J. C. Penney Co. Stages Fall Fashion Show to Appreciative Audience

DALLAS, Sept. 19 — The J. C. Penney company staged a fashion show at their store on Thursday evening when women's ready to wear and juvenile coats and dresses were shown by live models.

Sprays of colored autumn leaves were used throughout the store for decorations, as well as displays of ready to wear garments. Two of the show windows which had been covered for several days were uncurtained at eight o'clock, one showing a display of garments in browns with orange decorations. The other window display was in black, with touches of red. One window was given over to men's wear.

Models came along the balcony at the rear of the store, down the stairway, and across a raised platform up both central aisles for a short distance. Those modeling women's ready to wear garments were: Bertha Parsons, Catherine Sibley, Opal Robb, Mrs. L. E. Erickson, Mrs. Albert Bennett, Mrs. Roy Donahue, Mrs. J. M. Campbell and Marion Smith.

Those appearing in the juvenile apparel were Lena Glath, Mary Staats, Dolly Howe and Beverly Sales. Music was furnished throughout the evening by members of the Dallas orchestra.

ZENA CLUB WORKERS WILL SHOW AT FAIR

ZENA, September 19—Kenneth Edwards, 13 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Edwards of Lincoln is exhibiting a Holstein heifer at the Oregon state fair. It will be entered in the senior calf class. This is Kenneth's first venture in the show ring and his many friends wish him success. He did not decide to exhibit until late to place the heifer in the calf club class because of reports which he should have turned in to the calf club.

The Walling brothers, Jessie, Jr., and Ellis, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Walling of Zena, are placing on exhibit at the Oregon state fair this year seven of their culling four ewes and three rams.

They have been consistent winners at the state fair and also the Pacific International at Portland.

Zena Prune Crop Best in Years

ZENA, Sept. 19.—Owners of prune orchards in Zena and near vicinity report that they have the best crop in years. Pickers were moving to the camp grounds at most orchards Saturday and Sunday in order to be ready for picking this week.

A few orchardists started picking Monday, but picking in general didn't start until Wednesday or Thursday.

BETHEL 4-H CLUBS PREPARE FOR FAIR

MCCOY, September 19—Both boys and girls 4H clubs of Bethel will submit exhibits at the state fair this year.

Of the Ethel Jersey calf club, of which S. L. Stewart is the leader, Leslie Stewart will exhibit his cow and Pier Hausman, his calf. This year's exhibition will be Leslie Stewart's ninth year. Leslie is a very successful club member and worker. He has won many first as well as other prizes on his tock.

The girls club of which Mrs. S. L. Stewart is leader will exhibit different things. Ina McCoy, Mary Freeman, Madeline Rhode and Pauline Domes will exhibit canning. Anna Prang, Marjorie Stewart and Pauline Domes, cake. Pauline Domes and Lois Graves, sewing.

Both clubs have done excellent work this year.

Dense Smoke Clouds Obscure Highway View

HAZEL GREEN, Sept. 19—Rev. Miss Lella Luckey and Mrs. G. G. Looney have just returned from the annual church conference at Spokane, Wash. Miss Luckey was returned as pastor of the Hazel Green church for the coming year. The trip up the Columbia highway was exciting since the smoke was so dense that it was necessary to have the lights of the car on even at noon.

At Hood River it was as dark as night all day. The electric lights were on and men stood around talking of going to bed. Others spoke of the judgment day. Burned leaves were blown from the north across the river.

The Columbia highway must have been a disappointment to tourists because it was impossible to see the river from The Dalles to the Vista House.

McCoy Young People Going To College

MCCOY, September 19—Many young people from this community are returning to different colleges this week.

Helen Prang is returning to the University of Oregon for her senior year. Earnest Sears is returning to Oregon State college; Beatrice Hawley will enter Oregon State college for her first year; Dorothea Frewing is going to attend the Oregon Normal school and Leslie Frewing is going to the Willamette university.
