

News from Mid Valley District Communities for Statesman Readers

Newport

NEWPORT, Sept. 21.—Mrs. W. E. Kyes and children, Mrs. W. A. Davenport, and Mrs. Kate Bradley of Salem are spending a week in Newport. They are occupying Sunnyside cottages.

Dr. J. O. Matthis and Mrs. Matthis and children of Salem spent a few days at Jory park the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rontrager of Hays, Kansas, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Campbell at Whitten camp. They intend to spend two weeks at the beach.

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Fullerton returned to their home in Salem. They expect to remain two weeks before returning to the beach.

Doris Barnett and Leolyn Barnett of Salem are guests at the Jimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Anton Hoel of Salem are spending a few days at the Jimore.

Ethel Folger of Salem is registered at the Damon.

Rev. and Mrs. Edgar P. Sims spent a day at Whitten camp, Newport, en route to the various resorts. Rev. Sims who is pastor of the Highland Friends church of Salem is taking a week's vacation.

Mrs. C. Paulus and Freda H. Paulus of Salem are staying at the Gilmore.

John Thomas of Salem is stopping at Ocean View.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Ryan, Miss Betty Ryan, Mrs. Frank Harbman, Mrs. Frank Horth and daughter, and Mr. Ryan's two grand-children Marjory and Billy, make up a merry group of Salem residents sojourning at Whitten camp.

F. O. Johnson, of Salem, arrived in Newport during the weekend to accompany his family home.

L. E. Kelly of Salem was a recent guest at the Gilmore.

Mrs. Helen Russell and two children spent a week at the beach. They were domiciled at Whitten camp.

Conrad DeKoss of Salem spent the weekend at the sea shore.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Pettit of Salem are registered at the Gilmore.

Mountain View

MOUNTAIN VIEW, Sept. 21.—Dr. John Lynch and wife of Salem were dinner guests of the doctor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lynch, Sunday. Lieut. Harry Lynch, a brother of the doctor, with his wife and family spent the week at the parents' home. They came from Vancouver where they have been visiting other relatives. Lieut. Lynch has three months' leave of absence, after which he will be stationed at El Paso, Texas.

Mrs. J. R. Chapman returned Thursday from a four weeks' stay at Breitenbush springs. Her friends will be glad to hear that she is much improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. Rance DeLapp and daughter Wilmet, of Klamath Falls, and Mrs. J. W. DeLapp of Auburn were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Southwick Wednesday.

Mountain View school opens Monday, September 30. A good attendance is hoped for in spite of the fact that the prune harvest is at its height.

House guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Davis are D. G. Gentzler and son Joe from Santa Ana, Calif. They have been here a week and expect to start on the return trip south September 23.

M. A. Schneller is employed at the fair grounds. He is doing carpenter work in the new pavilion.

Mrs. E. E. Ray of Klamath Falls is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ray. Her husband is a brother of Mrs. Imah. Mrs. Ray expects to remain here until October 1.

Wanda and Eugenia Faust who have been staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Imah during the summer have gone to Eugene where they will attend school this year.

Mrs. Robert Adams grew a bountiful supply of sweet corn in her kitchen garden and is having it dried in the prune dried owned by her father, L. Grice. She reports that the finished product is much better than corn dried in any other manner.

Sam Chapman, Miss Pauline Patterson and Miss Leah Swing, the two latter of Salem, spent Sunday at Breitenbush Springs. Miss Swing is an employee of the Ladd and Bush bank.

Hubbard

HUBBARD, Sept. 21.—Miss Beata Stroud, county health nurse of district number one, called at the school Wednesday. Miss Stroud made arrangements for a Toxin and Anti-toxin clinic to be held at the school house September 26.

Miss Berryle Blosser, second grade teacher of the Hubbard grade school, is staying at the home of Mrs. Anna Scholl.

Miss Elizabeth Doherty, who has spent the summer vacation with her grandmother, Mrs. Alice Holcomb, recently returned to St. Mary's school at Beaverton, where she has been a student for the past three years. She will be a pupil of the eighth grade there this year.

Miss Janis Milsapugh of Portland is staying with her sister, Mrs. Neva McKenzie and attending the eighth grade of the Hubbard school.

Miss Myrtle Denson and Glenn Watson of Great Falls Mont, aunt and brother of T. J. Watson spent the week as guests at the Watson home at the Hubbard Mineral Springs. Thursday guests at the Watson home were Mrs. E. M. Melvin of Chester, Mont. Mrs. Watson's sister, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Caldwell and Mrs. I. Pierce of Portland.

D. De Monbrun of Portland photographed both the grades and high school pupils Wednesday at the school house. He took pictures of each grade separately of the grade school and of each class separately and a group picture of the high school.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Waters of Salem visited Mrs. L. A. Westcott at the Hubbard Mineral Springs, Wednesday.

Miss Luella Roy of St. Helens spent several days as the guest of Mrs. Neva McKenzie this week. She returned home Saturday.

Mrs. M. V. Crocker of Portland arrived at Hubbard Sunday and will spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Nellie Cornell, Commercial teacher of the Hubbard high school.

Mel Malone who works for the state highway commission at New Era reports that the concrete work was finished at that place Thursday.

Mrs. Blanch Smith of Hubbard is taking treatments at the Hubbard Mineral Springs.

Miss Frances Lefler and brother Henry are staying with their aunt Mrs. R. L. Holman at Molalla and attending high school. Mrs. Holman is a sister of Mrs. George Lefler, mother of Frances and Henry.

Mrs. Edith Breeden, daughter of Ben Rector of Hubbard, is employed at the Hubbard Mineral Springs.

Mrs. F. M. Ray of Prairie City and Mrs. C. Hobbs of Portland, arrived at Hubbard Thursday and are visiting at the home of their brother H. C. Mack, local druggist.

Mrs. Alice Holcomb received a card recently from Mr. and Mrs. Mert Crittenden of Hubbard. The card was mailed at Post Falls, Idaho by the Crittendens who were enroute by auto to Michigan where they expect to visit about two months with relatives.

Miss Adeline Zuercher, English and French teacher of the Hubbard high, is staying with Mrs. Alice Weaver and daughter Frances. Miss Zuercher's home is at Portland.

Miss Edith Hilcomb, auditor for Haskins and Seils of Portland, accompanied by Miss Marion White of Cottage Grove, spent the week end with her mother Mrs. Alice Hilcomb. Miss White, who has taught in the English department of the high school on Onaska, Alaska for several years, will return to Alaska soon to resume her work.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Newman of Molalla are the parents of an eleven pound boy born Tuesday night at the Anne hospital. Mother and son are doing well.

Dallas

DALLAS, Sept. 21.—Earl Richardson made the trip to Klamath Falls for the celebration of the opening of the new connection between Klamath Falls and Alturas, Calif.

Mrs. M. M. Ellis has returned to Dallas after spending the past six weeks at her summer cottage at Newport.

Mrs. J. R. Beck and children returned Sunday after spending the summer at their cottage at Ten Mile on the Oregon coast. They were out for a short time during the American Legion convention in Salem, but returned to the coast for the balance of the season.

Miss Mildred Stratton has returned from a visit in Medford with her uncle, Dr. B. R. Elliott. A trip was made to the Oregon Coast, and a short time spent in Grants Pass with the Kimbers who formerly resided in Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hart of Goldendale, arrived Sunday to spend two weeks visiting in Dallas, Salem and Breitenbush with relatives. Mr. Hart is manager for the Shell Oil company at Goldendale.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Hooker and small son are attending the Pendleton Round-up this week, and visiting at Heppner en route home.

Coal Gerlinger of the Dallas Machine and Locomotive works, accompanied by Victor Williams made a trip to Burns during the week to inspect the new mill there to which they have shipped several cariers.

Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Pieschke were dinner guests in Woodburn Monday evening, of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Galt.

Mrs. C. E. Howes, visited the Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Bilyeu and Goode gardens at Stayton, Sunday, when open garden was held. Members from the Dallas Kiwanis club making the trip to Albany Thursday to present the Pasco bell to the Albany club were E. J. Page, J. R. Allgood, A. V. Delap, J. A. Smith and Wm. Harcombe who made the presentation speech.

R. S. Kresnon who is on vacation from the law office of Oscar Hayer, is spending his time in overhauling the management of his commercial prune dryer. Later in the season walnuts will also be handled.

Auburn

AUBURN, September 21.—Mr. and Mrs. Austin Wilson have moved into the home of Mr. and Mrs. August Grimm, who are Mrs. Wilson's parents.

Walter Mathey is installing a modern and complete electric water system.

The Auburn school will open Monday, September 30, with Mrs. Nellie Hammer principal, and Mrs. Beulah Fisher, teacher of the junior room.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Armstrong and family gave Kathleen Lindbeck a pleasant surprise Monday evening, when they walked into her home laden with a freezer of ice cream and cakes, in honor of her 15th birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. DeLap and daughter Wilmet, who have been guests of their brother, Jo DeLap, left yesterday for their home in Klamath Falls, where DeLap is county clerk. They have also been visiting their son Virgil DeLap, who is a public accountant in Portland.

Ross Clark is making extensive improvements to his new ranch here. He is remodeling his residence and has erected a new double garage, and has also enlarged his rabbitry. He is raising the Western Fur, thoroughbred chickens and is exhibiting same in finch pens at the state fair next week.

Pleasant View

PLEASANT VIEW, September 21.—Frank Cook, chairman of Pleasant View school district met Tuesday evening with the Cloverdale school board to make final arrangements for sending the children to Cloverdale for the coming school year.

Mrs. Frank Cook received word Wednesday of the death of her sister, Mrs. Martha Anderson of Lebanon.

Mr. and Mrs. George Brower and Hugh Cook and son, Harold, have taken up their residence on the late I. N. Cook farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl E. Cook have moved into their new home, The Chester Cannon place has been sold recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Davenport and family have moved to Jefferson.

E. E. Cook was confined to his room for a couple of days after having encountered a yellow jacket's nest.

Dr. Mary Staples and her nephew, Hart Vincent left Friday for San Francisco where Mr. Vincent will engage in the practice of law.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Jarman visited Sunday, at the E. E. Cook home. In the evening the party accompanied Mr. Jarman to Lyons where he is employed.

Central Howell

CENTRAL HOWELL, Sept. 21.—Hop picking at the Durbin yard was finished on the 13th but that does not mean that the pickers were unlucky. Contrary to that, in addition to being paid off, they were treated to ice cream sundaes and cookies furnished by the Durbin yard. Hop picking will start there next week.

The school bus driven by Walter Binegar of this community started Monday on its daily trips to and from Silverton. Students going from this district are: Nora Lichty, Fay Ramsden, Harry Way, Eugene Kuenst, Eida Hor, Raymond Werner, Gladys Lechly, Esther Lechly, Josephine Kaser, Alpheus Rudishauser, and Pearl Bye.

The Eggman hop yard finished picking on Thursday. This ends the hop picking in this community. The pickers as a rule are glad to be through as the picking has been of unusually long duration this year.

Clarence Simmons has his house raised and is planning on doing some excavation for a basement right away.

The Horton Hughlets moved to the place in Salem formerly owned by William Rutchman this week while the Rutchmans are moving to the place in this community which they purchased from Mr. Hughlett.

Jefferson

JEFFERSON, September 21.—C. H. Miller accompanied his little daughter, Lois, to Eugene Tuesday where she underwent an operation for eye trouble. Dr. Gulikoff performed the operation. It is reported that she is getting along nicely.

Miss Laura Kihl is spending the week at Hillcrest with Rev. and Mrs. G. Erskine. Erskines were former residents of Jefferson, Rev. Erskine being former pastor of the Evangelical church.

Harry Kiewley of Portland has been performing as mechanic with the Highway garage.

Mr. and Mrs. Seary and family of Moro, Oregon, have leased the Cooper home on the Pacific highway. Mr. Seary is employed by the S. P. R. R. company.

Mr. and Mrs. August Kroeschel of Albany are making an extended stay at the home of Mrs. Kroeschel's mother, Mrs. Rosa Buchanan.

Mrs. Paul McKee went to Eugene Wednesday to spend the day with her niece, Lois Miller, at the hospital.

D. M. Burnett has purchased the E. J. Shumaker property in the north end of town, which will be occupied by Mr. Fellows, who has leased the fruit and berry ranch of Mr. Burnett.

Mr. and Mrs. William Moses of Salem were looking after their property south of town Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Gatchel have leased the Koster home, recently vacated by the Hixson family and will take possession at once.

Macleay

MACLEAY, September 21.—Mary Anna Baker from California is visiting her brother, Wm. A. Taylor.

Martha Plainer of Baker, Oregon, who used to live in this community in her girlhood is visiting at the home of H. E. Martin. Olive Beardsley and Harry Martin also Marvina Wells have been baling hay and straw recently.

Fanny Morris is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Clair Strawn.

Robert Clark's mother, who is spending a few days visiting her son, was a caller at the Harry E. Martin home Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell M. Lambert and son, Lawrence, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. U. M. Lambert, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard E. Hackett of Salem were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy V. Hackett Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Purley motored to Kelso, Washington, on business recently.

Many students from this vicinity are attending Ames Davis high school which commenced Monday. There are a number of students staying out the first two weeks on account of prune picking.

Harry E. Martin and Marvin E. Wells were busy the last couple weeks filling silos.

Anne Engbert returned home Monday evening. She has been visiting friends at Clear Lake.

Maxine Dalrymple returned home Monday evening from Tonawalla and Sutherland where she has been visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Fay Collins of Salem drove out to Macleay Monday evening.

Zena

ZENA, Sept. 21.—Miss Dorothy Shepard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Shepard of Zena returned Sunday from Seaside. Miss Shepard has spent this week and several previous summers at Seaside.

Walker Purvine and H. Merrick left here by motor Friday morning and went to Pendleton to attend the round-up.

Ruth Shepard has just returned from a weeks vacation at Neskevin. While there she was the guest of Mrs. Applewhite and daughter of West Salem, who have a summer cottage at Neskevin.

James A. French of Zena has been busy several days this week in Salem doing carpenter work for his brother John French who is remodeling the Dixie lunch on High street.

The J. J. Stratton clover huller was in this district this week and hulled clover for Gus Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Crawford and three children, Robert, Alice and Wilma returned from the Hartley and Craig hop yard, located south of Salem, Monday afternoon. Mr. Crawford and Robert were firemen under W. R. Edwards of Lincoln who was driver at the hop houses. Mr. Edwards has been drying hops for Hartley and Craig 13 consecutive seasons.

Mrs. W. R. Edwards left here Thursday for Ocean Lake to visit her daughter, Miss Elnora Edwards who has spent the greater portion of her summer vacation at "Roads End" picking peas for D. Hendricks. Miss Fay Walling accompanied Mrs. Edwards on her trip.

Brooks

BROOKS, September 21.—Mr. and Mrs. Herick McLeod of Cripple Creek, Colorado, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Ashbaugh and family. Mr. McLeod is a brother of Mrs. Ashbaugh.

Mrs. John Dunlavy and daughter, Miss Marie Dunlavy, and Rev. D. George Cole were recent guests at the home of Mrs. Dunlavy's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Naylor in Gervais. Other guests at the Naylor home were Mr. and Mrs. Leon Judd and daughters, Misses Valda and Kreta Judd of Molalla, Mrs. Carl Bremner of Clifton, Mrs. C. D. Naylor of Brooks, Mrs. M. E. Katten, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Phelps of Portland, and Mrs. Mary McClard of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Donally and Mr. Donally's sister, Miss Estie Donally of Missoula, Montana, were guests of their great uncle, A. E. Harris and family recently. Other guests at the Harris home were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Withnell and son, Harold of Williams.

Miss Ellen Hackitt and her nephew, Robert Geyer, and Miss Helen Wright of Portland, Mr. Macy is employed by the Francis Motor company in Portland.

Recent dinner guests at the

Hazel Green

HAZEL GREEN, Sept. 21.—School will begin September 30. Mrs. Flora Hedrick, principal, and Miss Alma Stauffer primary, New desks and a furnace have been installed.

Elmer and Earl and Frank, Jr., are spending two weeks at Newport.

The Kat Rabbit club held a business meeting at the G. G. Looney home Friday evening. They are to exhibit at the State fair. Members present were, Clarence Zellinski, Lewis Zellinski, Cecil Luckey, Sanford Davis, Arthur Clemens, Glen Looney, G. G. Looney leader.

Ben Clemens and daughter, Miss Ellen, have returned from a month's visit with relatives and friends in Iowa and Dakota. He purchased a car and drove home.

Glendale, Oregon, where he spent the summer in the mountains with his son, B. W. Looney.

The officers of Sunday school will be installed and a partial report of the annual conference will be given by the delegate September 22.

Fred Haselbach, Sr., has remodeled the barn and put a cement floor in the cellar for G. G. Looney.

Mr. McKueston and family of Hood River, are visiting their son-in-law, Joseph Bennett.

Max Wood filled his silo with corn Tuesday.

Kingwood

KINGWOOD, September 21.—Mrs. Jean Simmons, her little daughter, Patty and Harold Mace, all of Spokane, have been spending a week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Bernard, Mr. Mace and Mrs. Simmons were quietly married in Salem Tuesday. They are still with the Bernards and may stay in or near Salem if Mr. Mace can find suitable employment.

Mr. and Mrs. Arch Sausman of Portland were guests at the M. P. Brown home on Cascade Drive Tuesday and Wednesday.

Dr. and Mrs. Williams and son, David, who have been spending the summer on their place at Airle, have returned to their home in Kingwood. David will attend high school in Salem this year.

W. A. Garner fell and hurt himself quite seriously recently. He was confined to his bed for several days but is now able to be around again.

Ed Finley arrived home Wednesday from the Lake Brook hop ranch in Marion county, where he had been employed as yard man for the first four weeks. He will go to work soon in Mrs. E. W. St. Pierre's prune drier.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Smith, with W. J. Filler of West Salem, drove to Lyons Wednesday morning. Mr. Smith has timber interests there and the fall of smoke visible in that direction alarmed him. He was relieved to find that the fire was not near his property.

Harry Travis, a former resident of this neighborhood, has been greeting friends here. He drove through Tuesday from his home near Grants Pass, bringing with him his son, Melvin, who will continue his studies at the Salem high school. This is Melvin's sophomore year. Travis brought with him some very fine melons which he raised on his southern Oregon ranch, and gave them to friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Brown were weekend guests of Mrs. Brown's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Egan in Portland.

Mrs. A. L. Applewhite and her daughter, Catherine, came home

Auburn

AUBURN, September 21.—Mr. and Mrs. Austin Wilson have moved into the home of Mr. and Mrs. August Grimm, who are Mrs. Wilson's parents.

Walter Mathey is installing a modern and complete electric water system.

The Auburn school will open Monday, September 30, with Mrs. Nellie Hammer principal, and Mrs. Beulah Fisher, teacher of the junior room.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Armstrong and family gave Kathleen Lindbeck a pleasant surprise Monday evening, when they walked into her home laden with a freezer of ice cream and cakes, in honor of her 15th birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. DeLap and daughter Wilmet, who have been guests of their brother, Jo DeLap, left yesterday for their home in Klamath Falls, where DeLap is county clerk. They have also been visiting their son Virgil DeLap, who is a public accountant in Portland.

Ross Clark is making extensive improvements to his new ranch here. He is remodeling his residence and has erected a new double garage, and has also enlarged his rabbitry. He is raising the Western Fur, thoroughbred chickens and is exhibiting same in finch pens at the state fair next week.

Brooks

BROOKS, September 21.—Mr. and Mrs. Herick McLeod of Cripple Creek, Colorado, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Ashbaugh and family. Mr. McLeod is a brother of Mrs. Ashbaugh.

Mrs. John Dunlavy and daughter, Miss Marie Dunlavy, and Rev. D. George Cole were recent guests at the home of Mrs. Dunlavy's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Naylor in Gervais. Other guests at the Naylor home were Mr. and Mrs. Leon Judd and daughters, Misses Valda and Kreta Judd of Molalla, Mrs. Carl Bremner of Clifton, Mrs. C. D. Naylor of Brooks, Mrs. M. E. Katten, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Phelps of Portland, and Mrs. Mary McClard of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Donally and Mr. Donally's sister, Miss Estie Donally of Missoula, Montana, were guests of their great uncle, A. E. Harris and family recently. Other guests at the Harris home were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Withnell and son, Harold of Williams.

Miss Ellen Hackitt and her nephew, Robert Geyer, and Miss Helen Wright of Portland, Mr. Macy is employed by the Francis Motor company in Portland.

Recent dinner guests at the

Hazel Green

HAZEL GREEN, Sept. 21.—School will begin September 30. Mrs. Flora Hedrick, principal, and Miss Alma Stauffer primary, New desks and a furnace have been installed.

Elmer and Earl and Frank, Jr., are spending two weeks at Newport.

The Kat Rabbit club held a business meeting at the G. G. Looney home Friday evening. They are to exhibit at the State fair. Members present were, Clarence Zellinski, Lewis Zellinski, Cecil Luckey, Sanford Davis, Arthur Clemens, Glen Looney, G. G. Looney leader.

Ben Clemens and daughter, Miss Ellen, have returned from a month's visit with relatives and friends in Iowa and Dakota. He purchased a car and drove home.

Glendale, Oregon, where he spent the summer in the mountains with his son, B. W. Looney.

The officers of Sunday school will be installed and a partial report of the annual conference will be given by the delegate September 22.

Fred Haselbach, Sr., has remodeled the barn and put a cement floor in the cellar for G. G. Looney.

Mr. McKueston and family of Hood River, are visiting their son-in-law, Joseph Bennett.

Max Wood filled his silo with corn Tuesday.

Kingwood

KINGWOOD, September 21.—Mrs. Jean Simmons, her little daughter, Patty and Harold Mace, all of Spokane, have been spending a week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Bernard, Mr. Mace and Mrs. Simmons were quietly married in Salem Tuesday. They are still with the Bernards and may stay in or near Salem if Mr. Mace can find suitable employment.

Mr. and Mrs. Arch Sausman of Portland were guests at the M. P. Brown home on Cascade Drive Tuesday and Wednesday.

Dr. and Mrs. Williams and son, David, who have been spending the summer on their place at Airle, have returned to their home in Kingwood. David will attend high school in Salem this year.

W. A. Garner fell and hurt himself quite seriously recently. He was confined to his bed for several days but is now able to be around again.

Ed Finley arrived home Wednesday from the Lake Brook hop ranch in Marion county, where he had been employed as yard man for the first four weeks. He will go to work soon in Mrs. E. W. St. Pierre's prune drier.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Smith, with W. J. Filler of West Salem, drove to Lyons Wednesday morning. Mr. Smith has timber interests there and the fall of smoke visible in that direction alarmed him. He was relieved to find that the fire was not near his property.

Harry Travis, a former resident of this neighborhood, has been greeting friends here. He drove through Tuesday from his home near Grants Pass, bringing with him his son, Melvin, who will continue his studies at the Salem high school. This is Melvin's sophomore year. Travis brought with him some very fine melons which he raised on his southern Oregon ranch, and gave them to friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Brown were weekend guests of Mrs. Brown's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Egan in Portland.

Mrs. A. L. Applewhite and her daughter, Catherine, came home

Macleay

MACLEAY, September 21.—Mary Anna Baker from California is visiting her brother, Wm. A. Taylor.

Martha Plainer of Baker, Oregon, who used to live in this community in her girlhood is visiting at the home of H. E. Martin. Olive Beardsley and Harry Martin also Marvina Wells have been baling hay and straw recently.

Fanny Morris is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Clair Strawn.

Robert Clark's mother, who is spending a few days visiting her son, was a caller at the Harry E. Martin home Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell M. Lambert and son, Lawrence, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. U. M. Lambert, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard E. Hackett of Salem were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy V. Hackett Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Purley motored to Kelso, Washington, on business recently.

Many students from this vicinity are attending Ames Davis high school which commenced Monday. There are a number of students staying out the first two weeks on account of prune picking.

Harry E. Martin and Marvin E. Wells were busy the last couple weeks filling silos.

Anne Engbert returned home Monday evening. She has been visiting friends at Clear Lake.

Maxine Dalrymple returned home Monday evening from Tonawalla and Sutherland where she has been visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Fay Collins of Salem drove out to Macleay Monday evening.

Zena

ZENA, Sept. 21.—Miss Dorothy Shepard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Shepard of Zena returned Sunday from Seaside. Miss Shepard has spent this week and several previous summers at Seaside.

Walker Purvine and H. Merrick left here by motor Friday morning and went to Pendleton to attend the round-up.

Ruth Shepard has just returned from a weeks vacation at Neskevin. While there she was the guest of Mrs. Applewhite and daughter of West Salem, who have a summer cottage at Neskevin.

James A. French of Zena has been busy several days this week in Salem doing carpenter work for his brother John French who is remodeling the Dixie lunch on High street.

The J. J. Stratton clover huller was in this district this week and hulled clover for Gus Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Crawford and three children, Robert, Alice and Wilma returned from the Hartley and Craig hop yard, located south of Salem, Monday afternoon. Mr. Crawford and Robert were firemen under W. R. Edwards of Lincoln who was driver at the hop houses. Mr. Edwards has been drying hops for Hartley and Craig 13 consecutive seasons.

Mrs. W. R. Edwards left here Thursday for Ocean Lake to visit her daughter, Miss Elnora Edwards who has spent the greater portion of her summer vacation at "Roads End" picking peas for D. Hendricks. Miss Fay Walling accompanied Mrs. Edwards on her trip.

Brooks

BROOKS, September 21.—Mr. and Mrs. Herick McLeod of Cripple Creek, Colorado, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Ashbaugh and family. Mr. McLeod is a brother of Mrs. Ashbaugh.

Mrs. John Dunlavy and daughter, Miss Marie Dunlavy, and Rev. D. George Cole were recent guests at the home of Mrs. Dunlavy's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Naylor in Gervais. Other guests at the Naylor home were Mr. and Mrs. Leon Judd and daughters, Misses Valda and Kreta Judd of Molalla, Mrs. Carl Bremner of Clifton, Mrs. C. D. Naylor of Brooks, Mrs. M. E. Katten, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Phelps of Portland, and Mrs. Mary McClard of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Donally and Mr. Donally's sister, Miss Estie Donally of Missoula, Montana, were guests of their great uncle, A. E. Harris and family recently. Other guests at the Harris home were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Withnell and son, Harold of Williams.

Miss Ellen Hackitt and her nephew, Robert Geyer, and Miss Helen Wright of Portland, Mr. Macy is employed by the Francis Motor company in Portland.

Recent dinner guests at the

Hazel Green

HAZEL GREEN, Sept. 21.—School will begin September 30. Mrs. Flora Hedrick, principal, and Miss Alma Stauffer primary, New desks and a furnace have been installed.

Elmer and Earl and Frank, Jr., are spending two weeks at Newport.

The Kat Rabbit club held a business meeting at the G. G. Looney home Friday evening. They are to exhibit at the State fair. Members present were, Clarence Zellinski, Lewis Zellinski, Cecil Luckey, Sanford Davis, Arthur Clemens, Glen Looney, G. G. Looney leader.

Ben Clemens and daughter, Miss Ellen, have returned from a month's visit with relatives and friends in Iowa and Dakota. He purchased a car and drove home.

Glendale, Oregon, where he spent the summer in the mountains with his son, B. W. Looney.

The officers of Sunday school will be installed and a partial report of the annual conference will be given by the delegate September 22.

Fred Haselbach, Sr., has remodeled the barn and put a cement floor in the cellar for G. G. Looney.

Mr. McKueston and family of Hood River, are visiting their son-in-law, Joseph Bennett.

Max Wood filled his silo with corn Tuesday.

Kingwood

KINGWOOD, September 21.—Mrs. Jean Simmons, her little daughter, Patty and Harold Mace, all of Spokane, have been spending a week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Bernard, Mr. Mace and Mrs. Simmons were quietly married in Salem Tuesday. They are still with the Bernards and may stay in or near Salem if Mr. Mace can find suitable employment.

Mr. and Mrs. Arch Sausman of Portland were guests at the M. P. Brown home on Cascade Drive Tuesday and Wednesday.

Dr. and Mrs. Williams and son, David, who have been spending the summer on their place at Airle, have returned to their home in Kingwood. David will attend high school in Salem this year.

W. A. Garner fell and hurt himself quite seriously recently. He was confined to his bed for several days but is now able to be around again.

Ed Finley arrived home Wednesday from the Lake Brook hop ranch in Marion county, where he had been employed as yard man for the first four weeks. He will go to work soon in Mrs. E. W. St. Pierre's prune drier.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Smith, with W. J. Filler of West Salem, drove to Lyons Wednesday morning. Mr. Smith has timber interests there and the fall of smoke visible in that direction alarmed him. He was relieved to find that the fire was not near his property.

Harry Travis, a former resident of this neighborhood, has been greeting friends here. He drove through Tuesday from his home near Grants Pass, bringing with him his son, Melvin, who will continue his studies at the Salem high school. This is Melvin's sophomore year. Travis brought with him some very fine melons which he raised on his southern Oregon ranch, and gave them to friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Brown were weekend guests of Mrs. Brown's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Egan in Portland.

Mrs. A. L. Applewhite and her daughter, Catherine, came home

Macleay

MACLEAY, September 21.—Mary Anna Baker from California is visiting her brother, Wm. A. Taylor.

Martha Plainer of Baker, Oregon, who used to live in this community in her girlhood is visiting at the home of H. E. Martin. Olive Beardsley and Harry Martin also Marvina Wells have been baling hay and straw recently.

Fanny Morris is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Clair Strawn.

Robert Clark's mother, who is spending a few days visiting her son, was a caller at the Harry E. Martin home Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell M. Lambert and son, Lawrence, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. U. M. Lambert, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard E. Hackett of Salem were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy V. Hackett Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Purley motored to Kelso, Washington, on business recently.

Many students from this vicinity are attending Ames Davis high school which commenced Monday. There are a number of students staying out the first two weeks on account of prune picking.

Harry E. Martin and Marvin E. Wells were busy the last couple weeks filling silos.

Anne Engbert returned home Monday evening. She has been visiting friends at Clear Lake.

Maxine Dalrymple returned home Monday evening from Tonawalla and Sutherland where she has been visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Fay Collins of Salem drove out to Macleay Monday evening.

Zena

ZENA, Sept. 21.—Miss Dorothy Shepard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Shepard of Zena returned Sunday from Seaside. Miss Shepard has spent this week and several previous summers at Seaside.

Walker Purvine and H. Merrick left here by motor Friday morning and went to Pendleton to attend the round-up.

Ruth Shepard has just returned from a weeks vacation at Neskevin. While there she was the guest of Mrs. Applewhite and daughter of West Salem, who have a summer cottage at Neskevin.

James A. French of Zena has been busy several days this week in Salem doing carpenter work for his brother John French who is remodeling the Dixie lunch on High street.

The J. J. Stratton clover huller was in this district this week and hulled clover for Gus Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Crawford and three children, Robert, Alice and Wilma returned from the Hartley and Craig hop yard, located south of Salem, Monday afternoon. Mr. Crawford and Robert were firemen under W. R. Edwards of Lincoln who was driver at the hop houses. Mr. Edwards has been drying hops for Hartley and Craig 13 consecutive seasons.

Mrs. W. R. Edwards left here Thursday for Ocean Lake to visit her daughter, Miss Elnora Edwards who has spent the greater portion of her summer vacation at "Roads End" picking peas for D. Hendricks. Miss Fay Walling accompanied Mrs. Edwards on her trip.

Brooks

BROOKS, September 21.—Mr. and Mrs. Herick McLeod of Cripple Creek, Colorado, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Ashbaugh and family. Mr. McLeod is a brother of Mrs. Ashbaugh.

Mrs. John Dunlavy and daughter, Miss Marie Dunlavy, and Rev. D. George Cole were recent guests at the home of Mrs. Dunlavy's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Naylor in Gervais. Other guests at the Naylor home were Mr. and Mrs. Leon Judd and daughters, Misses Valda and Kreta Judd of Molalla, Mrs. Carl Bremner of Clifton, Mrs. C. D. Naylor of Brooks, Mrs. M. E. Katten, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Phelps of Portland, and Mrs. Mary McClard of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Donally and Mr. Donally's sister, Miss Estie Donally of Missoula, Montana, were guests of their great uncle, A. E. Harris and family recently. Other guests at the Harris home were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Withnell and son, Harold of Williams.

Miss Ellen Hackitt and her nephew, Robert Geyer, and Miss Helen Wright of Portland, Mr. Macy is employed by the Francis Motor company in Portland.

Recent dinner guests at the

Hazel Green

HAZEL GREEN, Sept. 21.—School will begin September 30. Mrs. Flora Hedrick, principal, and Miss Alma Stauffer primary, New desks and a furnace have been installed.

Elmer and Earl and Frank, Jr., are spending two weeks at Newport.

The Kat Rabbit club held a business meeting at the G. G. Looney home Friday evening. They are to exhibit at the State fair. Members present were, Clarence Zellinski, Lewis Zellinski, Cecil Luckey, Sanford Davis, Arthur Clemens, Glen Looney, G. G. Looney leader.

Ben Clemens and daughter, Miss Ellen, have returned from a month's visit with relatives and friends in Iowa and Dakota. He purchased a car and drove home.

Glendale, Oregon, where he spent the summer in the mountains with his son, B. W. Looney.

The officers of Sunday school will be installed and a partial report of the annual conference will be given by the delegate September 22.

Fred Haselbach, Sr., has remodeled the barn and put a cement floor in the cellar for G. G. Looney.

Mr. McKueston and family of Hood River, are visiting their son-in-law, Joseph Bennett.

Max Wood filled his silo with corn Tuesday.

Kingwood

KINGWOOD, September 21.—Mrs. Jean Simmons, her little daughter, Patty and Harold Mace, all of Spokane, have been spending a week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Bernard, Mr. Mace and Mrs. Simmons were quietly married in Salem Tuesday. They are still with the Bernards and may stay in or near Salem if Mr. Mace can find suitable employment.

Mr. and Mrs. Arch Sausman of Portland were guests at the M. P. Brown home on Cascade Drive Tuesday and Wednesday.

Dr. and Mrs. Williams and son, David, who have been spending the summer on their place at Airle, have returned to their home in Kingwood. David will attend high school in Salem this year.

W. A. Garner fell and hurt himself quite seriously recently. He was confined to his bed for several days but is now able to be around again.

Ed Finley arrived home Wednesday from the Lake Brook hop ranch in Marion county, where he had been employed as yard man for the first four weeks. He will go to work soon in Mrs. E. W. St. Pierre's prune drier.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Smith, with W. J. Filler of West Salem, drove to Lyons Wednesday morning. Mr. Smith has timber interests there and the fall of smoke visible in that direction alarmed him. He was relieved to find that the fire was not near his property.

Harry Travis, a former resident of this neighborhood, has been greeting friends here. He drove through Tuesday from his home near Grants Pass, bringing with him his son, Melvin, who will continue his studies at the Salem high school. This is Melvin's sophomore year. Travis brought with him some very fine melons which he raised on his southern Oregon ranch,