Roy Shields, as First Leader. Started Kiwanians on to Goal

In these days of so many clubs and organizations any group, to justify its existence, must be able to show a definite objective and point to concrete accomplishments. The Salem Kiwanis club, during the past eight years of its life has succeeded in doing a great deal of work of material benefit to the community. During the first year, with Roy

Shields as president, the work was largely that of organization, getting acquainted in the community and building a place for the club

Greetings Kiwanis Friendo

Should misfortune overtake you while in our city in the way of bent or broken glasses or the need of an adjustment, we are in a position to give you prompt and careful service.

If an adjustment, straightening or the need of a new screw in your glasses, we will do this gratuitously for yoh.

Our offices are modern, well equipped and up-to-date and a credit we believe to our profession and equal to any found in the Pacific northwest. Make our offices a place to meet your friends.

Friends that we have made in past district conventions and the new ones we will make-we bid you welcome.
