

W. H. S. ALUMNI MEET FRIDAY

Annual Homecoming Event Largest in History Of School

WOODBURN, Sept. 21.—Woodburn high school held its fourth annual homecoming Friday night in the high school auditorium and greeted 85 alumni, the largest number ever attending this annual event.

After the prelude by Miss Elizabeth Miller the meeting was called to order by the student body president, Adrian Schooler, who was in charge of the program. Misses Jessie Sims and Mildred Smith, song queens for the year 1928-1929, led the assembly in a school song.

Adrian Schooler welcomed the alumni in behalf of the students of Woodburn high and Superintendent Bain gave his impression of the uniqueness of the homecomings at Woodburn high because the real spirit of homecoming was shown instead of having the main event a football game.

Ray Glatt, '12, gave a response in behalf of the alumni and told of the origin of the school colors, blue and white. John Kinns and Charles Byers played two saxophone duets accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Miller at the piano. Miss Naomi Van Cleave, student body secretary for 1928-1929, called the roll of the classes and alumni were present to represent the classes of '10, '12, '13, '14, '19, '21, '22, '23, '24, '25, '26, '27, '28 and '29.

Mrs. Ada Hughes Seely, '12, responded to her class numeral with a lovely poem about school day memories. Miss Ruth Michel, music instructor at the high school, sang, "Somewhere a Voice is Calling," accompanied by Miss Audrey Wiencken.

Past student body presidents who were in attendance and gave short talks were Franklin Tyler, '22, Howard Van Cleave, '26, Winfield Atkinson, '27, Rex Garrison, '28, and Winston Hunt, '29.

Following these talks, the song leaders led some patriotic songs and school songs. Ralph Nibler, and Leonard Gearin, assistant yell leaders for 1928-1929, led yells and Adrian Schooler gave a short talk on Woodburn high at the present time.

Misses Grace Shrock, Edith

Shrock and Opal Dickey sang as a "yell trio." "There's a Song in my Heart." Superintendent Bain introduced the speaker of the evening, Judge Arlie G. Walker, '12, of McMinnville, who gave an exceptionally interesting talk on Woodburn high years ago.

Miss Juanita Hicks sang "Just A Wearyin' for You," accompanied by Miss Rose Richards, John Nelson, '29, yell king for the year 1928-1929, led the group in a few yells after which the student body president awarded him a letter for yell king.

The meeting closed with "Auld Lang Syne" and many of the alumni remained in the halls renewing old acquaintances.

The alumni in attendance were: '10: Marie Shei Simmons; '12: Ada Hughes Seely; '13: A. G. Gatt; '14: Gladys Chappell; '19: A. G. Gatt; '21: Gladys Chappell; '22: Hattie S. # NEW BUILDING AT STAYTON

Terminal Station and Produce Company to Occupy It

STAYTON, Sept. 21.—A new building will be erected as soon as possible on the lot between Gehlin's and the Masonic Odd Fellows building.

The Stayton Produce company has moved temporarily into the part of the Gehlin building recently occupied by the second hand store and the work of tearing down the old building has commenced.

The lot has a thirty-five foot front and the building will be extended back about 70 feet. A concrete platform with a roof over it will be placed in the rear for a loading shed.

The building will be constructed of tile, with a brick front and a concrete floor, making it practically fire proof.

There will be a partition in the building and one side will be used by the Stayton Produce Company and the other by Wright's truck lines as a terminal station. The mason work will be done by the Van Handels and A. F. Schindler will have charge of the carpenter work.
