

STOCK MARKET MOVES UPWARD

More Than Half Tuesday's Losses are Regained On Wednesday

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—(AP)—The stock market had one of its "day after" rebounds today, which have become characteristic of late on days succeeding floods of selling. Price indices indicated that more than half of yesterday's losses were regained. Trading was in large volume, nearly 4,800,000 shares changing hands.

Powerful pool operations in selected issues prompted general short covering, which accelerated the rally. Operations for the most part appeared to be professional, and were attributed to powerful banking interests and investment trusts. Commission houses stated that the public was not a large buyer, although western wires brought in a fair amount of business.

Oils were leaders of the advances, sponsors of the movement asserting that the market has more than discounted the over-production problems in view of current earnings. Standard of New Jersey was rushed up nearly 6 points to a record price for the present stock above 80. Royal Dutch was bid up about as much to a new peak above 60.

Several issues said to be in small floating supply were hurried up rapidly. American Machine & Foundry rising 23 points to a record price. Case Threshing jumped about 17 points, then slid off 10 from the top. Commercial Solvents made an extreme gain of 16 points.

Johns Manville was again a strong feature, selling up about 13 points. Simmons climbed 11 to a new top. Food shares displayed group strength, such issues as Corn Products, Kraft Phenix, and Hershey Chocolate reaching new peaks. Standard Brands was in good demand. Utilities likewise were urged forward, American and Foreign Power jumping about 9 points, and such leads as United Crop, Consolidated Gas and Public Service of New Jersey making substantial gains. The rails were firm, Baltimore and Ohio reaching a new peak.

General Electric mounted about 9 points, then lost half its gain. Radio was traded in heavy volume. U. S. Steel and American Telephone closed a couple of points higher, after making extreme gains of more than 4 points.

The market generally closed a few points below the best levels of the day, and a few stocks closed lower. Pere Marquette dropped 3 points, and Allis Chalmers, Hawaiian Pineapple and G. W. Helm lost about 4. Collins and Alkman sagged 2 points to a new 1929 low at 39.

Nose Knows Arrival at Lake Labish

By MADALENE L. CALLIN
If you have a sensitive nose you will find much to attract your attention in the Lake Labish district just now. Turning from the highway and driving down through the Japanese district one is greeted by the mingled odor of peppermint and onions. Strange to say the combination is not so bad as it sounds.

The onions are now being pulled out of the ground and left to dry in the sun. The crop is very heavy this year and of exceptionally fine quality. Yellow Danvers are the principal variety grown and the onions are large and well shaped. After they have dried for a few days they will be stored awaiting the coming of the wholesale onion buyers. Some of the growers are going to keep their crop until spring in the hope of better price.

Next to the onion fields is a peppermint still, owned by L. O. Herald. Here we find that from 30 to 50 gallons of the oil is being extracted each day. This requires about 20 tons of "hay" or peppermint plants.

This has not been a good peppermint season, due largely to the lack of rain, but the peppermint and onions are the center of interest here now because it is between seasons of the celery crop. Twenty carloads of celery were sent from the district during the summer season and the fall crop will be much larger. The summer crop was excellent and brought high prices.

Much has been written of the Lake Labish district, the richest land in the world, where such wonderful celery, onions and lettuce are grown, but little is said of the other side of the picture, that is the long hours of hard work on the part of the Japanese gardeners.

"We get up a three o'clock in the morning to cut and pack celery so it can be in the market by 8:00 o'clock. We work by moon light, you know," said Ida Yoshida, one of the workers.

It is that sort of thing that makes possible the fine celery which is enjoyed by so many people.

SCHOOL DIRECTORS SUED BY TAXPAYERS

MEDFORD, Ore., Sept. 11.—(AP)—Extravagance and misappropriation of funds is charged in a complaint filed in circuit court here today by Ben Fredenburg and others, taxpayers of the Butte Falls district, against the directors of the school board, who are cited by a special notice to appear in circuit court at 10 a. m., next Monday.

The suit, which was commenced against the three directors of the school board and the First National bank of Medford, enjoins the issuing of warrants by the directors and the payment of the warrants by the bank unless these warrants are signed by the elected clerk of the district, Mrs. Anna Glines.

The complaint recites that as a result of extravagance and misappropriation of funds, taxes have increased tremendously, there now being about $11,000 in unpaid warrants drawing interest at six per cent.
