WHO KILLED JESUS SERMON'S SUBJECT

"There are numerous magazines that contain articles from time to time on the momentous question, 'Who killed Jesus?' Each has different opinions, but always states that it is very sad that Jesus should have been killed and that it was poor business on the part of the Jews to kill Jesus. Again, others claim Jesus was a victim of circumstances. But the scriptures teach that Jesus, the manifestation of God, was independent of all human circumstances," said Evangelist William E. Booth-Clibborn, Wednesday evening at the Evangelistic tabernacle, 13th and Perry streets, in his sermon on "Who killed Jesus?"

An Easier Way to Slenderness

"Inches-Off," the new elastic by Modart, removes inches off figure measurements and molds the silhouette into lovely unbroken lines which are so smart. You will be surprised at the comfort you will experience in wearing Inches Off, for while its tension is much greater than other elastics, it is so flexible as to allow much freedom.

"Raglan Shoulders Smart"

PATTERN 1676
Statesman 18c Practical Pattern
The little bloomer frock model shown today, Design 1676, is extremely smart because of the unusual raglan shoulders that are so new. Two inverted pleats give ample fullness to the frock. The collar, cuffs, pockets and bloomer bands are made of contrasting plain color fabric.

Printed gingham, percale or linen are suitable fabrics for the development of Design 1676. Smart and seasonal colors are green, brown and yellow on grounds of the same color in a lighter shade or on white.

May be obtained only in sizes 2, 4, 6 and 8.
Size 4 requires 2 1/2 yards of 5 inch material and 1/2 yard of trimming.

This model is easy to make. No dressmaking experience is necessary. Each pattern comes to you with simple and exact instructions—including yardage for every size. A perfect fit is guaranteed.

Patterns will be delivered upon receipt of fifteen cents (15c) in coins carefully wrapped or stamps. Be sure to write plainly your name, address, style number and size wanted.

The fashion book is fifteen cents, but only ten cents when ordered with a pattern. Address all mail and orders to Statesman Fashion Department, 548 West Fifth Street, New York City.
