

News from Mid-Valley District Communities for Statesman Readers

Silverton

SILVERTON, August 10—Silverton relatives received word Friday morning of the death of little Wayne West, son of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest West of Portland. Wayne, who was nine years old, had not been well for the past three years. A few days ago he asked for his grandmother, Mrs. A. O. Legard of Silverton, who went at once to his bedside. Harry West is the sister of Otto Legard, a senior partner of the Silverton Woolen mill store, and of Mrs. Albert Sather. Alvin Legard, formerly of Silverton but now of Salem, is also a brother of Mrs. West.

Carl Salbach, widely known horticulturalist from Berkeley, Calif., visited at the Silmar gardens here for a short time this week. Mr. Salbach was one of the judges at the gladioli show at Portland.

The third annual homecoming picnic and reunion of old time settlers of the Silverton country will be held at the Coolidge & McClaine park at Silverton August 18. A program, discussion of old times, swimming and other amusements will feature the day. A large attendance is expected.

George Hales, who left Silverton nine years ago to take his home with his father at Olivia, Minnesota, has returned to again make his home at Silverton. His father died a year ago at the age of 94. Mr. Hales expects to improve his property on Liberty Hill and make his home again.

Mrs. Frank W. Pettigrew, Mrs. Seattle Anderson, who left Silverton nine years ago to take his home with his father at Olivia, Minnesota, has returned to again make his home at Silverton. His father died a year ago at the age of 94. Mr. Hales expects to improve his property on Liberty Hill and make his home again.

Mrs. Frank W. Pettigrew, Mrs. Seattle Anderson, who left Silverton nine years ago to take his home with his father at Olivia, Minnesota, has returned to again make his home at Silverton. His father died a year ago at the age of 94. Mr. Hales expects to improve his property on Liberty Hill and make his home again.

The Polk county Holiness association will meet at the Evangelical church in Dallas on August 14. Services will be held at 10:30 and 2:30. Rev. J. C. Scott of Los Angeles and Rev. and Mrs. J. R. Bishop, missionaries from China will be speakers.

Dr. and Mrs. Penn C. Crum are spending the three days of the American Legion convention in Dallas. Dr. Crum is commander of the Dallas post. Nearly all members of the post and auxiliary will attend some session of the convention, while many will take in all sessions. The Dallas post will assist with the serving of the big barbecue of the convention.

Warmer on Vacation
Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Warner will leave the first of the week on a vacation trip to the lakes of the Oregon Cascades. Mr. Warner is manager of the local Irish Cash store.

Miss Helen Butler and Miss Grace Forrester have returned to Dallas after several weeks spent in Eugene attending the summer school at the University of Oregon. Miss Forrester teaches in Portland and Miss Butler in Dallas.

Mrs. Otto Williams who has been in the Goffey hospital in Portland for several weeks will be there for some time longer for treatment and observation. Mrs. Ethel Woods, sister-in-law of Mrs. Williams was taken to the same hospital a few days ago by her sister, Mrs. A. J. Rhodes of Seattle.

Mt. Angel

MT. ANGEL, August 10—Mr. Angel Academy and Normal, conducted by the Benedictine Sisters, have for the 1929-1930 school term, made a wardrobe regulation, and according to the Directress, no student will be accepted unless she do so comply with same. Wardrobe regulation: no uniforms must be long enough to cover the knees when in a sitting position, sleeves must reach the elbows, dresses must be high at the neck in front and back, and not made from transparent material, long stockings with bloomers that reach the stockings must be worn.

Mt. Angel fire department was called to the John Erwert farm, three miles north of Mt. Angel to extinguish a brush fire which was burning adjoining his wheat field. With the aid of neighbors the department soon had the fire under control. No damage was done.

Andrew W. Schaefer, who has been at the home of his wife, Mrs. Schaefer, yesterday threatened a ten acre field of White Edena wheat which averaged 62 bushels per acre. Stanley Duda, a neighbor, thinking this too high a yield, measured the fields and found same correct. The wheat was grown on last year corn and potato land and the oats on last year clover land.

Woodburn

WOODBURN, Aug. 10—At its August meeting, the Woodburn W. C. T. U. decided to extend the Children's Farm Home at Corvallis by making articles to be sold at the W. C. T. U. booth at the State Fair in addition to filling a barrel of canned fruit. There were no hostesses and the meeting was held Friday afternoon in the Methodist church.

The business session was presided over by the president, Mrs. Chas. Dean and opened with a sacred hymn. Mrs. Henry Hanson read the devotionals and two papers were read by Mrs. Ida Brennan and Mrs. Nellie Muir on the disastrous effects of tobacco. Miss Joyce Woodfin sang a vocal solo and a few more hymns closed the meeting. There were no refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Courtney have just returned from a three week trip to the Black Hills in South Dakota. They went through Denver, Colorado and Salt Lake City, Utah and returned through Yellowstone National park. They spent their visit in Custer, South Dakota where they were royally entertained by many of Mr. Courtney's old friends, he having made his home there years ago.

The Dan McDougalls have purchased the Corner cafe from C. F. Temple and Mrs. McDougall will open a tea room there shortly.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hanauska and family and Mrs. Hanauska's mother visited at the Frank Messer home in Shaw last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hanlan and children Jimmie and Delores and Miss Margaret Apila are at Pacific City for a vacation. Mrs. Hanlan also has there her health, having faith that the ocean air will help her condition.

Zena

ZENA, Aug. 10.—Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Gram of Rafael, California and two children, Edith and Harold left here Thursday after an extended visit with Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Taylor.

The Gram family arrived here from California July 28 and made the Taylor home their headquarters while visiting relatives.

Tuesday, July 30, they went to La Grande, a former home and on their return trip stopped at Milton for a reunion of the Gram clan, some members of which came from as far as Illinois to be present.

Thursday when they left Zena they intended to visit in Salem at the home of Mr. Gram's niece, Mrs. A. M. Turpin and at the home of friends who were their old neighbors at Falls City, Mr. and Mrs. C. Vick of Salem.

Thursday Mrs. S. D. Crawford and daughter, Gladys, accompanied by Mrs. W. N. Crawford and two daughters, Alice and Wilma motored to Salem where they attended the picnic given by the Junior and Intermediate classes of the Calvary Baptist church at Marion square.

James French of Zena and his brother John French of Salem, were business visitors in Amity Wednesday. John French is owner of the Dixie Lunch on High street in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Denham and three small children Mildred, Ralph and Clifford of Zena and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Barnes also of Zena went on a short vacation trip to Newport Tuesday and returned Thursday. The trip was made especially for Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Denham, son and daughter, in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Denham, who arrived here from their home in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, July 31, and had never seen the Oregon beaches. The party report a fine trip and stated that fish and oysters were plentiful. The abrupt change from the extreme heat in Oklahoma to cool climate at Newport caused Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Denham to change from light summer garments to sweaters and overcoats.

Mrs. R. B. Munger of Chicago as her mother Mrs. Mary B. Crawford of Zena were dinner guests Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Frank Crawford. Mrs. Munger is quite popular in the younger set and will be entertained while here. She is a house guest for three weeks at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. Frank Crawford and her mother, Mrs. Mary B. Crawford.

Bobby Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Smith and Bessie Simpson of Portland is visiting this month at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Alice Simpson.

Stayton

STAYTON, August 9—Henry Benson underwent a major operation at the Willamette sanitarium Tuesday.

Misses Dorothy Grace and Bernadine Jacobson are here from San Diego visiting at the W. A. Weddle home. They made the trip in their car and will go on to Idaho where Miss Grace is a niece of the Weddles.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Beauchamp have been spending the week at Diamond Lake.

Prof. H. E. Tobie and family are home from Eugene, where he has been attending summer school. Henry Delridch and Louie Dawes left Tuesday for Marion Lake.

Sim Etsel has had a substantial wooded and garage built on his property here.

George H. Bell and family have gone to the beach for an outing. Bell is assistant cashier at the Bank of Stayton. Mrs. J. L. Siegmund also of the bank force returned Monday from a two weeks' vacation, part of which was spent with relatives at Garibaldi and at Portland.

A dozen or more Lyons with their families enjoyed a picnic supper at the Legion park Wednesday. Boys' and girls' races, a woman's race, three-legged race, fat man's race, horseshoe pitching and at a late hour plenty of "hot dogs" and marshmallows to toast around the bonfire.

At the recent school board meeting A. F. Schindler was awarded the contract for the long discussed play-shed. It is to be $6,300 and an award of $800 was allowed for it in the budget. It is expected it will be completed by the time school starts, early in September. Stayton schools are looking to a large attendance this year. Among the recent sections to petition bus service to and from school is the Silvercreek Falls district.

Newport

NEWPORT, Aug. 10.—George Highlin, director of swimming at the University of California, is giving free swimming instruction at the natatorium during the week. The lessons are in the interest of Red Cross work and include junior life saving and senior life saving work. He is assisted by Miss Horning.

Mrs. Ervin F. Smith is a recent guest at the Damon.

E. C. Carlson was a recent visitor from Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wright and grandchildren are spending two weeks at Cherry City. Mr. Wright is postmaster at Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. L. O. White of Salem are vacationing at Rose City lodge.

Mr. L. Van Cudol and family of Salem are domiciled at Whittier camp.

Mrs. Ira Jorgensen and daughter Iris of Salem are guests at the Gilmore.

Miss Ethel and Edna Cummings of Salem are registered at Ocean View.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. McCauley and son returned to Salem after spending their vacation here. They were staying at Jory Park.

Mr. and Mrs. V. Domogall left for Salem after spending their vacation at Sea Crest.

Dr. A. C. Epley and Mrs. Epley were week-end guests at the Gilmore.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Turner and daughter of Chemawa are vacationing at Cherry City.

Mrs. L. P. Wallace is in Newport for her vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Mathis of Salem are spending a week at Whittier camp.

Mrs. W. M. McGilchrist Jr. of Salem was a recent guest at the Damon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle W. Knox of Salem are occupying a Sunset cottage during their vacation here.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dreaser and family returned to Salem after vacationing here. They occupied a Sunnyside cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Keefer and family of Salem are enjoying camp life at Tent City.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Smith and

Miss Meryl Dismore was operated on last week for appendicitis. It was reported that she is getting along fine.

Mrs. Fred Hagstrom and Mrs. Nora Smith of Portland were visiting their sister, Mrs. Walter Kirkwood last week.

Mrs. Kirk Walling and Mrs. Grant Walling spent Sunday in Forest Grove.

Mrs. May Kerns is quite ill at her sister's home in Albany.

Billy Cox, of Tacoma, Wash., is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kirkwood.

S. B. Elliott of Salem was a dinner guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Riechen.

Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. G. Nash and family and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Campbell of Salem were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Campbell Sunday.

Turner

TURNER, August 10—Mrs. J. F. Hatcher and Mrs. A. H. Hatcher and son left by motor Sunday for their home at Stockton, Calif. after being houseguests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Thomas for the past month. Crater Lake will be one of the places of interest visited enroute.

Miss Jane Robinson of Salem spent last week-end with her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Riech.

Turner ladies who attended the August meeting of the Cloverdale W. C. T. U. as per invitation were Mesdames G. W. Farris, S. A. Funstun, S. Gerardin, A. L. Robertson, W. T. Riech, C. A. Bear, R. O. Witzel, I. H. Small, G. Barnigt, L. Harrison and Miss Driver. About forty ladies were present to enjoy the day.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schifferer are enjoying their fine new house which is situated on a slightly hill four miles southwest of Turner, with a magnificent view of the valley to the east and mountains beyond.

Mrs. R. O. Haslett is home after a two weeks stay in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Mason and family left last week for eastern Oregon on a vacation trip.

Pete Diederich of Stayton, Louie Dawes and Lyle Potter of Mill City left Tuesday for Marion lake where they will spend a few days fishing.

Tony Moravee had his tonsils removed last Friday at the Mill City hospital.

Ralph Millasp accompanied by George Rudolph, Jr., of Portland, were visitors at the Millasp home Sunday.

Mrs. O. P. Given has returned from her trip to Seattle. Her sister-in-law, Mrs. Albert Savage, returned with her for a short visit.

Mrs. C. W. Hewitt served a birthday dinner Sunday in honor of her husband's anniversary. Several relatives were guests for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Smith are home after a few days spent with friends in Portland.

Miss Grace Driver was a business visitor in Albany Wednesday.

Dr. J. W. Ransom was absent a few days at Riddle, his former home, and other southern Oregon points on business.

S. H. Baker will spend some time at Corvallis, being employed at the flour mill.

Mrs. C. Mitchell of Mill City is with her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth McKay, at her home, which was purchased from the H. L. Earl estate.

Many campers are in the neighborhood, working in the string beans. W. Jay Denham has 12 acres, the largest acreage in the immediate vicinity.

Charles Standley, Sr., is still quite ill at his home.

TURNER, August 10—Mrs. O. P. Given accompanied her father, Albert Savage, to Seattle for a short visit with Albert Savage, Jr., and family and Weyland Savage and family. They left Saturday morning. Little Nellie Savage who has made her home with her aunt, Mrs. Given, accompanied them.

The rock crusher east of town is again in operation.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Salisbury received word from Camas, Wash.

Scotts Mills

SCOTT'S MILLS, August 10—Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Holman and two sons, Wallace and Kenneth of Oskia, Minnesota, and Mrs. Holman's father, Mr. Anderson, and son, Lawrence Anderson, of Salem, visited Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hogg Sunday evening. Mrs. Holman was a former teacher of the Noble school several years ago.

John Kellis of Salem visited his son, Raymond Kellis and family over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Worden of Silverton, visited Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Riech and family Sunday.

Miss Mildred Magee of Ashland is visiting relatives in this vicinity.

Several families of the Friends church attended the conference held at Twin Rocks last week.

The ball game played Sunday between Salem M. W. A. and Scotts Mills M. W. A. was won by the Salem team by a score of 6 to 3.

Mrs. Lulu Scott attended the family reunion of the Ridings families on the Molalla River Sunday.

Mrs. Blandina Sanders was in Silverton on business Saturday evening.

Miss Nell Kinser, who is working in Portland, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kinser, over Sunday.

Mrs. N. Schmalz and two sons Dan and Bobbie and daughter Mrs. Dean Woodford returned home Saturday from Netarts, where they had spent the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Woodford of St. Helens, Ore., visited relatives here over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Saueressig and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Saueressig attended the Minnesota picnic held at Hager's grove near Salem Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Haynes and son Glenn visited Mr. Haynes' brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Thad Dwyer near Independence, Sunday.

Mehama

MEHAMA, August 10—Alice Boyington and Arlyn Moe have returned home from picking berries near Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Phillips are leaving for Minnesota early Saturday morning where they will visit Mrs. Phillips' folks.

Mrs. Merl Teeters who has been on the sick list for the past week is rapidly recovering.

Sheadon Bohannon is home from the hospital and is doing fine.

Mr. Ledgerwood is taking the dam out of the river which turning water down to the fish hatchery.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillips motored to Portland for the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Zimmerman are building a new home on their place above Mehama.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lettenmeyer from Mill City were visitors over the week-end at her mother's Mrs. W. Zimmerman.

Unionvale

UNIONVALE, Aug. 10.—The Unionvale store has been painted recently.

John Hibbs has recently recovered from a long period of sickness.

Graveling the river road near the Wheatland ferry over the new turn near the old Forrest farm is in progress now.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Ford and family of Idaho were visitors at most of the homes in this community. Mr. Ford was formerly principal at the Amity high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cozel have just returned from a trip to the coast.

Matt and Viola Puumala were McMinnville visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Setella and family were in McMinnville shopping Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wood and daughter, Lois, were at the coast a few days last week, visiting Mrs. Belle Antrim at Pacific City.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Nishkian and son Byron of San Francisco, Calif., who have been touring Canada, were visitors at the Charles Wood and Creed Loop homes last Monday. Mrs. Nishkian and Mrs. Wood were former school mates. Although they have corresponded regularly, this is the first time they have met in 20 years.

Mrs. Nishkian was formerly Miss Dot Adams of Whiteson.

concerning the recent arrival of a their son, Arthur.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Parks and children spent Sunday at Champeo park.

Miss Mildred Martin of Salem spent Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Martin.

Lee Barber, merchant, was a Salem business visitor Monday morning.

W. H. Purdy is quite sick at his home east of Turner.

Miss Eleanor Moore, of Salem, spent the week end with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Gunning. Miss Moore moved to Salem three years ago with her family, who had resided at Turner for a number of years. She gave the solo at the M. E. church Sunday morning.

Friends of Miss Carol H. Riser, who at one time resided in Turner, will be glad to know she is recovering very satisfactorily from a major operation a week ago at the Deaconess hospital. She is pleased to see her friends this week, if they will call. Miss Riser graduated from Salem high school last June.

Mill City

MILL CITY, Aug. 10.—Victor Cornwell, 4 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Cornwell, was severely burned last week when his clothes caught fire from matches he was playing with.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Cober left Wednesday morning for Dunsmuir, Calif., where they will spend several weeks visiting at the home of Mrs. Cober's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Foster.

Mrs. Ethel Yunkers of Crabtree was severely injured Saturday while cranking an automobile, when the crank flew back, hitting her on the knee and knocking the cap off.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Collins returned Thursday from a trip to California.

Miss Alma Sarpola is spending the week visiting friends, having just completed the summer school at the University of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Mason and family left last week for eastern Oregon on a vacation trip.

Pete Diederich of Stayton, Louie Dawes and Lyle Potter of Mill City left Tuesday for Marion lake where they will spend a few days fishing.

Tony Moravee had his tonsils removed last Friday at the Mill City hospital.

Ralph Millasp accompanied by George Rudolph, Jr., of Portland, were visitors at the Millasp home Sunday.

Mrs. O. P. Given has returned from her trip to Seattle. Her sister-in-law, Mrs. Albert Savage, returned with her for a short visit.

Mrs. C. W. Hewitt served a birthday dinner Sunday in honor of her husband's anniversary. Several relatives were guests for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Smith are home after a few days spent with friends in Portland.

Miss Grace Driver was a business visitor in Albany Wednesday.

Dr. J. W. Ransom was absent a few days at Riddle, his former home, and other southern Oregon points on business.

S. H. Baker will spend some time at Corvallis, being employed at the flour mill.

Mrs. C. Mitchell of Mill City is with her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth McKay, at her home, which was purchased from the H. L. Earl estate.

Many campers are in the neighborhood, working in the string beans. W. Jay Denham has 12 acres, the largest acreage in the immediate vicinity.

Charles Standley, Sr., is still quite ill at his home.

TURNER, August 10—Mrs. O. P. Given accompanied her father, Albert Savage, to Seattle for a short visit with Albert Savage, Jr., and family and Weyland Savage and family. They left Saturday morning. Little Nellie Savage who has made her home with her aunt, Mrs. Given, accompanied them.

The rock crusher east of town is again in operation.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Salisbury received word from Camas, Wash.

Amity

AMITY, Aug. 9—Prof. Murphy has been busy here this week in the interest of the local high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Burdick and family from Los Angeles, Calif. are visiting at the Fred Vincent home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Martin spent Sunday at Newkwin.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Newby transacted business in Portland on Monday.

TURNER, August 10—Mrs. O. P. Given accompanied her father, Albert Savage, to Seattle for a short visit with Albert Savage, Jr., and family and Weyland Savage and family. They left Saturday morning. Little Nellie Savage who has made her home with her aunt, Mrs. Given, accompanied them.

Mrs. Mary Stinson spent the past week near McMinnville at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Kate Jones.

Mrs. Maudie Davis visited the fore part of the week at the Fred Schaeffer home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Osborne and daughters and Miss Edith Patterson spent Sunday near Vancouver at the L. Beletski home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gibbs returned Sunday evening from their honeymoon trip at the coast.

Visits From Albany
Miss Bernice Paley of Albany visited in Amity Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Burr and Miss Ardycie spent Sunday at Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Taylor visited in Portland on Sunday.

W. B. Smith of Redmond, Wash. is visiting at the Dr. George Davis home. He is an old friend of the family.

Cleo Elgin of Kelso, Wash. is visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. Glen Buffum in this city.

Mrs. R. B. Hartman of Carlton spent Wednesday at the J. R. Snodgrass home.

Mack Gets Position
C. G. Mack has a position at the Masonic home in Forest Grove as a landscape gardener for the institution.

The final coat of paint was put on the Christian church this week and gives the building a neat and attractive appearance.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Cole, Ina Jones and Mr. Lloyd Cole and Betty Jean spent Tuesday at the coast.

Sunday guests at the Victoria and Louis Burch home were: Lynn Burch and family, E. E. Ladd, Anna Graham, Georgia Darr, Fred Small of McMinnville and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Burch of Amity.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Murray of McMinnville and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Johnson made a trip on Sunday to the coast.

Morrison's Have Guests
Visitors at the George Morrison home this week were Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Sterling of Dallas, Scotland. Mr. Sterling is traveling salesman for the Glenochil Woolen company of Alva, Scotland, and has been on a business trip through Canada and are now in California to visit with relatives.

Mrs. Freta Miller of Portland spent Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Ahlson.

Edward Yarnes of Newberg spent this week with friends and relatives and also at his son's, W. E. Yarnes and family south of Amity.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Smith and family spent Sunday in Portland with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Gerard spent Sunday in Forest Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Richter and daughters and E. W. Rea transacted business in McMinnville on Tuesday forenoon.

Aumsville

AUMSVILLE, Aug. 9—Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Hines left Friday morning for a few days at Cascadia.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Fulton left Tuesday morning for Belknap Hot springs for a week's outing.

Mr. and Mrs. Bellemy of Salem will stay with Mrs. Fulton's father, Mr. Maize.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Graham and family returned home Sunday from Lebanon where they have spent several weeks in the berry fields.

H. P. Jensen motored to Portland Sunday and brought his daughter, Evelyn home. She has been in Portland some time to have her tonsils removed. Mrs. Von Buren, Mrs. L. Fusco, Hazel Powell and Christy Johnson spent Sunday at Cascadia.

Mr. and Mrs. Hanson of Silverton spent Sunday at the M. McCollough home.

E. Warne Empey of McMinnville was in town calling on friends Friday.

William Gray took Mrs. Gay and son Barret to the Brietens-bush Springs for a two weeks' vacation Sunday morning.

Elmer Bowers came home Sunday after a stay of seven weeks at Scio with Mr. and Mrs. E. Long.

Mrs. C. George and Mr. and Mrs. Parks and family spent Sunday at Champeo.

Warner Lee and Charles Taylor spent the week-end at Brietens-bush springs.

Swimming Hole Attracts
The swimming hole in Highberger's grove is the most attraction in this vicinity this warm weather.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Ridenhour of The Dalles, Mrs. E. A. Lehman of Portland, Mrs. A. Milles of Oregon City visited at the Prunk home Wednesday.

Miss Irene Nance of Albany came Monday for a week's visit at the McCollough home and calling on old friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Winslow have been moving into the Dora Kunev house this week after selling the property to D. A. White of Salem.

Mrs. Long and baby of Scio are here visiting at the parental home Mr. and Mrs. F. Bowers.

North Santiam

NORTH SANTIAM, August 10—Mrs. Swift and nephew of Mill City were visitors one day last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Angel.

Dale Dixon met with an accident in attempting to pass a car. His motorcycle skidded, throwing him off and cutting his arm quite bad.

Leland Keithley, wife and baby Mary Lou spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Keithley.

Mrs. Pearl Higgins and daughter Juanita and Louise of Portland are spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. Ben Browning.

Stanley Maple of Portland is spending his vacation with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McLaughlin.

Mrs. Leland Keithley of Mill City is spending the week with her mother, Mrs. A. F. Keithley.

Rosedale

ROSEDALE, August 10—Mrs. Edith Webb with her son, Bobby, is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. J. Halsey. Mrs. Webb is employed at the Newbury store in Portland.

Mrs. Adair of Salem visited her brother T. D. Trick and family Sunday.

Mrs. Edith Corbett of Portland is visiting at the home of Mrs. McCammack.

Misses Helen and Laura Cammack were in Portland Monday evening and Tuesday. Miss Helen presented their model of the "Tabernacle in the Wilderness," at the Free Methodist camp meeting at Beaverton, Monday afternoon.

Rosedale

ROSEDALE, August 10—Mrs. Edith Webb with her son, Bobby, is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. J. Halsey. Mrs. Webb is employed at the Newbury store in Portland.

Mrs. Adair of Salem visited her brother T. D. Trick and family Sunday.

Mrs. Edith Corbett of Portland is visiting at the home of Mrs. McCammack.

Misses Helen and Laura Cammack were in Portland Monday evening and Tuesday. Miss Helen presented their model of the "Tabernacle in the Wilderness," at the Free Methodist camp meeting at Beaverton, Monday afternoon.

Dorothy Gray

You mustn't be without it!

It makes you feel so fresh, and it does so many wonderful things for your skin—this new Dorothy Gray Texture Lotion. Use it first thing in the morning to cleanse your skin, to wake it up, and to close the pores. And whenever you have used Cleansing Cream, follow with Texture Lotion. It will remove the last traces of the cream—leaving your skin gloriously cool and fresh—it will carry away every lingering particle of dirt, and it will prevent enlarged pores. Texture Lotion itself is perfect for cleansing the skin in the morning, or whenever you have on no make-up. It checks an oily skin condition, and its continued use will reduce enlarged pores to their normal size. Dorothy Gray Texture Lotion is a joy to use. It costs one dollar (a much larger bottle is two dollars) and it is on sale at our Toilet Goods Department.

CAPITAL DRUG STORE
J. H. Willett
405 State Owl Agency Tel. 119
"ONLY THE BEST"

SERVICE MEASURED NOT BY GOLD BUT BY THE GOLDEN RULE

Our Fifth paragraph of our Creed, which is the Creed of all Golden Rule funeral directors, runs in this wise: "We believe in the gospel of the Golden Rule; that 'Whatso ye would that men should do unto you, even so do unto them' is the epitome of all desirable and worthy business mottoes and creeds."

CLOUGH-HUSTON CO. FUNERAL HOME
205 SOUTH CHURCH ST.
Phone 120