

HEARING UPON POWER SLATED

Application of P. E. P. Subsidiary to be Argued Next Monday

Hearing of the application of the Northwest Power company for permission to appropriate water from the North Santiam river and Marion lake for power purposes, will be held in the state engineering department here Monday. The hearing will be conducted by Rhea Luper, state engineer, with a representative of the federal power commission in attendance. The proposed development involves the construction of three dams, canals, reservoirs and other improvements at a cost of more than $6,000,000. The Northwest Power company is a subsidiary of the Portland Electric Power company.

The application is being opposed by Albany and Salem, and the state fish commission. Albany and Salem officials allege that the proposed development will interfere materially with the future municipal water supplies of the two cities.

Another hearing will be held Tuesday to consider the application of Edward O'Neil, for permission to appropriate water from the north fork of the Santiam river for power purposes. It was said that a large number of witnesses would be called in connection with the Northwest Power company hearing.

SALEM MAN MAKES GOOD RIFLE RECORD

Corwin E. Hein of Salem is one of 23 Oregon men who won certificates of proficiency with firearms, at the small arms firing school conducted prior to the national rifle matches at Camp Perry, O. Hein is a member of the headquarters battery 249th Coast Artillery, Salem unit.

The student body comprised civilians, national guardsmen, reserve officers and police officers, nearly 2000 in all. More than one fourth of the pupils enrolled were civilians who completed the school course and fired in the matches later. Each graduate of the school received a certificate signed by army officers, which attests its own proficiency.

Nearly all of the classes received instruction in the use of the service rifle, but special classes in appropriate subjects were given for police officers, national guardsmen, and reservists. Of the special courses, the police school probably attracted greater interest than any other. Here there were police teams and individuals representing 35 cities in the United States and Hawaii, who received instruction in police tactics designed to train them to combat successfully organized criminals.

Reserved Seat Sections To be Established Here At Fair for First Time

This year, for the first time, the Oregon State fair will have reserved seat sections in both the grandstand and the horse show stadium, it is announced by Mrs. Ella S. Wilson, secretary. The reserved section in the stadium will be in addition to a large number of boxes which will also be on sale.

The seat sale will open Friday at 1:30 in Miller's department store, and all those intending to buy are urged to do so as soon as possible. The early inquiries indicate that this preferred position will be in great demand.

Officially opening Monday morning, Sept. 23, the fair will hold an informal open house Sunday afternoon, at a small charge, with an interesting musical program. A number of the concessions will be up and ready for action by this time, too.

Monday will be crammed to the brim with interesting and entertaining features, paramount of which will be the dedication of the new grandstand and exhibits building. Governor I. L. Paterson and other prominent Oregonians will take part. More than 26 community clubs will take part in the entertainment, competing for silver loving cups for the best three-minute talk on "Why the Oregon State Fair," for the best community stunt, for the best group singing, and for the best individual instrumental playing. According to Dr. P. O. Riley, president of the Marion county club, and in charge of the day's program, great enthusiasm is being shown by various clubs and the audience is promised a lot of entertainment and some surprises. An invitation has been sent to all community clubs of the state to take part.

The Hubbard community band, under the leadership of Dr. A. F. de Lespinasse, and one of the best musical organizations of the state, will open the program at 11 o'clock with a concert.

Lending a lighter touch to the grandstand entertainment, which on Monday will be free to all those in the grounds, will be the vaudeville and acrobatic acts. Pistol marksmanship, the use of gas, machine guns, and hand to hand fighting methods, were the principal subjects of this school. The reservists and guardsmen were given instruction in rifle marksmanship and anti-aircraft firing. Civilians were taught the use of the rifle and pistol. Not the least interesting branch of the school was the junior rifle course where youngsters were taught the use of the rifle and later fired in the special junior matches.

Single prescription made a family doctor as famous

SELDOM has any single act been of greater benefit to mankind than the one which Dr. Caldwell performed back in 1885 when he wrote the prescription which has carried his fame to the four corners of the earth. Over and over, Dr. Caldwell wrote this prescription as he found men, women, and children suffering from those common symptoms of constipation, such as coated tongue, bad breath, headaches, gas, nausea, biliousness, poor appetite, or lack of energy, etc. And it invariably relieved these symptoms so much more pleasantly, so much quicker than other things, that his patients simply had to tell other people about it. The demand for this prescription grew so fast that by 1888 Dr. Caldwell was forced to have it put up ready for use and supply drug stores with it. Today you can get the generous bottles of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, as it is called, at all drug stores. When you or your children suffer from any of the symptoms of constipation, it will pay you to remember this safe, pleasant-tasting, effective laxative; made only from herbs and other pure ingredients; a real corrective for constipation. A doctor's 47-year experience behind this formula!

The Ateno brothers, famous European acrobats, will thrill spectators with a daring act on a pole 80 feet in the air, while Lester, Griffin and Bell, clowns, will furnish laughs in plenty.

State Fair Now 67 Years of Age Tozier Asserts

Just 67 years ago yesterday, on September 18, 1862, the State Fair became a Salem institution, according to Albert Tozier, superintendent of Champeog park, and an authority on Oregon history. The fair at that time was but a year old, having been held the previous year at Gladstone.

The State Agricultural society in session on that day, voted on a permanent location for the fair. Corvallis received one vote, Eugene one, Oregon City, two, and Salem the overwhelming majority of 65. At this time the fair was governed by delegates elected from every county in the state, who met and elected their president and secretary.
