

Local News Briefs

Girl Reserves Meet — High school Girl Reserves met at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth K. Gallaher, general Y. W. C. A. secretary, Monday evening to discuss plans for the year's work. First event of the school year was set for Monday, October 7, when the club will hold a reception for the freshmen girls. Mrs. George Meserbach, chairman of the Girl Reserve committee for the Y. W. C. A., met with the girls. Hazel McIlroy is president and Margaret Nunn, vice president of the group.

Dawson Returns From South — Major C. A. W. Dawson, regular army instructor attached to the Oregon national guard headquarters, returned late Monday evening from an instruction trip to Battery D, Klamath Falls. He returned the middle of last week from San Francisco, where he spent a two weeks' vacation with Mrs. Dawson. Major Dawson witnessed the arrival and landing of the Graf Zeppelin while he was in the Bay city.

Burglary Reported — Feminine wearing apparel including a black coat valued at $50, and a hand bag were reported to police Tuesday as stolen from a house at 112 Union street which was being vacated by Mrs. Earl Simpson, owner of the property. The thief had apparently gained entrance by opening a small window with a kitchen sink through which only a small person could get, the investigating officer reported.

Permits Issued — The following permits were issued by the city building inspector Tuesday: Buff Electric, alter building at 377 Court street, $50. F. L. Odum, contractor; John Kosneke, alter dwelling at 1855 Center street, $200. H. F. Baugle, contractor; Roy H. Wassam, repair dwelling at 1045 North Capitol street, C. H. Shipman, contractor.

Major Wooton Returns — Major and Mrs. Elmer V. Wooton and daughters, Marjorie and Norma returned late Monday from a two-weeks' vacation trip to Ellensburg, Wash., and on north to Vancouver, B. C. Major Wooton is a member of headquarters staff of the Oregon national guard, and returned to his work here Tuesday.

Smoke Hangers Flying — Private flying in western Oregon and Washington has been stopped by the fall of smoke over the region and arrivals at the Salem airport have ceased for the last two weeks. Transport and mail planes have maintained their schedules despite the difficulties reports show.

Peaches on Display — A glass jar of peaches put up more than 23 years ago is being displayed in the offices of the Hunt Brothers cannery. The peaches were sent here from California before the San Francisco fire. They are kept in a heavy preservative, however, and would not be fit for use.

Zonta Club to Meet — The Zonta club will hold its regular weekly luncheon meeting at the Marion this noon, when Lena Belle Taster, head of the music department at the senior high school and member of the club will give a talk on her work.

Move to Oretown — Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cummings and family have moved to Oretown, where they will make their home on the former Irvin Selby ranch which they secured recently in an exchange handled by the Cooperative Realty office.

Bean Pickers Sought — L. L. Turner was in the city Tuesday. Turney reports a shortage of bean pickers in that section, and is himself experiencing difficulty in getting enough help to harvest the crop on the 15 acres he has planted to this vegetable.

Mrs. Vincent on Vacation — Mrs. Jennie Vincent, housemother at the Y. W. C. A., will return late this week from a vacation trip to Mt. Vernon, Wash., where she is visiting her daughter. Miss E. B. Alexander is substituting for Mrs. Vincent.

Nathan to Speak — Jacob Nathan, secretary of the Portland stock and bond exchange, will be the speaker at the Salem Rotary club luncheon. His subject will be "Securities and National Security."

Miss Uraiah Returns — Miss Clara E. Uraiah, stenographer in the adjutant general's office, returned to her position Tuesday after spending a two weeks' vacation at Washington points.

License Issued — A marriage license was issued yesterday to Glenn D. Burlingame, 23, of Salem, and Mary A. Miller, 20, of Portland.

Find It Here

New Catalina Hats Just In — At the Bonnet Shop, Court St.

Wanted—Experienced — Newspaper solicitor for rural field, Willamette Valley territory, salary and commission. Apply Circulation dept., The Oregon Statesman.

Hotel Dinner — Every night 5:30 to 8 at the Marion hotel.

Big Juley Canning Peaches — Kibertas, Main, now ready. Come to orchard and get them. J. C. Collins, peach orchard, 1 1/2 miles south of Independence on east side of river.

Dance With Thomas Bros. Band — Melodion Wed. and Sat.

Grapes — For table, juice and jelly. Phone 242 after 6 o'clock. O. W. Bean.

For Exchange — Confectionery and fountain doing a good business in McMinnville, Ore., exchange for house and lot. Must be in good condition and good location. Box 674.

Teachers' Group Meets — The heads of departments at the senior high school met Tuesday afternoon, with R. W. Tavenner, high school and junior high supervisor, in charge. The meeting was held primarily to familiarize heads of departments with the new working schedule at the school. Superintendent Hug and Principal Fred Wolfe of the high school, also talked. This group will meet once each week during the year to keep in touch with school problems as an unit.

Youngest Member Chosen — N. S.—Helen Burk, youngest member of the 129 graduating class of the Salem high school has asked that her credits be transferred to the state normal school at Monmouth. Last year the youngest member of the class selected the state normal at Ashland. Rosalind Hall, also a member of last year's graduating class, has requested that her credentials be sent to Willamette.

Miss Custer Meets Soon — Miss Frances Custer, foster daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Forkner, will return to Salem today or Thursday from Ovington, Wash., on Lake Crescent, where she has been spending the summer. She will remain here until Saturday, when she will leave for Monmouth to continue her studies at the state normal.

J. H. Hemme Weds — J. H. Hemme and Miss S. Aragona Gibler were married Monday night at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Hemme, on 377 Court street, Salem. Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Roberts were the attendants. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Gruzen of Seattle, Washington.

Roseburg Officer Called — Miss Agnes Pritchard, juvenile officer at Roseburg, was in Salem Tuesday and while here paid a fraternal call to Mrs. Nona White, county probation officer. Miss Pritchard brought down a little girl who entered the state blind school.

Returning From East — Two former Salem girls, Irma Fwaddell and Lena Cherrington, are enroute home from Kalamazoo, Mich., according to word received by friends here. The girls, both former employees of the state industrial accident commission, left the Michigan city Monday.

Appraisers Named — B. T. Ford, Donald Miles, and Ruby Richter have been named appraisers of the estate of Hulda F. Anderson. The estate was valued at $2,400. It was revealed in an inventory and appraisalment filed in the county clerk's office yesterday morning.

Class to Organize — The grammar school class at the Y. M. C. A. will hold its organization meeting at a dinner Friday night at 6 o'clock. Clubs will be organized, with Willamette university students as leaders. After the dinner, a swim and games will be enjoyed.

Submits to Operation — Margaret J. Rowland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Rowland, 1175 Leslie street, underwent a minor operation Tuesday morning at the Deaconess.

Fisher Leaves — Earl Fisher, state tax commissioner, has gone to New York City, where he is attending the annual meeting of the national state tax commissioners' association.

Movies Enjoyed — The weekly social meeting in the boys' department at the Y. M. C. A. was held Tuesday night, with a large number of boys enjoying the motion pictures and other diversions.

Siegmund Back — County Judge J. C. Siegmund is expected to resume his duties at the county court this morning after a three day outing at the coast.

Mrs. Fulkerson at Aumsville — Mrs. Mary L. Fulkerson, county school superintendent, visited school at Aumsville and in that vicinity Tuesday.

Boy to Willis — Mr. and Mrs. Bruce C. Willis, 2349 Cherry avenue, are parents of a boy, William Clinton, born September 9.

Aumsville Man Visits — H. C. Porter, real estate man at Aumsville, was a business visitor in the city Tuesday.

Yakima Man in Town — F. E. Matson, of Yakima, Wash., was transaction business in Salem Tuesday.

Patterson and Wife Leave for Eastern Oregon

Governor and Mrs. Patterson left here Tuesday by automobile for Pendleton, where they will attend the annual roundup. They will be joined Thursday by Miss Beatrice Walton, private secretary to the governor.

Secretary of state, who will leave for Pendleton today, where he will inspect the Eastern Oregon state hospital and attend the roundup.

Other state officials at the roundup are George Alexander, prohibition commissioner; T. A. Rafferty, chief of the state traffic department, and Sam A. Kozor, budget director.

Hospital Inmate Dies Yesterday

Haas Nicholson, 78, for more than 40 years a patient at the Oregon state hospital here, died Tuesday. He was known as "Nick" to the thousands of persons who have received treatment at the hospital. Mr. Nicholson was received at the hospital August 23, 1889, from Multnomah county. He was a native of Germany.

CITY RETAINS COURT ORDER

Rehearing Denied in Injunction Suit Won by McMinnville

The state supreme court Tuesday denied the petition of the Yamhill Electric corporation, for a rehearing of the suit to restrain the City of McMinnville and its officials from extending its municipal electric service beyond the city limits. The opinion was written by Justice McBride.

In an opinion handed down several weeks ago the supreme court held for the city of McMinnville and against the plaintiff corporation. Ten of the 18 opinions handed down by the supreme court today were written by Chief Justice Coshw. The court resumed its work yesterday after its summer vacation of six weeks.

A complete list of the opinions handed down by the court today follows:

Yamhill Electric company vs. City of McMinnville, et al., appellants; appeal from Yamhill county; suit to enjoin McMinnville from extending electric plant outside of city limits. Petition for rehearing denied in opinion by Justice McBride.

Ward Mayer and Alex J. McMillan, partners as Mayer & McMillan Construction company, vs. East Side Logging company, appellant; appeal from Multnomah county. Action to enforce performance of contract. Petition for rehearing denied in opinion by Justice Rossmann.

First National Bank of Barnas, appellant, vs. Starr Buckland and Mattie Buckland; appeal from Harney county; suit to set aside deed. Opinion by Justice Rand. Judge W. W. Wood affirmed.

Big Creek Ditch company vs. Ira M. Hoffman, appellant; appeal from Baker county. Decree of Judge D. R. Parker affirmed in opinion by Justice Rand.

Louis Zaslavetta vs. John W. McCulloch, et al., defendants, and L. Belle Lees, defendant respondent; appeal from Multnomah county. Suit to recover on promissory note. Opinion by Justice Rand. Judge Dalton Biggs affirmed.

Big Creek Ditch company vs. J. N. Hulick, defendant and appellant; appeal from Baker county; action to recover for assessment levied against defendant. Opinion by Justice Rand. Judge D. N. Parker affirmed.

George H. Wyckoff and Harriett J. Hoyt, appellants vs. Howard Mayfield; appeal from Jackson county; suit to recover money. Opinion by Chief Justice Coshw. Judge C. M. Thomas affirmed.

James A. Douglas vs. Ashley & Rumelin, appellants; appeal from Multnomah county; suit to recover money. Opinion by Chief Justice Coshw. Judge Robert G. Morrow affirmed.

Gust Engfors vs. Nelson Steamship company of Oregon, respondent and Stout Lumber company of Oregon, appellant; appeal from Multnomah county; suit to recover money. Opinion by Chief Justice Coshw. Judge Louis P. Hewitt, affirmed.

Frank Zuccala vs. Sunset Orchards, Inc., appellant; appeal from Jackson county; action to recover money. Opinion by Chief Justice Coshw. Judge C. M. Thomas affirmed.

W. M. Davis, plaintiff and petitioner, vs. I. H. Van Winkle, attorney general, et al.; appeal from ballot title prepared by attorney general. Petition for rehearing denied in opinion by Chief Justice Coshw.

John P. Leonard vs. Alexander Bonner, guardian of estate of America Ann Leonard, incompetent person, et al., appellants; appeal from Multnomah county; appeal dismissed in opinion by Chief Justice Coshw.

State of Oregon vs. R. C. Ince and Charles Stratton, defendants, and R. C. Ince, appellant; appeal from Wasco county; appeal from conviction for larceny. Opinion by Chief Justice Coshw. Judge Fred W. Wilson affirmed.

Frank Gabel, administrator of estate of Harold T. Gabel vs. Frank Oliver and Elmer C. Shipley, appellants, and Harkins Transportation company, defendants; appeal from Wasco county; action for damages. Opinion by Chief Justice Coshw. Judge J. U. Campbell affirmed.

Nellie M. Milton, appellant, vs. William G. Hare, et al.; appeal from Multnomah county; action for damages. Opinion by Chief Justice Coshw. Judge T. E. J. Duffy affirmed.

F. E. Osborne vs. C. A. Eldridge and Lola B. Eldridge, appellants; appeal from Marion county; action to recover money. Opinion by Chief Justice Coshw. Judge Percy R. Kelly affirmed.

In the matter of the estate of Miles Lee, deceased, and Uthelma Lee Young, et al., vs. David Lee et al., appellants; appeal from Baker county; petition for rehearing in opinion by Justice Rossmann.

The following oral opinions were handed down by the court: Coston vs. Portland Trust company; Smith vs. Pallay; Ebert vs. First National Bank; Bottomiller vs. Ball; Carroll vs. Royal Mail Steamship company; Scarpelli vs. Portland Electric Power company, petitions for rehearing denied.

Motion to dismiss appeal allowed in March vs. Shanghai Lumber company.

Stipulation to dismiss appeal allowed in re A. L. Laws.

Motion to dismiss appeal denied in Brown vs. Hillery.

Appeal dismissed Sarajvi vs. Sarajvi.

RHEIMS, France — (A P) — "Peace trees" purchased with money given by a group of German pacifists, have been planted in a new public park on the rue Jouin, symbolical of hopes for a better understanding between peoples.

West Salem

Mr. and Mrs. James S. Davis and family motored eight or nine miles to the country, out north of Salem, Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hahn. They remained there for dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Thomas of 1333 Edgewater street made a business trip to Dallas Monday afternoon.

The sidewalk along Edgewater street is being put in quite rapidly. The West Salem people are glad for this improvement.

Herbert Hike, who works with his parents in West Salem just returned from Glendale where he has been visiting friends. He was gone most of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Friesen and family made a trip Sunday to Burna Vista to visit their friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Funk. When they returned home they stopped at Independence where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Mark Baker.

A nurse is now staying at the Huston home of West Salem, caring for Mrs. Huston, who has been quite ill for sometime.

Mr. and Mrs. John Friesen and family were at the Roberts' hop yard twice last week where they sang for the meetings being held there by the Nazarene church. They also sang for a meeting Sunday afternoon at the Werline hop.

Miss Thelma Allor was a Sunday visitor at the home of her cousin, Miss Ruth Thomas of Edgewater street.

W. F. Thomas, who has been very ill is much better now and is able to walk about the hospital a little.

Miss Kathryn M. Chandler of Route 2, Independence has been chosen to be the first grade teacher in West Salem taking the place of Miss Francis Welsh, who recently resigned, and who will teach at the Garfield school.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Bradford of McMinnville came for the week end at the home of Mrs. Bradford's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Miller of West Salem. Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Clark spent Sunday also at the Miller home. Mrs. Clark is the daughter of the Miller's and are from Salem.

Robert Miller spent Sunday at Dallas visiting Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Lynch and Mrs. Lynch's brother, Sydney Hawthorne who is staying with them and who has been ill for some time.

Mrs. Roth of Yakima, Washington and two sons, John and Henry and Mr. Diddler of Oregon City were Saturday dinner guests at the Conrad Fox home on McNary avenue.

L. L. Burgoyne has been badly bothered with an inside cough recently and may be compelled to have an operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Schlitt of Salem were Sunday evening visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Fox.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Wetzel were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Wetzel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Fox.

Miss Florence St. Pierre and Conrad Burgoyne home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Pugsley and Mrs. Pugsley's mother, Mrs. Sarah Kessel of Corvallis spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Kessel's sister, Mrs. S. L. Burk of Edgewater street. Mrs. Kessel intends to stay here for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rogers and Mrs. S. L. Burk home Sunday visitors at the S. L. Burk home. Mrs. Clyde Rogers is a daughter of Mrs. S. L. Burk. Mrs. Winnie Wagner of Dallas and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rogers and Mrs. Sam Springsteen of Dallas were at the S. L. Burk home Sunday to visit Mrs. Wagner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rogers, who were visiting with the Burks.

Lester Burgoyne of Salem had supper with Mr. and Mrs. L. L.

Obituary

Loron

Ulysses C. Loron, 73, died at Waco, Tex. Survived by a daughter, Mrs. Willard Ramp of Brooks; a step son, W. F. Gay of Portland; a brother, Isadore Loron of Wacanda; and a sister, Mrs. William Kohlitz of Goldendale, Wash., also by three grandchildren. Remains are in care of Rigdon mortuary. Announcements later.

Thatcher

Everett A. Thatcher, past 80 years old, died in Klamath Falls Sunday afternoon. Survived by four daughters, Mrs. Jack Barrett of Wauna, Mrs. Jack Ryan of Klamath Falls, and Mrs. W. P. Bell and Mrs. S. A. Chryll of Portland, and one granddaughter, Mrs. W. V. Mead of Klamath Falls. Funeral services will be held in the Clough-Huston chapel Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, instead of Thursday as previously announced. Rev. W. C. Kantner, officiate and interment will be in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

Schuster

Charles L. Schuster, nearly 62, died Monday at Taft. Survived by his widow, Flora, two sons, C. E. Schuster of Corvallis, and E. J. Schuster of Tillamook, and one brother, George, of Ohio. Funeral services will be held Wednesday, September 18, at 10 a. m., at the First Evangelical church, Rev. A. F. Layton officiating and the Rigdon mortuary in charge. Entombment in Mt. Crest Abbey mausoleum.

City View Cemetery

Established 1808 Tel. 1266

Conveniently Accessible

Perpetual care provided for

Prices Reasonable

Belcrest Memorial Park

Moderately Priced

Perpetual care provided for

Prices Reasonable

A Park Cemetery

with perpetual care

Just ten minutes from the heart of town

Burgoyne Sunday

George Cooper came to his home Sunday morning in West Salem to see his wife and to look after business here. He returned Monday morning to a hop yard about three miles north of Corvallis where he is running a soda fountain and grocery store.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Wallace of 1012 Third street, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Wallace's mother, Mrs. Eli Rhodes of Lake Labish.

Mrs. Lula Barker of Salem spent Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Watson of 28 McNary avenue.

Ida Covey, who is living with her daughter, Mrs. Ava Smith, left from a Salem bus Saturday morning and badly sprained her ankle. It was necessary to have the doctor, but she is some better now.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Swiger of 1022 Skinner street visited Sunday at the home of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Phillips of McClay, Rex Swiger of West Salem and two children also spent Sunday there.

HIGH SCHOOL HAS 'BIG SISTER' PLAN

Assignment of the 80 girls who will act as "big sisters" to two freshmen girls each during the school year has already been made, Savilla Phelps, chairman of the Big Sister committee of the high school Girls' League, said Tuesday noon at a luncheon meeting at the Elks' club for which Dorothy Moore, president of the league, was hostess. Miss Moore invited the league advisor, Dean Mabel Robertson, officers and committee chairmen to the luncheon, which marked the first activity of the group for the fall.

The girls discussed plans for the year's work and will be ready to start their program with the opening of school. Present, besides Miss Moore, Dean Robertson and Miss Phelps were: Mildred Zehner, vice-president; Annabelle Rosenthal, secretary; Elizabeth Chesbire, treasurer; Edith Clement, Margaret Heitzel and Gertrude Winslow, additional committee chairmen.

Alberts Company Files Articles of Incorporation

The Alberts Products Co., Inc., with headquarters in Portland and capital stock of $10,000, has filed articles in the state corporation department. The incorporators are Louis Albert, Minnie Pilger and E. W. Grant.

Other articles filed in the state corporation department today follow: Cottage Grove club, Cottage Grove, $500; Claude Roberts, J. S. Stewart, N. E. Glass, et al., S. and C. Logging company, Tillamook, $5000; A. W. Sharp, Ford M. Converse and O. E. Harkness.

Other articles filed in the state corporation department today follow: Cottage Grove club, Cottage Grove, $500; Claude Roberts, J. S. Stewart, N. E. Glass, et al., S. and C. Logging company, Tillamook, $5000; A. W. Sharp, Ford M. Converse and O. E. Harkness.

Other articles filed in the state corporation department today follow: Cottage Grove club, Cottage Grove, $500; Claude Roberts, J. S. Stewart, N. E. Glass, et al., S. and C. Logging company, Tillamook, $5000; A. W. Sharp, Ford M. Converse and O. E. Harkness.

Other articles filed in the state corporation department today follow: Cottage Grove club, Cottage Grove, $500; Claude Roberts, J. S. Stewart, N. E. Glass, et al., S. and C. Logging company, Tillamook, $5000; A. W. Sharp, Ford M. Converse and O. E. Harkness.

NOONTIME LUNCHEONS

30c - 35c

MENU CHANGED EVERY DAY

NEW ARGOLA

222 N. Com'l. Mr. and Mrs. Heathfield

50c Family Style

Bountiful servings

All home cooking

DINNER NEW ARGOLA

Mr. and Mrs. Heathfield, Prop.

222 N. Com'l.

FINEST TORIC

READING LENSES. $4.95

Eye-glass insurance and thorough examination included.

THOMPSON-GLUTSCH OPTICAL CO.

110 N. Commercial St.

PILES CURED

Without operation or loss of time.

DR. MARSHALL

329 Oregon Bldg.

Schaefer's Drug Store

135 N. Commercial Street

Phone 197

YOU CAN Depend On It—

If You Get It At Schaefer's

Ice Cream or a good cold drink—How it picks you up on a hot day. And remember if it comes from Schaefer's it's the best drink in town.

AUCTION SALE

Sat. Sept. 21

Oregon State Fair Grounds

Salem, Oregon

STARTING AT ONE O'CLOCK SHARP

Car load of

YOUNG SOUND Work Horses

Weighting from about 1200 to 1500 lbs. 4 yrs. to 7 yrs. old. These horses are of the blocky type suitable for farming or any general work. Consisting mostly of Percheron and Shire breeds. Most of these horses are well broke and been working every day. A few of them just been worked a few times. Also two good saddle horses that are gentle. These horses must be sold regardless of price. If you are interested in a horse or team don't miss this sale. Remember, the date, Saturday at one o'clock at Oregon State Fair Grounds.

Terms of Sale, Cash. Every horse will be guaranteed as represented at this sale. Everybody invited.

Owner, FRANK BOUNDS

Auctioneer, J. K. GREER

26 COMMUNITIES FEATURED AT FAIR

A feature on the opening day of the state fair, September 23, will be the presence of 26 different community groups from different counties in the state. Multnomah and Washington will send a large delegation according to Dr. F. O. Riley, president of the Marion County clubs.

The Marion County clubs have extended an invitation to all clubs in the state to be present. The fair board has offered silver cups for the highest percentage in club attendance. The grandstand will be free to all on the opening day.

For the best three-minute talk on "Why the Oregon State Fair" a beautiful silver cup suitably engraved with the winner's name by the fair board. Other prizes are: for the best community stunt a silver cup, for the best group singing a silver cup, for the best individual instrumental presentation a silver cup. Entries are beginning to come in and it is hoped a large number will enroll for these contests.

Dr. David B. Hill will show moving pictures of the Marion County clubs' recent parade in Salem, also flax growing in the Willamette valley and other interesting and novel features. September 23 promises to be a big day filled with interest. The governor will dedicate the new $150,000 grand stand in the afternoon. Notables from all over the state will be present.

The Hubbard Community band under the leadership of Dr. A. F. de Lospinaise will give a concert at 11 a. m. when the program begins.

SIGNAL CORPS FILM SHOWS AT CAPITOL

In bringing official U. S. Signal Corps pictures to the Capitol theatre Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Sept. 18, 19 and 20 Frank Bligh is to be complimented.

Corporal Bob Ingelston, the signal corps cameraman, will appear in person and lecture throughout the entire picture. "America Under Fire" depicts vivid pictures of the World War and many local overseas men will recognize the scenes of Baccarat, Chateau Thierry, Champagne, St. Mihiel, and Argonne regimental units going over the top and advancing through the shell shorn fields moved down by artillery and machine gun fire.

Colonel E. Hofer, who attained a reputation as a rain-maker a number of years ago, is not personally concerned in relieving the existing drought. The colonel has announced that he will leave here today for Salt Lake City to let the valley work out its own salvation as far as rain is concerned. Mr. Hofer said that rain could be brought about only through a concentrated effort on the part of the people of the valley. "No one man can make it rain," the colonel said.

Colonel E. Hofer, who attained a reputation as a rain-maker a number of years ago, is not personally concerned in relieving the existing drought. The colonel has announced that he will leave here today for Salt Lake City to let the valley work out its own salvation as far as rain is concerned. Mr. Hofer said that rain could be brought about only through a concentrated effort on the part of the people of the valley. "No one man can make it rain," the colonel said.

Colonel E. Hofer, who attained a reputation as a rain-maker a number of years ago, is not personally concerned in relieving the existing drought. The colonel has announced that he will leave here today for Salt Lake City to let the valley work out its own salvation as far as rain is concerned. Mr. Hofer said that rain could be brought about only through a concentrated effort on the part of the people of the valley. "No one man can make it rain," the colonel said.

Colonel E. Hofer, who attained a reputation as a rain-maker a number of years ago, is not personally concerned in relieving the existing drought. The colonel has announced that he will leave here today for Salt Lake City to let the valley work out its own salvation as far as rain is concerned. Mr. Hofer said that rain could be brought about only through a concentrated effort on the part of the people of the valley. "No one man can make it rain," the colonel said.

Colonel E. Hofer, who attained a reputation as a rain-maker a number of years ago, is not personally concerned in relieving the existing drought. The colonel has announced that he will leave here today for Salt Lake City to let the valley work out its own salvation as far as rain is concerned. Mr. Hofer said that rain could be brought about only through a concentrated effort on the part of the people of the valley. "No one man can make it rain," the colonel said.

Colonel E. Hofer, who attained a reputation as a rain-maker a number of years ago, is not personally concerned in relieving the existing drought. The colonel has announced that he will leave here today for Salt Lake City to let the valley work out its own salvation as far