

News from Mid-Valley District Communities for Statesman Readers

North Santiam

NORTH SANTIAM, September 14.—The boys from the Turner memorial home, who have been camping here the past five weeks, have returned to the home in Turner. While here they cut their winter wood.

Mr. Harvey and wife of Newbreaks have been visiting his brother, Pat Harvey.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gorman of Indianapolis, Indiana, and Mrs. Lou Parker of Newberg were guests the past week at the F. J. Parker home. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Russell Parker and children of Newberg.

School started Monday with an enrollment of only ten. More are expected later.

The Ladies Sewing club met with Mrs. George B. Howard this week. In the afternoon they canned 48 quarts of beans for the boys home in Turner. They are also canning fruit for them. A good work for a worthy cause.

Mrs. Laura Russell of Silverton and Mrs. Myrtle Spicer of Stayton called on friends Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McLaughlin accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Glen Porter of Salem motored around Mt. Hood loop to Cloud Cap Inn, Tuesday.

Mrs. Etta Mack of Stayton was here Thursday looking after business interests.

Mable Lacy of Aumsville is spending a few days with her cousin Mildred McNeal.

Mrs. Mina Kethley has had charge of the confectionery at John's service station at Stayton a part of this week.

Valsetz

VALSETZ, Sept. 14.—Mr. and Mrs. Orin Marquis are moving back to Valsetz from Tillamook and are at Bill Marquis' home until they can get a house. Mr. Marquis is at his old job at the meat counter in the store. He was here a couple of years. Dan Smith, the butcher, resigned, and moved to Portland Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Wren were at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Marsh Thursday for a short visit. They left Monday for Palo Alto, Calif., where both are re-entering Stanford university to complete the educational courses. Mr. Wren will receive his Or. degree in 1930. Both have been teaching all summer. Mrs. Wren at Monmouth, Oregon state normal and Mr. Wren at U. of O. Mr. Wren was principal of the Valsetz school in 1927 and very highly thought of.

A bridge luncheon was given by Mrs. George March at her home Wednesday afternoon from 1:30 to 5:30 o'clock. The guests were Mrs. Floyd Bagley, Mrs. Bert Thomas, Mrs. Wm. Brayton, Mrs. Bert Babb, Mrs. Hugh Bartrom, Mrs. Duncan Shields, Mrs. M. E. Raymond, Mrs. Henry Hobson, Mrs. Paul Higgins, Mrs. Martin Rudy, Mrs. Douglas Grout, Mrs. Joe Nelson, Mrs. Walter Raymond, Mrs. Clarence Powell, Mrs. E. E. Davis, and Mrs. Frank Heydon. The cut prize was won by Mrs. Rudy. First prize by Mrs. Shields and Mrs. Brayton received the consolation prize. Mrs. Minnie Lind assisted the hostess in entertaining and serving the guests.

Virginia Green was confined to her bed several days with intestinal flu. She is able to get up and about her home and is improving rapidly.

Mr. and Mrs. Cope Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Bittner, Huddleson motored to Dallas Tuesday night to attend a party given in honor of Ed Murry, formerly of Valsetz, at his home. It was Mr. Murry's birthday anniversary.

Charlie Farrer is building two rooms onto the company house in which he is living.

Eric Westman of Portland is at the home of his brother, Ollie Westman.

While out at the rock crusher one day last week Clarence Powell met with a minor accident, which made him use crutches for several days. A large rock rolled down and struck his right foot. The foot swelled so badly that Mr. Powell could not wear a shoe or bear his weight on it for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Neater Tokstad have moved into the house vacated by the Yedd family.

A Sunday school board meeting was held at the school house Tuesday evening. The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Lottie Massey at 8 p. m. Minutes of the

Leads Fight

Dean C. C. Williams, of the University of Iowa, School of Engineering, is leading the university's fight for reinstatement in the big athletic conference. Charges of professionalism led to Iowa's dismissal from the conference.

Fate Plays With T.A.T. Plane

Actual photograph of the ill-fated T. A. T. plane, City of San Francisco, which crashed against Mount Taylor, near Gallup, New Mexico, killing eight persons enroute from the West Coast to points east. Government investigation of the accident is now in progress.

last meeting, which was held in June, were read and approved. Officers elected for the coming year were general superintendent, Mrs. Lottie Massie; treasurer, Mrs. Sadie Westman; secretary, Miss Betty Patton; Mrs. Edna Mixer, superintendent of intermediate department; Mrs. Lola Wiggins, superintendent of primary department; Mrs. Sadie Morris "Cradle Roll" superintendent. Sunday school was closed during the summer. It was decided to open September 29, 10 a. m., at the school house. It is hoped that every boy and girl from Valsetz, Camp 1 and Camp 6 will attend the Sunday school services every Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Abbie Cox (Viola Lay) have moved into the house that "Dad" Estie built and was vacated a short time ago.

After spending three weeks visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lord at Libby, Mont. Mrs. Ollie Westman has returned home. A couple of days before starting for her home Mrs. Westman was enjoying a horseback ride. The horse became unruly and ran against a tree. A badly bruised right leg is still being nursed by her.

Starting for the coast over the Falls City-Newport road for over Labor day, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Heydon met with an auto accident. Another car ran into them. Mrs. Heydon injured her right knee quite badly and was under a doctor's care for several days. The radiator of the car was damaged so badly that a new one had to be installed and their entire trip was spoiled.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Kregbaum have returned from Hood River, where they were called to see Mr. Kregbaum's brother, Edward, who had been injured in a logging camp near Willard, Wash. It is feared that the accident may prove fatal as the patient is not improving.

Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Elliott of Salem are sojourning at the Gilmore.

After spending several days at Glenwood camp, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Curtis and family returned to Salem.

Jean D. Hyland of Salem spent several days at Sea Crest.

C. Paulus of Salem is a recent Newport visitor.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Lord and daughter of Salem occupied the Cooper cottage while spending a couple of days vacation in Newport. In the morning Mr. Lord decided to go deep sea fishing on the "Norma J." About noon he came back tugging three heavy bass. Then he thought he would try his luck again in the afternoon, so Mrs. Lord accompanied him and they caught five large fish or a total of eight large bass in one day.

Mr. and Mrs. Edd A. Jory are visiting in Salem. They will spend a month there before returning to Newport.

E. H. Settle of Salem is a beach visitor.

John Thomas of Salem is registered at Ocean View.

Mr. and Mrs. David Smith of Salem are stopping at the Gilmore.

L. B. Rickey and family returned to Salem after spending their vacation at Glenwood camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Jes. A. Garson and two sons and A. T. Garson of Salem are sojourning at the Old Playground.

Miss F. Story of Salem is a recent visitor at Whitten camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Craven and family returned to Salem after vacationing at the seashore. They occupied a Jory Park cottage.

R. M. Herney is vacationing at the beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. W. Leeper of Salem are guests at the Gilmore.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Good and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Good of Salem were domiciled in the Jory Park cottages for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Pratt of Salem spent ten days at Sea Crest.

J. B. VanCleave and family of Salem were recent vacationists at Glenwood camp.

L. C. Denison spent a short vacation at Whitten camp.

C. P. ... of Salem is camping at Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave O'Hara of Salem spent a week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ike O'Hara of Newport.

The Newport high school started September 9. The grade school will not start until September 16. The following teachers were selected for the coming year: High school—A. H. Pengra, superintendent and high school principal; Itha Clinton, Laura Bryant and Miss Lund, junior high school—Harold Oliver, principal; Retta Virginia, and Mr. Vanderbilt and daughter, Mrs. Harlan, of Salem, are sojourning at Whitten camp. They expect to remain a week.

Stayton

STAYTON, September 14.—Lou Pooler of the Associated store is taking his vacation. Mrs. A. Leftler is employed at the store in his absence.

J. P. Wourms has sold his interest in the Stayton meat market to Drew Lamrecht, who will run the market with Pat Brantley. Mr. Wourms will continue to live here but will devote his time to other interests.

Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Goode have extended an invitation to all to visit their gardens in the east part of town, Sunday afternoon.

J. L. Pounds, one of the Shell employees here, won a $50 prize for the best window display of Shell products, the work of an employe on the Pacific coast. His display was in the window of the Stayton Hardware company.

The town council has issued a notice to contractors that they will receive bids until 3 p. m. September 10 for the excavation of a well. The city water has been condemned for the past year or more.

Mrs. W. A. Hewd, of Liberty, Missouri, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. W. A. Weddle. Her husband is a professor in the Liberty college. They lived in Stayton for a time.

Mrs. Harry Downing of Detroit and Mrs. Hattie Ficklin were guests Wednesday at the country home of Mrs. W. W. Miller, near Turner.

Miss Othella Spaniol is employed at the Chevrolet garage office as bookkeeper.

STAYTON, Sept. 14.—Wendell Weddle, who has been at Astoria the past seven weeks, is home again and will have charge of the mortuary here while his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Weddle, are at the beach.

George Smith and family have gone to Newport for an outing. Mr. Smith is manager of the Stayton cannery.

The crowd was so small at the auction sale of the household effects of Mrs. Marilla Gardner on Thursday that the sale was postponed. Mrs. Gardner will make her home with her daughter, Mrs. Carl Fryer at Salem. She has rented her house here to Henry Hassler, of Seid.

No little anxiety ensued Wednesday afternoon when it was found that the fire which was discovered on the island Sunday afternoon had gotten across the river and into the Reef place. The Reef's had several head of cattle in this back pasture and there are also several farmers living adjacent. Mrs. A. Ruef phoned for help and Mrs. Hattie Ficklin, telephone central, got word to neighbors in the vicinity of the fire. Other members of the family got help from the men who are working on the road and the fire was checked before lives or cattle were lost.

MARION SCHOOL OPENS.—MARION, September 14.—The Marion schools will open Monday with Mr. Ayers, principal, Mrs. Ayers intermediate teacher, and Miss Bostrick in charge of the primary school. A good attendance is expected as a number of pupils from other districts will attend the Marion schools.

Hand Tailored

Monroe Suits

All Wool

For Men and Young Men

Styled For Young Men And For Men Who Wish To Stay Young

$22<sup>50</sup>

Tailored Where Styles Originate, By Master Tailors

G. W. Johnson & Co.

Sole Distributors

"Monroe" Clothes

469 State St. Salem, Oregon

One Price

Here Exclusively

THE PAGES
of
Style-Fit-Quality
AND COMFORT
Are Open On Naturalizers

A group of styles are now on display and in sizes 2's to 10's, assuring fit, comfort and good looks.

If hard to fit, ask to see Naturalizers - they fit

BUSTER BROWN SHOE STORE

"We Fit the Hard to Fit Feet"

WOMEN'S SHOES
never so fine in Quality and Fit

PILES Cured Without Surgery

PILES can be CURED with a few PAINLESS TREATMENTS

No hospital, no pain, no cutting, no burning, no loss of time

Free Consultation      Free Examination
Send for Free Booklet

DR. AGNES LEWIS      DR. HENRY LEWIS
408 Oregon Building      SALEM, OREGON

I WISH to announce that my office is entirely remodeled. I now have a private reception room with entrance at 408. My practice is limited to the examination of eyes and supplying of glasses when needed, also to the treatment of abnormal muscular eye defects.

Established over 12 years in Salem

Dr. L. R. Burdette
OPTOMETRIST
408 First Nat'l Bank Bldg.
Phone 118