. Giles, Earl E. Wilder and W. B. McIntire with alternates M. W. Skipworth, L. D. Winters, A. H. Chapman, Robert Dilard and J. M. Carr.
The Dalles, No. 19—Matt Duffy, C. L. Bohn, Willard Larsen and Francis Galoway with Harold Sexton, Tom Fraser, H. Granger and P. N. Larsen alternates.
Dallas, No. 20—Penn C. Crum, Jack Eakin and John Cery with Clyde Tibbs, J. R. Beck and Laird Woods alternates.
McMinnville, No. 21—Locke Hardin, Roy Farley, Glen Macy, Eugene E. Marsh and William Courtney and alternates George Amason, John Shalburne, Pete Mead, Fred Matches and Cal Weaver.
Hood River, No. 22—Edward Krieg,

(Con't. on Page 7, Column 5.)

This is Debonair "Doug"

MORE HELP FOR VETS IS NEEDED

McNutt on Visit to Salem, Decries Lack of Aid From Capitol

Continued vigilance and campaigning in the interests of the disabled veterans of the World War, constituted the message which Paul V. McNutt, national commander of the American Legion, brought to legionnaires of Oregon during his official visit here in April.

A serious situation for the men "for whom the war will never end" was created by the failure of congress to pass the bill proposing an appropriation of $11,485,000 for construction of additional hospitals, Commander McNutt said.

5,000 Vets Need Help

Five thousand veterans ailing mentally as a result of their wartime service are awaiting hospitalization, and others are in overcrowded state institutions, he declared. Congress did not find time to consider the hospital legislation during the special session, and it will be next December, when the 71st congress meets, before any relief can be hoped for.

Commander McNutt spoke in a number of Oregon cities. He was accompanied on the trip by Mrs. McNutt and by Mrs. Boyce Flicklin, national president of the American Legion auxiliary. During their tour through Oregon, Ben S. Fisher, department commander, and Carl Moser, department adjutant, were members of the party. In Salem April 25, Commander McNutt made only a brief stay.

Baker Post Sen's Two-Ton Rock and Miners to Drill It as Feature for Conclave

The American Legion drum and bugle corps and delegates of the Oregon and American Legion auxiliary leave here Wednesday evening, August 7 at 4:20 for Salem, where they will attend the state convention of the two organizations.

The Baker legionnaires will leave on a special train and will be joined in La Grande by the drum corps, drill team and delegates of that city. They will arrive in Salem at 10:25 a. m. Thursday, the opening day of the convention. Delegates and alternates are as follows: American Legion delegates—Warren Lemmon, Richard Langrell, Carl Waltz and William C. Kelly; alternates—E. P. Davies, George Jett, C. D. Potter and Joseph Boyer; Auxiliary, delegates—Mrs. Fred Hull, Mrs. Richard Langrell and Mrs. Forest Wright; Alternates—Mrs. J. W. Bowden, Mrs. Joseph Boyer and Mrs. Carl Castle.

Members Listed

Members of the drum corps are Troy King, Frank Pierst, Walter Clark, Sam Eiskamp, James Fenimore, A. Steinka, Roy Cook, Robert Worsham, and Oscar Welch, trumpeters; Joseph Boyer and Harry B. Smith, base drummers; C. D. Potter, Ray Scott, Frank Burt, William Groghan, Carl Castle, Henry Melton, E. P. Davies, Oscar McDaniell, Lynn Whipple, side drummers; William C. Kelly, drum major.

Robert Worsham and A. Steinka, two hard rock miners, will stage an exhibition rock drilling contest at the convention as Baker's stunt. A two ton granite rock has been sent to Salem and has now been disbanded.

CONCLAVE COST ABOUT $10,000

$30,000 is Underwritten by Salem Men; No Deficit Expected

Running a convention takes money.

In fact, the Salem conclave will cost the legion post here fully $10,000 for the outlay necessary to put over the meeting. This does not include the thousands of dollars to be spent by delegates and visitors to the convention who will fill local hotels and homes and restaurants; this is the cost for actual expenses of the convention alone.

The barbecue to be staged Thursday night at the airport calls for an outlay of $1600 alone; the drum corps competition takes $2000 and other expenses including decoration, publicity, free entertainment and handling of arrangements generally raise the bill of costs.

Nevertheless, the Salem post is planning to make the convention pay its way. While Salem business men have underwritten the convention for more than $30,000, the post wants to turn in a balanced budget when the convention is through.

Incomes from the drum corps competition, the three dances to be staged each night and from the sale of concessions will provide sufficient revenue to handle all expenses, the finance committee believe.

25 Newberg Men Coming to Meet

(Special to the Statesman)

NEWBERG, August 5.—Twenty-five members of the local legion post are expected to leave for Salem early Thursday morning, August 8, to attend the 11th annual state convention to be held at the state capitol.

The delegates to the convention are Dr. J. S. Rankin, Gerald Gowor and Roy Shires while the alternates are Russell Parker, George Gwinn, James Puckett. The Newberg post is Lester C. Rees Post No. 57 and holds its meetings and social events in a special hall constructed for it several years ago.

Newberg had a junior baseball team earlier in the season but it has now been disbanded.

Welcome to Salem Buddies and Members of the Auxiliary

As You View Salem Beautiful--- Remember that materials for many of these fine homes and buildings have been furnished by us.

We handle all kinds of building materials, in fact, we are manufacturers as well as retailers. We have one of the largest mills in Oregon, located in some of the best timber in the state. This mill supplies lumber for our retail yard which is one of the largest in the northwest, and is stocked with all grades and kinds of lumber. We handle Sherwin Williams paints, oils and varnishes and carry a larger stock than found any place else in the city. We handle builders' hardware, Schumacker's plaster board and tile also Cement, plaster and sand.

Our stock of sash and doors and glass is most complete. We handle A-1 fence posts and the best grades of red cedar shingles and Certainteed composition shingles and roofing.

Our prices are very reasonable and we make prompt deliveries and give the best of service.

We will be pleased to furnish you with a reliable contractor, who will give you figures as to the cost of building, planting, plastering, cement work and remodeling.

Yes, We are Real Building Material Dealers.

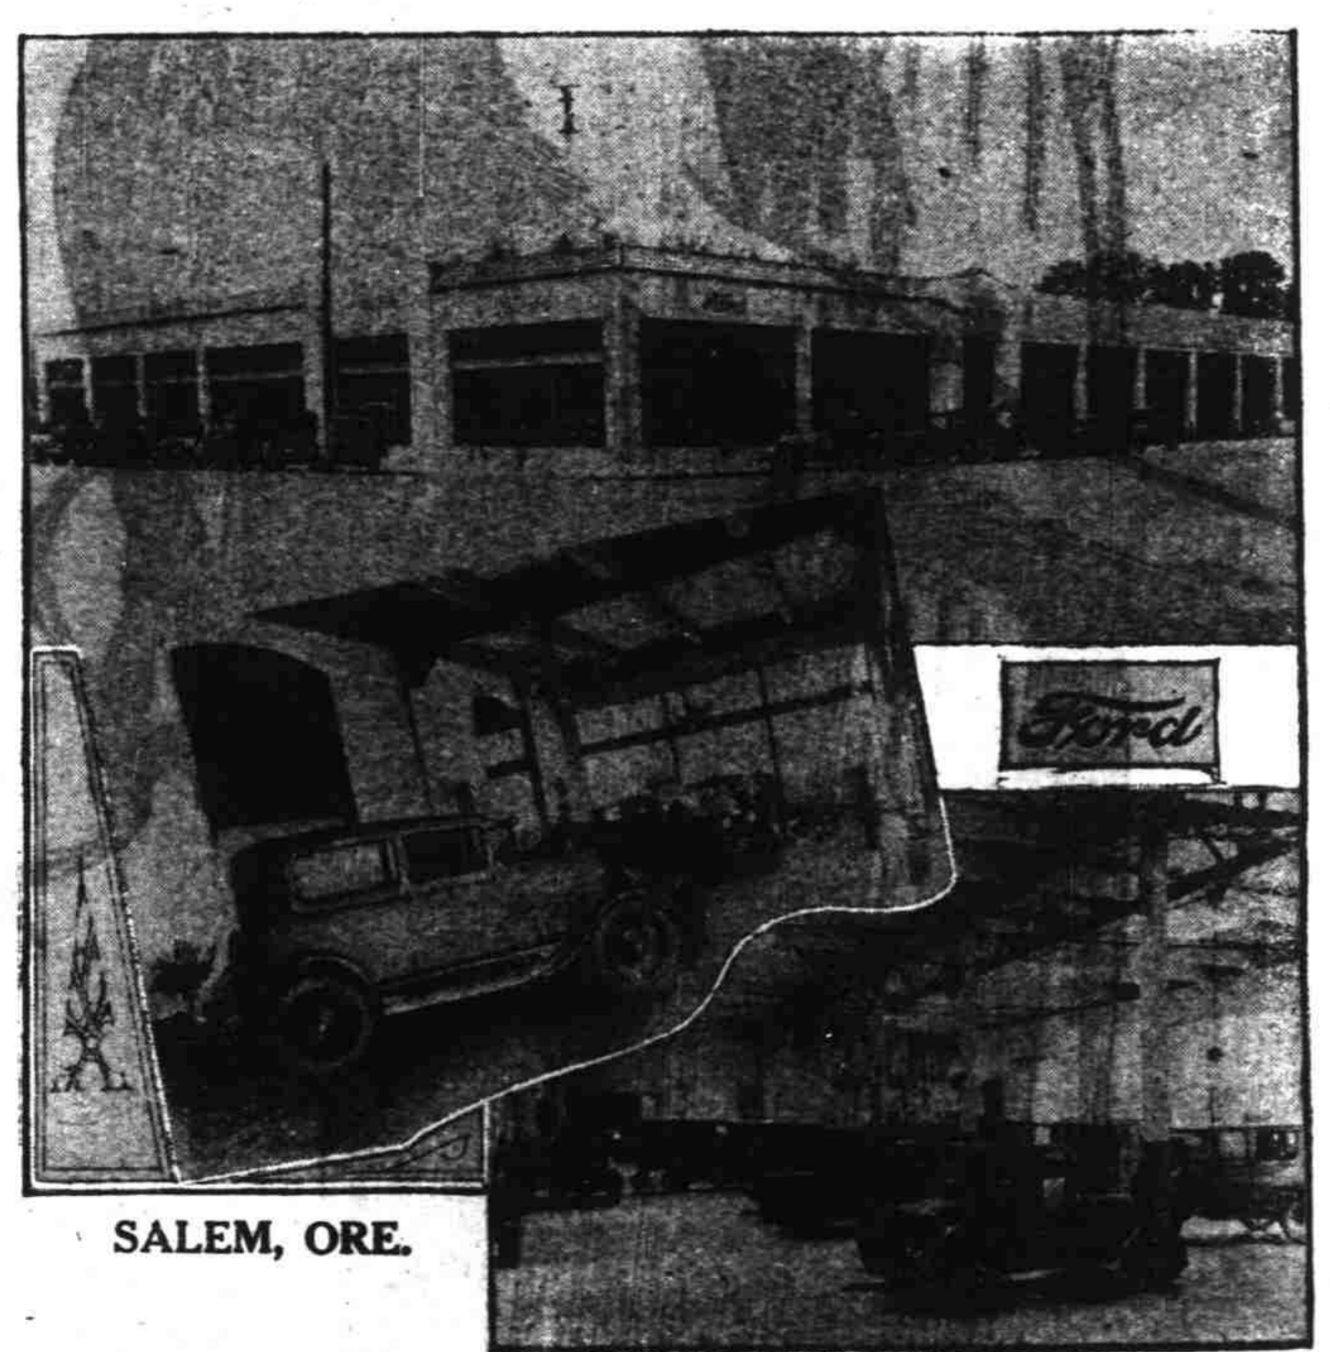

Cobbs & Mitchell Co.

A. B. KELSAY, Mgr.

349 South 12th St.

Telephone 813

The Valley Motor Co.

SALEM, ORE.

Corner Center and Liberty Streets

Welcomes the Legionnaires and Members of the Woman's Auxiliary to Salem. Visitors will be shown every courtesy here.