Those included in the guest list were the honor guest, Charles Kaufman, George Poor, Stephen Mergler, Eric Anderson and Wendell Keck.

Moore Fundamentals Are Taught Here

With the coming of fall and school opening, music will occupy a large place in the education of the child. Among the most modern and thorough systems which will be used in the city is the Moore Fundamental system used for both class and private teaching.

Its originator, Mrs. Clifford Moore of Portland, perfecting a system after years of successful teaching, studied experience, and thorough investigation which presents clearly and concisely the necessary knowledge in its logical sequence.

While it is not play or kindergarten work the subject matter is so arranged and worded that it can be presented to the youngest mind in an interesting, stimulating manner as well as satisfy the adult.

No terms are used which sooner or later must be relearned by their proper names.

A group of teachers known as the Salem Moore Fundamental group are opening their studios this month when pupils from preschool to advanced may be taught. Later they are arranging a public demonstration with the founder, Mrs. Moore, presiding.

A number of Salem young people are leaving this week-end for colleges and universities with the University of Oregon at Eugene and Oregon State college at Corvallis as the mecca for the majority.

Among Salem high school graduates who left Saturday or are leaving today for the first year at Corvallis are the Misses Dorothy White, Claudia Buntin, Margaret Drager, Esther Wood, Virginia Sisson, Erna Babcock, and Virginia Best. The Misses Frances Martin, Maxine Myers, Margaret Brown, Margaret Bean, Katherine Laughridge and Julia Creech are enrolling for their freshman year at the university.

A number of delightful affairs have entertained the girls during the past fortnight, and they are anticipating with even greater pleasure the many teas, dinners and dances which will mark the sorority rushing seasons at the larger school.

Mrs. Thomas Anderson and her daughter, Miss Sarah Anderson, of Tusculum, Alabama, left Friday afternoon after a week's visit with Mrs. Anderson's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Goodwin, in their home at the Royal Court apartments. Other guests of Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin during the past week have been Mrs. Goodwin's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Findley, of The Dalles.

Miss Margaret Bean and Miss Margaret Sims will be the guests of Mrs. E. L. Knapp of Eugene during the coming week. Miss Bean is entering the University of Oregon as a freshman, while Miss Sims is entering with junior standing.

Miss Goulet to Return Home Today

Miss Kathryn Goulet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Romeo Goulet, returns to Salem today after a two months' visit in California. Miss Goulet motored south in June with Mrs. Earl Krebs, whose guest she was for some time at the Carrick ranch near San Francisco. Miss Goulet later visited with relatives at Eversley Hills.

For the past month Miss Goulet has been the guest of her cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Kierski of San Francisco, while she has studied at the California Institute of Fine Arts at San Francisco.

Miss Smith Hostess For Maxine Myers

Miss Maxine Myers was the guest of honor at a garden bridge tea given in the F. N. Woody days on North Summer street Friday afternoon, when Miss Ruth Smith as hostess for the smart affair. Miss Myers leaves today for Eugene where she will enter the University of Oregon.

Miss Ruth Smith won the first prize for high honors, and the second prize went to Miss Mildred Roberts. At the tea hour, Miss Smith was assisted in serving by her mother, Mrs. Robert Mills, and by Miss Esther Wood, Miss Phyllis Day, Miss Mildred Roberts and Miss Julia Creech. A number of additional guests called at the tea hour.

INDEPENDENCE—Mrs. Virginia Heath, Mrs. Bertha Ferguson, Mrs. Gertrude Davidson, Mrs. Mary Fluke, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. McIntosh, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Barnhart and family, Mrs. Scrafton, Mrs. Alice Skinner, Mrs. Sarah Irvine and Mrs. C. Tetherow were guests at a picnic dinner in the Independence park Wednesday. Mrs. Cox, Mrs. Hillebrand and Mrs. Fluke, were the hostesses.

Miss Elizabeth Levy has received word that two of her former violin students have been selected as first violins in the noted orchestra conducted at the Haskell Indian Institute, Lawrence, Kansas. The girls, Berenice and Henrietta Blakeslee, graduated last year from the high school department at the Chemawa Indian school.

Church Group at Pickens' Home

The Women's Missionary society of the Calvary Baptist church met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. K. H. Pickens, with 39 members present. As this was a rally service, the program for the year was outlined, and the society pledged to increase their contribution to the church's benevolence fund.

Mrs. Stoddard led in the devotional services. The mission study for the afternoon was in charge of Mrs. G. Ed Ross, the topic being "Christian centers in our own land." Mrs. W. E. Taylor, Mrs. George King, Mrs. W. Foster, Mrs. McElhaney, Miss Mina Gile and Mrs. W. A. Barquist took part in the program. Readings were given by Alice Barquist and Stuart McElhaney, and a vocal duet offered by Mrs. Ruth Rhoten and Mrs. Charles Davis.

Prof. Gaw New Director of Club

At a meeting of the executive board of the MacDowell club Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. L. Phillips, Professor F. W. Gaw was selected as the new director of the choral section of the club. Prof. Gaw is the new head of the voice department at Willamette university. The first rehearsal of the club has been called for 7:30 o'clock, October 4, the place to be announced later.

Members of the executive board of the MacDowell club are Miss Frances Virginia Melton, Mrs. W. L. Phillips, Mrs. Sheldon F. Sackett, Mrs. C. L. Sherman and Mrs. Frank L. Lilburn.

The Schubert Chorale met Friday evening to plan their work for the coming year, beginning their seventh year of organization under the direction of Minnetta Magers. The group has given concerts at the civic auditorium and little theatre in Portland and have appeared on Chautauqua and state fair programs.

Mrs. Beatrice Crawford Newcomb and daughter Joan left this week for Buffalo, New York to stay several months. Relatives in Salem received word from Mrs. Newcomb on Saturday that they had reached Salt Lake City and were having a very delightful trip. They are making the journey by automobile.
