CHICAGO GRAIN CHICAGO, Sept. 17.—(AP)—Rallying power developed strongly in the wheat market today after reports of copious rain throughout the Argentine drought region had pitched prices down to the lewest level since July 13 last.

Today's bottom quotations were nearly 10 cents a bushel under last week's top figures. Subsequent railies were largely owing to United States department of agriculture advices that the world's 1929 what was activated at about 500,000,000. wheat was estimated at about 500,000,000 wheat was estimated at about 500,000,000, bushels less than last year. Besides, in-dications today were that jesterday's heavy selling of wheat was on the part of speculators for a decline rather than for large holders. Wheat closed firm % c to 1c above yes-terday's finish. Corn closed 5-8e to 7-8e
