Kiwanis Guests are Attractively Received

Between garden parties, garden inspections and a studio musicale the ladies of the Kiwanis visitors had a little time on their hands Tuesday to do anything but see and meet Salem.

Guests were visited. The garden parties were held at the home of Mrs. J. J. Cooley, the Smiths and McGilchrist gardens were open on Summer street, and the U. G. Shipley garden on East Washington street.

Many hundreds of guests made the trip through these gardens. As they came from the garden inspection to the garden tea given in the lovely yards of Ralph Cooley and F. G. McGilchrist, they stopped at the home of Prof. and Mrs. T. S. Roberts, where a delightful musicale was in progress during the afternoon in the studio of the Roberts home.

Here a profusion of flowers and the soft shadings of lights made a perfect setting for the afternoon of music.

At the Cooley and Deckebach gardens, music and fortune tellers gave musical charm to the garden furniture in gay colors was placed about to best advantage in nooks and corners. Tea table and punch bowls were attractively placed.

Hunt Club Plans Bonfire Party

Beginning with Tuesday night Salem Hunt club members will enjoy moonlight rides every night of the week with the exception of Friday night, and will conclude the week Saturday night with a bonfire party.

Those who are not able to get horses will come in their motors to the place of meeting. Music and other special features are being planned.

Mrs. D. D. Craig South Salem Hostess

SOUTH SALEM: Mrs. D. D. Craig entertained recently with a handkerchief shower in compliment to Mrs. Nickelson who is leaving soon for Lemmon, South Dakota. Mrs. Nickelson has been visiting at the home of her brother, Mr. L. Whitesell, for the past months. Miss Roselle Straub will accompany Mrs. Nickelson on this eastern trip.

Those who called to during the afternoon were the honor guest, Mrs. Elizabeth Nickelson, Mrs. Emma Wheelodon, Mrs. Francis Butler, Mrs. William Trudgen, Miss Rita Warrington, Mrs. C. N. Robinson, Mrs. Pearl Hardman, and Mrs. Phillips.

Many guests have been coming and going at the A. A. Underhill home for the past few weeks. Among the many has been Mrs. Mary Chase, who has just left for her home in Palo Alto, California, to meet her son, Robert Little, and his bride, who will return Thursday to Palo Alto from an extended honeymoon in Europe, before going on to Redwood, California, where they will make their home. Mrs. Chase will remain only a short time in California before sailing with her daughter Katherine for Honolulu, where Miss Katherine will teach in the University of Hawaii.

Mrs. Lizzie Smith will entertain the members of the Past President's club at her home at 657 Center street, Tuesday afternoon.

"Adorable Party Frock"

PATTERN 1756

The Statesman 15c Practical Pattern

A bit of gathering, or smocking if you wish, three folds on the skirt, and a perfectly ravishing little dress is made for the little miss. Design 1756 uses silk crepe for frock and bloomers, and binds the neck and tiny sleeves with self material.

Pastel shades are lovely for little girls, especially the blues, pink and yellows. Other popular fabrics used for miniature models are seers, dainty, organdie and fine voile. A dotted material would be delightful.

May be obtained only in sizes 2, 4, 6, and 8.

Size 4 requires 2 5-8 yards of 36 inch material.

This model is easy to make. No dressmaking experience is necessary. Each pattern comes to you with simple and exact instructions including yardage for every size. A perfect fit is guaranteed.

Patterns will be delivered upon receipt of fifteen cents (15c) in coins carefully wrapped or stamps. Be sure to write plainly your name, address, style number and size wanted.

Our latest fashion book will be sent upon receipt of ten cents in coin. Address all mail and orders to The Statesman Pattern Department, 243 West 17th street, New York City.

Mrs. Earl Fisher Campaign Appointee

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON: Mrs. Earl Fisher of Salem is a member of the statewide committee of Oregon Mothers which is holding a campaign Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, to raise $50,000 to match $50,000 appropriated by the last legislature for the erection of an infirmary building on the campus of the University of Oregon at Eugene. All university mothers are asked to participate in the drive, and they are being assisted by the student members of the woman's league of the university.

On the three days, groups of university girls—each group led by a member of the Oregon Mothers' society—will visit business houses and individuals selling tags with this slogan:

"Buy a brick!"

Each tag will cost $1, enough to put a brick into the proposed structure.

The Oregon Mothers went to the legislature following the influenza epidemic last fall, which came on the heels of the return of the Oregon football team from a game at Berkeley, California. A total of 350 students were ill with influenza, and the only infirmary was an old frame structure containing 13 beds crowded into five or six small rooms.

The situation was so dangerous, that the Oregon mothers without consulting the university authorities went to the legislature and promised to raise $50,000 if the state would appropriate that much. The bill went through and now the mothers are endeavoring to fulfill their part.
